princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

7 O Lord, righteousness ^abelongeth unto thee, but unto us confusion of faces, as at this day; to the men of Jū'dah, and to the inhabitants of Jē-ry'sā-lēm, and unto all Is'ra-el, that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee.

8 O Lord, to us ^bbelongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee.

9 To the Lord our God ^cbelong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him;

10 Neither have we obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets.

11 Yea, all Is'ra-el have transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; therefore the curse is ^dpoured upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Mō'ses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him.

12 And he ^ehath confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jē-ry'sā-lēm.

13 As it is written in the law of Mō'ses, all this evil is come upon us: yet ^fmade we not our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth.

14 Therefore hath the LORD watched upon the evil, and brought it upon us: for the LORD our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth: for we obeyed not his voice.

15 And now, O Lord our God, that hast brought thy people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and hast ^ggotten thee renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly.

16 ¶ O Lord, according to all thy righteousness, I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city Jē-ry'sā-lēm, thy holy mountain: because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jē-ry'sā-lēm and thy people are become a reproach to all that are about us.

17 Now therefore, O our God, hear the prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, and cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord's sake.

18 O my God, incline thine ear, and hear; open thine eyes, and behold our desolations, and the city ¹⁸which is called by thy name: for we do not ¹⁹present our supplications before thee for our righteousnesses, but for thy great mercies.

19 O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, hearken and do; defer not, for thine own sake, O my God: for thy city and thy people are called by thy name.

20 ¶ And whiles I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Is'ra-el, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God for the holy mountain of my God;

21 Yea, whiles I was speaking in prayer, even the man Gā'brī-el, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly ²¹swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening oblation.

22 And he informed me, and talked with me, and said, O Dān'iel, I am now come forth ²²to give thee skill and understanding.

23 At the beginning of thy supplications the ²³commandment came forth, and I am come to shew thee; for thou art ²⁴greatly beloved: therefore understand the matter, and consider the vision.

24 ²⁵Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, ²⁶to finish the transgression, and ²⁷to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and ²⁸prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy.

25 Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment ²⁹to restore and to build Jē-ru'sā-lēm unto the Mēs-si'ah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street ³⁰shall be built again, and the ³¹wall, even ³²in troublous times.

26 And after threescore and two weeks ³³shall Mēs-si'ah be cut off, ³⁴but not for himself: ³⁵and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war ³⁶desolations are determined.

27 And he shall confirm ³⁷the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation

CHAPTER 10.

Daniel seeth a glorious vision.

IN the third year of Cŷrus king of Pēr'sia a thing was revealed unto Dān'iel, whose name was called Bēl-tē-shāz'zar; and the thing was true, but the time appointed was ¹long: and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision.

2 In those days I Dān'iel was mourning three ²full weeks.

3 I ate no ³pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled.

4 And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is ⁴Hid'de-kei;

5 Then I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold ⁵a certain man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with fine gold of Ū'phāz:

6 His body also was like the beryl, and his face ⁶as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in colour to polished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude.

7 And I Dān'iel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves.

8 Therefore I was left alone, and ⁸saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my ⁹comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength.

9 Yet heard I the voice of his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I in a deep sleep on my face, and my face toward the ⁹ground.

10 ¶ And, behold, an hand touched me, which ¹⁰set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands.

11 And he said unto me, O Dān'iel, ¹¹a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and ¹²stand upright: for unto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood trembling.

12 Then said he unto me, ¹²Fear not, Dān'iel: for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words.

13 But the prince of the kingdom of Pēr'sjā withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, Mī'chaēl,¹⁰ one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Pēr'sjā.

14 Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the latter days: for yet the vision is for many days.

15 And when he had spoken such words unto me, I set my face toward the ground, and I became dumb.

16 And, behold, one like the similitude of the sons of men ^a touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength.

17 For how can ¹¹ the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me.

18 Then there came again and touched me one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me, 19 And said, O man greatly beloved, ¹ fear not: peace be unto thee, be strong, yea, be strong. And when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me.

20 Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee? and now will I return to ¹ fight with the prince of Pēr'sjā: and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of Grē'cja shall come.

21 But I will shew thee that which is noted in the scripture of truth: and there is none that ¹² holdeth with me in these things, but Mī'chaēl your prince.

ALSO I ^a in the first year of ^b Dārīus the Mēde, even I, stood to confirm and to strengthen him.

2 And now will I shew thee the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Pēr'sjā; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and by his strength through his riches he shall stir up all against the realm of Grē'cja.

3 And ^a a mighty king shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and ^a do according to his will.

heaven; and not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion which he ruled: for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others beside those.

5 ¶ And the king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion.

6 And in the end of years they ¹ shall join themselves together; for the king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make ² an agreement: but she shall not retain the power of the arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm: but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and ³ he that begat her, and he that strengthened her in these times.

7 But out of a branch of her roots shall one stand up ⁴ in his estate, which shall come with an army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail:

8 And shall also carry captives into E'gypt their gods, with their princes, and with ⁵ their precious vessels of silver and of gold; and he shall continue more years than the king of the north.

9 So the king of the south shall come into his kingdom, and shall return into his own land.

10 But his sons ⁶ shall be stirred up, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces: and one shall certainly come, ^a and overflow, and pass through: ⁷ then shall he return, and be stirred up, even to his fortress.

11 And the king of the south shall be moved with choler, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north: and he shall set forth a great multitude; but the multitude shall be given into his hand.

12 And when he hath taken away the multitude, his ^a heart shall be lifted up; and he shall cast down many ten thousands: but he shall not be strengthened by it.

13 For the king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come ^a after certain years with a great army and with much riches.

14 And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also ^a the robbers of thy people shall exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fail.

15 So the king of the north shall come, ^a and cast up a mount, and take ¹⁰ the most fenced cities: and the ⁹ arms of the south shall not withstand, neither ¹¹ his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to withstand.

16 But he that cometh against him shall do according to his own will, and ¹⁴ none shall stand before him: and he shall stand in the ¹² glorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed.

17 He shall also ¹ set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and ¹³ upright ones with him; thus shall he do: and he shall give him the daughter of women, ¹⁴ corrupting her: but she shall not stand on his side, ¹⁵ neither be for him.

18 After this shall he turn his face unto the isles, and shall take many: but a prince ¹⁶ for his own behalf shall cause ¹⁰ the reproach offered by him to cease; without his own reproach he shall cause it to turn upon him.

19 Then he shall turn his face toward the fort of his own land: but he shall stumble and fall, ¹⁷ and not be found.

20 Then shall stand up ¹⁷ in his estate ¹⁸ a raiser of taxes in the glory of the kingdom: but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in ¹⁹ anger, nor in battle.

21 And ²⁰ in his estate ¹⁹ shall stand up a vile person, to whom they shall not give the honour of the kingdom: but he shall come in peaceably, and ²¹ obtain the kingdom by flatteries.

22 And with the arms of a flood shall ²² they be overflowed from before him, and shall be broken; ²³ yea, also the prince of the covenant.

23 And after the league ²⁴ made with him he shall work deceitfully: for he shall come up, and shall become strong with a small people.

24 He shall enter ²⁵ peaceably even upon the fattest places of the province; and he shall do ²⁶ that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and riches: ²⁷ yea, and he shall ²⁸ forecast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time.

25 And ²⁹ he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand: for they shall forecast devices against him.

26 Yea, they that ³⁰ feed of the portion of his meat shall destroy him, LORD by Hō-gē'a. And the LORD said to Hō-gē'a, Go, take unto thee a wife of whoredoms and children of whoredoms: for ^a the land hath committed great whoredom, departing from the LORD.

3 So he went and took Gō'mer the daughter of Dīb-lā-im; which conceived, and bare him a son.

4 And the LORD said unto him, Call his name Jêz're-el; for yet a little while, and I will ¹avenge the blood of Jêz're-el upon the house of Jê'hû, and will cause to cease the kingdom of the house of Is'ra-el.

5 And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will break the bow of Is'ra-el in the valley of Jêz're-el.

6 ¶ And she conceived again, and bare a daughter. And God said unto him, Call her name ²Lô-ru'hâ-mah; for ³I will no more have mercy upon the house of Is'ra-el; ⁴but I will utterly take them away.

7 But I will have mercy upon the house of Jû'dah, and will save them by the LORD their God, and will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen.

8 ¶ Now when she had weaned Lô-ru'hâ-mah, she conceived, and bare a son.

9 Then said God, Call his name ⁵Lô-âm'mi: for ye are not my people, and I will not be your God.

10 ¶ Yet ⁶the number of the children of Is'ra-el shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; and it shall come to pass, that ⁷in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are ⁸the sons of the living God.

11 Then shall the children of Jû'dah and the children of Is'ra-el be gathered together, and appoint themselves one head, and they shall come up out of the land: for great shall be the day of Jêz're-el.

SAY ye unto your brethren, ¹Âm'mi; and to your sisters, ²Rû'hâ-mah.

2 Plead with your mother, plead: for ³she is not my wife, neither am I her husband: let her therefore put away her ⁴whoredoms out of her sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts;

3 Lest ⁵I strip her naked, and set her as in the day that she was born, and make her ⁶as a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with ⁷thirst.

4 And I will not have mercy upon her children; for they be the children of whoredoms.

5 For their mother hath played the harlot: she that conceived them hath done shamefully: for she said, I will go after my lovers, ⁸that give

8 For she did not know that I gave her corn, and ¹⁴wine, and oil, and multiplied her silver and gold, ¹⁵which they prepared for Bâ'al.

9 Therefore will I return, and take away my corn in the time thereof, and my wine in the season thereof, and will ¹⁶recover my wool and my flax given to cover her nakedness.

10 And now will I discover her ¹⁷lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of mine hand.

13 And I will visit upon her ²⁰the days of Bâ'al-îm, wherein she burned incense to them, and she ²¹decked herself with her earrings and her jewels, and she went after her lovers, and forgot me, saith the LORD.

14 ¶ Therefore, behold, I will allure her, and ²²bring her into the wilderness, and speak ²³comfortably unto her.

20 I will even betroth thee unto me in faithfulness: and *thou shalt know the LORD.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, *I will hear, saith the LORD, I will hear the heavens, and they shall hear the earth;

22 And the earth shall hear the corn, and the wine, and the oil; and they shall hear Jĕz're-el.

23 And *I will sow her unto me in the earth; and I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy; and I *will say to them which were not my people, Thou art my people; and they shall say, Thou art my God.

CHAPTER 3.

The desolation of Israel foreseen.

THEN said the LORD unto me, Go yet, love a woman beloved of her friend, yet an adulteress, according to the love of the LORD toward the children of Is'ra-el, who look to other gods, and love flagons ¹ of wine.

2 So I bought her to me for fifteen pieces of silver, and for an homer of barley, and an ²half homer of barley:

3 And I said unto her, Thou shalt *abide for me many days; thou shalt not play the harlot, and thou shalt not be for another man: so will I also be for thee.

4 For the children of Is'ra-el shall abide many days without a king, and without a prince, and without a sacrifice, and without ³an image, and without an ⁴ephod, and without teraphim:

5 Afterward shall the children of Is'ra-el return, and *seek the LORD their God, and ⁴Dā'vid their king; and shall fear the LORD and his goodness in the ⁵latter days.

ing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they break out, and ¹blood toucheth blood.

3 Therefore *shall the land mourn, and ²every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away.

4 Yet let no man strive, nor reprove another: for thy people are as they ³that strive with the priest.

5 Therefore shalt thou fall ⁴in the day, and the prophet also shall fall with thee in the night, and I will ⁵destroy thy mother.

6 ¶ ⁶My people are ⁷destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

7 As they were increased, so they sinned against me: therefore will I change their glory into shame.

8 They eat up the sin of my people, and they ⁸set their heart on their iniquity.

9 And there shall be, like people, like priest: and I will ⁹punish them for their ways, and ¹⁰reward them their doings.

10 For ¹¹they shall eat, and not have enough: they shall commit whoredom, and shall not increase: because they have left off to take heed to the LORD.

11 Whoredom and wine and new wine ¹²take away the heart.

12 ¶ My people ask counsel at their ¹³stocks, and their staff declareth unto them: for ¹⁴the spirit of whoredoms hath caused them to err, and they have gone ¹⁵a whoring from under their God.

13 They sacrifice upon the tops of the mountains, and burn incense upon the hills, under oaks and poplars and elms, ¹⁶cause the shadow thereof is good: therefore your daughters shall commit whoredom, and your spouses shall commit adultery.

14 ¹⁷I will not punish your daughters when they commit whoredom, nor your spouses when they commit adultery: for themselves are separated with whores, and they sacrifice with harlots: therefore the people that doth not understand shall ¹⁸fall.

15 ¶ Though thou, Is'ra-el, play the harlot, yet let not Jū'dah offend; ¹⁹and come not ye unto Gil'gal, neither go ye up to ²⁰Bēth-ā-ven, ²¹nor swear, The LORD liveth.

16 For Is'ra-el slideth back as a backsliding heifer: now the LORD will feed them as a lamb in a large place.

17 E'phrā-im is joined to idols: let him alone.

18 Their drink ¹⁰is sour: they have committed whoredom continually: her ¹¹rulers with shame do love, Give ye.

19 The wind hath bound her up in her wings, and they shall be ashamed because of their sacrifices.

CHAPTER 5.

God's judgments against Israel.

HEAR ye this, O priests; and hearken, ye house of Is'ra-el; and give ye ear, O house of the king, for judgment is toward you, because ye have been a snare on Miz'pah, and a net spread upon Tā'bôr.

2 And the revolvers are profound to make slaughter, ¹though I have been a rebuker of them all.

3 I know E'phrā-im, and Is'ra-el is not hid from me: for now, O E'phrā-im, thou committest whoredom, and Is'ra-el is defiled.

4 They will not frame their doings to turn unto their God: for the spirit of whoredoms is in the midst of them, and they have not known the LORD.

5 And the pride of Is'ra-el doth testify to his face: therefore shall Is'ra-el and E'phrā-im fall in their iniquity; Jū'dah also shall fall with them.

6 They shall go with their flocks and with their herds to seek the LORD; but they shall not find him, he hath withdrawn himself from them.

7 They have dealt treacherously against the LORD: for they have begotten strange children: now shall a month devour them with their portions.

8 Blow ye the cornet in Gīb'e-ah, and the trumpet in Rā'mah: cry aloud at Bēth-ā'ven, after thee, O Bēn'ja-min.

9 E'phrā-im shall be desolate in the day of rebuke: among the tribes of Is'ra-el have I made known that which shall surely be.

10 The princes of Jū'dah were like them that remove the bound: therefore I will pour out my wrath upon them like water.

11 E'phrā-im is oppressed and broken in judgment, because he willingly walked after the commandment.

12 Therefore will I be unto E'phrā-im as a moth, and to the house of Jū'dah as rottenness.

14 For I will be unto E'phrā-im as a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Jū'dah: I, even I, will tear and go away; I will take away, and none shall rescue him.

15 ¶ I will go and return to my place, ⁵till they acknowledge their offence, and seek my face: in their affliction they will seek me early.

CHAPTER 6.

God exhorteth Israel to repentance

COME, and let us return unto the LORD. for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

2 After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight.

3 Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us ⁴as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth.

4 ¶ O E'phrā-im, what shall I do unto thee? O Jū'dah, what shall I do unto thee? for your ¹goodness is as a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goeth away.

5 Therefore have I hewed them ⁶by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth: ⁷and thy judgments are as the light that goeth forth.

6 For I desired ⁸mercy, and ⁹not sacrifice; and the ¹⁰knowledge of God more than burnt offerings.

7 But they ¹¹like men have transgressed the covenant: there have they dealt treacherously against me.

8 Gīb'e-ah is a city of them that work iniquity, and is ⁴polluted with blood.

9 And as troops of robbers wait for a man, so the company of priests murder in the way ⁶by consent: for they commit ⁷lewdness.

10 I have seen an horrible thing in the house of Is'ra-el: there is the whoredom of E'phrā-im, Is'ra-el is defiled.

11 Also, O Jū'dah, he hath set an harvest for thee, when I returned the captivity of my people.

Ephraim was discovered, and the wickedness of Samaria: for they commit falsehood; and the thief cometh in, and the troop of robbers spoileth without.

2 And they consider not in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness: now their own doings have beset them about; they are before my face.

3 They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes with their lies.

4 They are all adulterers, as an oven heated by the baker, who ceaseth from raising after he hath kneaded the dough, until it be leavened.

5 In the day of our king the princes have made him sick with bottles of wine; he stretched out his hand with scorners.

6 For they have made ready their heart like an oven, whiles they lie in wait: their baker sleepeth all the night; in the morning it burneth as a flaming fire.

7 They are all hot as an oven, and have devoured their judges; all their kings are fallen: there is none among them that calleth unto me.

8 Ephraim, he hath mixed himself among the people; Ephraim is a cake not turned.

9 Strangers have devoured his strength, and he knoweth it not: yea, gray hairs are here and there upon him, yet he knoweth not.

10 And the pride of Israel testifieth to his face: and they do not return to the Lord their God, nor seek him for all this.

11 ¶ Ephraim also is like a silly dove without heart: they call to Egypt, they go to Assyria.

12 When they shall go, I will spread my net upon them; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven; I will chastise them, as their congregation hath heard.

13 Woe unto them! for they have fled from me: destruction unto them! because they have transgressed against me: though I have redeemed them, yet they have spoken lies against me.

14 And they have not cried unto me with their heart, when they howled upon their beds: they assemble themselves for corn and wine, and they rebel against me.

15 Though I have bound and strengthened their arms, yet do they imagine mischief against me.

CHAPTER 8.

Destruction threatened to Israel and Judah.

SET the trumpet to thy mouth. He shall come as an eagle against the house of the Lord, because they have transgressed my covenant, and trespassed against my law.

2 Israel shall cry unto me, My God, we know thee.

3 Israel hath cast off the thing that is good: the enemy shall pursue him.

4 They have set up kings, but not by me: they have made princes, and I knew it not. of their silver and their gold have they made them idols, that they may be cut off.

5 ¶ Thy calf, O Samaria, hath cast thee off; mine anger is kindled against them: how long will it be ere they attain to innocency?

6 For from Israel was it also: the workman made it; therefore it is not God: but the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces.

7 For they have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: it hath no stalk: the bud shall yield no meal: if so be it yield, the strangers shall swallow it up.

8 Israel is swallowed up: now shall they be among the Gentiles as a vessel wherein is no pleasure.

9 For they are gone up to Assyria, a wild ass alone by himself: Ephraim hath hired lovers.

10 Yea, though they have hired among the nations, now will I gather them, and they shall sorrow a little for the burden of the king of princes.

11 Because Ephraim hath made many altars to sin, altars shall be unto him to sin.

12 I have written to him the great things of my law, but they were counted as a strange thing.

13 They sacrifice flesh for the sacrifices of mine offerings, and eat it; but the Lord accepteth them not; now will he remember their iniquity, and visit their sins: they shall return to Egypt.

14 For Israel hath forgotten his Maker, and buildeth temples; and Judah hath multiplied fenced cities: but I will send a fire upon his cities, and it shall devour the palaces thereof.

CHAPTER 9.

Distress and captivity of Israel for their sins.

REJOICE not, O Is'ra-el, for joy, as other people: for thou hast gone a whoring from thy God, thou hast loved a reward upon every cornfloor.

2 The floor and the winepress shall not feed them, and the new wine shall fail in her.

3 They shall not dwell in the LORD's land; but Ephraim shall return to Egypt, and they shall eat unclean things in As-syria.

4 They shall not offer wine offerings to the LORD, neither shall they be pleasing unto him: their sacrifices shall be unto them as the bread of mourners; all that eat thereof shall be polluted: for their bread for their soul shall not come into the house of the LORD.

5 What will ye do in the solemn day, and in the day of the feast of the LORD?

6 For, lo, they are gone because of destruction: Egypt shall gather them up, Mem'phis shall bury them: the pleasant places for their silver, nettles shall possess them: thorns shall be in their tabernacles.

7 The days of visitation are come, the days of recompence are come; Is'ra-el shall know it: the prophet is a fool, the spiritual man is mad, for the multitude of thine iniquity, and the great hatred.

8 The watchman of Ephraim was with my God: but the prophet is a snare of a fowler in all his ways, and hatred in the house of his God.

9 They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of Gibeon: therefore he will remember their iniquity, he will visit their sins.

10 I found Is'ra-el like grapes in the wilderness; I saw your fathers as the firstripe in the fig tree at her first time: but they went to Ba'al-pe'or, and separated themselves unto that shame; and their abominations were according as they loved.

11 As for Ephraim, their glory shall fly away like a bird, from the birth, and from the womb, and from the conception.

12 Though they bring up their children, yet will I bereave them, that there shall not be a man left: yea, woe also to them when I depart from them!

13 Ephraim, as I saw Ty'rus, is planted in a pleasant place: but Ephraim shall bring forth his children to the murderer.

14 Give them, O LORD: what wilt thou give? give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.

15 All their wickedness is in Gil'gal: for there I hated them; for the wickedness of their doings I will drive them out of mine house, I will love them no more: all their princes are revolvers.

16 Ephraim is smitten, their root is dried up, they shall bear no fruit: yea, though they bring forth, yet will I slay even the beloved fruit of their womb.

17 My God will cast them away, because they did not hearken unto him: and they shall be wanderers among the nations.

CHAPTER 10.

Israel reproved and threatened for idolatry.

ISRA-EL is an empty vine, he bringeth forth fruit unto himself: according to the multitude of his fruit he hath increased the altars; according to the goodness of his land they have made goodly images.

2 Their heart is divided; now shall they be found faulty: he shall break down their altars, he shall spoil their images.

3 For now they shall say, We have no king, because we feared not the LORD: what then should a king do to us?

4 They have spoken words, swearing falsely in making a covenant: thus judgment springeth up as hemlock in the furrows of the field.

5 The inhabitants of Sam'ria shall fear because of the calves of Beth-aven: for the people thereof shall mourn over it, and the priests thereof that rejoiced on it, for the glory thereof, because it is departed from it.

6 It shall be also carried unto As-syria for a present to king Jar'eb: Ephraim shall receive shame, and Is'ra-el shall be ashamed of his own counsel.

7 As for Sam'ria, her king is cut off as the foam upon the water.

8 The high places also of A'ven, the sin of Is'ra-el, shall be destroyed: the thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars; and they shall say to the mountains, Cover us; and to the hills, Fall on us.

9 O Is'ra-el, thou hast sinned from the days of Gibeon: there they stood: the battle in Gibeon against the children of iniquity did not overtake them.

10 It is in my desire that I should chastise them; and the people shall be gathered against them, when they shall bind themselves in their two furrows.

HOSEA, 11, 12. Israel's ingratitude. Ephraim's sins provoke God.

11 And E'phrā'im is as an heifer that is taught, and loveth to tread out the corn; but I passed over upon ^aher fair neck: I will make E'phrā'im to ride; Jū'dah shall plow, and Jā'cob shall break his clods.

12 ^sSow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; break up your fallow ground: for it is time to seek the LORD, till he come and rain righteousness upon you.

13 ^sYe have plowed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity; ye have eaten the fruit of lies: because thou didst trust in thy way, in the multitude of thy mighty men.

14 Therefore shall a tumult arise among thy people, and all thy fortresses shall be spoiled, as Shāl'man spoiled Bēth-el in the day of battle: the mother was dashed in pieces upon her children.

15 So shall Bēth-el do unto you because of ^syour great wickedness in a morning shall the king of Is'rā-el utterly be cut off.

CHAPTER 11.

Israel's ingratitude to God.

WHEN Is'rā-el was a child, then I loved him, and ^acalled my ^ason out of E'gypt.

2 As they called them, so they went from them: ^athey sacrificed unto Bā'al'im, and burned incense to graven images.

3 ^aI taught E'phrā'im also to go, taking them by their arms; but they knew not that ^aI healed them.

4 I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love: and I was to them as they that ^atake off the yoke on their jaws, and ^sI laid meat unto them.

5 [¶]He shall not return into the land of E'gypt, but the As-sūr'ān shall be his king, because ^sthey refused to return.^a

6 And the sword shall abide on his cities, and shall consume his branches, and devour them, because of their own counsels.

7 And my people are bent to backsliding from me: though they called them to the most High, ^anone at all would exalt him.

8 ^aHow shall I give thee up, E'phrā'im? how shall I deliver thee, Is'rā-el? how shall I make thee as ^aAd'mah? how shall I set thee as Ze-bō'im? ^smine heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together.

9 I will not execute the fierceness of mine anger, I will not return to destroy E'phrā'im: ^afor I am God, and not man; the Holy One in the

Ephraim and Judah reproved

E'PHRĀ-IM feedeth on wind, and followeth after the east wind: he daily increaseth lies and desolation; ^aand they do make a covenant with the As-sūr'ān, and ^boil is carried into E'gypt.

2 The LORD hath also a controversy with Jū'dah, and will ¹punish Jā'cob according to his ways; according to his doings will he recompense him.

9 And I that am the LORD thy God from the land of E'gypt will yet make thee to dwell in tabernacles, as in the days of the solemn feast.

10 I have also spoken by the prophets, and I have multiplied visions, and used similitudes, ⁷by the ministry of the prophets.

11 Is there iniquity in Gīl'gād? surely they are vanity: they sacrifice bullocks in ^aGīl'gāl; yea, their altars are as heaps in the furrows of the fields.

God's anger for Ephraim's impiety.

WHEN E'phra'im spake ^atrembling, he exalted himself in Is'ra-el, but ^bwhen he offended in Ba'al, he died.

2 And now ¹they sin more and more, and have made them molten images of their silver, and idols according to their own understanding, all of it the work of the craftsmen they say of them, Let ²the men that sacrifice kiss the calves.

JOEL.

CHAPTER 1.

Joel, declaring sundry judgments of God, exhorteth to observe them.

THE word of the LORD that came to Jô'el the son of Pê-thû'el.

2 Hear this, ye old men, and give ear, all ye inhabitants of the land.

3 Hath this been in your days, or even in the days of your fathers?

4 Tell ye your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation.

5 That which the palmerworm hath left hath the locust eaten; and that which the locust hath left hath the cankerworm eaten; and that which the cankerworm hath left hath the caterpillar eaten.

6 Awake, ye drunkards, and weep; and howl, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the new wine; for it is cut off from your mouth.

7 For a nation is come up upon my land, strong, and without number, whose teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he hath the cheek teeth of a great lion.

8 He hath laid my vine waste, and barked my fig tree: he hath made it clean bare, and cast it away; the branches thereof are made white.

9 ¶ Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth.

10 The meat offering and the drink offering is cut off from the house of the LORD; the priests, the LORD's ministers, mourn.

11 The field is wasted, the land mourneth; for the corn is wasted: the new wine is dried up, the oil languisheth.

12 Be ye ashamed, O ye husbandmen; howl, O ye vinedressers, for the wheat and for the barley; because the harvest of the field is perished.

13 The vine is dried up, and the fig tree languisheth; the pomegranate tree, the palm tree also, and the apple tree, even all the trees of the field, are withered: because joy is withheld away from the sons of men.

14 Gird yourselves, and lament, ye priests: howl, ye ministers of the altar: come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God: for the meat offering and the drink of-

14 ¶ Sanctify ye a fast, call a solemn assembly, gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land into the house of the LORD your God, and cry unto the LORD, 15 Alas for the day! for the day of the LORD is at hand, and as a destruction from the Almighty shall it come.

16 Is not the meat cut off before our eyes, yea, joy and gladness from the house of our God?

17 The seed is rotten under their clods, the garners are laid desolate, the barns are broken down; for the corn is withered.

18 How do the beasts groan! the herds of cattle are perplexed, because they have no pasture; yea, the flocks of sheep are made desolate.

19 O LORD, to thee will I cry: for the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and the flame hath burned all the trees of the field.

20 The beasts of the field cry also unto thee: for the rivers of waters are dried up, and the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Terribleness of God's judgments: 12 Joel exhorteth to repentance.

BLOW ye the trumpet in Zi'ron, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the day of the LORD cometh, for it is nigh at hand;

2 A day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains: a great people and a strong; there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years of many generations.

3 A fire devoureth before them; and behind them a flame burneth; the land is as the garden of E'don before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness; yea, and nothing shall escape them.

4 The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as horsemen, so shall they run.

5 Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array.

6 Before their face the people shall be much pained: ^aall faces shall gather ^ablackness.

7 They shall run like mighty men; they shall climb the wall like men of war; and they shall march every one on his ways, and they shall not break their ranks:

8 Neither shall one thrust another; they shall walk every one in his path: and when they fall upon the ^asword, they shall not be wounded.

9 They shall run to and fro in the city; they shall run upon the wall, they shall climb up upon the houses, they shall enter in at the windows like a thief.

10 The earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall tremble: the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining:

11 And the LORD shall utter his voice before his army for his camp is very great ^afor he is strong that executeth his word. for the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; and ^awho can abide it?

12 ¶ Therefore also now, saith the LORD, ^aturn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning:

13 And ^arend your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the LORD your God: for he is ^agracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil.

14 ^aWho knoweth if he will return and repent, and leave ^aa blessing behind him; even a meat offering and a drink offering unto the LORD your God?

15 ¶ Blow the trumpet in Zi'ōn, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly.

16 Gather the people, ^asanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, ^agather the children, and those that suck the breasts: ^alet the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet.

17 Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep ^abetween the porch and the altar, and let them say, ^aSpare thy people, O LORD, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should ^arule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God?

18 ¶ Then will the LORD ^abe jealous for his land, ^aand pity his people.

19 Yea, the LORD will answer and say unto his people, Behold, I will

CHAPTER 3.

God will be known in his judgments

FOR, behold, in those days, and in the time, when I shall bring again the captivity of Jū'dah and Jē-ry'sā-lēm,

2 I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jē-hōsh'a-phāt, and will plead with them there for my people and for my heritage Is'ra-el, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land.

3 And they have cast lots for my people; and have given a boy for an harlot, and sold a girl for wine, that they might drink.

4 Yea, and what have ye to do with me, O Tyre, and Zi'don, and all the coasts of Pāl'es-tine? I will ye render me a recompence? and if ye recompense me, swiftly and speedily will I return your recompence upon your own head,

5 Because ye have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into your temples my goodly pleasant things:

6 The children also of Jū'dah and the children of Jē-ry'sā-lēm have ye sold unto the Grē'ciaus, that ye might remove them far from their border.

7 Behold, I will raise them out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will return your recompence upon your own head.

8 And I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Jū'dah, and they shall sell them to the Sā-bē'ans, to a people far off: for the LORD hath spoken it.

9 ¶ Proclaim ye this among the Grē'tiles, Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near; let them come up.

10 Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruninghooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong.

11 Or, even I the Lord that dwelleth in Zion

11 Assemble yourselves, and come, all ye heathen, and gather yourselves together round about: thither cause thy mighty ones to come down, O LORD.

12 Let the heathen be wakened, and come up to the valley of Jē-hōsh'a-phāt: for there will I sit to judge all the heathen round about.

13 Put ye in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe: come, get you down; for the press is full, the fats overflow; for their wickedness is great.

14 Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision: for the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision.

15 The sun and the moon shall be darkened, and the stars shall withdraw their shining.

16 The LORD also shall roar out of Zi'don, and utter his voice from Jē-ry'sā-lēm; and the heavens and the earth shall shake: but the LORD will be the hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Is'ra-el.

17 So shall ye know that I am the LORD your God dwelling in Zi'don, my holy mountain: then shall Jē-ry'sā-lēm be holy, and there shall no strangers pass through her any more.

18 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that the mountains shall drop down new wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, and all the rivers of Jū'dah shall flow with waters, and a fountain shall come forth of the house of the LORD, and shall water the valley of Shit'tim.

19 E'gypt shall be a desolation, and E'dom shall be a desolate wilderness, for the violence against the children of Jū'dah, because they have shed innocent blood in their land.

20 But Jū'dah shall dwell for ever, and Jē-ry'sā-lēm from generation to generation.

21 For I will cleanse their blood that I have not cleansed: for the LORD dwelleth in Zi'don.

Amos sheweth God's judgments

THE words of Amos, who was among the herdmen of Tekō'a, which he saw concerning Is'ra-el in the days of Ūz-zī'ah king of Jū'dah, and in the days of Jēr-o-bō'am the son of Jō'ash king of Is'ra-el, two years before the earthquake.

from Zi'don, and utter his voice from Jē-ry'sā-lēm; and the habitations of the shepherds shall mourn, and the top of Car'mel shall wither.

3 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Dā-mās'cus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have threshed Gīl'eād with threshing instruments of iron:

4 But I will send a fire into the house of Hāz'a-el, which shall devour the palaces of Bēn-hā'dād.

5 I will break also the bar of Dāmās'eus, and cut off the inhabitant from ^a the plain of A'ven, and him that holdeth the sceptre from ^a the house of E'dēn: and ^a the people of Sūr'a shall go into captivity unto Kir, saith the LORD.

6 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of ^a Gā'za, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they ^a carried away captive the whole captivity, to deliver them up to E'dom:

7 But I will send a fire on the wall of ^a Gā'za, which shall devour the palaces thereof:

8 And I will cut off the inhabitant from Ash'dōd, and him that holdeth the sceptre from Ash'ke-lōn, and I will turn mine hand against Ek'lōn: and the remnant of the Philis'tines shall perish, saith the Lord God.

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Tŷrus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they delivered up the whole captivity to E'dom, and remembered not ^a the brotherly covenant:

10 But I will send a fire on the wall of Tŷrus, which shall devour the palaces thereof.

11 And I raised up of your sons for prophets, and of your young men for ^a Nāz'a-rites. Is it not even thus, O ye children of Is'ra-el? saith the LORD.

12 But ye gave the Nāz'a-rites wine to drink; and commanded the prophets, ^a saying, Prophecy not.

CHAPTER 3.

Necessity of God's judgments against Israel.

HEAR this word that the LORD hath spoken against you, O children of Is'ra-el, against the whole family which I brought up from the land of E'gypt, saying,

2 You only have I known of all the families of the earth: ^a therefore I will ¹ punish you for all your iniquities.

3 Can two walk together, except they be agreed?

4 Will a lion roar in the forest, when he hath no prey? will a young lion ² cry out of his den, if he have taken nothing?

5 Can a bird fall in a snare upon the earth, where no gin is for him? shall one take up a snare from the earth, and have taken nothing at all?

6 Shall a ³ trumpet be blown in the city, and the people ^a not be afraid? shall there be evil in a city, ⁴ and the LORD hath not done it?

7 Surely the Lord God will do nothing, but ^c he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets.

8 The lion hath roared, who will not fear? the Lord God hath spoken, ^d who can but ¹ prophesy?

9 ¶ Publish in the palaces at Ash'dod, and in the palaces in the land of E'gypt, and say, Assemble yourselves upon the mountains of Sā-mā'ri-a, and behold the great tumults in the midst thereof, and the ^e oppressed in the midst thereof.

10 For they know not to do right, saith the LORD, who store up violence and ^f robbery in their palaces.

11 Therefore thus saith the Lord God; ^g An adversary there shall be even round about the land; and he shall bring down thy strength from thee, and thy palaces shall be spoiled.

12 Thus saith the LORD; As the shepherd ^h taketh out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear; so shall the children of Is'ra-el be taken out that dwell in Sā-mā'ri-a in the corner of a bed, and ⁱ in Dā-mās'cus in a couch.

13 Hear ye, and testify in the house of Jā'cob, saith the Lord God, the God of hosts, God's judgment against Israel.

14 That in the day that I shall ^j visit the transgressions of Is'ra-el upon him I will also visit the altars of Bēth'-el: and the horns of the altar shall be cut off, and fall to the ground.

15 And I will smite the winter house with the summer house; and the houses of ivory shall perish, and the great houses shall have an end, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Israel reproved for oppression, 4 for idolatry, 6 and for their incorrigibleness.

HEAR this word, ye kine of Sā-shān, that are in the mountain of Sā-mā'ri-a, which oppress the poor, which crush the needy, which say to their masters, Bring, and let us drink.

2 The Lord God hath sworn by his holiness, that, lo, the days shall come upon you, that he will take you away with hooks, and your posterity with fishhooks.

3 And ye shall go out at the breaches, every cow at that which is before her; and ¹ ye shall cast them into the palace, saith the LORD.

4 ¶ ² Come to Bēth'-el, and transgress; at ³ Gil'gāl multiply transgression; and ⁴ bring your sacrifices every morning, and your tithes after ⁵ three years:

5 And ⁶ offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with leaven, and proclaim and publish ⁷ the free offerings: for ⁸ this liketh you, O ye children of Is'ra-el, saith the Lord God.

6 ¶ And I also have ⁹ given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places: ¹⁰ yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

7 And also I have withholden the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest: and I caused it to rain upon one city, and caused it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not withered.

8 So two or three cities wandered unto one city, to drink water; but they were not satisfied: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

9 ¹¹ I have smitten you with blasting and mildew: ¹² when your gardens and your vineyards and your fig trees and your olive trees increased, the palmerworm devoured them: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

1 Lamentation for Israel 4 Exhortation to repentance.

HEAR ye this word which I take up against you, even a lamentation, O house of Is'ra-el.

2 The virgin of Is'ra-el is fallen; she shall no more rise: she is forsaken upon her land; there is none to raise her up.

3 For thus saith the Lord God; The city that went out by a thousand shall leave an hundred, and that which went forth by an hundred shall leave ten, to the house of Is'ra-el.

4 ¶ For thus saith the LORD unto the house of Is'ra-el, Seek ye me, and ye shall live:

5 But seek not Bêth'-el, nor enter into Gil'gâl, and pass not to Hê'er-shê'bâ: for Gil'gâl shall surely go into captivity, and Bêth'-el shall come to nought.

6 Seek the LORD, and ye shall live; lest he break out like fire in the house of Jô'seph, and devour it, and there be none to quench it in Bêth'-el.

7 Ye who turn judgment to wormwood, and leave off righteousness in the earth,

8 Seek him that maketh the seven stars and O-rî'on, and turneth the shadow of death into the morning, and maketh the day dark with night: that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: The LORD is his name:

9 That strengtheneth the spoiled against the strong, so that the spoiled shall come against the fortress.

12 For I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins: they afflict the just, they take a bribe, and they turn aside the poor in the gate from their right.

13 Therefore the prudent shall keep silence in that time; for it is an evil time.

14 Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live: and so the LORD, the God of hosts, shall be with you, as ye have spoken.

15 Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate: it may be that the LORD God of hosts will be gracious unto the remnant of Jô'seph.

16 Therefore the LORD, the God of hosts, the Lord, saith thus; Wailing shall be in all streets; and they shall say in all the highways, Alas! alas! and they shall call the husbandman to mourning, and such as are skilful of lamentation to wailing.

17 And in all vineyards shall be wailing: for I will pass through thee, saith the LORD.

18 Woe unto you that desire the day of the LORD! to what end is it for you? the day of the LORD is darkness, and not light.

19 As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him.

20 Shall not the day of the LORD be darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in it?

21 ¶ I hate, I despise your feast days, and I will not smell in your solemn assemblies.

22 Though ye offer me burnt offerings and your meat offerings, I will not accept them: neither will I regard the peace offerings of your fat beasts.

23 Take thou away from me the noise of thy songs; for I will not hear the melody of thy viols.

24 But let judgment run down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream.

25 Have ye offered unto me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, O house of Is'ra-el?

26 But ye have borne the tabernacle of your Mô'lech and Chî'in your images, the star of your god, which ye made to yourselves.

¹ The wantonness of Israel ⁷ shall be plagued with desolation.

WOE to them that ¹ are at ease in Zī'ōn, and trust in the mountain of Sā-mā'ri-a, which are named ² chief of the nations, to whom the house of Is'ra-el came!

² Pass ye unto ^a Cā'neh, and see; and from thence go ye to ^b Hā'math the great: then go down to Gāth of the Phil-istines: bethey better than these kingdoms? or their border greater than your border?

³ Ye that ^c put far away the evil day, and cause the ^d seat of violence to come near;

⁷ ¶ Therefore now shall they go captive with the first that go captive, and the banquet of them that stretched themselves shall be removed.

⁹ And it shall come to pass, if there remain ten men in one house, that they shall die.

¹⁰ And a man's uncle shall take him up, and he that burneth him, to bring out the bones out of the house, and shall say unto him that is by the sides of the house, Is there yet any with thee? and he shall say, No. Then shall he say, Hold thy tongue: for ^j we may not make mention of the name of the LORD.

¹¹ For, behold, the LORD commandeth, and he will smite the great house with ^k breaches, and the little house with clefts.

¹ The judgment of the grasshoppers, ⁴ and of the fire, are diverted by the prayer of Amos. ¹⁰ Amosiah complateth of Amos.

THUS hath the Lord God shewed unto me; and, behold, he formed ¹ grasshoppers in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and, lo, it was the latter growth after the king's mowings.

² And it came to pass, that when they had made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, O Lord God, forgive, I beseech thee: ³ by whom shall Jā'cqb arise? for he is small.

³ ^a The LORD repented for this: It shall not be, saith the LORD.

⁴ ¶ Thus hath the Lord God shewed unto me: and, behold, the Lord God called to contend by fire, and it devoured the great deep, and did eat up a part.

⁵ Then said I, O Lord God, cease, I beseech thee: by whom shall Jā'cqb arise? for he is small.

⁶ The LORD ^b repented for this: This also shall not be, saith the Lord God.

⁷ ¶ Thus he shewed me: and, behold, the Lord stood upon a wall made by a plumbline, with a plumbline in his hand.

⁸ And the LORD said unto me, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A plumbline. Then said the Lord, Behold, ^c I will set a plumbline in the midst of my people Is'ra-el: ^d I will not again pass by them any more:

⁹ ^e And the high places of Is'raac shall be desolate, and the sanctuaries of Is'ra-el shall be laid waste; and ^f I will rise against the house of Jēr-q-bō'am with the sword.

¹¹ For thus Amos saith, Jēr-q-bō'am shall die by the sword, and Is'ra-el shall surely be led away captive out of their own land.

¹² Also Am-a-zī'ah said unto Amos, O thou seer, go, flee thee away into the land of Jū'dah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there:

Oppression is reprov'd. Israel's desolation certain. AMOS, 8, 9.

13 But ¹prophesy not again any more at Bēth'-el: ²for it is the king's ³chapel, and it is the ⁴king's court.

14 ¶ Then answered A'mos, and said to Am-a-zī'ah, I was no prophet, neither was I ¹a prophet's son; ²but I was an herdman, and a gatherer of ³sycomore fruit.

15 And the LORD took me ¹as I followed the flock, and the LORD said unto me, Go, prophesy unto my people Is'ra-el.

16 ¶ Now therefore hear thou the word of the LORD: Thou sayest, Prophesy not against Is'ra-el, and ¹drop not thy word against the house of Is'gae.

17 ¹Therefore thus saith the LORD; ²Thy wife shall be an harlot in the city, and thy sons and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy land shall be divided by line; and thou shalt die in a polluted land; and Is'ra-el shall surely go into captivity forth of his land.

THUS hath the Lord God shewed unto me: and behold a basket of summer fruit.

2 And he said, A'mos, what seest thou? And I said, A basket of summer fruit. Then said the LORD unto me, ¹The end is come upon my people of Is'ra-el; I will not again pass by them any more.

3 And the songs of the temple ¹shall be howlings in that day, saith the Lord God: there shall be many dead bodies in every place; they shall cast them forth ²with silence.

4 ¶ Hear this, O ye that swallow up the needy, even to make the poor of the land to fall,

5 Saying, When will the ¹new moon be gone, that we may sell corn? and ²the sabbath, that we may ³set forth wheat, ⁴making the ephah small, and the shekel great, and ⁵falsifying the balances by deceit?

6 That we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes; yea, and sell the refuse of the wheat?

7 The LORD hath sworn by ¹the excellency of Jā'cob, Surely ²I will never forget any of their works.

8 ¹Shall not the land tremble for this, and every one mourn that dwelleth therein? and it shall rise up wholly as a flood; and it shall be cast out and drowned, ²as by the flood of E'gypt.

9 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord God, ¹that I will

JONAH.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Jonah, sent to Nineveh, fleeth to Tarshish. 4 He is overtaken by a tempest, 11 thrown into the sea, 17 and swallowed by a fish.

NOW the word of the LORD came unto Jō'nah the son of Ā-mī'tā-i, saying,

2 Arise, go to Nin'e-veh, that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness is come up before me.

3 But Jō'nah rose up to flee unto Tar'shish from the presence of the LORD, and went down to Jōp'pa; and he found a ship going to Tar'shish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tar'shish from the presence of the LORD.

4 ¶ But the LORD sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was like to be broken.

5 Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man unto his god, and cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them. But Jō'nah was gone down into the sides of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep.

6 So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, call upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not.

21 Prov. 21. 20.

7 And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jō'nah.

8 Then said they unto him, Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us; What is thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou?

9 And he said unto them, I am an Hē'brew; and I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, which hath made the sea and the dry land.

10 Then were the men exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, Why hast thou done this? For the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

11 ¶ Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea may be calm unto us? for the sea was wrought, and was tempestuous.

12 And he said unto them, Take me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that for my sake this great tempest is upon you.

13 Nevertheless the men rowed hard to bring it to the land; but they could not: for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous against them.

14 Wherefore they cried unto the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O

JONAH, 2-4.

LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and ¹lay not upon us innocent blood: for thou, O LORD, hast done as it pleased thee.

15 So they took up Jō'nah, and cast him forth into the sea: and the sea ²ceased from her raging.

16 Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly, and ³offered a sacrifice unto the LORD, and made vows.

17 ¶ Now the LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow up Jō'nah. And ⁴Jō'nah was in the ⁵belly of the fish three days and three nights.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Prayer of Jonah. 10 He is delivered out of the belly of the fish

THEN Jō'nah prayed unto the LORD his God out of the fish's belly.

2 And said, I cried ¹by reason of mine affliction unto the LORD, and he heard me; out of the belly of ²hell cried I, and thou heardest my voice.

3 ³For thou hadst cast me into the deep, in the ⁴midst of the seas; and the floods compassed me about: all thy billows and thy waves passed over me.

4 ⁵Then I said, I am cast out of thy sight; yet I will look again ⁶toward thy holy temple.

5 The waters compassed me about, even to the soul: the depth closed me round about, the weeds were wrapped about my head.

6 I went down to the ⁷bottoms of the mountains; the earth with her bars ⁸was about me for ever: yet hast thou brought up my life from ⁹corruption, O LORD my God.

7 When my soul fainted within me I remembered the LORD: ¹⁰and my prayer came in unto thee, into thine holy temple.

8 They that observe ¹¹lying vanities forsake their own mercy.

9 But I will ¹²sacrifice unto thee with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay ¹³that that I have vowed. Salvation ¹⁴is of the LORD.

10 ¶ And the LORD ¹⁵spoke unto the fish, and it vomited out Jō'nah upon the dry land.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Jonah preacheth to the Ninevites: 3 they repent.

AND the word of the LORD came unto Jō'nah the second time, saying,

2 Arise, go unto Nin'g-veh, that great city, and preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee.

3 So Jō'nah arose, and went unto Nin'g-veh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nin'g-veh was an ¹exceeding great city of three days' journey.

4 And Jō'nah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and ²he cried, and said, Yet forty days, and Nin'g-veh shall be overthrown.

5 ¶ So the people of Nin'g-veh ³believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them.

6 For word came unto the king of Nin'g-veh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered ⁴him with sackcloth, ⁵and sat in ashes.

7 ⁶And he caused ⁷it to be proclaimed and ⁸published through Nin'g-veh by the decree of the king and his ⁹nobles, saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing: let them not feed, nor drink water:

8 But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God: yea, ¹⁰let them turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that ¹¹is in their hands.

9 Who can tell ¹²if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?

3 ⁵Therefore now, O LORD, take, I beseech thee, my life from me; for ⁶it is better for me to die than to live.

4 ¶ Then said the LORD, ⁷Doest thou well to be angry?

5 So Jō'nah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made him a booth, and sat under it in the shadow, till he might see what would become of the city.

6 And the LORD God prepared a ⁸gourd, and made ⁹it to come up over Jō'nah, that it might be a shadow over his head, to deliver him from his grief. So Jō'nah ¹⁰was exceeding glad of the gourd.

Micah shows God's wrath against idolatrous Jacob. MICAH, 1, 2.

7 But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd that it withered.

8 And it came to pass, when the sun did arise, that God prepared a vehement east wind; and the sun beat upon the head of Jō'nah, that he fainted, and wished in himself to die, and said, It is better for me to die than to live.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Micah sheweth the wrath of God against Jacob for idolatry. 10 he exhorteth to mourning.

THE word of the LORD that came to Mī'cah the Mō'q-s-thite in the days of Jō'tham, A'hāz, and Hēz-q-ki'ah, kings of Jū'dah, which he saw concerning Sā-mā'ri-a and Jē-ru'sā-lēm.

2 Hear, all ye people; hearken, O earth, and all that therein is. and let the Lord God be witness against you, the Lord from his holy temple.

3 For, behold, the LORD cometh forth out of his place, and will come down, and tread upon the high places of the earth.

4 And the mountains shall be molten under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, and as the waters that are poured down a steep place.

5 For the transgression of Jā'cob is all this, and for the sins of the house of Is'ra-el. What is the transgression of Jā'cob? is it not Sā-mā'ri-a? and what are the high places of Jū'dah? are they not Jē-ru'sā-lēm?

6 Therefore I will make Sā-mā'ri-a as an heap of the field, and as plantings of a vineyard; and I will pour down the stones thereof into the valley, and I will discover the foundations thereof.

7 And all the graven images thereof shall be beaten to pieces, and all the hires thereof shall be burned with the fire, and all the idols thereof will I lay desolate. for she gathered it of the hire of an harlot, and they shall return to the hire of an harlot.

MICAH, 3, 4. Promise of restoration. The glory, peace, kingdom,

Behold, against ⁴ this family do I devise an evil, from which ye shall not remove your necks; neither shall ye go haughtily: for this time is evil.

4 ¶ In that day shall one take up a parable against you, and lament ² with a doleful lamentation, and say, We be utterly spoiled: he hath changed the portion of my people: how hath he removed it from me! ³ turning away he hath divided our fields.

5 Therefore thou shalt have none that shall cast a cord by lot in the congregation of the LORD.

6 ¹ Prophecy ye not, say they to them ² that prophecy: they shall not prophesy to them, ³ that they shall not take shame.

7 ¶ O thou that art named the house of Jā'eqb, is the spirit of the LORD ¹ straitened? are these his doings? do not my words do good to him that walketh ² uprightly?

8 Even ¹ of late my people is risen up as an enemy: ye pull off the robe ² with the garment from them that pass by securely as men averse from war.

9 The ¹ women of my people have ye cast out from their pleasant houses; from their children have ye taken away my glory for ever.

10 Arise ye, and depart; for this is not your ¹ rest: because it is polluted, it shall destroy you, even with a sore destruction.

11 If a man ¹⁰ walking in the spirit and falsehood do lie, saying, I will prophecy unto thee of wine and of strong drink; he shall even be the prophet of this people.

12 ¶ I will surely assemble, O Jā'eqb, all of thee; I will surely gather the ¹ remnant of Is'ra-el; I will put them together as the sheep of Bōz'rah, as the flock in the midst of their fold: they shall make great noise by reason of the multitude of men.

4 Then shall they cry unto the LORD, but he will not hear them: he will even hide his face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their doings.

5 ¶ Thus saith the LORD ¹ concerning the prophets that make my people err, that bite with their teeth, and cry, Peace; and he that putteth not into their mouths, they even prepare war against him.

6 Therefore night shall be unto you, ¹ that ye shall not have a vision; and it shall be dark unto you, ² that ye shall not divine; and the sun shall go down over the prophets, and the day shall be dark over them.

7 Then shall the seers be ashamed, and the diviners confounded: yea, they shall all cover their ¹ lips; ² for there is no answer of God.

8 ¶ But truly I am full of power by the ¹ spirit of the LORD, and of judgment, and of might, ² to declare unto Jā'eqb his transgression, and to Is'ra-el his sin.

BUT ¹ in the last days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people shall flow unto it.

2 And many nations shall come, and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Jā'eqb; and he ¹ will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth of Zi'on, and the word of the LORD from Jē-ry'sā-lēm.

3 ¶ And he shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into ^o plowshares, and their spears into ^o pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, ^o neither shall they learn war any more.

4 ^o But they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it.

5 For ^o all people will walk every one in the name of his god, and ^o we will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.

6 In that day, saith the LORD, ^o will I assemble her that halteth, ^o and I will gather her that is driven out, and her that I have afflicted;

7 And I will make her that halted a remnant, and her that was cast far off a strong nation: and the LORD ^o shall reign over them in mount Zi'ôn from henceforth, even for ever.

8 ¶ And thou, O tower of ^o the flock, the strong hold of the daughter of Zi'ôn, unto thee shall it come, even the first dominion; the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jê-ry'sâ-lêm.

9 Now why dost thou cry out aloud? is there no king in thee? is thy counsellor perished? for pangs have taken thee as a woman in travail.

10 Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zi'ôn, like a woman in travail: for now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and thou shalt go even to Bâb'y-lon; there shalt thou be delivered; there the LORD shall redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies.

11 ¶ Now also many nations are gathered against thee, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye look upon Zi'ôn.

10 ¶ Are there yet the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the scant measure that is abominable?

11 ^a Shall I count them pure with the wicked balances, and with the bag of deceitful weights?

12 For the rich men thereof are full of violence, and the inhabitants thereof have spoken lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.

¹ The church, complaining of her small number, ⁸ and the general corruption, ⁵ putteth not confidence in man, but in God. ⁸ She triumpheth, ¹⁴ is comforted.

WOE is me! for I am as ¹ when they have gathered the summer fruits, as the grape gleanings of the vintage: there is no cluster to eat: ^a my soul desired the firstripe fruit.

2 The ^a good man is perished out of the earth and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood, ^b they hunt every man his brother with a net.

3 ¶ That they may do evil with both hands earnestly, ^c the prince asketh, ^a and the judge asketh for a reward; and the great man, he uttereth ^a his mischievous desire: so they wrap it up.

4 The best of them is as a brier: the most upright is sharper than a thorn hedge: the day of thy watchmen and thy visitation cometh; now shall be their perplexity.

5 ¶ Trust ye not in a friend, put ye not confidence in a guide: keep the doors of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy bosom.

6 For ^a the son dishonoureth the father, the daughter riseth up against her mother, the daughter in law against her mother in law; a man's enemies are the men of his own house.

7 Therefore I will look unto the LORD; I will wait for the God of my salvation: my God will hear me.

8 ¶ Rejoice not against me, O mine enemy: when I fall, I shall arise; when I sit in darkness, the LORD shall be a light unto me.

9 I will bear the indignation of the LORD, because I have sinned against him, until he plead my cause, and execute judgment for me: he will bring me forth to the light, and I shall behold his righteousness.

10 ¹ Then she that is mine enemy shall see it, and shame shall cover her which said unto me, Where is the LORD thy God? mine eyes shall behold her: now ² shall she be trodden down as the mire of the streets.

11 In the day that thy walls are to be built, in that day shall the decree be far removed.

11 There is ³ one come out of thee, that imagineth evil against the LORD, a wicked counsellor.

12 Thus saith the LORD; ⁴ Though they be quiet, and likewise many, yet thus shall they be ⁵ cut down, when he shall pass through. Though I have afflicted thee, I will afflict thee no more.

13 For now will I break his yoke from off thee, and will burst thy bonds in sunder.

14 And the LORD hath given a commandment concerning thee, that no more of thy name be sown: out of the house of thy gods will I cut off the graven image and the molten image. I will make thy grave; for thou art vile.

Judah and Israel being punished, God sendeth fearful armies against their enemies.

HE ¹that dasheth in pieces is come up before thy face: keep the munition, watch the way, make thy loins strong, fortify thy power mightily.

2 For the LORD hath turned away ²the excellency of Jā'cob, as the excellency of Is'ra-el: for the emptiers have emptied them out, and marred their vine branches.

3 The shield of his mighty men is made red, the valiant men are ²in scarlet: the chariots shall be with ⁴flaming torches in the day of his preparation, and the fir trees shall be terribly shaken.

4 The chariots shall rage in the streets, they shall jostle one against another in the broad ways: ⁶they shall seem like torches, they shall run like the lightnings.

5 He shall recount his ⁶worthies: they shall stumble in their walk; they shall make haste to the wall thereof, and the ⁷defence shall be prepared.

6 The gates of the rivers shall be opened, and the palace shall be ⁸dissolved.

7 And ⁹Hūz'zāb shall be ¹⁰led away captive, she shall be brought up, and her maids shall lead her as with the voice of doves, tabering upon their breasts.

8 But Nīn'g-veh is ¹¹of old like a pool of water: yet they shall flee away. Stand, stand, shall they cry, but none shall ¹²look back.

Miserable ruin of Nineveh.

WOE to the ¹bloody city! It is all full of lies and robbery; the prey departeth not;

2 The noise of a whip, and the noise of the rattling of the wheels, and of the pransing horses, and of the jumping chariots.

3 The horseman lifteth up both ²the brightsword and the glitteringspear: and there is a multitude of slain, and a great number of carcases; and there is none end of their corpses; they stumble upon their corpses:

4 Because of the multitude of the whoredoms of the wellfavoured harlot, ²the mistress of witchcrafts, that selleth nations through her whoredoms, and families through her witchcrafts.

5 Behold, I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts; and I will discover thy skirts upon thy face, and ²I will shew the nations thy nakedness, and the kingdoms thy shame.

6 And I will cast abominable filth upon thee, and make thee vile, and will set thee as aazingstock.

7 And it shall come to pass, that all they that look upon thee shall flee from thee, and say, Nīn'g-veh is laid waste: who will bemoan her? whence shall I seek comforters for thee?

8 Art thou better than ²populous Nō, that was situate among the rivers, that had the waters round about it, whose rampart was the sea, and her wall was from the sea?

9 ¹E-thi-ō-pla and E'gypt were her strength, and it was infinite; Pūt and Lū'bim were ⁴thy helpers.

10 Yet was she carried away, she went into captivity: her young children also were dashed in pieces at the top of all the streets: and they ⁴cast lots for her honourable men, and all her great men were bound in chains.

11 Thou also shalt be drunken: thou shalt be hid, thou also shalt seek strength because of the enemy.

12 All thy strong holds shall be like ⁴fig trees with the firstripe figs: if they be shaken, they shall even fall into the mouth of the eater.

13 Behold, ⁷thy people in the midst of thee are women: the gates of thy land shall be set wide open unto thine enemies: the fire shall devour thy bars.

14 Draw thee waters for the siege, fortify thy strong holds: go into clay, and tread the mortar, make strong the brickkiln.

15 There shall the fire devour thee; the sword shall cut thee off, it shall eat thee up like ^athe cankerworm: make thyself many as the cankerworm, make thyself many as the locusts.

THE burden which Hā-bāk-kūk the prophet did see.

2 O LORD, how long ^ashall I cry, and thou wilt not hear! even cry out unto thee of violence, and thou wilt not save!

3 Why dost thou shew me iniquity, and cause me to behold grievance? for spolling and violence are before me: and there are that raise up strife and contention.

4 ^aTherefore the law is slack, and judgment doth never go forth: for the wicked doth compass about the righteous; therefore ^awrong judgment proceedeth.

5 ¶ Behold ye among the heathen, and regard, and wonder marvelously: for I will work a work in your days, which ye will not believe, though it be told you.

6 For, lo, ^aI raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, which shall march through the ^abreadth of the land, to possess the dwellingplaces that are not theirs.

7 They are terrible and dreadful: ^atheir judgment and their dignity shall proceed of themselves.

8 ^aTheir horses also are swifter than the leopards, and are more ^afierce than the evening wolves: and their horsemen shall spread themselves, and their horsemen shall come from far; they shall fly as the eagle that hasteth to eat.

12 ¶ Art thou not from everlasting, O LORD my God, mine Holy One? we shall not die. O LORD, thou hast ordained them for judgment; and, O ^amighty God, thou hast ^aestablished them for correction.

13 Thou art of purer eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on ^ainiquity: wherefore lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously, and holdest thy tongue when the wicked devoureth the man that is more righteous than he?

14 And makest men as the fishes of the sea, as the creeping things, that have no ruler over them?

2 And the LORD answered me, and said, ³ Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it.

3 For ⁴ the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.

4 Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the ⁵ just shall live by his faith.

5 ¶ ⁶ Yea also, because he transgresseth by wine, he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, who enlargeth his desire ⁷ as hell, and is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all people:

6 Shall not all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, ⁸ Woe to him that increaseth that which is not his! how long? and to him that ladeth himself with thick clay!

7 Shall they not rise up suddenly that shall bite thee, and awake that shall vex thee, and thou shalt be for booties unto them?

8 Because thou hast spoiled many nations, all the remnant of the people shall spoil thee; because of men's ⁹ blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

9 ¶ Woe to him that ¹⁰ coveteth an evil covetousness to his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the ¹¹ power of evil!

10 Thou hast consulted shame to thy house by cutting off many people, and hast sinned against thy soul.

11 For the stone shall cry out of the wall, and the ¹² beam out of the timber shall ¹³ answer it.

13 Behold, is it not of the LORD of hosts that the people shall ¹⁵ labour in the very fire, and the people shall weary themselves ¹⁶ for very vanity?

14 For the earth shall be filled ¹⁷ with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

3 God came from ⁴ Tē'nian, and the Holy One from mount Pā'ran. Sē'lah. His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise.

2 And the LORD answered me, and said, ³ Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it.

3 For ⁴ the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.

4 Behold, his soul which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the ⁵ just shall live by his faith.

5 ¶ ⁶ Yea also, because he transgresseth by wine, he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, who enlargeth his desire ⁷ as hell, and is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapeth unto him all people:

6 Shall not all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, ⁸ Woe to him that increaseth that which is not his! how long? and to him that ladeth himself with thick clay!

7 Shall they not rise up suddenly that shall bite thee, and awake that shall vex thee, and thou shalt be for booties unto them?

8 Because thou hast spoiled many nations, all the remnant of the people shall spoil thee; because of men's ⁹ blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

9 ¶ Woe to him that ¹⁰ coveteth an evil covetousness to his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the ¹¹ power of evil!

10 ¶ In the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Dā-rī'us, came the word of the LORD by Hāg'ga-i the prophet, saying,

11 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; ^m Ask now the priests concerning the law, saying, 12 If one bear holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt do touch bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any meat, shall it be holy? And the priests answered and said, No.

13 Then said Hāg'ga-i, If one that is ⁿ unclean by a dead body touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered and said, It shall be unclean.

14 Then answered Hāg'ga-i, and said, ^o So is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith the LORD, and so is every work of their hands; and that which they offer there is unclean.

15 And now, I pray you, ^p consider from this day and upward, from before a stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of the LORD:

16 Since those days were, when one came to an heap of twenty measures, there were but ten: when one came to the pressfat for to draw out fifty vessels out of the press, there were but twenty.

17 ^q I smote you with blasting and with mildew and with hail in all the labours of your hands; ^r yet ye turned ^s it to me, saith the LORD.

IN the eighth month, * in the second year of Dā-rī'us, came the word of the LORD ¹ unto Zēch-q-rī'ah, the son of Bēr-q-chī'ah, the son of Id'dō the prophet, saying,

2 The LORD hath been ² sore displeased with your fathers.

3 Therefore say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Turn ye unto me, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will turn unto you, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 Be ye not as your fathers, unto whom the former prophets have cried, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; * Turn ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings: but they did not hear, nor hearken unto me, saith the LORD.

5 Your fathers, where are they? and the prophets, do they live for ever?

6 But * my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not ² take hold of your fathers? and they returned and said, * Like as the LORD of hosts thought to do unto us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, so hath he dealt with us.

7 ¶ Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Sē'bāt, in the second year of Dā-rī'us, came the word of the LORD unto Zēch-q-rī'ah, the son of Bēr-q-chī'ah, the son of Id'dō the prophet, saying,

8 I saw by night, and behold * a man riding upon a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle trees that were in the bottom; and behind him were there ³ red horses, ³ speckled, and white.

9 Then said I, O my lord, what are these? And the angel that talked with me said unto me, I will shew thee what these be.

10 And the man that stood among the myrtle trees answered and said,

11 And they answered the angel of the LORD that stood among the myrtle trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the earth, and, behold, all the earth sitteth still, and is at rest.

12 ¶ Then the angel of the LORD answered and said, * O LORD of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jē-ry'sā-lēm and on the cities of Jū'dah, against which thou hast had indignation * these three-score and ten years?

13 And the LORD answered the angel that talked with me with * good words and comfortable words.

14 So the angel that communed with me said unto me, Cry thou, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I am * jealous for Jē-ry'sā-lēm and for Zī'ōn with a great jealousy.

15 And I am very sore displeased with the heathen that are at ease: for * I was but a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction.

16 Therefore thus saith the LORD; * I am returned to Jē-ry'sā-lēm with mercies: my house shall be built in it, saith the LORD of hosts, and * a line shall be stretched forth upon Jē-ry'sā-lēm.

17 Cry yet, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; My cities through * prosperity shall yet be spread abroad; * and the LORD shall yet comfort Zī'ōn, and * shall yet choose Jē-ry'sā-lēm.

18 ¶ Then lifted I up mine eyes, and saw, and behold four horns.

5 For I, saith the LORD, will be unto her ^d a wall of fire round about, ^e and will be the glory in the midst of her.

9 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, Execute true judgment, and shew mercy and compassions every man to his brother:

10 And oppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the stranger, nor the poor; and let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart.

11 But they refused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear.

12 Yea, they made their hearts as an adamant stone, lest they should hear the law, and the words which the LORD of hosts hath sent in his spirit by the former prophets: therefore came a great wrath from the LORD of hosts.

13 Therefore it is come to pass, that as he cried, and they would not hear; so they cried, and I would not hear, saith the LORD of hosts:

14 But I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations whom they knew not. Thus the land was desolate after them, that no man passed through nor returned: for they laid the pleasant land desolate.

1 Jerusalem's restoration. 9 They are encouraged to the building by God's favour

AGAIN the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I was jealous for Zī'ōn with great jealousy, and I was jealous for her with great fury.

3 Thus saith the LORD; I am returned unto Zī'ōn, and will dwell in the midst of Jē-ry'sā-lēm: and Jē-ry'sā-lēm shall be called a city of truth; and the mountain of the LORD of hosts the holy mountain.

women dwell in the streets of Jĕ-ry'sā-lēm, and every man with his staff in his hand ¹for very age.

5 And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof.

6 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; If it be ²marvellous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days, ³should it also be marvellous in mine eyes? saith the LORD of hosts.

7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will save my people from the east country, and from ⁴the west country;

8 And I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jĕ-ry'sā-lēm: ⁵and they shall be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness.

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts; ⁶Let your hands be strong, ye that hear in these days these words by the mouth of ⁷the prophets, which were in ⁸the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built.

10 For before these days ⁹there was no hire for man, nor any hire for beast; neither was there any peace to him that went out or came in because of the affliction: for I set all men every one against his neighbour.

11 But now I will not be unto the residue of this people as in the former days, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 For the seed shall be ¹⁰prosperous; the vine shall give her fruit, and the ground shall give her increase, and the heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to ¹¹possess all these things.

13 And it shall come to pass, that as ye were ¹²a curse among the heathen, O house of Jū'dah, and house of ĩs-ra-el; so will I save you, and ye shall be a blessing: ¹³ye shall not fear, but let your hands be strong.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, ¹⁴As I thought to punish you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith the LORD of hosts, ¹⁵and I repented not:

15 So again have I thought in these days to do well unto Jĕ-ry'sā-lēm and to the house of Jū'dah: fear ye not.

16 ¶ These are the things that ye shall do; ¹⁶Speak ye every man the truth to his neighbour; ¹⁷execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates:

3 And Tý'rus did build herself a strong hold, and heaped up silver as the dust, and fine gold as the mire of the streets.

4 Behold, the Lord will cast her out, and he will smite ⁶her power in the sea; and she shall be devoured with fire.

5 ⁷Āsh'ke-lōn shall see it, and fear; ⁸Gā'za also shall see it, and be very sorrowful, and Ēk'rōn; for her expectation shall be ashamed; and the king shall perish from Gā'za, and Āsh'ke-lōn shall not be inhabited.

8 And I will encamp about mine house because of the army, because of him that passeth by, and because of him that returneth: and no oppressor shall pass through them any more: for now have I seen with mine eyes.

9 ¶ Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zī'ōn, shout, O daughter of Jē-ry'-sā-lēm: behold, thy King cometh unto thee: he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass.

10 And I will cut off the chariot from E'phrā-īm, and the horse from Jē-ry'-sā-lēm, and the battle bow shall be cut off: and he shall speak peace unto the heathen: and his dominion shall be from sea even to sea, and from the river even to the ends of the earth.

11 As for thee also, by the blood of thy covenant I have sent forth thy prisoners out of the pit wherein is no water.

12 ¶ Turn you to the strong hold, ye prisoners of hope: even to day do I declare that I will render double unto thee;

13 When I have bent Jū'dah for me, filled the bow with E'phrā-īm, and raised up thy sons, O Zī'ōn, against thy sons, O Greece, and made thee as the sword of a mighty man.

14 And the LORD shall be seen over them, and his arrow shall go forth as the lightning: and the Lord GOD shall blow the trumpet, and shall go with whirlwinds of the south.

15 The LORD of hosts shall defend them; and they shall devour, and subdue with sling stones; and they shall drink, and make a noise as through wine; and they shall be filled like bowls, and as the corners of the altar.

16 And the LORD their God shall save them in that day as the flock of his people: for they shall be as the stones of a crown, lifted up as an ensign upon his land.

2 For the idols have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie, and have told false dreams; they comfort in vain: therefore they went their way as a flock, they were troubled, because there was no shepherd.

3 Mine anger was kindled against the shepherds, and I punished the goats: for the LORD of hosts hath visited his flock the house of Jū'dah, and hath made them as his goodly horse in the battle.

4 Out of him came forth the corner, out of him the nail, out of him the battle bow, out of him every oppressor together.

5 ¶ And they shall be as mighty men, which tread down their enemies in the mire of the streets in the battle: and they shall fight, because the LORD is with them, and the riders on horses shall be confounded.

6 And I will strengthen the house of Jū'dah, and I will save the house of Jō'seph, and I will bring them again to place them; for I have mercy upon them: and they shall be as though I had not cast them off: for I am the LORD their God, and will hear them.

OPEN thy doors, O Lēb'a-non, that the fire may devour thy cedars.

² Howl, fir tree; for the cedar is fallen; because the ¹mighty are spoiled: howl, O ye oaks of Bā'shān; for ²the forest of the vintage is come down.

⁴ Thus saith the LORD my God; Feed the flock of the slaughter;

⁵ Whose possessors slay them, and ^ahold themselves not guilty: and they that sell them ^bsay, Blessed be the LORD; for I am rich: and their own shepherds pity them not.

⁶ For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD: but, lo, I will ^adeliver the men every one into his neighbour's hand, and into the hand of his king: and they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them.

⁷ And I will feed the flock of slaughter, ^aeven you, ^aO poor of the flock. And I took unto me two staves; the one I called Beauty, and the other I called ^aBands; and I fed the flock.

THE burden of the word of the LORD for Is'ra-el, saith the LORD, which stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and ^aformeth the spirit of man within him.

² Behold, I will make Jē-ry'sā-lēm a cup of ^atrembling unto all the people round about, ^awhen they shall be in the siege both against Jū'dah and against Jē-ry'sā-lēm.

³ ¶ And in that day will I make Jē-ry'sā-lēm ^aa burdensome stone for all people: all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it.

⁵ And the governors of Jū'dah shall say in their heart, ^aThe inhabitants of Jē-ry'sā-lēm ^ashall be my strength in the LORD of hosts their God.

CHAPTER 14.

1 Destruction of Jerusalem. 8 Coming of Christ, and grace of his kingdom. 12 Plague of Jerusalem's enemies. 18 The remnant shall turn to the Lord. 20 and their spoils shall be holy BEHOLD, the day of the LORD cometh, and thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee.

2 For ^aI will gather all nations against Jĕ-ry'sā-lēm to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

3 Then shall the LORD go forth, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle.

4 ¶ And his feet shall stand in that day ^bupon the mount of Ol'ives, which is before Jĕ-ry'sā-lēm on the east, and the mount of Ol'ives shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, ^aand there shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south.

5 And ye shall flee to the valley of ^athe mountains; ^afor the valley of the mountains shall reach unto A'zāl: yea, ye shall flee, like as ye fled from before the ^aearthquake in the days of Ū-zī'ah king of Jū'dah: ^aand the LORD my God shall come, and ^aall the saints with thee.

6 And it shall come to pass in that day, ³that the light shall not be ⁴clear, nor ⁵dark:

7 But ⁶it shall be one day which shall be known to the LORD, not day, nor night: but it shall come to pass, that at ⁷evening time it shall be light.

8 And it shall be in that day, that living ⁸waters shall go out from JĒ-ry'sā-lēm; half of them toward the ⁹former sea, and half of them toward the hinder sea: in summer and in winter shall it be.

9 And the LORD shall be ¹⁰king over all the earth: in that day shall there be ¹¹one LORD, and his name one.

10 All the land shall be ¹²turned as a plain from Gē'bā to Rīm'mōn south of JĒ-ry'sā-lēm: and it shall be lifted up, and ¹³inhabited in her place, from Bēn'ja-min's gate unto the place of the first gate, unto the corner gate, ¹⁴and from the tower of Hā-nān'e-el unto the king's wine-presses.

11 And men shall dwell in it, and there shall be ¹⁵no more utter destruction; but JĒ-ry'sā-lēm ¹⁶shall be safely inhabited.

12 ¶ And this shall be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite all the people that have fought against JĒ-ry'sā-lēm; Their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth.

13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that ¹⁷a great tumult from the LORD shall be among them; and they shall lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbour, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbour.

7 ^aYe offer polluted bread upon mine altar; and ye say, Wherein have we polluted thee? In that ye say, ^jThe table of the LORD is contemptible.

8 And if ye offer the blind ^kfor sacrifice, is it not evil? and if ye offer the lame and sick, is it not evil? offer it now unto thy governor; will he be pleased with thee, or ^laccept thy person? saith the LORD of hosts.

9 And now, I pray you, beseech ^mGod that he will be gracious unto us: ⁿthis hath been ^oby your means: will he regard your persons? saith the LORD of hosts.

10 Who is there even among you that would shut the doors for nought? ^pneither do ye kindle fire on mine altar for nought. I have no pleasure in you, saith the LORD of hosts: ^qneither will I accept an offering at your hand.

11 For ^rfrom the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same my name shall be great among the Gentiles; ^sand in every place ^tincense shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering: ^ufor my name shall be great among the heathen, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 ¶ But ye have profaned it, in that ye say, The table of the LORD is polluted; and the fruit thereof, even his meat, is contemptible.

13 Ye said also, Behold, what a weariness is it! ^vand ye have snuffed at it, saith the LORD of hosts; and ye brought that which was torn, and the lame, and the sick; thus ye brought an offering: ^wshould I accept this of your hand? saith the LORD.

14 ^xBut cursed be the deceiver, which hath in his flock a male, and voweth, and sacrificeth unto the Lord a corrupt thing: for I am a great King, saith the LORD of hosts, and my name is dreadful among the heathen.

¹ The priests are sharply reproved for profaning the covenant given them: ¹¹ and the people for strange marriages, ¹³ treachery, ¹⁷ and idleness.

on you, and I will curse your blessings: yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart.

3 Behold, I will ¹corrupt your seed, and ²spread dung upon your faces, even the dung of your solemn feasts; and ³one shall take you away with it.

4 And ye shall know that I have sent this commandment unto you, that my covenant might be with Le'vi, saith the LORD of hosts.

5 ^aMy covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him ^bfor the fear wherewith he feared me, and was afraid before my name.

6 The law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and equity, and did ^cturn many away from iniquity.

7 ^dFor the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: ^efor he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts.

8 But ye are departed out of the way; ye have ^fcaused many to ^gstumble at the law; ye have corrupted the covenant of Le'vi, saith the LORD of hosts.

9 Therefore have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but ^hhave been partial in the law.

10 ⁱHave we not all one father? ^jhath not one God created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers?

11 ¶ Ju'dah hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Is'ra-el and in Je-ru'sa-lém; for Ju'dah hath profaned the holiness of the LORD which he ^kloved, and ^lhath married the daughter of a strange god.

12 The LORD will cut off the man that doeth this, ^mthe master and the scholar, out of the tabernacles of Ja'qob, and him that offereth an offering unto the LORD of hosts.

13 And this have ye done again, covering the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with crying out, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, or receiveth it with good will at your hand.

14 ¶ Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because the LORD hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast

2 Ā'brā'hām begat I'saac; and I'saac begat Jā'qob; and Jā'qob begat Jū'das and his brethren;

3 And Jū'das begat Phā'rēs and Zā'rā of Thā'mar; and Phā'rēs begat Es'rom; and Es'rom begat Ā'ram;

4 And Ā'ram begat Ā'mīnā-dab; and Ā'mīnā-dab begat Nā'ās'son; and Nā'ās'son begat Sāl'mōn;

5 And Sāl'mōn begat Bō'oz of Rā'chāb; and Bō'oz begat Ō'bed of Rūth; and Ō'bed begat Jēs'sē;

6 And Jēs'sē begat Dā'vid the king; and Dā'vid the king begat Sōl'o-mon of her that had been the wife of U-rī'as;

7 And Sōl'o-mon begat Rō-bō'am; and Rō-bō'am begat Ā-bī'a; and Ā-bī'a begat Ā'sa;

8 And Ā'sa begat Jō'sē-phāt; and Jō'sē-phāt begat Jō'ram; and Jō'ram begat Ō-zī'as;

9 And Ō-zī'as begat Jō'a-thām; and Jō'a-thām begat Ā'chāz; and Ā'chāz begat Ēz-ē-kī'as;

10 And Ēz-ē-kī'as begat Mā'nās'sēs; and Mā'nās'sēs begat Ā'mon; and Ā'mon begat Jō'sī'as;

11 And Jō'sī'as begat Jēch-o-nī'as and his brethren, about the time they were carried away to Bāb'yl-on;

12 And after they were brought to Bāb'yl-on, Jēch-o-nī'as begat Sē-lā'thī-el; and Sē-lā'thī-el begat Zō-rōb'a-bēl;

13 And Zō-rōb'a-bēl begat Ā-bī'ud; and Ā-bī'ud begat Ē-lī'a-kīm; and Ē-lī'a-kīm begat Ā'zōi;

14 And Ā'zōi begat Sā'dōc; and Sā'dōc begat Ā'chīm; and Ā'chīm begat Ē-lī'ud;

15 And Ē-lī'ud begat Ē-le-ā'zar; and Ē-le-ā'zar begat Māt'than; and Māt'than begat Jā'qob;

16 And Jā'qob begat Jō'seph the husband of Mā'ry, of whom was born Jē'sus, who is called Christ.

17 So all the generations from Ā'brā'hām to Dā'vid are fourteen generations; and from Dā'vid until the carrying away into Bāb'yl-on are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Bāb'yl-on unto Christ are fourteen generations.

was on this wise: When as his mother Mā'ry was espoused to Jō'seph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Hō'ly Ghōst.

19 Then Jō'seph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a publick example, was minded to put her away privily.

20 But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Jō'seph, thou son of Dā'vid, fear not to take unto thee Mā'ry thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Hō'ly Ghōst.

21 And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name Jē'sus: for he shall save his people from their sins.

22 Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

23 Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Ēm-mān'u-el, which being interpreted is, God with us.

24 Then Jō'seph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife:

25 And knew her not till she had brought forth her firstborn son: and he called his name Jē'sus.

CHAPTER 2.

¹ Wise men enquire after Christ: ¹¹ they worship him, and offer presents: ¹⁴ Joseph fleeth into Egypt with Jesus and Mary: ¹⁶ Herod slayeth the children at Bethlehem: ¹⁹ Christ brought out of Egypt.

NOW when Jē'sus was born in Bēth'lē-hēm of Jū-dā'a in the days of Hēr'od the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jē-ry'sā-lēm,

2 Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

3 When Hēr'od the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jē-ry'sā-lēm with him.

4 And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born.

5 And they said unto him, In Bēth'lē-hēm of Jū-dā'a: for thus it is written by the prophet,

6 And thou Bēth'lē-hēm, in the land of Jū'dā, art not the least among the princes of Jū'dā: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Is'ra-el.

Magi worship Jesus. John's preaching.

7 Then Hēr'od, when he had privily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

8 And he sent them to Bēth'lē-hēm, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

9 When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

11 ¶ And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mā'ry his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts, gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

12 And being warned of God in a dream that they should not turn to Hēr'od, they departed into their own country another way.

13 And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Jō'seph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into E'gypt; and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Hēr'od will seek the young child to destroy him.

14 When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into E'gypt:

15 And was there until the death of Hēr'od: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, 'Out of E'gypt have I called my son.

16 ¶ Then Hēr'od, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bēth'lē-hēm, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently enquired of the wise men.

17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jēr'e-m'y the prophet, saying, 18 In Rā'mā was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rā'chel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.

19 ¶ But when Hēr'od was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Jō'seph in E'gypt, are dead which sought the young child's life.

21 And he arose, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Is'ra-el.

22 But when he heard that Ār-chē-lā'us did reign in Jū-dā'a in the room of his father Hēr'od, he was afraid to go thither: notwithstanding, being warned of God in a dream, he turned aside into the parts of Gāl'lee:

23 And he came and dwelt in a city called Nāz'a-rēth: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, He shall be called a Nāz'a-rēne.

CHAPTER 3.

1 John preacheth. his office, & baptism: 7 he rebuketh the Pharisees. 18 Christ baptized by John in Jordan.

I N those days came Jōhn the Bāp'tist, preaching in the wilderness of Jū-dā'a,

2 And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

3 For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet E-sā'ias, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 And the same Jōhn had his rament of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his meat was locusts and wild honey.

5 Then went out to him Jē-rū'sā-lēm, and all Jū-dā'a, and all the region round about Jōr'dān,

6 And were baptized of him in Jōr'dān, confessing their sins.

7 ¶ But when he saw many of the Phār'isees and Sād'du-cess come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance:

9 And think not to say within yourselves, We have Ā'brā'hām to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Ā'brā'hām.

10 And now also the ax is laid unto the root of the trees: therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

11 I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Hō'l'y Ghōst, and with fire:

12 Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

13 ¶ Then cometh Jē'sus *from Gāl'lee to Jōr'dan unto Jōhn, to be baptized of him.

14 But Jōhn forbad him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me?

15 And Jē'sus answering said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to * fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffered him.

16 And *Jē'sus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw *the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him:

17 And *lo a voice from heaven, saying, * This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Christ fasteth, is tempted, and overcometh 17 he becometh to preach 18 he calleth Peter and 19 from 23 he teacheth in the synagogue, and healeth the diseases

THEN was *Jē'sus led up of *the spirit into the wilderness to be *tempted of the devil.

2 And when he had *fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward an hungred.

3 And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread.

4 But he answered and said, * It is written, * Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

5 Then the devil taketh him up into *the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple,

6 And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, * He shall give his angels charge concerning thee: and in *their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

7 Jē'sus said unto him, It is written again, *Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

8 Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them,

9 And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me.

10 Then saith Jē'sus unto him, Get thee hence, Sā'tan: for it is written, *Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

11 Then the devil *leaveth him, and, behold, *angels came and ministered unto him.

12 ¶ Now *when Jē'sus had heard that Jōhn was *cast into prison, he departed into Gāl'lee;

13 And leaving Nāz'a-rēth, he came and dwelt in Cā-pēr'uā-tim, which is upon the sea coast, in the borders of Zāb'u-lon and Nēph'thā-līm:

14 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by E-sā'ias the prophet, saying,

15 The * land of Zāb'u-lon, and the land of Nēph'thā-līm, by the way of the sea, beyond Jōr'dan, Gāl'lee of the Gēn'tiles;

16 The * people which sat in darkness saw great light; and to them which sat in the region and shadow of death light is sprung up.

17 ¶ From *that time Jē'sus began to preach, and to say, * Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

18 ¶ And *Jē'sus, walking by the sea of Gāl'lee, saw two brethren, Sī'mon *called Pē'tēr, and An'drew his brother, casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.

19 And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I *will make you fishers of men.

20 And *they straightway left their nets, and followed him.

21 And *going on from thence, he saw other two brethren, Jāmes, the son of Zēb'e-dee, and Jōhn his brother, in a ship with Zēb'e-dee their father, mending their nets; and he called them.

22 And they immediately left the ship and their father, and followed him.

23 ¶ And Jē'sus went about all Gāl'lee, teaching *in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people.

24 And his *fame went throughout all Sūr'a: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatick, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them.

25 And there followed him great multitudes of people from Gāl'lee, and from Dē-cāp'ō-lis, and from Jē-ry'sā-lēm, and from Jū-dē'a, and from beyond Jōr'dan.

CHAPTER 5.

8 Who are blessed 18 The disciples called the salt of the earth, and light of the world; Christ urgeth on them a good example, etc.

AND seeing the multitudes, *he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him:

2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,

3 Blessed *are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

MATTHEW, 5.

Christ's sermon on the mount.

4 Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

5 Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

6 Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

7 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

8 Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

9 Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

10 Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

11 Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

12 Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

13 ¶ Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.

14 Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

15 Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

16 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

17 ¶ Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.

18 For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.

19 Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

20 For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

21 ¶ Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment:

22 But I say unto you, That whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire.

23 Therefore if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee;

24 Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.

25 Agree with thine adversary quickly, whiles thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison.

26 Verily I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing.

27 ¶ Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not commit adultery:

28 But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.

29 And if thy right eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

30 And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

31 It hath been said, Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement:

32 But I say unto you, That *who*soever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced committeth adultery.

33 ¶ Again, ye have heard that it hath been said by them of old time, Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but thou shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths:

34 But I say unto you, Swear not at all; neither by heaven; for it is God's throne:

35 Nor by the earth; for it is his footstool: neither by Jerusalem; for it is the city of the great King.

36 Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, because thou canst not make one hair white or black.

37 But let your communication be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil.

38 ¶ Ye have heard that it hath been said, An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth:

39 But I say unto you, That ye resist not evil: but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also.

40 And if any man will sue thee at the law, and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloke also.

41 And whosoever shall compel thee to go a mile, go with him twain.

42 Give to him that asketh thee, and from him that would borrow of thee turn not thou away.

43 ¶ Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy.

44 But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you;

45 That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust.

46 For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same?

47 And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the publicans so?

48 Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Of alms, & prayer, 14 forgiveness. 19 Our treasure. 24 Of God and mammon.

TAKE heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven.

2 Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

3 But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth:

4 That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret himself shall reward thee openly.

5 ¶ And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

6 But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.

7 But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

8 Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.

9 After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.

10 Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

11 Give us this day our daily bread.

12 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

13 And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

14 For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you:

15 But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

16 ¶ Moreover when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

17 But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face;

18 That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

19 ¶ Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal:

20 But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:

21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

22 The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

23 But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!

24 ¶ No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. * Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

25 Therefore I say unto you, * Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?

26 Behold * the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?

27 Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature?

28 And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

29 And yet I say unto you, That even Sol'o-mon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

30 Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?

31 Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?

32 (For after all these things do the Gen'tiles seek :) for * your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

33 But * seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

34 Take therefore no * thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

CHAPTER 7.

2 For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: * and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.

3 And * why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

6 ¶ Give * not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you.

7 ¶ Ask, * and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you:

8 For * every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

9 Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone?

10 Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent?

11 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much * more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?

12 Therefore all things * whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for thus * is the law and the prophets.

13 ¶ Enter * ye in at the strait gate: * for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat:

14 * Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

15 ¶ Beware * of false prophets, which * come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they * are ravening wolves.

16 Ye shall know them by their fruits. * Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?

17 Even so * every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit.

18 A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

19 Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

20 Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

21 ¶ Not every one that saith unto me, * Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we * not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

23 And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: * depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

24 ¶ Therefore ¹whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock:

25 And ²the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and ³it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock.

26 And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand:

27 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: ⁴and great was the fall of it.

28 And it came to pass, when Jē'sus had ended these sayings, ⁵the people were astonished at his doctrine:

29 For ⁶he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

CHAPTER 8.

² Christ cleanseth the leper ⁵ healeth the centurion's servant, ¹⁴ Peter's mother in law ¹⁸ and many other diseased, ²³ stills the tempest

WHEN he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.

2 And, ¹behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

3 And Jē'sus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

4 And Jē'sus saith unto him, ²See thou tell no man; but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that ³Mō'ses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

5 ¶ And ⁴when Jē'sus was entered into Cā-pēr'nā-ūm, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him,

6 And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented.

7 And Jē'sus saith unto him, I will come and heal him.

8 The centurion answered and said, Lord, I ¹am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but ²speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed.

9 For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me; and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

10 When Jē'sus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Is'ra-el.

12 But ²the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

13 And Jē'sus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, ³so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the selfsame hour.

14 ¶ And ⁴when Jē'sus was come into Pē'tēr's house, he saw ⁵his wife's mother laid, and sick of a fever.

15 And he touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose, and ministered unto them.

16 ¶ When ⁶the even was come, they brought unto him many that were possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick:

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Jē'sā'as the prophet, saying, Himself ⁷took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses.

18 ¶ Now when Jē'sus saw great multitudes about him, he gave commandment to depart unto the other side.

19 And ⁸a certain scribe came, and said unto him, Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

20 And Jē'sus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but ⁹the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

23 ¶ And when he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him.

24 And, ¹³behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, inasmuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but he was asleep.

25 And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish.

26 And he saith unto them, Why ¹⁴are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then ¹⁵he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm.

Gēr-gē-sēnes, there met him two possessed with devils, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way.

29 And, behold, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with thee, Jē'sus, thou Son of God? art thou come hither to torment us before the time?

30 And there was a good way off from them an herd of many swine feeding.

31 So the devils besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the herd of swine.

32 And he said unto them, Go. And when they were come out, they went into the herd of swine: and, behold, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea, and perished in the waters.

33 And they that kept them fled, and went their ways into the city, and told every thing, and what was befallen to the possessed of the devils.

34 And, behold, the whole city came out to meet Jē'sus: and when they saw him, they besought him that he would depart out of their coasts.

AND he entered into a ship, and passed over, and came into his own city.

2 And, behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed: and Jē'sus seeing their faith said unto the sick of the palsy; Son, be of good cheer; thy sins be forgiven thee.

3 And, behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth.

4 And Jē'sus knowing their thoughts said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts?

5 For whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and walk?

6 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (then saith he to the sick of the palsy,) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house.

7 And he arose, and departed to his house.

8 But when the multitudes saw it, they marvelled, and glorified God, which had given such power unto men.

from thence, he saw a man, named Mat'thew, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.

10 ¶ And it came to pass, as Jē'sus sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples.

11 And when the Phār'isees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Master with publicans and sinners?

12 But when Jē'sus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick.

13 But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

14 ¶ Then came to him the disciples of Jōhn, saying, Why do we and the Phār'isees fast oft, but thy disciples fast not?

15 And Jē'sus said unto them, Can the children of the bridechamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then shall they fast.

16 No man putteth a piece of new cloth unto an old garment, for that which is put in to fill it up, taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse.

17 Neither do men put new wine into old bottles: else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish: but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved.

18 ¶ While he spake these things unto them, behold, there came a certain ruler, and worshipped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead: but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live.

19 And Jē'sus arose, and followed him, and so did his disciples.

20 ¶ And, behold, a woman, which was diseased with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the hem of his garment:

21 For she said within herself, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole.

22 But Jē'sus turned him about, and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort; thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour.

23 And when Jē'sus came into the ruler's house, and saw ^athe minstrels and the people making a noise,

24 He said unto them, ^aGive place: for the maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn.

25 But when the people were put forth, he went in, and took her by the hand, and the maid arose.

26 And ^athe fame hereof went abroad into all that land.

27 ¶ And when Jē'sus departed thence, two blind men followed him, crying, and saying, ^aThou son of Da'vid, have mercy on us.

28 And when he was come into the house, the blind men came to him: and Jē'sus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They said unto him, Yea, Lord.

29 Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it unto you.

30 And ^atheir eyes were opened; and Jē'sus strictly charged them, saying, See ^athat no man know it.

31 But ^athey, when they were departed, spread abroad his fame in all that country.

32 ¶ As ^athey went out, behold, they brought to him a dumb man possessed with a devil.

33 And when the devil was cast out, the dumb spake: and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Is'ra-el.

34 But the Phar'isees said, He casteth out devils through the prince of the devils.

35 And ^aJē'sus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people.

36 ¶ But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they ^afainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd.

37 Then saith he unto his disciples, ^aThe harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few;

38 Pray ^aye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest.

4 Si'mon ^athe Cā'nāan-ite, and Jū'das ^aIs-cār-Iot, who also betrayed him.

5 These twelve Jē'sus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not into the way of the Gēn'tiles, and into any city of ^athe Sā-nār'I-tan; enter ye not:

6 But ^ago rather to the ^alost sheep of the house of Is'ra-el.

7 And ^aas ye go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand.

8 Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: freely ye have received, freely give.

9 ^aProvide neither gold, nor silver, nor brass in your purses,

10 Nor scrip for your journey, neither two coats, neither shoes, nor yet ^astaves: ^afor the workman is worthy of his meat.

11 And into whatsoever city or town ye shall enter, enquire who in it is worthy; and there abide till ye go thence.

12 And when ye come into an house, salute it.

13 And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it: but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you.

14 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city, ^ashake off the dust of your feet.

15 Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sōd'om and Gō-mōr'r'hā in the day of judgment, than for that city.

16 ¶ Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: ^abe ye therefore wise as serpents, and ^bharmless as doves.

17 But beware of men. for they will deliver you up to the councils, and ^athey will scourge you in their synagogues;

18 And ^aye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gēn'tiles.

19 But when they deliver you up, take no thought how or what ye shall speak: for ^ait shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak.

20 For ^ait is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you.

22 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: *but he that endureth to the end shall be saved.

23 But *when they persecute you in this city, flee ye into another: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not *have gone over the cities of Is'ra-el, till *the Son of man be come.

24 The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord.

25 It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord. If they have called the master of the house Bê-êl'ze-bûb*, how much more shall they call them of his household?

26 Fear them not therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known.

27 What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the house tops.

28 And *fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.

33 But *whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven.

34 Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword.

35 For I am come to set a man at variance *against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.

36 And a man's foes shall be they of his own household.

37 He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me.

38 And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me, is not worthy of me.

CHAPTER 11.

2 John sendeth his disciples to Christ. ¶ The testimony of Christ concerning John 20 Christ upbraideth the unthankfulness and impenitence of Chorazin, Bethsaida, and Capernaum, etc.

AND it came to pass, when Jê'sus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to teach and to preach in their cities.

2 Now *when Jôhn had heard in *the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples,

3 And said unto him, Art thou he *that should come, or do we look for another?

4 Jê'sus answered and said unto them, Go and shew Jôhn again those things which ye do hear and see:

5 The *blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the *poor have the gospel preached to them.

6 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be *offended in me.

7 ¶ And *as they departed, Jê'sus began to say unto the multitudes concerning Jôhn, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

8 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? behold, they that wear soft clothing are in kings' houses.

9 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? yea, I say unto you, *and more than a prophet.

10 For this is he, of whom it is written, *Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

11 Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than Jôhn the Bâp'tist: notwithstanding he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

12 And *from the days of Jôhn the Bâp'tist until now the kingdom of heaven *suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.

13 For *all the prophets and the law prophesied until Jôhn.

14 And if ye will receive it, this is ^{the} sign which was for to come.

15 He ^{that} hath ears to hear, let him hear.

16 ¶ But ^{whereunto} shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows, 17 And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented.

18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a devil.

19 The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man gluttonous, and a winebibber, ^a friend of publicans and sinners. ^{But} wisdom is justified of her children.

20 ¶ Then ^{he} began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not:

21 Woe unto thee, Chôr-lâ'zîn! woe unto thee, Bêth-sâ'î-lâ! for if the mighty works, which were done in you, had been done in Tÿre and Sidôn, they would have repented long ago ⁱⁿ sackcloth and ashes.

22 But I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Tÿre and Sidôn at the day of judgment, than for you.

23 And thou, Că-pêr'na-ûm, ^{which} art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sôd'om, it would have remained until this day.

24 But I say unto you, That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sôd'om in the day of judgment, than for thee.

25 ¶ At that time Jê'sus answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou ^{hast} hid these things from the wise and prudent, and ^{hast} revealed them unto babes.

26 Even so, Father: for so it seemed good in thy sight.

27 All ^{things} are delivered unto me of my Father: and no man knoweth the Son, but the Father; neither ^{knoweth} any man the Father, save the Son, and ^{he} to whomsoever the Son will reveal him.

28 ¶ Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

29 Take my yoke upon you, ^{and} learn of me; for I am meek and lowly ⁱⁿ heart: and ^{ye} shall find rest unto your souls.

30 For ^{my} yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

CHAPTER 12.

Christ reproveth the blindness of the Pharisees concerning the sabbath.

AT that time ^{Jê'sus} went on the sabbath day through the corn; and his disciples were an hungred, and began to pluck the ears of corn, and to eat.

2 But when the Phăr'isees saw it, they said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which is not lawful to do upon the sabbath day.

3 But he said unto them, Have ye not read ^{what} Dâ'vid did, when he was an hungred, and they that were with him;

4 How he entered into the house of God, and did eat ^{the} shewbread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, ^{but} only for the priests?

5 Or have ye not read in ^{the} law, how that on the sabbath days the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blameless?

6 But I say unto you, That in this place is ^{one} greater than the temple.

7 But if ye had known what ^{this} meaneth, I ^{will} have mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless.

8 For the ^{Son} of man is Lord even of the sabbath day.

9 And ^{when} he was departed thence, he went into their synagogue:

10 ¶ And, behold, there was a man which had ^{his} hand withered. And they asked him, saying, ^{Is} it lawful to heal on the sabbath days? that they might accuse him.

11 And he said unto them, What man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep, and ^{if} it fall into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out?

12 How much then is a man better than a sheep? Wherefore it is lawful to do well on the sabbath days.

13 Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, like as the other.

14 ¶ Then ^{the} Phăr'isees went out, and ^{held} a council against him, how they might destroy him.

15 But when Jê'sus ^{knew} it, ^{he} withdrew himself from thence: and great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all;

16 And charged them that they should not make him known:

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by E-sâ'ias the prophet, saying,

18 Behold ^{my} servant, whom I have chosen; my beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my spirit upon him, and he shall shew judgment to the Gentiles.

19 He shall not strive, nor cry; neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets.

20 A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment unto victory.

21 And in his name shall the Gentiles trust.

22 ¶ Then was brought unto him one possessed with a devil, blind, and dumb: and he healed him, inasmuch that the blind and dumb both spake and saw.

23 And all the people were amazed, and said, Is not this the son of David?

24 But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out devils, but by Beelzebub the prince of the devils.

25 And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand:

26 And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand?

27 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your children cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges.

28 But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you.

29 Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house.

30 He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad.

31 ¶ Wherefore I say unto you, All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men.

32 And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come.

33 Either make the tree good, and his fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by his fruit.

34 O generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

35 A good man out of the good treasure of the heart bringeth forth good things: and an evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth evil things.

36 But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment.

37 For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

38 ¶ Then certain of the scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying, Master, we would see a sign from thee.

39 But he answered and said unto them, An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jōnas.

40 For as Jōnas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

41 The men of Nineveh shall rise in judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: because they repented at the preaching of Jōnas; and, behold, a greater than Jōnas is here.

42 The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here.

43 When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none.

44 Then he saith, I will return into my house from whence I came out; and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished.

45 Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation.

46 ¶ While he yet talked to the people, behold, his mother and his brethren stood without, desiring to speak with him.

47 Then one said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to speak with thee.

48 But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren?

49 And he stretched forth his hand toward his disciples, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren!

CHAPTER 13.

8 Of the sower and the seed. 10 Why Christ spake in parables. 18 The exposition of the parable of the sower. 24 Diverse other parables, etc.

THE same day went Jē'sus out of the house, and sat by the sea side.

2 And great multitudes were gathered together unto him, so that he went into a ship, and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

3 And he spake many things unto them in parables, saying, Behold, a sower went forth to sow;

4 And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the fowls came and devoured them up:

5 Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth:

6 And when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up, and choked them:

8 But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some an hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold.

9 Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables?

11 He answered and said unto them, Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

12 For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath.

13 Therefore speak I to them in parables: because they seeing see not; and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand.

14 And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of E-sā'ias, which saith, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive:

15 For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear.

17 For verily I say unto you, That many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

18 ¶ Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower.

19 When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side.

20 But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon with joy receiveth it;

21 Yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while: for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by he is offended.

22 He also that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and the care of this world and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful.

23 But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

24 ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field:

25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.

26 But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

27 So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?

28 He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?

29 But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.

30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

31 ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field:

MATTHEW, 14. Parables representing the kingdom of heaven.

32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof.

33 ¶ Another ^wparable spake he unto them; The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three ¹measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

34 All these things spake Jē'sus unto the multitude in parables; and without a parable spake he not unto them:

35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, ^wI will open my mouth in parables; ^wI will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.

36 Then Jē'sus sent the multitude away, and went unto the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.

37 He answered and said unto them, He that ^wsoweth the good seed is the Son of man;

38 The ^wfield is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are ^bthe children of the wicked one;

39 The enemy that sowed them is the devil; ^wthe harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.

40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world.

41 The Son of man shall send forth his angels, ^wand they shall gather out of his kingdom all ^wthings that offend, and them which do iniquity;

42 And ^wshall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be walling and gnashing of teeth.

43 Then ^wshall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

44 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and ^wselleth all that he hath, and ^wbuyeth that field.

45 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls:

46 Who, when he had found ^wone pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

47 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered ^wof every kind:

48 Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away.

49 So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just,

50 And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be walling and gnashing of teeth.

51 Jē'sus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord.

52 Then said he unto them, Therefore every scribe ^{which is} instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man ^{that is} an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure ^wthings new and old.

53 ¶ And it came to pass, ^{that} when Jē'sus had finished these parables, he departed thence.

54 And ^wwhen he was come into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, inasmuch that they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this ^{man} this wisdom, and ^{these} mighty works?

55 Is ^wnot this the carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mā'r'y? and ^whis brethren, ^wJāmes, and Jō'sēs, and Si'mon, and Jū'das?

56 And his sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then hath this ^{man} all these things?

57 And they ^wwere offended in him. But Jē'sus said unto them, A ^wprophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house.

58 And ^whe did not many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

CHAPTER 14.

1 Herod's opinion of Christ. 8 John Baptist beheaded. 15 Five thousand fed, etc.

AT that time ^wHēr'od the tetrarch heard of the fame of Jē'sus,

2 And said unto his servants, This is Jōhn the Bāp't'ist; he is risen from the dead; and therefore mighty works ^wdo shew forth themselves in him.

3 ¶ For ^wHēr'od had laid hold on Jōhn, and bound him, and put ^{him} in prison for Hēr'od'as' sake, his brother Phil'ip's wife.

4 For Jōhn said unto him, ^wIt is not lawful for thee to have her.

5 And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, ^wbecause they counted him as a prophet.

6 But when Hēr'od's ^wbirthday was kept, the daughter of Hēr'od'as danced ^wbefore them, and pleased Hēr'od.

7 Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatsoever she would ask.

8 And she, being before instructed of her mother, said, Give me here Jōhn Bāp'tist's head in a charger.

9 And the king was sorry: nevertheless for the oath's sake, and them which sat with him at meat, he commanded it to be given her.

10 And he sent, and beheaded Jōhn in the prison.

11 And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damsel: and she brought it to her mother.

12 And his disciples came, and took up the body, and buried it, and went and told Jē'sus.

13 ¶ When Jē'sus heard of it, he departed thence by ship into a desert place apart: and when the people had heard thereof, they followed him on foot out of the cities.

14 And Jē'sus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion toward them, and he healed their sick.

15 ¶ And when it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the time is now past; send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves victuals.

16 But Jē'sus said unto them, They need not depart; give ye them to eat.

17 And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes.

18 He said, Bring them hither to me.

19 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, and took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, and brake, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

20 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that remained twelve baskets full.

21 And they that had eaten were about five thousand men, beside women and children.

22 ¶ And straightway Jē'sus constrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away.

23 And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: and when the evening was come, he was there alone.

24 But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves, for the wind was contrary.

25 And in the fourth watch of the night Jē'sus went unto them, walking on the sea.

26 And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit; and they cried out for fear.

27 But straightway Jē'sus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid.

28 And Pē'tēr answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water.

29 And he said, Come. And when Pē'tēr was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jē'sus.

30 But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me.

31 And immediately Jē'sus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?

32 And when they were come into the ship, the wind ceased.

33 Then they that were in the ship came and worshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou art the Son of God.

34 ¶ And when they were gone over, they came into the land of Gēn-nēs'a-rēt.

35 And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all that country round about, and brought unto him all that were diseased;

36 And besought him that they might only touch the hem of his garment: and as many as touched were made perfectly whole.

CHAPTER 15.

1 Of God's commandments, and men's traditions.
10 Christ sheweth what defileth a man: 29 he healeth great multitudes, etc.

THEN came to Jē'sus scribes and Phār't-sees, which were of Jē-ri'sā-lēm, saying,

2 Why do thy disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread.

3 But he answered and said unto them, Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition?

4 For God commanded, saying, Honour thy father and mother: and, He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death.

5 But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, It is a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me;

6 And honour not his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition.

7 Ye hypocrites, well did E-sā'as prophesy of you, saying,

MATTHEW, 16.

What defiles a man. The multitude fed.

8 This ^a people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.

9 But in vain they do worship me, teaching ^{for} doctrines the commandments of men.

10 ¶ And ^{he} called the multitude, and said unto them, Hear, and understand:

11 Not ^a that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man; but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man.

12 Then came his disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Phārl-sees were offended, after they heard this saying?

13 But he answered and said, Every ^a plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up.

14 Let ^a them alone: ^a they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

15 Then ^a answered Pētr and said unto him, Declare unto us this parable.

16 And Jē'sus said, ^a Are ye also yet without understanding?

17 Do not ye yet understand, that whatsoever ^a entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught?

18 But ^a those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man.

19 For ^a out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies:

20 These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man.

21 ¶ Then Jē'sus went thence, and departed into the coasts of Tÿre and Sidōn.

22 And, behold, a woman of Cānāan came out of the same coasts, and cried unto him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, ^{thou} son of Dāvīd; my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil.

23 But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us.

24 But he answered and said, ^a I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Is'ra-el.

25 Then came she and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me.

26 But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to ^a dogs.

27 And she said, Trath, Lord: yet

30 And ^a great multitudes came unto him, having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them down at Jē'sus' feet; and he healed them:

CHAPTER 16.

¹ The Pharisees require a sign. ⁵ Of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees, etc.

THE ^a Phārl-sees also with the Sād'du-cess came, and tempting desired him that he would shew them a sign from heaven.

2 He answered and said unto them, When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather: for the sky is red.

3 And in the morning, It will be foul weather to day: for the sky is red and lowring. O ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky; but can ye not discern the ^b signs of the times?

4 A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the prophet Jō'nas. And he left them, and departed.

5 And ^d when his disciples were come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread.

6 ¶ Then Jē'sus said unto them, Take heed and beware of the leaven of the Phār'isees and of the Sād'du-ceeds.

7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have taken no bread.

8 Which when Jē'sus perceived, he said unto them, O ye of little faith, why reason ye among yourselves, because ye have brought no bread?

9 Do ye not yet understand, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

10 Neither ^e the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

11 How is it that ye do not understand that I spake it not to you concerning bread, that ye should beware of the leaven of the Phār'isees and of the Sād'du-ceeds?

12 Then understood they how that he bade them not beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Phār'isees and of the Sād'du-ceeds.

13 ¶ When Jē'sus came into the coasts of Cēsā-rē'a Phil'ip'pi, he asked his disciples, saying, ^a Whom do men say that I the Son of man am?

14 And they said, Some say that thou art Jōhn the Bāp'tist: some, E-l'i'as; and others, Jēr-ē-mi'as, or one of the prophets.

15 He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am?

16 And Sī'mon Pē'tēr answered and said, ^b Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.

17 And Jē'sus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Sī'mon Bār-jō'na: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but ^c my Father which is in heaven.

18 And I say also unto thee, That ^d thou art Pē'tēr, and ^e upon this rock I will build my church; and ^f the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

19 And ^g I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

22 Then Pē'tēr took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, ¹ Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee.

CHAPTER 17.

1 The transfiguration of Christ: 14 he healeth the boy with a gadfly: 14 he payeth tribute

AND ^a after six days Jē'sus taketh Pē'tēr, Jāmes, and Jōhn his brother, and bringeth them up into an high mountain apart,

2 And was transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light.

3 And, behold, there appeared unto them ^b Mō'ses and E-l'i'as talking with him.

4 Then answered Pē'tēr, and said unto Jē'sus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Mō'ses, and one for E-l'i'as.

5 While ^c he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, ^d This is my beloved Son, ^e in whom I am well pleased; ^f hear ye him.

6 And ^g when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid.

7 And Jē'sus came and touched

MATTHEW, 18.

them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid.

8 And when they had lifted up their eyes, they saw no man, save Jē'sus only.

9 And as they came down from the mountain, Jē'sus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead.

10 And his disciples asked him, saying, ^a Why then say the scribes that Ê-li'as must first come?

11 And Jē'sus answered and said unto them, Ê-li'as truly shall first come, and restore ^a all things.

12 But ^a I say unto you, That Ê-li'as is come already, and they knew him not, but have ^a done unto him whatsoever they listed. Likewise shall also the Son of man suffer of them.

13 Then the disciples understood that he spake unto them of Jōhn the Bāp'tist.

14 ¶ And ^a when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, kneeling down to him, and saying,

15 Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is lunatick, and sore vexed: for oftentimes he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water.

16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him.

17 Then Jē'sus answered and said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me.

18 And Jē'sus rebuked the devil; and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour.

19 Then came the disciples to Jē'sus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out?

20 And Jē'sus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, ^a If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you.

21 Howbeit this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting.

22 ¶ And ^a while they abode in Galilee, Jē'sus said unto them, The Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men:

23 And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again. And they were exceeding sorry.

24 ¶ And ^a when they were come to Cā-pēr-na-ūm, they that received ^a tribute money came to Pē-tēr, and said, Doth not your master pay tribute?

25 He saith, Yes. And when he was come into the house, Jē'sus prevented him, saying, What thinkest thou, Si'mon? of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? of their own children, or of strangers?

26 Pē-tēr saith unto him, Of strangers. Jē'sus saith unto him, Then are the children free.

27 Notwithstanding, lest we should ^a offend them, go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up, and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find ^a a piece of money: that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

CHAPTER 18.

1 Christ teacheth to be humble 7 Touching offences, 21 and forgiving one another

AT ^a the same time came the disciples unto Jē'sus, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?

2 And Jē'sus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them,

3 And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ^a ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

4 Whosoever ^a therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

5 And ^a whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me.

6 But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

7 ¶ Woe unto the world because of offences! for ^a it must needs be that offences come; but ^a woe to that man by whom the offence cometh!

8 Wherefore ^a if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire.

9 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire.

10 Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their ^a angels do always ^a behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.

11 For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost.

12 How ^a think ye? if a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray?

13 And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray.

14 Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

15 ¶ Moreover ^aif thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone. if he shall hear thee, thou ^bhast gained thy brother.

16 But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that ^cin the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.

17 And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell ^dit unto ^ethe church: but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as an ^fheathen man and a publican.

18 Verily I say unto you, ^gWhatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

19 Again ^hI say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, ⁱit shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven.

20 For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there ^jam I in the midst of them.

21 ¶ Then came Pē'tēr to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? ^ktill seven times?

22 Jē'sus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: but, ^lUntil seventy times seven.

23 ¶ Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would take account of his servants.

24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand ^mtalents.

25 But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him to ⁿbe sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

26 The servant therefore fell down, and ^oworshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

27 Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.

28 But the same servant went out,

29 And his fellowservant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

30 And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt.

31 So when his fellowservants saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done.

32 Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, O thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me:

33 Shouldest ^bnot thou also have had compassion on thy fellowservant, even as I had pity on thee?

34 And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him.

35 So ^clikewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses.

CHAPTER 19.

¹ Christ healeth the sick, ³ he answereth the Pharisees touching divorcement, ¹⁶ he instructeth how to attain everlasting life, etc.

AND it came to pass, ^athat when Jē'sus had finished these sayings, he departed from Gāl'ilee, and came into the coasts of Jū-dæ'a beyond Jōr'dan;

2 And ^bgreat multitudes followed him; and he healed them there.

3 ¶ The Phār'isees also came unto him, tempting him, and saying unto him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause?

4 And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, ^cthat he which made them at the beginning made them male and female,

5 And said, ^dFor this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: ^eand they twain shall be one flesh?

6 Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

7 They say unto him, ^fWhy did Mō'ses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away?

8 He saith unto them, Mō'ses because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but ^gfrom the beginning it was not so.

9 And ^hI say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except ⁱit be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery.

10 ¶ His disciples say unto him, If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry.

11 But he said unto them, All men cannot receive this saying, save they to whom it is given.

12 For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb: and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men: and there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

13 ¶ Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should put his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them.

14 But Jē'sus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven.

15 And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence.

16 ¶ And, behold, one came and said unto him, Good Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life?

17 And he said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God: but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments.

18 He saith unto him, Which? Jē'sus said, Thou shalt do no murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, 19 Honour thy father and thy mother: and, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

20 The young man saith unto him, All these things have I kept from my youth up: what lack I yet?

21 Jē'sus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me.

22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions.

23 ¶ Then said Jē'sus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven.

24 And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

CHAPTER 20.

1 Of the labourers in the vineyard. 17 Christ foretelleth his passion 20 teacheth his disciples to be lowly, 29 and giveth sight to two blind men

FOR the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard.

2 And when he had agreed with the labourers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard.

3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the marketplace,

4 And said unto them; Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way.

5 Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise.

6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and said unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle?

7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard; and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive.

8 So when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first.

9 And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny.

10 But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise received every man a penny.

11 And when they had received it, they murmured against the goodman of the house, 12 Saying, These last ^a have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and heat of the day.

13 But he answered one of them, and said, Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a penny?

14 Take that thine is, and go thy way: I will give unto this last, even as unto thee.

15 Is ^b it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? ^c Is thine eye evil, because I am good?

16 So ^d the last shall be first, and the first last: ^e for many be called, but few chosen.

17 ¶ And ^f Jē'sus going up to Jē-ry'sā-lēm took the twelve disciples apart in the way, and said unto them,

18 Behold, ^g we go up to Jē-ry'sā-lēm; and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death,

19 And ^h shall deliver him to the Gēn'tiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify him: and the third day he shall rise again.

20 ¶ Then ⁱ came to him ^j the mother of Zēb'ē-dee's ^k children with her sons, worshipping him, and desiring a certain thing of him.

21 And he said unto her, What wilt thou? She saith unto him, Grant that these my two sons ^l may sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left, in thy kingdom.

22 But Jē'sus answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of the ^m cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with the ⁿ baptism that I am baptized with? They say unto him, We are able.

23 And he saith unto them, ^o Ye shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to ^p give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared of my Father.

24 And ^q when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation against the two brethren.

25 But Jē'sus called them unto him, and said, Ye know that the princes of the Gēn'tiles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them.

26 But ^r it shall not be so among you: but whosoever ^s will be great among you, let him be your minister;

10 And ^awhen he was come into Jē-rū'sā-lēm, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this?

11 And the multitude said, This is Jē'sus the 'prophet of Nāz'a-rēth of Gāl'lee.

12 ¶ And ^aJē'sus went into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the ^amoneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves, 13 And said unto them, It is written, ^aMy house shall be called the house of prayer; but ^aye have made it a den of thieves.

14 And ^athe blind and the lame came to him in the temple; and he healed them.

15 And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hō-sān-na to ^athe son of Dā'vid; they were sore displeased, 16 And said unto him, Hearest thou what these say? And Jē'sus saith unto them, Yea; have ye never read, ^aOut of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?

17 ¶ And he left them, and went out of the city into ^aBēth'ā-n'y; and he lodged there.

18 Now in the morning as he returned into the city, he hungered.

19 And when he saw ^aa fig tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only, and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And presently the fig tree withered away.

20 And when the disciples saw ^ait, they marvelled, saying, How soon is the fig tree withered away!

21 Jē'sus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, ^aIf ye have faith, and ^adoubt not, ye shall not only do this ^awhich is done to the fig tree, ^abut also if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done.

22 And ^aall things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.

23 ¶ And ^awhen he was come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and said, ^aBy what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority?

24 And ^aJē'sus answered and said unto them, I also will ask you one thing, which if ye tell me, I in like wise will tell you by what authority I do these things.

was it? from heaven, or of men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say unto us, Why did ye not then believe him?

26 But if we shall say, Of men; we fear the people; ^afor all hold Jōhn as a prophet.

27 And they answered Jē'sus, and said, We cannot tell. And he said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

28 ¶ But what think ye? A ^acertain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to day in my vineyard.

29 He answered and said, I will not; but afterward he repented, and went.

30 And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I ^ago, sir: and went not.

31 Whether of them twain did the will of ^ahis father? They say unto him, The first. Jē'sus saith unto them, ^aVerily I say unto you, That the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you.

32 For ^aJōhn came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but ^athe publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen ^ait, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him.

33 ¶ Hear another parable: ^aThere was a certain householder, which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a winepress in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, ^aand went into a far country:

34 And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, ^athat they might receive the fruits of it.

35 And ^athe husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.

36 Again, he ^asent other servants more than the first: and they did unto them likewise.

37 But last of all ^ahe sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son.

38 But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, ^aThis is the heir; ^acome, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance.

39 And ^athey caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him.

40 When the lord therefore of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen?

41 They ^asay unto him, ^aHe will miserably destroy those wicked men, and will let out his vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons.

42 Jē'sus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

43 Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

44 And whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

45 And when the chief priests and Phā'risees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them.

46 But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitude, because they took him for a prophet.

CHAPTER 22.

¹ The marriage of the king's son. ²¹ Tribute to be paid to Cæsar. ²³ Christ silenceth the Sadducees.

AND Jē'sus answered and spake unto them again by parables, and said,

2 The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a marriage for his son,

3 And sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come.

4 Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner: my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage.

5 But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise:

6 And the remnant took his servants, and entreated them spitefully, and slew them.

7 But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city.

8 Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were not worthy.

9 Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage.

10 So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests.

11 ¶ And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment:

12 And he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment? And he was speechless.

13 Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

14 For many are called, but few are chosen.

15 ¶ Then went the Phā'risees, and took counsel how they might entangle him in his talk.

16 And they sent out unto him their disciples with the Hē-rō'dians, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man: for thou regardest not the person of men.

17 Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Cæ'sar, or not?

18 But Jē'sus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites?

19 Shew me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a penny.

20 And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription?

21 They say unto him, Cæ'sar's. Then saith he unto them, Render therefore unto Cæ'sar the things which are Cæ'sar's; and unto God the things that are God's.

22 When they had heard these words, they marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

23 ¶ The same day came to him the Sād'du-ceeds, which say that there is no resurrection, and asked him, 24 Saying, Master, Moses said, If a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

25 Now there were with us seven brethren: and the first, when he had married a wife, deceased, and, having no issue, left his wife unto his brother:

26 Likewise the second also, and the third, unto the seventh.

27 And last of all the woman died also.

28 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her.

29 Jē'sus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God.

30 For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven.

MATTHEW, 23.

Denunciation of the scribes and Pharisees.

31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying, 32 I 'am the God of A'brā'hām, and the God of I'saac, and the God of Jā'cob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

33 And when the multitude heard this, they were astonished at his doctrine.

34 ¶ But when the Phār'ī-sees had heard that he had put the Sād'du-gees to silence, they were gathered together.

35 Then one of them, which was a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying, 36 Master, which is the great commandment in the law?

37 Jē'sus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

38 This is the first and great commandment.

39 And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

40 On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

41 ¶ While the Phār'ī-sees were gathered together, Jē'sus asked them, 42 Saying, What think ye of Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, The son of Dā'vid.

43 He saith unto them, How then doth Dā'vid a in spirit call him Lord, saying, 44 The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool?

45 If Dā'vid then call him Lord, how is he his son?

46 And no man was able to answer him a word, neither durst any man from that day forth ask him any more questions.

CHAPTER 23.

Of the scribes and Pharisees' good doctrine, but evil examples of life. A

THEN spake Jē'sus to the multitude, and to his disciples,

2 Saying, The scribes and the Phār'ī-sees sit in Mō'ses' seat:

3 All therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do; but do not ye after their works: for they say, and do not.

4 For they bind heavy burdens and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers.

5 But all their works they do for to be seen of men: they make broad 11 But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant.

12 And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased; and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted.

13 ¶ But woe unto you, scribes and Phār'ī-sees, hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men. for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in.

14 Woe unto you, scribes and Phār'ī-sees, hypocrites! for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation.

15 Woe unto you, scribes and Phār'ī-sees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves.

16 Woe unto you, ye blind guides, which say, Whosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor!

17 Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifieth the gold?

18 And, Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever sweareth by the gift that is upon it, he is guilty.

19 Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifieth the gift?

20 Whoso therefore shall swear by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon.

21 And whoso shall swear by the temple, sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein.

22 And he that shall swear by heaven, sweareth by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.

have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

24 Ye blind guides, which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel.

25 Woe unto you, scribes and Phārī-sees, hypocrites! for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess.

26 Thou blind Phārī-see, cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also.

27 Woe unto you, scribes and Phārī-sees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto whitened sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness.

28 Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

29 Woe unto you, scribes and Phārī-sees, hypocrites! because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous, 30 And say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.

31 Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that ye are the children of them which killed the prophets.

32 Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers.

33 Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell?

34 ¶ Wherefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and some of them ye shall kill and crucify; and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city:

35 That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zachariah son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar.

36 Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation.

37 O Jē-rū'sā-lēm, Jē-rū'sā-lēm, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!

38 Behold, your house is left unto you desolate.

CHAPTER 24.

Destruction of the temple foretold.

AND Jē'sus went out, and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him for to shew him the buildings of the temple.

2 And Jē'sus said unto them, See ye not all these things? verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 ¶ And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?

4 And Jē'sus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you.

5 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.

6 And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet.

7 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places.

8 All these are the beginning of sorrows.

9 Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake.

10 And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.

11 And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many.

12 And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold.

13 But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.

15 When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Dān'el the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand:)

16 Then let them which be in Jū-dæ'a flee into the mountains:

17 Let him which is on the house top not come down to take any thing out of his house.

18 Neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes.

MATTHEW, 25.

Christ's return. Parable of ten virgins.

19 And woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days!

20 But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the sabbath day:

21 For ^a then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.

22 And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: ^a but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.

23 Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there; believe it not.

24 For ^a there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, ^a if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.

25 Behold, I have told you before.

26 Wherefore if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert go not forth: behold, he is in the secret chambers; believe it not.

27 For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

28 For ^a wheresoever the carcase is, there will the eagles be gathered together.

29 ¶ Immediately ^a after the tribulation of those days ^a shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken.

30 And ^a then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and ^a then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, ^a and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

31 And ^a he shall send his angels ^a with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

32 Now learn ^a a parable of the fig tree; When his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh:

33 So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that ^a it is near, even at the doors.

34 Verily I say unto you, ^a This generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled.

35 Heaven ^a and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

36 ¶ But ^a of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, ^a but my Father only.

37 But as the days of Noë were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

38 For ^a as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noë entered into the ark, 39 And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

40 Then shall two be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

41 Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

42 ¶ Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come.

43 But ^a know this, that if the goodman of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up.

44 Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.

45 ^a Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season?

46 ^a Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

47 Verily I say unto you, That he shall make him ruler over all his goods.

48 But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming;

49 And shall begin to smite his fellowservants, and to eat and drink with the drunken;

50 The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of,

51 And shall ^a cut him asunder, and appoint him ^a his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

CHAPTER 25.

1 The parable of the ten virgins; 14 of the talents, and the reward to those who improved them. 31 Of the last judgment

THEN shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the ^a bridegroom.

2 And ^a five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

3 They that were foolish took their lamps, and took ^a no oil with them:

4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

5 While the bridegroom tarried, they ^a all slumbered and slept.

Parable of talents. Of sheep and goats.

MATTHEW, 25.

6 And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him.

7 Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps.

8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you. but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.

10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut.

11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us.

12 But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not.

13 Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.

14 ¶ For the kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods.

15 And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; unto every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey.

16 Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same, and made them other five talents.

17 And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two.

18 But he that had received one went and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money.

19 After a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them.

20 And so he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliverdest unto me five talents: behold, I have gained beside them five talents more.

21 His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things. enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

22 He also that had received two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliverdest unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents beside them.

23 His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

26 His lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strawed:

27 Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury.

28 Take therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him which hath ten talents.

31 ¶ When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory.

CHAPTER 26.

3 The rulers conspire against Christ 14 Judas sell-eth him. 17 Christ eateth the passover

AND it came to pass, when Jē'sus had finished all these sayings, he said unto his disciples,

2 • Ye know that after two days is the feast of the passover, and the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified.

3 Then ^a assembled together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, unto the palace of the high priest, who was called Cā'ja-phās,

4 And consulted that they might take Jē'sus by subtilty, and kill him.

5 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar among the people.

6 ¶ Now • when Jō'sus was ^d in Bēth-ā-n'y, in the house of Sī'mon the leper, 7 There came unto him a woman having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his head, as he sat at meat.

8 But • when his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste?

9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor.

10 When Jē'sus understood it, he said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me.

11 For • ye have the poor always with you; but • me ye have not always.

12 For in that she hath poured this ointment on my body, she did it for my burial.

the whole world, there shall also this, that this woman hath done, be told for a memorial of her.

14 ¶ Then one of the twelve, called Jū'das Is-cār'iot, went unto the chief priests, 15 And said unto them, • What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver.

16 And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

17 ¶ Now ^a the first day of the feast of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jē'sus, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover?

18 And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The Master saith, My time is at hand; I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples did as Jē'sus had appointed them; and they made ready the passover.

20 Now when the even was come, he sat down with the twelve.

21 And as they did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, is it I?

23 And he answered and said, He ^a that dippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me.

24 The Son of man goeth ^a as it is written of him • but • woe unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! it had been good for that man if he had not been born.

25 Then Jū'das, which betrayed him, answered and said, Master, is it I? He said unto him, Thou hast said.

26 ¶ And as they were eating, Jē'sus took bread, and ^a blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; ^a this is my body.

27 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it;

28 For ^a this is my blood • of the new testament, which is shed ^a for many for the remission of sins.

29 But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, ^a until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.

30 And • when they had sung an ^a hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

31 Then saith Jē'sus unto them, ^a All ye shall ^a be offended because of me this night: for it is written, ^a I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.

32 But after I am risen again, * I will go before you into Gál'lee.

33 Pē'tēr answered and said unto him, Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended.

34 Jē'sus said unto him, * Verily I say unto thee, That this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

35 Pē'tēr said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

36 ¶ Then ^b cometh Jē'sus with them unto a place called Gēth-sēm'a-nē, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder.

37 And he took with him Pē'tēr and * the two sons of Zēb'e-dee, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy.

38 Then saith he unto them, * My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here, and * watch with me.

39 And he went a little farther, and fell on his face, and ^c prayed, saying, * O my Father, if it be possible, * let this cup pass from me: nevertheless * not as I will, but as thou wilt.

40 And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Pē'tēr, What, could ye not watch with me one hour?

41 Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

42 He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done.

43 And he came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy.

44 And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words.

45 Then cometh he to his disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

46 Rise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that doth betray me.

47 ¶ And * while he yet spake, lo, Jū'das, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people.

48 Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he: hold him fast.

49 And forthwith he came to Jē'sus, and said, Hail, master; ^a and kissed him.

50 And Jē'sus said unto him, ^b Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they, and laid hands on Jē'sus, and took him.

51 And, behold, ^c one of them which were with Jē'sus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest's, and smote off his ear.

52 Then said Jē'sus unto him, * Put up again thy sword into his place: ^d for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword.

53 Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall presently give me ^e more than twelve legions of angels?

54 But how then shall ^f the scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be?

55 In that same hour said Jē'sus to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a thief with swords and staves for to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me.

56 But all this was done, that the ^g scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then ^h all the disciples forsook him, and fled.

57 ¶ And ⁱ they that had laid hold on Jē'sus led him away to Cā'ja-phās the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled.

58 But Pē'tēr followed him afar off unto the high priest's palace, and went in, and sat with the servants, to see the end.

59 Now the chief priests, and elders, and all the council, sought false witnesses against Jē'sus, to put him to death;

60 But found none: yea, though ^j many false witnesses came, yet found they none. At the last came ^k two false witnesses, 61 And said, This fellow said, * I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.

62 And the high priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witnesses against thee?

63 But ^l Jē'sus held his peace. And the high priest answered and said unto him, * I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God.

64 Jē'sus saith unto him, Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, * Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man ^m sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

65 Then the high priest ⁿ rent his clothes, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy; what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard his blasphemy.

66 What think ye? They answered and said, He is guilty of death.

67 Then did they spit in his face, and buffeted him; and others smote him with the palms of their hands, 68 Saying, Prophesy unto us, thou Christ, Who is he that smote thee?

69 ¶ Now Pet̄er sat without in the palace and a damsel came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Je'sus of Gal'i-lee.

70 But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest.

71 And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Je'sus of Naz'a-rēth.

72 And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man.

73 And after a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Pet̄er, Surely thou also art one of them; for thy speech bewrayeth thee.

74 Then began he to curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cock crew.

75 And Pet̄er remembered the word of Je'sus, which said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

CHAPTER 27.

1 Christ delivered bound to Pilate. 8 Judas hanged himself. 27 Christ is mocked as crucified. 50 and reviled. 53 The astonishing events which attended his death, etc.

WHEN the morning was come, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Je'sus to put him to death.

2 And when they had bound him, they led him away, and delivered him to Pōn'ti-us Pilate the governor.

3 ¶ Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

4 Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that.

5 And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself.

6 And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful for to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood.

7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in.

8 Wherefore that field was called, The field of blood, unto this day.

9 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jer'e-m'y the prophet, saying, And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, whom they of the children of Is'ra-el did value;

10 And gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me.

11 And Je'sus stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Je'sus said unto him, Thou sayest.

12 And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing.

13 Then said Pilate unto him, Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee?

14 And he answered him to never a word, insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly.

15 Now at that feast the governor was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would.

16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Bā-rāb'bas.

17 Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Bā-rāb'bas, or Je'sus which is called Christ?

18 For he knew that for envy they had delivered him.

19 ¶ When he was set down on the judgment seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that just man: for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him.

20 But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask Bā-rāb'bas, and destroy Je'sus.

21 The governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said, Bā-rāb'bas.

22 Pilate saith unto them, What shall I do then with Je'sus which is called Christ? They all say unto him, Let him be crucified.

23 And the governor said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified.

24 ¶ When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person. see ye to it.

25 Then answered all the people, and said, His blood be on us, and on our children.

Christ nailed to a tree. His death.

MATTHEW, 27.

26 ¶ Then released he Bā-rāb/bas unto them: and when ^phe had scourged Jē'sus, he delivered him to be crucified.

27 Then the soldiers of the governor took Jē'sus into the ^qcommon hall, and gathered unto him the whole band of soldiers.

28 And they stripped him, and ^rput on him a scarlet robe.

29 ¶ And ^swhen they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews!

30 And ^tthey spit upon him, and took the reed, and ^usmote him on the head.

31 And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, ^vand led him away to crucify him.

32 And ^was they came out, ^xthey found a man of Cŷ-i-lē'nē, Si'mon by name: him they compelled to bear his cross.

33 And when they were come unto a place called Gōl'gō'tha, that is to say, a place of a skull, 34 ¶ They ^ygave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink.

35 And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, ^zThey parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots.

36 And sitting down they watched him there;

37 And set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JĒ'SUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

38 Then ^awere there two thieves crucified with him, one on the right hand, and another on the left.

39 ¶ And ^bthey that passed by reviled him, wagging their heads, 40 And saying, ^cThou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself. If thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross.

41 Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said, 42 He saved others; himself he cannot save. If he be the King of Is'ra-el, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him.

43 He ^dtrusted in God; let him deliver him now, if he will have him: for he said, I am the Son of God.

44 The ^ethieves also, which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth.

45 Now ^afrom the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour.

46 And about the ninth hour Jē'sus ^bcried with a loud voice, saying, E'li, E'li, lā'ma sā-bach-thā'ni? that is to say, ^cMy God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

47 Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This ^dman calleth for E-li'as.

48 And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, ^eand filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink.

49 The rest said, Let be, let us see whether E-li'as will come to save him.

50 ¶ Jē'sus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost.

51 And, behold, ^fthe veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and ^gthe earth did quake, and the rocks rent;

52 And the graves were opened; and ^hmany bodies of the saints which slept arose, 53 And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many.

54 Now ⁱwhen the centurion, and they that were with him, watching Jē'sus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God.

55 And many women were there beholding afar off, ^jwhich followed Jē'sus from Gāl'i-lee, ministering unto him:

56 Among ^kwhich was Mā'rŷ Māg-dā-le'nē, and Mā'rŷ the mother of James and Jo'sē, and the mother of Zēb'e-dee's children.

57 When ^lthe even was come, there came a rich man of Ar-i-nā-thā'e, named Jō'seph, who also himself was Jē'sus' disciple:

58 He went to Pi'lāte, and begged the body of Jē'sus. Then Pi'lāte commanded the body to be delivered.

59 And when Jō'seph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, 60 And ^mlaid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed.

61 And there was Mā'rŷ Māg-dā-le'nē, and the other Mā'rŷ, sitting over against the sepulchre.

62 ¶ Now the next day, that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Phā'i't-sees came together unto Pi'lāte, Resurrection of Christ. John Baptist's office.

63 Saying, Sir, we remember that that a deceiver said, while he was yet alive, "After three days I will rise again."

64 Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night, and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: so the last error shall be worse than the first.

65 Pilate said unto them, Ye have a watch: go your way, make it as sure as ye can.

66 So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, sealing the stone, and setting a watch.

IN the end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre.

2 And, behold, there was a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

3 His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow.

4 And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.

5 And the angel answered and said unto the women, "Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified."

6 He is not here: for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

7 And go quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead; and, behold, he goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you.

11 ¶ Now when they were going, behold, some of the watch came into the city, and shewed unto the chief priests all the things that were done.

12 And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave large money unto the soldiers, 15 So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day.

16 ¶ Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, into a mountain where Jesus had appointed them.

17 And when they saw him, they worshipped him: but some doubted.

4 John did baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins.

5 And there went out unto him all the land of Judæa, and they of Jerusalem, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jordan, confessing their sins.

6 And John was clothed with camel's hair, and with a girdle of a skin about his loins; and he did eat locusts and wild honey;

7 And preached, saying, "There cometh one mightier than I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose.

8 I /indeed have baptized you with water: but he shall baptize you with the Hō'ly Ghōst.

9 And 'it came to pass in those days, that Jē'sus came from Nāz'ā-rēth of Gāl'ī-lee, and was baptized of Jōhn in Jōr'dān.

10 And 'straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens 'opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him:

11 And there came a voice from heaven, saying, 'Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

12 And 'immediately the spirit driveth him into the wilderness.

13 And he was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted of Sā'tan; and was with the wild beasts; 'and the angels ministered unto him.

14 Now after that Jōhn was put in prison, Jē'sus came into Gāl'ī-lee, 'preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God, 15 And saying, 'The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.

16 Now 'as he walked by the sea of Gāl'ī-lee, he saw Si'mon and An'drew his brother casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.

17 And Jē'sus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.

18 And straightway 'they forsook their nets, and followed him.

19 And 'when he had gone a little farther thence, he saw Jāmes the son of Zēb'e-dee, and Jōhn his brother, who also were in the ship mending their nets.

20 And straightway he called them: and they left their father Zēb'e-dee in the ship with the hired servants, and went after him.

21 And 'they went into Cā-pēr'nā-tim; and straightway on the sabbath day he entered into the synagogue, and taught.

22 And 'they were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes.

23 And 'there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out, 24 Saying, Let us alone; 'what have we to do with thee, thou Jē'sus of Nāz'ā-rēth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the 'Holy One of God.

36 And Si'mon and they that were with him followed after him.

37 And when they had found him, they said unto him, All men seek for thee.

38 And he said unto them, 'Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for 'therefore came I forth.

39 And 'he preached in their synagogues throughout all Gāl'ī-lee, and 'cast out devils.

40 And 'there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou canst 'make me clean.

41 And Jē'sus, 'moved with compassion, put forth his hand, and touched him, and saith unto him, I will; be thou clean.

42 And as soon as he had spoken, immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was cleansed.

say nothing to any man: but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing those things * which Mō'ses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

45 But he went out, and began to publish it much, and to blaze abroad the matter, insomuch that Jē'sus could no more openly enter into the city, but was without in desert places: * and they came to him from every quarter.

1 Christ followed by multitudes 18 exorciseth his disciples for not fasting, etc.

AND again he entered into Cā-pēr'na-ſim after some days; and it was noised that he was in the house.

2 And straightway many were gathered together, insomuch that there was no room to receive them, no, not so much as about the door: and he preached the word unto them.

3 And they come unto him, bringing one sick of the palsy, which was borne of four.

4 And when they could not come nigh unto him for the press, they uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken it up, they let down the bed wherein the sick of the palsy lay.

5 When Jē'sus o saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsy, o Son, thy sins be forgiven thee.

6 But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts,

7 Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? o who can forgive sins but God only?

8 And immediately o when Jē'sus perceived in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, he said unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts?

9 Whether o is it easier to say to the sick of the palsy, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and walk?

10 But that ye may know that h the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (he saith to the sick of the palsy,)

11 I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house.

12 And o immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all; insomuch that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion.

13 And o he went forth again by the sea side; and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them.

14 And h as he passed by, he saw

Lē'vi the son of Āl-phæ'us sitting ¹ at the receipt of custom, and said unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him.

15 And o it came to pass, that, as Jē'sus sat at meat in his house, many publicans and sinners sat also together with Jē'sus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him.

16 And when h the scribes and Phār'isees saw him eat with publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners?

17 When Jē'sus heard it, he saith unto them, h They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

18 And h the disciples of Jōhn and of the Phār'isees used to fast: and they come and say unto him, Why do the disciples of Jōhn and of the Phār'isees fast, but thy disciples fast not?

19 And Jē'sus said unto them, Can the children of h the bridechamber fast, while the o bridegroom is with them? as long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.

20 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.

21 No man also seweth a piece of ² new cloth on an old garment: else the new piece that filled it up taketh away from the old, and the rent is made worse.

22 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles: else the new wine doth burst the bottles, and the wine is spilled, and the bottles will be marred: but new wine must be put into new bottles.

23 And o it came to pass, that he went through the corn fields on the sabbath day; and his disciples began, as they went, o to pluck the ears of corn.

24 And the Phār'isees said unto him, Behold, why do they on the sabbath day that which is not lawful?

25 And he said unto them, Have ye never read o what Dā'vid did, when he had need, and was an hungred, he, and they that were with him?

26 How he went into the house of God in the days of Ā-bi'ā-thār the high priest, and did eat the shew-bread, h which is not lawful to eat but for the priests, and gave also to them which were with him?

27 And he said unto them, The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath:

28 Therefore *the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Christ healeth the withered hand: 13 he chooseth twelve apostles.

AND *he entered again into the synagogue; and there was a man there which had a withered hand.

2 And they watched him, whether he would heal him on the sabbath day; that they might accuse him.

3 And he saith unto the man which had the withered hand, *Stand forth.

4 And he saith unto them, Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath days, or to do evil? to save life, or to kill? But they held their peace.

5 And when he had looked round about on them with *anger, being grieved for the *hardness of their hearts, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

6 And *the Phāi't-sees went forth, and straightway took counsel with *the Hērō'di-ans against him, how they might destroy him.

7 But Jē'sus withdrew himself with his disciples to the sea: and a great multitude from Gāl'ilee followed him, *and from Jū-dæ'a,

8 And from Jē-ry'sā-lēm, and from I-du-mæ'a, and from beyond Jōr-dan; and they about Tyre and Si'dōn, a great multitude, when they had heard what great things he did, came unto him.

9 And he spake to his disciples, that a small ship should wait on him because of the multitude, lest they should throng him.

10 For he had healed many; insomuch that they *pressed upon him for to touch him, as many as had plagues.

11 And *unclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him, and cried, saying, *Thou art the Son of God.

12 And *he straitly charged them that they should not make him known.

13 And *he goeth up into a mountain, and calleth unto him whom he would: and they came unto him.

14 And he ordained twelve, that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach,

15 And to have power to heal sicknesses, and to cast out devils:

MARK, 4.

CHAPTER 4.

1 The parable of the sower 14 The meaning thereof.
20 Of the seed growing secretly, etc.

AND he began again to teach by the sea side: and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, so that he entered into a ship, and sat in the sea; and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land.

2 And he taught them many things by parables, and said unto them in his doctrine,

3 Harken; Behold, there went out a sower to sow:

4 And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up.

5 And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth:

6 But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.

8 And other fell on good ground, and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased; and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred.

9 And he said unto them, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve asked of him the parable.

11 And he said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto them that are without, all these things are done in parables:

12 That seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them.

13 And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how then will ye know all parables?

14 ¶ The sower soweth the word.

15 And these are they by the way side, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts.

16 And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness;

17 And have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution arise for the word's sake, immediately they are offended.

18 And these are they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word, 19 And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful.

20 And these are they which are sown on good ground; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some an hundred.

21 ¶ And he said unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under a bushel, or under a bed? and not to be set on a candlestick?

22 For there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested; neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad.

23 If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

24 And he said unto them, Take heed what ye hear: with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you: and unto you that hear shall more be given.

25 For he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath.

26 ¶ And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground;

27 And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.

28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.

29 But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.

30 ¶ And he said, Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it?

31 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth:

32 But when it is sown, it groweth up, and becometh greater than all herbs, and shooteth out great branches; so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it.

33 And with many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it.

34 But without a parable spake he not unto them: and when they were alone, he expounded all things to his disciples.

Christ casts out the legion of devils.

MARK, 5.

35 And the same day, when the even was come, he saith unto them, Let us pass over unto the other side.

36 And when they had sent away the multitude, they took him even as he was in the ship. And there were also with him other little ships.

37 And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full.

38 And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow: and they awake him, and say unto him, Master, carest thou not that we perish?

39 And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.

40 And he said unto them, Why are ye so fearful? how is it that ye have no faith?

41 And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

1 Christ casteth out the legion of devils. 21 Jairus' suit for his daughter. 25 the bloody issue healed.

AND they came over unto the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gād'ar-ēnēs.

2 And when he was come out of the ship, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit,

3 Who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no man could bind him, no, not with chains:

4 Because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could any man tame him.

5 And always, night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones.

6 But when he saw Jē'sus afar off, he ran and worshipped him,

7 And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with thee, Jē'sus, thou Son of the most high God? I adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not.

8 For he said unto him, Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit.

9 And he asked him, What is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many.

10 And he besought him much that he would not send them away out of the country.

11 Now there was there nigh unto the mountains a great herd of swine feeding.

17 And they began to pray him to depart out of their coasts.

18 And when he was come into the ship, he that had been possessed with the devil prayed him that he might be with him.

19 Howbeit Jē'sus suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee.

20 And he departed, and began to publish in Dē-cāp'ō-lis how great things Jē'sus had done for him: and all men did marvel.

21 And when Jē'sus was passed over again by ship unto the other side, much people gathered unto him: and he was nigh unto the sea.

22 And, behold, there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jā-ī'rus by name; and when he saw him, he fell at his feet, 23 And besought him greatly, saying, My little daughter lieth at the point of death: I pray thee, come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed; and she shall live.

24 And Jē'sus went with him; and much people followed him, and thronged him.

25 And a certain woman, which had an issue of blood twelve years,

26 And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse,

27 When she had heard of Jē'sus, came in the press behind, and touched his garment.

28 For she said, If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be whole.

29 And straightway the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague.

30 And Jē'sus, immediately knowing in himself that a virtue had gone out of him, turned him about in the press, and said, Who touched my clothes?

31 And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

32 And he looked round about to see her that had done this thing.

33 But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth.

34 And he said unto her, Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace, and be whole of thy plague.

35 While he yet spake, there came from the ruler of the synagogue's house certain which said, Thy daughter is dead: why troublest thou the Master any further?

36 As soon as Jē'sus heard the word that was spoken, he saith unto the ruler of the synagogue, Be not afraid, only believe.

37 And he suffered no man to follow him, save Petēr, and Jāmes, and Jōhn the brother of Jāmes.

38 And he cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly.

39 And when he was come in, he saith unto them, Why make ye this ado, and weep? the damsel is not dead, but a sleepeth.

40 And they laughed him to scorn. But when he had put them all out, he taketh the father and the mother of the damsel, and them that were with him, and entereth in where the damsel was lying.

41 And he took the damsel by the hand, and said unto her, Tāl'i-tha cū'mi; which is, being interpreted, Damsel, I say unto thee, arise.

42 And a straightway the damsel arose, and walked; for she was of the age of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great astonishment.

43 And he charged them straitly that no man should know it; and commanded that something should be given her to eat.

2 And when the sabbath day was come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing him were astonished, saying, b From whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands?

3 Is c not this the carpenter, the son of Mā'r'y, d the brother of Jāmes, and Jō'sēs, and of Jū'da, and Si'mon? and are not his sisters here with us? And they e were offended at him.

4 But Jō'sus said unto them, f A prophet is not without honour, but in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house.

5 And he could there do no mighty work, save that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them.

6 And he marvelled because of their unbelief. g And he went round about the villages, teaching.

7 h And he called unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two; and gave them power over unclean spirits;

8 And commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, save a staff only; no scrip, no bread, no i money in their purse:

9 But k be shod with sandals; and not put on two coats.

10 And he said unto them, In what place soever ye enter into an house, there abide till ye depart from that place.

11 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence, shake off the dust under your feet for a testimony against them. o Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Sōd'om 2 and Gō-mōr'rha in the day of judgment, than for that city.

12 And they went out, and preached that men should repent.

13 And they cast out many devils, p and anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them.

14 And king Hēr'od heard of him; (for his name was spread abroad;) and he said, That Jōhn the Bāp'tist was risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.

15 Others q said, That it is E-l'i'as. And others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets.

16 But when Hēr'od heard thereof, he said, It is Jōhn, whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead.

17 For Hēr'od himself had sent forth and laid hold upon Jōhn, and bound him in prison for Hēr'od's will.

sake, his brother Phil'p's wife: for he had married her.

18 For Jōhn had said unto Hēr'od, It 'is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife.

19 Therefore Hēr'od'as had ^aa quarrel against him, and would have killed him; but she could not:

20 For Hēr'od ^wfeared Jōhn, knowing that he was a just man and an holy, and ^vobserved him; and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly.

21 And ^wwhen a convenient day was come, that Hēr'od ^won his birthday made a supper to his lords, high captains, and chief estates of Gal'lee;

22 And when the daughter of the said Hēr'od'as came in, ^wand danced, and pleased Hēr'od and them that sat with him, the kings said unto the damsel, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give it thee.

23 And he sware unto her, What-soever ^vthou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, unto the half of my kingdom.

24 And she went forth, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, ^vThe head of Jōhn the Bāp'tist.

25 And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou give me by and by in a charger the head of Jōhn the Bāp'tist.

26 And the king was exceeding sorry; ^yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes which sat with him, he would not reject her.

27 And immediately the king sent ^aan executioner, and commanded his head to be brought: and he went and beheaded him in the prison, 28 And brought his head in a charger, and gave it to the damsel: and the damsel gave it to her mother.

29 And when his disciples heard of it, they came and ^wtook up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.

30 And ^wthe apostles gathered themselves together unto Jē'sus, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught.

31 And ^whe said unto them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while: for there ^wwere many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat.

32 And they departed into a desert place by ship privately.

33 And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and ran afoot thither out of all cities, and outwent them, and came together unto him.

35 And ^wwhen the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, This is a desert place, and now the time is far passed:

36 Send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread: for they have nothing to eat.

37 He answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, ^aShall we go and buy two hundred ^opennyworth of bread, and give them to eat?

38 He saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, ^vFive, and two fishes.

39 And he commanded them to make all sit down ^vby companies upon the green grass.

40 And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties.

41 And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and ^ablessed, and brake the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all.

42 And they did all eat, and were filled.

43 And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes.

44 And they that did eat of the loaves were about five thousand men.

45 ^vAnd straightway he constrained his disciples to get into the ship, and to go to the other side before ^vunto Beth-sā'ida, while he sent away the people.

46 And when he had sent them away, he departed into a mountain to pray.

47 ^wAnd when even was come, the ship was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land.

48 And he saw them toiling in rowing; for the wind was contrary unto them: and about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking upon the sea, and ^wwould have passed by them.

49 But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it had been a spirit, and cried out:

50 For they all saw him, and were troubled. And immediately he talked with them, and saith unto them, Be of good cheer: it is I; be not afraid.

MARK, 7.

Pharisees reproved. Christ performs miracles.

51 And he went up unto them into the ship; and the wind ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered.

52 For they considered not the miracle of the loaves: for their heart was hardened.

53 And when they had passed over, they came into the land of Gēn-nēs-ḡ-rēt, and drew to the shore.

54 And when they were come out of the ship, straightway they knew him, 55 And ran through that whole region round about, and began to carry about in beds those that were sick, where they heard he was.

56 And whithersoever he entered, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets, and besought him that they might touch if it were but the border of his garment: and as many as touched him were made whole.

CHAPTER 7.

1 The Pharisees find fault with the disciples for eating with unwashen hands. 8 They break the commandment of God by the traditions of men. 14 Meat defileth not a man. 24 Christ healeth the Syrophenician woman's daughter, 31 and one that was deaf, and stammered in his speech.

THEN came together unto him the Phārī-sees, and certain of the scribes, which came from Jē-ru-sā-lēm.

2 And when they saw some of his disciples eat bread with defiled, that is to say, with unwashen, hands, they found fault.

3 For the Phārī-sees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders.

4 And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eat not. And many other things there be, which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and pots, brassen vessels, and of tables.

5 Then the Phārī-sees and scribes asked him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashen hands?

6 He answered and said unto them, Well hath E-sā'as prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, 'This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

7 Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

8 For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do.

ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.

10 For Mō'ses said, 'Honour thy father and thy mother; and, Who so curseth father or mother, let him die the death:

11 But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is Corban, that is to say, a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; he shall be free.

12 And ye suffer him no more to do ought for his father or his mother;

13 Making the word of God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye.

14 ¶ And when he had called all the people unto him, he said unto them, Harken unto me every one of you, and understand:

15 There is nothing from without a man, that entering into him can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man.

16 If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

17 And when he was entered into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.

18 And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also? Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entereth into the man, it cannot defile him;

19 Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, purging all meats?

20 And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man.

21 For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,

22 Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness:

23 All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

24 ¶ And from thence he arose, and went into the borders of Tyre and Si'dōn, and entered into an house, and would have no man know it: but he could not be hid.

25 For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet:

26 The woman was a Greek, a Sy-ro-phē-ni'cian by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the devil out of her daughter.

27 But Jē'sus said unto her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it unto the dogs.

28 And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord: yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.

29 And he said unto her, For this saying go thy way; the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

30 And when she was come to her house, she found the devil gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.

31 ¶ And again, departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, he came unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the coasts of Decapolis.

32 And they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to put his hand upon him.

33 And he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spit, and touched his tongue;

34 And looking up to heaven, he sighed, and saith unto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened.

35 And straightway his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain.

36 And he charged them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it:

37 And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well: he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

CHAPTER 8

1 Christ feedeth the people miraculously. 22 He maketh a blind man his sight. 27 He acknowledgeth that he is Christ who should suffer and rise again.

IN those days the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them,

2 I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat:

3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for divers of them came from far.

4 And his disciples answered him, From whence can a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness?

5 And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven.

6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks,

9 And they that had eaten were about four thousand: and he sent them away.

10 ¶ And straightway he entered into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.

11 And the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him.

12 And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a sign? verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation.

13 And he left them, and entering into the ship again departed to the other side.

14 ¶ Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf.

15 And he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod.

18 Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember?

19 When I brake the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve.

20 And when the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? And they said, Seven.

21 And he said unto them, How is it that ye do not understand?

22 ¶ And he cometh to Bethsaida; and they bring a blind man unto him, and besought him to touch him.

23 And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when he had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw ought.

24 And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking.

MARK, 9. Exhortation to patience. Transfiguration of Christ.

25 After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly.

26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, nor tell it to any in the town.

27 ¶ And Jē'sus went out, and his disciples, into the towns of Cēs-gre'a Phil-lip'pi: and by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am?

28 And they answered, "Jōhn the Bāp'tist: but some say, E-lī'as; and others, One of the prophets.

29 An- he saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Pē'tēr answereth and saith unto him, "Thou art the Christ.

30 And "he charged them that they should tell no man of him.

31 And "he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.

32 And he spake that saying openly. And Pē'tēr took him, and began to rebuke him.

33 But when he had turned about and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Pē'tēr, saying, Get thee behind me, Sā'tan: "for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men.

34 ¶ And when he had called the people unto him with his disciples also, he said unto them, "Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

35 For "whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it.

36 For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?

37 Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

38 "Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.

have seen "the kingdom of God come with power.

2 ¶ And after six days Jē'sus taketh with him Pē'tēr, and James, and Jōhn, and leadeth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them.

3 And his raiment became shining, exceeding "white as snow; so as no fuller on earth can white them.

4 And there appeared unto them E-lī'as with Mō'ses: and they were talking with Jē'sus.

5 And Pē'tēr answered and said to Jē'sus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Mō'ses, and one for E-lī'as.

6 For he wist not what to say; for they were sore afraid.

7 And there was "a cloud that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: "hear him.

8 And suddenly, when they had looked round about, they saw no man any more, save Jē'sus only with themselves.

9 "And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, till the Son of man were risen from the dead.

10 And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another what the rising from the dead should mean.

11 ¶ And they asked him, saying, Why say the scribes "that E-lī'as must first come?

12 And he answered and told them, E-lī'as verily cometh first, and restoreth all things; and "how it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and "be set at nought.

13 But I say unto you, That "E-lī'as is indeed come, and they have done unto him what "soever they listed, as it is written of him.

14 ¶ And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with them.

15 And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him saluted him.

16 And he asked the scribes, What question ye "with them?

17 And "one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit;

18 And wheresoever he taketh him, he "teareth him: and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out; and they could not.

19 He answereth him, and saith, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him unto me.

20 And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming.

21 And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, Of a child.

22 And oftentimes it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us.

23 Jē'sus said unto him, If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth.

24 And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe; help thou mine unbelief.

25 When Jē'sus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him.

26 And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him: and he was as one dead; insomuch that many said, He is dead.

27 But Jē'sus took him by the hand, and lifted him up; and he arose.

28 And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out?

29 And he said unto them, This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting.

30 ¶ And they departed thence, and passed through Galilee; and he would not that any man should know it.

31 For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and after that he is killed, he shall rise the third day.

32 But they understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask him.

33 ¶ And he came to Cāpērna- ūm: and being in the house he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among yourselves by the way?

34 But they held their peace: for by the way they had disputed among themselves, who should be the great- est.

36 And when he took a child, and set him in the midst of them: and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto them,

37 Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me.

38 ¶ And Jōhn answered him, saying, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name, and he followeth not us: and we forbid him, because he followeth not us.

39 But Jē'sus said, Forbid him not: for there is no man which shall do a miracle in my name, that can lightly speak evil of me.

40 For he that is not against us is on our part.

41 For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto you, he shall not lose his reward.

42 And whosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea.

49 For every one shall be salted with fire, and every sacrifice shall be salted with salt.

50 Salt is good: but if the salt have lost his saltness, wherewith will ye season it? Have salt in yourselves, and have peace one with another.

2 Of disfigurement. 13 Christ bleareth children. 32 He telleth the danger of riches. 46 Blind Bartimeus receiveth sight.

MARK, 10.

AND he arose from thence, and cometh into the coasts of Jū-dæ-a by the further side of Jōr-dan: and the people resort unto him again; and, as he was wont, he taught them again.

2 ¶ And the Phār-isees came to him, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife? tempting him.

3 And he answered and said unto them, What did Mō'ses command you?

4 And they said, 'Mō'ses suffered to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her away.

5 And Jē'sus answered and said unto them, 'For the hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept.

6 But from the beginning of the creation 'God made them male and female.

7 'For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife;

8 And they twain shall be one flesh: so then they are no more twain, but one flesh.

9 What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

10 And in the house his disciples asked him again of the same matter.

11 And he saith unto them, 'Who-soever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her.

12 And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery.

13 ¶ And they brought young children to him, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them.

14 But when Jē'sus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for 'of such is the kingdom of God.

15 Verily I say unto you, 'Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein.

16 And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

17 ¶ And when he was gone forth into the way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?

18 And Jē'sus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God.

20 And he answered and said unto him, Master, all these have I observed from my youth.

21 Then Jē'sus beholding him loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go thy way, 'sell what-soever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have 'treasure in heaven: and come, take up 'the cross, and follow me.

22 And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved: for he had great possessions.

23 ¶ And Jē'sus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

24 And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jē'sus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them 'that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God!

25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved?

27 And Jē'sus looking upon them saith, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for 'with God all things are possible.

28 ¶ Then Pē'tēr began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee.

29 And Jē'sus answered and said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gospel's, 30 'But he shall receive an hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with 'persecutions; and in the world to come eternal life.

31 'But many that are first shall be last; and the last first.

32 ¶ And they were in the way going up to Jē-ru'sā-lēm; and Jē'sus went before them: and they were amazed; and as they followed, they were afraid. 'And he took again the twelve, and began to tell them what things should happen unto him,

33 Saying, Behold, we go up to Jē-ru'sā-lēm; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests, and unto the scribes; and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him to the Gentiles:

34 And they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill him: and the third day he shall rise again.

35 ¶ And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, come unto him, saying, Master, we would that thou shouldest do for us whatsoever we shall desire.

36 And he said unto them, What would ye that I should do for you?

37 They said unto him, Grant unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left hand, in thy glory.

38 But Jesus said unto them, Ye know not what ye ask: can ye drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?

39 And they said unto him, We can. And Jesus said unto them, Ye shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall ye be baptized:

40 But to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give; but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared.

41 And when the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased with James and John.

42 But Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them, Ye know that they which are accounted to rule over the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them.

43 But so shall it not be among you: but whosoever will be great among you, shall be your minister:

44 And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all.

45 For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

46 ¶ And they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho with his disciples and a great number of people, blind Bartimeus, the son of Timaeus, sat by the highway side begging.

47 And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me.

48 And many charged him that he should hold his peace: but he cried the more a great deal, Thou son of David, have mercy on me.

49 And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be called. And they call the blind man, saying unto him,

1 Christ rideth into Jerusalem: 12 curseth a fruitless fig tree 27 silenceth the priests who questioned his authority.

AND when they came nigh to Jerusaleem, unto Bethphage and Bethanij, at the mount of Olives, he sendeth forth two of his disciples,

2 And saith unto them, Go your way into the village over against you: and as soon as ye be entered into it, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon never man sat; loose him, and bring him.

3 And if any man say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye that the Lord hath need of him; and straightway he will send him hither.

4 And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the door without in a place where two ways met; and they loose him.

5 And certain of them that stood there said unto them, What do ye, loosing the colt?

6 And they said unto them even as Jesus had commanded: and they let them go.

7 And they brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their garments on him; and he sat upon him.

8 And many spread their garments in the way: and others cut down branches off the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord:

10 Blessed be the kingdom of our father David, that cometh in the name of the Lord: Hosanna in the highest.

11 And Jesus entered into Jerusaleem, and into the temple: and when he had looked round about upon all things, and now the evening was come, he went out unto Bethanij.

12 ¶ And on the morrow, when they were come from Bethanij, he was hungry:

MARK, 12.

Of faith in prayer. Parable of the vineyard.

13 And seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet.

14 And Jē'sus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it.

15 ¶ And they come to Jē-ry-sā-lēm: and Jē'sus went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold doves;

16 And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessel through the temple.

17 And he taught, saying unto them, Is it not written, 'My house shall be called 'of all nations the house of prayer? but ye have made it a den of thieves.

18 And 'the scribes and chief priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, because 'all the people was astonished at his doctrine.

19 And when even was come, he went out of the city.

20 ¶ And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots.

21 And Pē'tēr calling to remembrance saith unto him, Master, behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst is withered away.

22 And Jē'sus answering saith unto them, 'Have faith in God.

23 For 'verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith.

24 Therefore I say unto you, 'What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.

25 And when ye stand praying, 'forgive, if ye have ought against any: that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses.

26 But 'if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven forgive your trespasses.

CHAPTER 12.

1 The parable of the vineyard 13 Touching the paying of tribute 18 The Sadducees confuted. 35 A difficulty proposed to the scribes.

AND he began to speak unto them by parables. A certain man planted a vineyard, and set an hedge about it, and digged a place for the winefat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.

2 And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.

3 And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty.

4 And again he sent unto them another servant; and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled.

5 And again he sent another; and him they killed, and many others; beating some, and killing some.

6 Having yet therefore one son, his wellbeloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son.

7 But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours.

8 And they took him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

9 What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others.

10 And have ye not read this scripture; 'The stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner:

Of paying tribute to Cæsar.

MARK, 12.

11 This was the Lord's doing, and * it is marvellous in our eyes?

12 And they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people: for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and they left him, and went their way.

13 ¶ And they send unto him certain of the Phīlī-sees and of the Hē-rō'di-aus, to catch him in his words.

14 And when they were come, they say unto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to Cæsar, or not?

15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why tempt ye me? bring me ^a penny, that I may see it.

16 And they brought it. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him, Cæsar's.

17 And Jē'sus answering said unto them, Render to Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's, and to God the things that are God's. And they marvelled at him.

18 ¶ Then come unto him the Sād'du-cess, which say there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying,

19 Master, Mō'ses wrote unto us, If a man's brother die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

20 Now there were seven brethren and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed.

21 And the second took her, and died, neither left he any seed: and the third likewise.

22 And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman died also.

23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife.

24 And Jē'sus answering said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as the angels which are in heaven.

26 And as touching the dead, that they rise: have ye not read in the book of Mō'ses, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, I am the God of Ābrā-hām, and the God of I'saac, and the God of Jā'cob?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly err.

28 ¶ And one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all?

29 And Jē'sus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, * Hear, O Is'ra-el; the Lord our God is one Lord:

30 And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment.

31 And the second is like, namely this, * Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these.

32 And the scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one God; * and there is none other but he:

33 And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, * is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices.

34 And when Jē'sus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. * And no man after that durst ask him any question.

35 ¶ And Jē'sus answered and said, while he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that Christ is the son of Dā'vid?

36 For Dā'vid himself said * by the Hō'l'y Ghōst, * The LORD said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

37 Dā'vid therefore himself calleth him Lord; and whence is he then his son? And the common people heard him gladly.

38 ¶ And he said unto them in his doctrine, * Beware of the scribes, which love to go in long clothing, and a love salutations in the market-places,

39 And the chief seats in the synagogues, and the uppermost rooms at feasts:

40 * Which devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayers: these shall receive greater damnation.

41 ¶ And Jē'sus sat over against the treasury, and beheld how the people cast ^a money ^b into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much.

42 And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two ^a mites, which make a farthing.

43 And he called unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ^a this poor widow hath cast more in, than all they which have cast into the treasury:

44 For all they did cast in of their abundance, but she of her want did cast in all that she had, ^a even all her living.

CHAPTER 13.

¹ Christ foretelleth the destruction of the temple: ² he sheweth what signs should go before, ³ and what should happen at the time of his coming. ¹² No man knoweth the day or hour therefore we must watch and pray, lest we find ourselves unprepared.

AND ^a as he went out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, Master, see what manner of stones and what buildings are here!

2 And Jē'sus answering said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings? ^a there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 And as he sat upon the mount of Ol'ivey over against the temple, Pē'tēr and Jāmes and Jōhn and Ān'drew asked him privately,

4 ^a Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled?

5 And Jē'sus answering them began to say, ^a Take heed lest any man deceive you:

6 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ, and shall deceive many.

7 And when ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars, be ye not troubled: for such things must needs be; but the ^a end shall not be yet.

8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be famines and troubles: these are the beginnings of ^a sorrows.

9 ¶ But ^a take heed to yourselves: for they shall deliver you up to councils; and in the synagogues ye shall be beaten: and ye shall be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them.

10 And ^a the gospel must first be published among all nations.

11 ^a But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, take no thought beforehand what ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate: but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, ^a but the Hō'y Ghost.

12 Now ^a the brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the son; and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death.

13 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but ^a he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 ¶ But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation, ^a spoken of by Dā'n'el the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth understand,) then ^a let them that be in Jū-dæ'a flee to the mountains:

15 And let him that is on the house top not go down into ^a the house, neither enter therein, to take any thing out of his house.

16 And let him that is in the field not turn back again for to take up his garment.

17 ^a But woe to them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days!

18 And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter.

19 ^a For in those days shall be affliction, such as was not from the beginning of the creation which God created unto this time, neither shall be.

20 And except that the Lord had shortened those days no flesh should be saved: but for the elect's sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the days.

21 ^a And then if any man shall say to you, Lo, here is Christ; or, lo, he is there; believe him not:

22 For false Christs and false prophets shall rise and shall show signs and wonders, to seduce, ^a if it were possible, even the elect.

23 But ^a take ye heed, behold, I have foretold you all things.

24 ¶ But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light,

25 And the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken.

26 ^a And then shall they see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory.

27 And then shall he send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven.

28 Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When her branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near:

29 So ye in like manner, when ye shall see these things come to pass, know that it is nigh, even at the doors.

30 Verily I say unto you, that this generation shall not pass, till all these things be done.

31 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

32 ¶ But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father.

33 ¶ Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is.

34 ¶ For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch.

35 ¶ Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cockcrowing, or in the morning:

36 Lest coming suddenly he find you sleeping.

37 And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch.

AFTER two days was the feast of the passover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.

2 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar of the people.

3 ¶ And being in Beth'ā-n'y in the house of Si'mon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of ¹ spikenard very precious; and she brake the box, and poured it on his head.

4 And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?

5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. And they murmured against her.

6 And Jē'sus said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me.

10 ¶ And Jū'das Is-cār'iot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief priests, to betray him unto them.

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him.

12 ¶ And the first day of unleavened bread, when they ² killed the passover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare that thou mayest eat the passover?

13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him.

14 And wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the goodman of the house, The Master saith, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

15 And he will shew you a large upper room furnished and prepared: there make ready for us.

16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

17 ¶ And in the evening he cometh with the twelve.

18 And as they sat and did eat, Jē'sus said, Verily I say unto you, One of you which eateth with me shall betray me.

19 And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I?

20 And he answered and said unto them, It is one of the twelve, that dippeth with me in the dish.

21 ¶ The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had never been born.

22 ¶ And as they did eat, Jē'sus took bread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: this is my body.

23 And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it.

25 Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God.

26 ¶ And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

27 And Jē'sus saith unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.

28 But after that I am risen, I will go before you into Galilee.

29 But Pē'tēr said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I.

30 And Jē'sus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this day, even in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice.

31 But he spake the more vehemently, If I should die with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all.

32 And they came to a place which was named Geth-sēm'a-nē: and he saith to his disciples, Sit ye here, while I shall pray.

33 And he taketh with him Pē'tēr and James and John, and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy;

34 And saith unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death. Tarry ye here, and watch.

35 And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him.

36 And he said, Ab'hā, Father, all things are possible unto thee; take away this cup from me: nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt.

37 And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Pē'tēr, Simon, sleepest thou? couldest not thou watch one hour?

38 Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak.

39 And again he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words.

40 And when he returned, he found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy,) neither wist they what to answer him.

41 And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough, the hour is come; behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

Matt. 26. 62.

42 Rise up, let us go; lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand.

43 ¶ And immediately, while he yet spake, cometh Jū'das, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders.

44 And he that betrayed him had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he; take him, and lead him away safely.

45 And as soon as he was come, he goeth straightway to him, and saith, Master, master; and kissed him.

46 ¶ And they laid their hands on him, and took him.

47 And one of them that stood by drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

48 And Jē'sus answered and said unto them, Are ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and with staves to take me?

49 I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and ye took me not: but the scriptures must be fulfilled.

50 And they all forsook him, and fled.

51 And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast about his naked body, and the young men laid hold on him:

52 And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.

53 ¶ And they led Jē'sus away to the high priest: and with him were assembled all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes.

54 And Pē'tēr followed him afar off, even into the palace of the high priest: and he sat with the servants, and warmed himself at the fire.

55 And the chief priests and all the council sought for witness against Jē'sus to put him to death; and found none.

56 For many bare false witness against him, but their witness agreed not together.

57 And there arose certain, and bare false witness against him, saying,

58 We heard him say, I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands.

59 But neither so did their witness agree together.

60 And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jē'sus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee?

61 But he held his peace, and answered nothing. * Again the high priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?

62 And Jē'sus said, I am: * and ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

63 Then the high priest rent his clothes, and saith, What need we any further witnesses?

64 Ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? And they all condemned him to be guilty of death.

65 And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, Prophecy: and the servants did strike him with the palms of their hands.

66 ¶ And as Pē'tēr was beneath in the palace, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest:

67 And when she saw Pē'tēr warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And thou also wast with Jē'sus of Nāz'ā-rēth.

68 But he denied, saying, I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest. And he went out into the porch; and the cock crew.

69 * And a maid saw him again, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them.

70 And he denied it again. * And a little after, they that stood by said again to Pē'tēr, Surely thou art one of them: * for thou art a Gāl-ilæ'an, and thy speech agreeth thereto.

71 But he began to curse and to swear, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speak.

72 And the second time the cock crew. And Pē'tēr called to mind the word that Jē'sus said unto him, Before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. And * when he thought thereon, he wept.

4 * And Pī'lāte asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee.

5 * But Jē'sus yet answered nothing; so that Pī'lāte marvelled.

6 Now * at that feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired.

7 And there was one named Bā-rāb'bas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection.

8 And the multitude crying aloud began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them.

9 But Pī'lāte answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

10 For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him * for envy.

11 But * the chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Bā-rāb'bas unto them.

12 And Pī'lāte answered and said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call * the King of the Jews?

13 And they cried out again, Crucify him.

14 Then Pī'lāte said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him.

15 ¶ * And so Pī'lāte, willing to content the people, released Bā-rāb'bas unto them, and delivered Jē'sus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified.

16 And the soldiers led him away into the hall, called Præ-tō'rī-um; and they call together the whole band.

17 And they clothed him with purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head, 18 And began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews!

19 And they smote him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and bowing their knees worshipped him.

20 And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him.

21 * And they compel one Sī'mon a Cy-rē-ni-an, who passed by, coming out of the country, the father of Al-ēx-ān'dēr and * Rū'fus, to bear his cross.

Christ's death, burial, and resurrection.

23 * And they gave him to drink wine mingled with myrrh: but he received it not.

24 And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take.

25 And it was the third hour, and they crucified him.

26 And the superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

27 And with him they crucify two thieves; the one on his right hand, and the other on his left.

28 And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, * And he was numbered with the transgressors.

29 And they that passed by railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, 30 Save thyself, and come down from the cross.

31 Likewise also the chief priests mocking said among themselves with the scribes, He saved others; himself he cannot save.

32 Let Christ the King of Iy'ra-el descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe. And they that were crucified with him reviled him.

33 And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.

34 And at the ninth hour Jē'sus cried with a loud voice, saying, * E-lō'ī, E-lō'ī, lā'ma sā-bach-thā'm? which is, being interpreted, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

35 And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth E-lī'as.

36 And one ran and filled a sponge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Let alone; let us see whether E-lī'as will come to take him down.

37 And Jē'sus cried with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost.

38 And the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom.

39 ¶ And when the centurion, which stood over against him, saw that he so cried out, and gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God.

40 There were also women looking on afar off: among whom was Mā'rŷ Māg-dā-lē'nē, and Mā'rŷ the mother of James the less and of Jō'sēs, and Sā-lō'mē;

45 And when he knew it of the centurion, he gave the body to Jō-seph.

46 And he bought fine linen, and took him down, and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a sepulchre which was hewn out of a rock, and rolled a stone unto the door of the sepulchre.

1 An angel declareth the resurrection of Christ to three women. 2 Christ appeareth to Mary Magdalene 12 to two of his disciples going into the country 14 and to the eleven whom he commissioned to preach the gospel to all the world. 19 His ascension into heaven.

AND when the sabbath was past, A Mā'rŷ Māg-dā-lē'nē, and Mā'rŷ the mother of James, and Sā-lō'mē, had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him.

2 And very early in the morning the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun.

3 And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre?

4 And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great.

5 And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted.

6 And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jē'sus of Nāz'arēth, which was crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him.

7 But go your way, tell his disciples and Pē'tēr that he goeth before you into Gāl'ilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you.

8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre; for they

2 Even as they delivered them unto us, which from the beginning were eyewitnesses, and ministers of the word;

3 It seemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to write unto thee in order, most excellent Thēōphŷlŷs,

4 That thou mightest know the certainty of those things, wherein thou hast been instructed.

5 ¶ THERE was in the days of Hēr'od, the king of Jū-dæ'a, a certain priest named Zāch-g-ri'as, of the course of Ā-bi'ā: and his wife was of the daughters of Aār'on, and her name was Ē-lŷ-g-bēth.

6 And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless.

7 And they had no child, because that Ē-lŷ-g-bēth was barren, and 10 And the whole multitude of the people were praying without at the time of incense.

11 And there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense.

17 And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of E-li'as, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.

18 And Zäch-a-ri'as said unto the angel, Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years.

19 And the angel answering said unto him, I am Gä-br'i-el, that stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these glad tidings.

20 And, behold, thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.

21 And the people waited for Zäch-a-ri'as, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple: for he beckoned unto them, and remained speechless.

23 And it came to pass, that, as soon as the days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house.

24 And after those days his wife E-ly's'a-béth conceived, and hid herself five months, saying, 25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days wherein he looked on me, to take away my reproach among men.

26 And in the sixth month the angel Gä-br'i-el was sent from God unto a city of Gäl'ilee, named Náz'a-réth, 27 To a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Jō'seph, of the house of Dä'vid; and the virgin's name was Mä'r'y.

28 And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.

29 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.

30 And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mä'r'y: for thou hast found favour with God.

31 And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JĒSUS.

33 And he shall reign over the house of Jā'cob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

34 Then said Mä'r'y unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

35 And the angel answered and said unto her, The Hō'l'y Ghōst shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God.

36 And, behold, thy cousin E-ly's'a-béth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren.

37 For with God nothing shall be impossible.

38 And Mä'r'y said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.

39 And Mä'r'y arose in those days, and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Jū'da;

40 And entered into the house of Zäch-a-ri'as, and saluted E-ly's'a-béth.

41 And it came to pass, that, when E-ly's'a-béth heard the salutation of Mä'r'y, the babe leaped in her womb; and E-ly's'a-béth was filled with the Hō'l'y Ghōst:

42 And she spake out with a loud voice, and said, Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

43 And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?

44 For, lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.

45 And blessed is she that believed: for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord.

46 And Mä'r'y said, My soul doth magnify the Lord, 47 And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

48 For he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden: for, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.

49 For he that is mighty hath done to me great things; and holy is his name.

50 And his mercy is on them that fear him from generation to generation.

51 He hath shewed strength with his arm; he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

52 * He hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree.

53 * He hath filled the hungry with good things; and the rich he hath sent empty away.

54 He hath holpen his servant Isra-el, * in remembrance of his mercy,

55 * As he spake to our fathers, to A'-bra-hām, and to his seed for ever.

56 And Mā'ry abode with her about three months, and returned to her own house.

57 Now E-lis'a-bēth's full time came that she should be delivered, and she brought forth a son.

58 And her neighbours and her cousins heard how the Lord had shewed great mercy upon her; and they rejoiced with her.

59 And it came to pass, that * on the eighth day they came to circum-cise the child, and they called him Zāch-a-ri'as, after the name of his father.

60 And his mother answered and said, Not so; but he shall be called Jōhn.

61 And they said unto her, There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name.

62 And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called.

63 And he asked for a writing table, and wrote, saying, His name is Jōhn. And they marvelled all.

64 And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake, and praised God.

65 And fear came on all that dwelt round about them: and all these * sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill country of Jū-dæ'a.

66 And all they that heard * them laid them up in their hearts, saying, What manner of child shall this be! And * the hand of the Lord was with him.

67 And his father Zāch-a-ri'as * was filled with the Hō'y Ghost, and prophesied, saying,

68 Blessed be the Lord God of Isra-el; for he hath visited and re-deemed his people,

69 And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant Dā'vid;

70 * As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began:

71 That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us;

72 * To perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant;

CHAPTER 2.

1 Augustus taxeth the Roman empire. 6 Christ's nativity. 21 his circumcision. 46 he questioneth the doctors.

AND it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Cæ'sar Au-gus'tus, that all the world should be ¹taxed.

2 (* And this taxing was first made when Cy-re-ni-us was governor of Sy-r'i-a.)

3 And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

4 And Jo'seph also went up from Gāl'i-lee, out of the city of Nāz'a-rēth, into Jū-dæ'a, unto ⁵ the city of Dā'vid, which is called Bēth'lē-hēm; (* because he was of the house and lineage of Dā'vid.)

5 To be taxed with Mā'ry his espoused wife, being great with child.

6 And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

7 And ⁴ she brought forth her first-born son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a * manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

8 And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping ² watch over their flock by night.

9 And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid.

10 And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, / which shall be to all people.

11 For unto you is born this day in the city of Dá'vid a Saviour, ^a which is Christ the Lord.

12 And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

13 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

14 Glory to God in the highest, and on earth / peace, ^a good will to-ward men.

15 And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, ^a the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bēth'lē-hēm, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16 And they came with haste, and found Mā'ry, and Jō'seph, and the babe lying in a manger.

17 And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

18 And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

19 But Mā'ry kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

21 And when eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called ^a JĒ'SUS, which was so named of the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

22 And when ^a the days of her purification according to the law of Mō'ses were accomplished, they brought him to JĒ-ry'sā-lēm, to present him to the Lord,

23 (As it is written in the law of the Lord, ^a Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord;)

24 And to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtle-doves, or two young pigeons.

25 And, behold, there was a man in JĒ-ry'sā-lēm, whose name was Sīm'-e-on; and the same man was just and devout, ^a waiting for the consolation of Is'ra-el; and the Hō'y Ghōst was upon him.

26 And it was revealed unto him by the Hō'y Ghōst, that he should not ^a see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ.

29 Lord, ^a now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word:

30 For mine eyes ^a have seen thy salvation,

31 Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;

32 ^a A light to lighten the Gēn'-tiles, and the glory of thy people Is'ra-el.

33 And Jō'seph and his mother marvelled at those things which were spoken of him.

34 And Sīm'e-on blessed them, and said unto Mā'ry his mother, Behold, this child is set for the ^a fall and rising again of many in Is'ra-el; and for ^a a sign which shall be spoken against,

35 (Yea, ^a a sword shall pierce through thy own soul also,) that the ^a thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.

36 And there was one Ān'nā, ^a a prophetess, the daughter of Phān-u'el, of the tribe of Ā'sēr: she was of a great age, and had lived with an husband seven years from her virginity;

37 And she was a widow of about fourscore and four years, which departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers ^a night and day.

38 And she coming in that instant gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all them that ^a looked for redemption in ^a JĒ-ry'sā-lēm.

39 And when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Gāl'-lee, to their own city Nāz'a-rēth.

40 And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him.

41 Now his parents went to JĒ-ry'sā-lēm ^a every year at the feast of the passover.

42 And when he was twelve years old, they went up to JĒ-ry'sā-lēm after the custom of the feast.

43 And when they had fulfilled the days, as they returned, the child Jē'sus tarried behind in JĒ-ry'sā-lēm; and Jō'seph and his mother knew not of it.

44 But they, supposing him to have been in the company, went a day's journey; and they sought him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance.

45 And when they found him not, they turned back again to Jê-ry'sâ-lêm, seeking him.

46 And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions.

47 And all that heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers.

48 And when they saw him, they were amazed: and his mother said unto him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing.

49 And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must be about my Father's business?

50 And they understood not the saying which he spake unto them.

51 And he went down with them, and came to Naz'arêth, and was subject unto them: but his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.

52 And Jê-sus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man.

CHAPTER 3.

1 John's preaching and baptism: 15 His testimony of Christ: 21 Christ is baptiz'ed: 28 His genealogy

NOW in the fifteenth year of the reign of Ti-bê-ri-us Cæ'sar, Pôn'tius Pil'ate being governor of Jû-dæ'a, and Hêr'od being tetrarch of Gal'lee, and his brother Phil'ip tetrarch of I-tu-ræ'a and of the region of Trach'ani'tis, and Ly-sâ'nûs the tetrarch of Ab'ilê'nê,

2 An'as and Câr'a-phâs being the high priests, the word of God came unto Jôhn the son of Zâch'ar'ias in the wilderness.

3 And he came into all the country about Jôr'dân, preaching the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins;

4 As it is written in the book of the words of Ê-sâ'ias the prophet, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth;

6 And all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

7 Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Ab'rahâm to our father: for I say unto you, That God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Ab'rahâm.

9 And now also the ax is laid unto the root of the trees: every tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

10 And the people asked him, saying, What shall we do then?

11 He answereth and saith unto them, He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise.

12 Then came also publicans to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, what shall we do?

13 And he said unto them, Exact no more than that which is appointed you.

14 And the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said unto them, Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely; and be content with your wages.

15 And as the people were in expectation, and all men mused in their hearts of Jôhn, whether he were the Christ, or not;

16 Jôhn answered, saying unto them all, I indeed baptize you with water; but one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you with the Hô'ly Ghôst and with fire:

17 Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and will gather the wheat into his garner; but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable.

18 And many other things in his exhortation preached he unto the people.

19 But Hêr'od the tetrarch, being reproved by him for Hê-rô'dias his brother Phil'ip's wife, and for all the evils which Hêr'od had done, 20 Added yet this above all, that he shut up Jôhn in prison.

21 Now when all the people were baptized, it came to pass, that Jê-sus also being baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened,

22 And the Hô'ly Ghôst descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Christ's temptation and fasting. 13 He, overcoming the devil, 14 beginneth to preach. 16 The people at Nazareth admire him. 33 He cureth one possessed of a devil.

AND Jē'sus being full of the Hō'ly Ghōst returned from Jō'r-dān, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness,

2 Being forty days tempted of the devil. And in those days he did eat nothing: and when they were ended, he afterward hungered.

3 And the devil said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread.

4 And Jē'sus answered him, saying, It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.

5 And the devil, taking him up into an high mountain, shewed unto him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.

6 And the devil said unto him, All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them: for that is delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will I give it.

7 If thou therefore wilt worship me, all shall be thine.

8 And Jē'sus answered and said unto him, Get thee behind me, Sā'tan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

9 And he brought him to Jē-ry'sā-lēm, and set him on a pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down from hence:

10 For it is written, He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee:

11 And in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

12 And Jē'sus answering said unto him, It is said, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

13 And when the devil had ended all the temptation, he departed from him for a season.

14 And Jē'sus returned in the power of the Spirit into Gāl'i-lee: and there went out a fame of him through all the region round about.

He begins to preach. Divers sick persons healed.

LUKE, 5.

15 And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified of all.

16 ¶ And he came to Nāz'a-rēth, where he had been brought up: and, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up for to read.

17 And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet E-sā'ias. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written,

18 "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, 19 To preach the acceptable year of the Lord.

20 And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him.

21 And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.

22 And all bare him witness, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, "Is not this Jō'seph's son?"

23 And he said unto them, Ye will surely say unto me this proverb, Physician, heal thyself: whatsoever we have heard done in Cā-pēr-nā-ūm, do also here in thy country.

24 And he said, Verily I say unto you, No prophet is accepted in his own country.

25 But I tell you of a truth, many widows were in Iy'ra-el in the days of E-li'as, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land;

26 But unto none of them was E-li'as sent, save unto Sā-rēp'ta, a city of Si'dōn, unto a woman that was a widow.

27 "And many lepers were in Iy'ra-el in the time of E-li-sē-us the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, saving Nā'a-man the Syr-Ian.

28 And all they in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath, 29 And rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him unto the brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might cast him down headlong.

30 But he passing through the midst of them went his way, 31 And came down to Cā-pēr-nā-tim, a city of Gāl'lee, and taught them on the sabbath days.

32 And they were astonished at his doctrine: for his word was with power.

33 ¶ And in the synagogue there was a man, which had a spirit of an unclean devil, and cried out with a loud voice, 34 Saying, "Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jē'sus of Nāz'a-rēth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art; thou the Holy One of God.

35 And Jē'sus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the devil had thrown him in the midst, he came out of him, and hurt him not.

36 And they were all amazed, and spake among themselves, saying, What a word is this! for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out.

37 "And the fame of him went out into every place of the country round about.

38 ¶ And he arose out of the synagogue, and entered into Si'mon's house. And Si'mon's wife's mother was taken with a great fever; and they besought him for her.

39 And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she arose and ministered unto them.

40 ¶ Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them.

41 "And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ the Son of God. And he rebuking them suffered them not to speak: for they knew that he was Christ.

42 "And when it was day, he departed and went into a desert place: and the people sought him, and came unto him, and stayed him, that he should not depart from them.

43 And he said unto them, "I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also: for therefore am I sent.

44 "And he preached in the synagogues of Gāl'lee.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Christ teacheth out of Peter's ship. 4 A miraculous draught of fishes. 27 Levi called from the receipt of custom.

AND it came to pass, that, as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Gēn-nēs'a-rēt,

LUKE, 5. Miraculous catch of fishes. Sick of the palsy healed.

2 And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 And he entered into one of the ships, which was Si'mon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship.

4 Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Si'mon, ^a Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.

5 And Si'mon answering said unto him, Ma'ster, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net.

6 And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net brake.

7 And they beckoned unto their partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink.

8 When Si'mon Pē'tēr saw it, he fell down at Jē'sus' knees, saying, ^c Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.

9 For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken:

10 And so was also Jāmes, and Jōhn, the sons of Zēb'e-dee, which were partners with Si'mon. And Jē'sus said unto Si'mon, Fear not, ^d from henceforth thou shalt catch men.

11 And when they had brought their ships to land, ^e they forsook all, and followed him.

12 ¶ And it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, behold a man full of leprosy: who seeing Jē'sus fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst ^f make me clean.

13 And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.

14 ^g And he charged him to tell no man: but go, and shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, ^h according as Mō'ses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

15 But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him: ⁱ and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.

16 ¶ ^a And he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed.

17 And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Phār'isees and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Gāl'ilee, and Jū-dæ'a, and Jē-rū'sā-lēm: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.

18 ¶ ^b And, behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the house top, and let him down through the tiling with his couch into the midst before Jē'sus.

20 And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, ^c thy sins are forgiven thee.

21 ^d And the scribes and the Phār'isees began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? ^e Who can forgive sins, but God alone?

22 But when Jē'sus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts?

23 Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk?

24 But that ye may know that the ^f Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house.

25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, ^g glorifying God.

26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to day.

27 ¶ ^h And after these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Lē'vi, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me.

28 And he left all, rose up, and followed him.

29 ⁱ And Lē'vi made him a great feast in his own house: and ^j there was a great company of publicans and of others that sat down with them.

30 But their scribes and Phār'isees murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners?

31 And Jē'sus answering said unto them, They that are whole need not a physician; but they that are sick.

32 * I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

33 ¶ And they said unto him, * Why do the disciples of Jōhn fast often, and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Phār'isees; but thine eat and drink?

34 And he said unto them, Can ye make the children of the bridechamber fast, while the * bridegroom is with them?

35 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.

36 ¶ And he spake also a parable unto them, No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old; if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new agreeth not with the old.

37 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles; else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish.

38 But new wine must be put into new bottles; and both are preserved.

39 No man also having drunk old wine straightway desireth new: for he saith, The old is better.

AND * it came to pass on the second sabbath after the first, that he went through the corn fields; and his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands.

2 And certain of the Phār'isees said unto them, * Why do ye that which is not lawful to do on the sabbath days?

3 And Jē'sus answering them said, Have ye not read so much as this, * what Dā'vid did, when himself was an hungred, and they which were with him;

4 How he went into the house of God, and did take and eat the shewbread, and gave also to them that were with him; * which it is not lawful to eat but for the priests alone?

5 And he said unto them, That the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

6 * And it came to pass also on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was withered.

watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath day; that they might find an accusation against him.

8 But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth.

9 Then said Jē'sus unto them, I will ask you one thing; * Is it lawful on the sabbath days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it?

10 And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

11 And they were filled with madness; and communed one with another what they might do to Jē'sus.

12 * And it came to pass in those days, that he went out into a mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God.

13 ¶ And when it was day, he called unto him his disciples, * and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named apostles;

14 Si'mon, (whom he also named Pē'tēr,) and An'drew his brother, Jāmes and Jōhn, Phē'lip and Barthō'lō'mew,

15 Māt'thew and Thōm'as, Jāmes the son of Al-phæ'us, and Si'mon called Zē-lō'tēs, 16 And Jū'das * the brother of Jāmes, and Jū'das Is-cār'iot, which also was the traitor.

17 ¶ And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, * and a great multitude of people out of all Jū-dæ'a and Jē-ry'sā-lēm, and from the sea coast of Tyre and Si'dōn, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases;

18 And they that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for * there went virtue out of him, and healed them all.

20 ¶ And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, * Blessed be ye poor: for yours is the kingdom of God.

21 * Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. * Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh.

22 * Blessed are ye, when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake.

23 * Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for, behold, your reward is great in heaven: for *in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.

24 * But woe unto you that are rich! for *ye have received your consolation.

25 * Woe unto you that are full! for ye shall hunger. * Woe unto you that laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep.

26 * Woe unto you, when all men shall speak well of you! for so did their fathers to the false prophets

27 ¶ * But I say unto you which hear, Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you, 28 Bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully use you.

29 * And unto him that smiteth thee on the one cheek offer also the other, * and him that taketh away thy cloke forbid not to take thy coat also.

30 * Give to every man that asketh of thee, and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again.

31 / And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.

32 * For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them.

33 And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same.

34 * And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.

35 But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again, and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for *he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil.

36 / Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful.

37 * Judge not, and ye shall not be judged. condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven:

38 * Give, and it shall be given unto you, good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your * bosom. For * with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again.

39 And he spake a parable unto them, * Can the blind lead the blind? shall they not both fall into the ditch?

42 Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brother's eye.

43 * For a good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit; neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

44 For * every tree is known by his own fruit. For of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble bush gather they grapes.

45 * A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good, and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.

46 ¶ * And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?

47 * Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will shew you to whom he is like:

48 He is like a man which built an house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock: and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded upon a rock.

49 But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth, against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell; and the ruin of that house was great.

CHAPTER 7.

1 The centurion's faith 10 Christ healeth his servant being absent 11 He releaseth the widow's son 21 Christ's testimony of John 26 Mary Magdalene's repentance of her sins

NOW when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entered into Capernaum.

2 And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear unto him, was sick, and ready to die.

3 And when he heard of Jesus, he sent unto him the elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant.

4 And when they came to Jesus, they besought him instantly, saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this:

5 For he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue.

6 Then Jesus went with them.

And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself: for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter under my roof:

7 Wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed.

8 For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers, and I say unto ¹one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh, and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

9 When Jē'sus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in ⁶Is'ra-el.

10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick.

11 ¶ And it came to pass the day after, that he went into a city called Nā'in; and many of his disciples went with him, and much people.

12 Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not.

14 And he came and touched the ²bier: and they that bare him stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, ⁴Arise.

15 And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he delivered him to his mother.

16 * And there came a fear on all, and they glorified God, saying, ⁷That a great prophet is risen up among us, and, ⁸That God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Jū-dā'a, and throughout all the region round about.

18 * And the disciples of Jōhn shewed him of all these things.

19 ¶ And Jōhn calling unto him two of his disciples sent them to Jē'sus, saying, Art thou ¹he that should come? or look we for another?

20 When the men were come unto him, they said, Jōhn Bāp'tist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou ¹he that should come? or look we for another?

21 And in that same hour he cured many of their infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits; and unto many that were blind he gave sight.

22 ¶ Then Jē'sus answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell Jōhn what things ye have seen and heard; ¹how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, ²to the poor the gospel is preached.

23 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me.

24 ¶ And * when the messengers of Jōhn were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning Jōhn, What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts.

26 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet.

27 This is he, of whom it is written, * Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say unto you, * Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than Jōhn the Bāp'tist: but he that is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.

29 And all the people that heard him, and the publicans, justified God, * being baptized with the baptism of Jōhn.

30 But the Phār'isees and lawyers * rejected ²the counsel of God ⁴against themselves, being not baptized of him.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, * Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like?

32 They are like unto children sitting in the marketplace, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept.

33 For * Jōhn the Bāp'tist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and ye say, He hath a devil.

34 The Son of man is come eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold a gluttonous man, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners!

25 * But wisdom is justified of all her children.

26 ¶ * And one of the Phār'isees desired him that he would eat with him. And he went unto the Phār'isee's house, and sat down to meat.

37 And, behold, a woman in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at meat in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster box of ointment, 38 And stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

39 Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying, "This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner."

40 And Jesus answering said unto him, Si'mon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Master, say on.

41 There was a certain creditor which had two debtors: the one owed five hundred pence, and the other fifty.

42 And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most?

43 Si'mon answered and said, I suppose that he, to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged.

44 And he turned to the woman, and said unto Si'mon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head.

45 Thou gavest me no kiss: but this woman since the time I came in hath not ceased to kiss my feet.

46 My head with oil thou didst not anoint: but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment.

47 Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little.

48 And he said unto her, Thy sins are forgiven.

49 And they that sat at meat with him began to say within themselves, "Who is this that forgiveth sins also?"

50 And he said to the woman, Thy faith hath saved thee; go in peace.

city and village, preaching and shewing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God: and the twelve were with him.

2 And certain women, which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary called Mag-da-lē-nē, out of whom went seven devils.

3 And Jo-an-nā the wife of Chu'za Herod's steward, and Susān'nā, and many others, which ministered unto him of their substance.

4 ¶ And when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable:

5 A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it.

6 And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.

8 And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundredfold. And when he had said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

9 ¶ And his disciples asked him, saying, What might this parable be?

10 And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand.

11 ¶ Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.

12 Those by the way side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.

13 They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.

14 And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

15 But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

16 ¶ No man, when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but setteth it on a candlestick, that they which enter in may see the light.

17 ¶ For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid, that shall not be known and come abroad.

18 Take heed therefore how ye hear: for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he seemeth to have.

19 ¶ Then came to him His mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the press.

20 And it was told him by certain which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee.

21 And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which hear the word of God, and do it.

22 ¶ Now it came to pass on a certain day, that he went into a ship with his disciples: and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake. And they launched forth.

23 But as they sailed he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy.

24 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish. Then he arose, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm.

25 And he said unto them, Where is your faith? And they being afraid wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this! for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him.

26 ¶ And they arrived at the country of the Gāl'la-rēneş, which is over against Gāl'ilee.

27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man, which had devils long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs.

28 When he saw Jē'sus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jē'sus, thou Son of God most high? I beseech thee, torment me not.

29 (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.)

30 And Jē'sus asked.

What is thy name? And Legion: because many devils were entered into him.

31 And they besought him that he would not command them to go out into the deep.

32 And there was there an herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them. And he suffered them.

33 Then went the devils out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked.

34 When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city and in the country.

35 Then they went out to see what was done; and came to Jē'sus, and found the man, out of whom the devils were departed, sitting at the feet of Jē'sus, clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

36 They also which saw it told them by what means he that was possessed of the devils was healed.

37 ¶ Then the whole multitude of the country of the Gāl'la-rēneş round about besought him to depart from them; for they were taken with great fear: and he went up into the ship, and returned back again.

38 Now the man out of whom the devils were departed besought him that he might be with him: but Jē'sus sent him away, saying, 39 Return to thine own house, and shew how great things God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city how great things Jē'sus had done unto him.

40 And it came to pass, that, when Jē'sus was returned, the people gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him.

41 ¶ And, behold, there came a man named Jā-ir'us, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jē'sus' feet, and besought him that he would come into his house:

42 For he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. But as he went the people thronged him.

43 ¶ And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed of any,

44 Came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood stanch'd.

45 And Jē'sus said, Who touch'd me? When all denied, Pē'tēr and they that were with him said, Master, the multitude throng thee and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touch'd me?

46 And Jē'sus said, Somebody hath touch'd me: for I perceive that a virtue is gone out of me.

47 And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people for what cause she had touch'd him, and how she was healed immediately.

48 And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace.

49 ¶ While he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead; trouble not the Master.

50 But when Jē'sus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not: believe only, and she shall be made whole.

51 And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save Pē'tēr, and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden.

52 And all wept, and bewailed her: but he said, Weep not; she is not dead, but sleepeth.

53 And they laugh'd him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.

54 And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and call'd, saying, Maid, arise.

55 And her spirit came again, and she arose straightway: and he commanded to give her meat.

56 And her parents were astonish'd: but he charg'd them that they should tell no man what was done.

THEN he call'd his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases.

5 And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them.

6 And they departed, and went through the towns, preaching the gospel, and healing every where.

7 ¶ Now Hēr'od the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he was perplexed, because that it was said of some, that Jōhn was risen from the dead;

8 And of some, that E-l'as had appeared; and of others, that one of the old prophets was risen again.

9 And Hēr'od said, Jōhn have I beheaded: but who is this, of whom I hear such things? And he desired to see him.

10 ¶ And the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done. And he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place belonging to the city called Bēth-sā'ī-da.

11 And the people, when they knew it, followed him: and he received them, and spake unto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had need of healing.

12 And when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are here in a desert place.

13 But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more but five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy meat for all this people.

14 For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company.

15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.

16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.

17 And they did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them twelve baskets.

18 ¶ And it came to pass, as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am?

19 They answering said, Jōhn the Bāp'tist; but some say, E-l'as; and others say, that one of the old prophets is risen again.

20 He said unto them, But whom say ye that I am? Pē'tēr answering said, The Christ of God.

21 * And he straitly charged them, and commanded them to tell no man that thing;

22 Saying, * The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be slain, and be raised the third day.

23 ¶ * And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

24 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.

25 * For what is a man advantaged, if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away?

26 * For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Father's, and of the holy angels.

27 * But I tell you of a truth, there be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God.

28 ¶ * And it came to pass about an eight days after these ¹ sayings, he took Pē'tēr and Jōhn and James, and went up into a mountain to pray.

29 And as he prayed, * the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistering.

30 And, behold, there talked with him two men, which were Mō'ses and * Ē-lī'as:

31 Who appeared in ² glory, and spake of his decease which he should accomplish at Jē-ry'sā-lēm.

32 But Pē'tēr and they that were with him * were heavy with sleep. and when they were awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him.

33 And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Pē'tēr said unto Jē'sus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Mō'ses, and one for Ē-lī'as: not knowing what he said.

34 While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud.

35 And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, * This is my beloved Son: * hear him.

36 And when the voice was past, Jē'sus was found alone. ¶ And they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.

37 ¶ * And it came to pass, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him.

38 And, behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, look upon my son: for he is mine only child.

39 And, lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it tear-eth him that he foameth again, and bruising him hardly departeth from him.

40 And I besought thy disciples to cast him out; and they could not.

41 And Jē'sus answering said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and suffer you? Bring thy son hither.

42 And as he was yet a coming, the devil threw him down, and tare him. And Jē'sus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father.

43 ¶ And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God. But while they wondered every one at all things which Jē'sus did, he said unto his disciples, 44 * Let these sayings sink down into your ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered into the hands of men.

45 * But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him of that saying.

46 ¶ * Then there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest.

47 And Jē'sus, perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him, 48 And said unto them, * Whosoever shall receive this child in my name receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: ¹ for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.

49 ¶ * And Jōhn answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name; and we forbid him, because he followeth not with us.

50 And Jē'sus said unto him, Forbid him not: for * he that is not against us is for us.

51 ¶ And it came to pass, when the time was come that * he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jē-ry'sā-lēm, 52 And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Sā-mār'i-tan, to make ready for him.

LUKE, 10.

Christ sends out seventy disciples.

53 And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jê-ry'sâ-lêm.

54 And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as E-li'as did?

55 But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of.

56 For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

57 ¶ And it came to pass, that, as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

58 And Jê'sus said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

59 ¶ And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

60 Jê'sus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.

61 And another also said, Lord, I will follow thee; but let me first go bid them farewell, which are at home at my house.

62 And Jê'sus said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plow, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

1 Christ sendeth out seventy disciples. 18 Woes against Chorazin, Bethsaida, and Capernaum 28 Mary commended

AFTER these things the Lord appointed other seventy also, and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself would come.

2 Therefore said he unto them, The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest.

3 Go your ways: behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves.

4 Carry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes: and salute no man by the way.

5 And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house.

6 And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall turn to you again.

7 And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house.

8 And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you:

9 And heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

10 But into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you not, go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say,

11 Even the very dust of your city, which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you: notwithstanding be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

12 But I say unto you, that it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sôd'om, than for that city.

13 Woe unto thee, Chô-râ'zîn! woe unto thee, Bêth-sâ'ï-da! for if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Si'dôn, which have been done in you, they had a great while ago repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

14 But it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Si'dôn at the judgment, than for you.

15 And thou, Că-pêr'nă-üm, which art exalted to heaven, shalt be thrust down to hell.

16 He that heareth you heareth me; and he that despiseth you despiseth me; and he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent me.

17 ¶ And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy name.

18 And he said unto them, I beheld Sâ'tan as lightning fall from heaven.

19 Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

20 Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven.

21 ¶ In that hour Jê'sus rejoiced in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight.

22 All things are delivered to me of my Father: and no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him.

23 ¶ And he turned him unto 346 disciples, and said privately, * Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see:

24 For I tell you, * that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

25 ¶ And, behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, * Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

26 He said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou?

27 And he answering said, * Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and * thy neighbour as thyself.

28 And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and * thou shalt live.

29 But he, willing to = justify himself, said unto Jē'sus, And who is my neighbour?

30 And Jē'sus answering said, A certain man went down from Jē-ru'-sā-lēm to Jēr'-lechō, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

31 And by chance there came down a certain priest that way: and when he saw him, * he passed by on the other side.

32 And likewise a Lē'vite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

33 But a certain * Sā-mār'-i-tan, as he journeyed, came where he was and when he saw him, he had compassion on him, 34 And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

35 And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee.

36 Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves?

37 And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Jē'sus unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

38 ¶ Now it came to pass, as they went, that he entered into a certain village; and a certain woman named Mār'thā received him into her house.

CHAPTER 11.

1 Christ teacheth to pray: 14 he casteth out a dumb devil. 27 He sheweth who are truly blessed: 30 He preacheth to the people, 37 and reproveth the Pharisees' outward show of holiness.

AND it came to pass, that, as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, * teach us to pray, as Jōhn also taught his disciples.

2 And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, * Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. * Thy kingdom come. Tify will be done, as in heaven, so in earth.

3 Give us ¹ day by day our daily bread.

4 And forgive us our sins; for * we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. * And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.

5 And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves;

6 For a friend of mine ² in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him?

7 And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee.

8 I say unto you, * Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth.

9 * And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

10 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

11 * If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent?

LUKE, 11.

The Pharisees rebuked. Christ preaches

12 Or if he shall ask an egg, will he offer him a scorpion?

13 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?

14 ¶ And he was casting out a devil, and it was dumb. And it came to pass, when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake; and the people wondered.

15 But some of them said, He casteth out devils through Be-el'ze-bub the chief of the devils.

16 And others, tempting him, sought of him a sign from heaven.

17 But he, knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falleth.

18 If Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out devils through Be-el'ze-bub.

19 And if I by Be-el'ze-bub cast out devils, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges.

20 But if I with the finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you.

21 When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace:

22 But when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils.

23 He that is not with me is against me: and he that gathereth not with me scattereth.

24 When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out.

25 And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished.

26 Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first.

27 ¶ And it came to pass, as he spake these things, a certain woman of the company lifted up her voice, and said unto him, Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked.

28 But he said, Yea rather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

say, This is an evil generation: they seek a sign; and there shall no sign be given it, but the sign of Jō'nas the prophet.

30 For as Jō'nas was a sign unto the Nin'e-vites, so shall also the Son of man be to this generation.

31 ¶ The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and condemn them: for she came from the utmost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Söl'o-mon; and, behold, a greater than Söl'o-mon is here.

32 The men of Nin'e-ve shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jō'nas; and, behold, a greater than Jō'nas is here.

33 ¶ No man, when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a bushel, but on a candlestick, that they which come in may see the light.

34 ¶ The light of the body is the eye: therefore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when thine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness.

35 Take heed therefore that the light which is in thee be not darkness.

36 If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when the bright shining of a candle doth give thee light.

37 ¶ And as he spake, a certain Phār'isee besought him to dine with him: and he went in, and sat down to meat.

38 And when the Phār'isee saw it, he marvelled that he had not first washed before dinner.

39 ¶ And the Lord said unto him, Now do ye Phār'isees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness.

40 Ye fools, did not he that made that which is without make that which is within also?

41 ¶ But rather give alms of such things as ye have; and, behold, all things are clean unto you.

42 ¶ But woe unto you, Phār'isees! for ye tithe mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and pass over judgment and the love of God: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

43 ¶ Woe unto you, Phār'isees! for ye love the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets.

44 ¶ Woe unto you, scribes and to the people, and to his disciples.

LUKE, 12.

Phārī-sees, hypocrites! for ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them.

45 ¶ Then answered one of the lawyers, and said unto him, Master, thus saying thou reproachest us also.

46 And he said, Woe unto you also, ye lawyers! for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 Woe unto you! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.

48 Truly ye bear witness that ye allow the deeds of your fathers: for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres.

49 Therefore also said the wisdom of God, I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall slay and persecute:

50 That the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation;

51 From the blood of Abél unto the blood of Zachariás, which perished between the altar and the temple: verily I say unto you, it shall be required of this generation.

52 Woe unto you, lawyers! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge, ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered.

53 And as he said these things unto them, the scribes and the Phārī-sees began to urge him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of many things:

54 Laying wait for him, and seeking to catch something out of his mouth, that they might accuse him.

41 The faithful and wise steward. 49 Of divisions on account of the gospel.

IN the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, inasmuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, Beware ye of the leaven of the Phārī-sees, which is hypocrisy.

2 For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known.

3 Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed upon the house tops.

8 Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God:

9 But he that denieth me before men shall be denied before the angels of God.

10 And whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him, but unto him that blasphemeth against the Holy Ghost it shall not be forgiven.

11 And when they bring you unto the synagogues, and unto magistrates, and powers, take ye no thought how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say:

12 For the Holy Ghost shall teach you in the same hour what ye ought to say.

13 ¶ And one of the company said unto him, Master, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me.

14 And he said unto him, Man, who made me a judge or a divider over you?

15 And he said unto them, Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.

16 And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully:

17 And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits?

18 And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods.

19 And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.

20 But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?

LUKE, 12.

Christ's ministers are to see to their charge.

21 So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.

22 ¶ And he said unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on.

23 The life is more than meat, and the body is more than raiment.

24 Consider the ravens: for they neither sow nor reap; which neither have storehouse nor barn; and God feedeth them: how much more are ye better than the fowls?

25 And which of you with taking thought can add to his stature one cubit?

26 If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why take ye thought for the rest?

27 Consider the lilies how they grow: they toil not, they spin not; and yet I say unto you, that Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

28 If then God so clothe the grass, which is to day in the field, and to morrow is cast into the oven; how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith?

29 And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind.

30 For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things.

31 ¶ But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you.

32 Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

33 Sell that ye have, and give alms; provide yourselves bags which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth.

34 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

35 Let your loins be girded about, and your lights burning;

36 And ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their lord, when he will return from the wedding; that when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately.

37 Blessed are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them.

38 And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants.

29 And this know, that if the good man of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken through.

40 Be ye therefore ready also; for the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not.

41 ¶ Then Peter said unto him, Lord, speakest thou this parable unto us, or even to all?

42 And the Lord said, Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season?

43 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

44 Of a truth I say unto you, that he will make him ruler over all that he hath.

45 But and if that servant say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the menservants and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken;

46 The lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in sunder, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers.

47 And that servant, which knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes.

48 But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more.

49 ¶ I am come to send fire on the earth; and what will I, if it be already kindled?

50 But I have a baptism to be baptized with; and how am I straitened till it be accomplished!

51 Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather division:

52 For from henceforth there shall be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three.

53 The father shall be divided against the son, and the son against the father; the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother; the mother in law against her daughter in law, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.

LUKE, 13.

54 ¶ And he said also to the people, 'When ye see a cloud rise out of the west, straightway ye say, There cometh a shower; and so it is.

55 And when ye see the south wind blow, ye say, There will be heat; and it cometh to pass.

56 Ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky and of the earth; but how is it that ye do not discern this time?

57 Yea, and why even of yourselves judge ye not what is right?

58 ¶ When thou goest with thine adversary to the magistrate, as thou art in the way, give diligence that thou mayest be delivered from him; lest he hale thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and the officer cast thee into prison.

59 I tell thee, thou shalt not depart thence, till thou hast paid the very last mite.

CHAPTER 13.

1 Christ preacheth repentance by the calamity upon the Galileans and others. 6 The fruitless fig tree cursed. 11 He healeth the crooked woman. 18 Parable of the grain of mustard seed, and of the leaven. 24 The strait gate.

THERE were present at that season some that told him of the Galilæans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.

2 And Jē'sus answering said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galilæans were sinners above all the Galilæans, because they suffered such things?

3 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

4 Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Silōam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jē-ru-sā-lēm?

5 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

6 ¶ He spake also this parable; A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none.

7 Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground?

8 And he answering said unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it:

9 And if it bear fruit, well: and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down.

10 And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath.

11 ¶ And, behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself.

12 And when Jē'sus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity.

13 And he laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because that Jē'sus had healed on the sabbath day, and said unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the sabbath day.

15 The Lord then answered him, and said, Thou hypocrite, doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering?

16 And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Sa'tan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day?

17 And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

18 ¶ Then said he, Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I resemble it?

19 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and cast into his garden; and it grew, and waxed a great tree; and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it.

20 And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God?

21 It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

22 And he went through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying toward Jē-ru-sā-lēm.

23 Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, 24 ¶ Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.

25 When once the master of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open unto us; and he shall answer and say unto you, I know you not whence ye are:

26 Then shall ye begin to say, We have eaten and drunk in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets.

28 * There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, * when ye shall see A'bra'hām, and I'saac, and Jā'cob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out.

29 * And they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God.

30 * And, behold, there are last which shall be first, and there are first which shall be last.

31 ¶ The same day there came certain of the Phār'isees, saying unto him, Get thee out, and depart hence: for Hēr'od will kill thee.

32 And he said unto them, Go ye, and tell that fox, Behold, I cast out devils, and I do cures to day and to morrow, and the third day * I shall be perfected.

33 Nevertheless I must walk to day, and to morrow, and the day following: for it cannot be that a prophet perish out of Jē-ru'sā-lēm.

34 * O Jē-ru'sā-lēm, Jē-ru'sā-lēm, which killest the prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee; how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen doth gather her brood under her wings, and ye would not!

2 And, behold, there was a certain man before him which had the dropsy.

7 ¶ And he put forth a parable to those which were bidden, when he marked how they chose out the chief rooms; saying unto them,

8 When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room; lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him;

9 And he that bade thee and him come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room.

10 * But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee.

11 * For whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

12 ¶ Then said he also to him that bade him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours; lest they also bid thee again, and a recompence be made thee.

13 But when thou makest a feast, call * the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind:

14 And thou shalt be blessed; for they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt be * recompensed at the resurrection of the just.

15 ¶ And when one of them that sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, * Blessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God.

16 * Then said he unto him, A certain man made a great supper, and bade many:

17 And * sent his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready.

18 And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, * I have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it: I pray thee have me excused.

19 And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused.

20 And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

21 So that servant came, and shewed his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his servant, * Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind.

22 And the servant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room.

23 And the lord said unto the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.

24 For I say unto you, That none of those men which were bidden shall taste of my supper.

25 ¶ And there went great multitudes with him: and he turned, and said unto them, 26 * If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple.

27 And whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple.

28 For which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it?

29 Lest haply, after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that behold it begin to mock him, 30 Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish.

31 Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand?

32 Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassador, and desireth conditions of peace.

33 So likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple.

them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it?

5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep which was lost.

7 I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance.

8 ¶ Either what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she find it?

9 And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and her neighbours together, saying, Rejoice with me; for I have found the piece which I had lost.

10 Likewise, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

11 ¶ And he said, A certain man had two sons:

12 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living.

13 And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want.

15 And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.

16 And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him.

17 And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger!

18 I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, 19 And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.

20 And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.

21 And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

22 But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet:

23 And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry:

24 For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry.

25 Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard musick and dancing.

26 And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant.

27 And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound.

28 And he was angry, and would not go in: therefore came his father out, and intreated him.

29 And he answering said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment: and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends:

30 But as soon as this thy son was come, which hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf.

31 And he said unto him, Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine.

32 It was meet that we should make merry, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.

CHAPTER 16.

1 The parable of the unjust steward. 14 Christ rebuketh the Pharisees. 16 The beggar.

AND he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich man, which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods.

2 And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward.

3 Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed.

4 I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

5 So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord?

6 And he said, An hundred measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.

7 Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore.

8 And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light.

9 And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.

10 He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much.

11 If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?

12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own?

13 No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

14 And the Pharisees also, who were covetous, heard all these things: and they derided him.

15 And he said unto them, Ye are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God.

16 The law and the prophets were until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it.

17 And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the law to fail.

18 Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband committeth adultery.

19 There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day:

20 And there was a certain beggar named Láz'a-rus, which was laid at his gate, * full of sores, 21 And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.

22 And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and * was carried by the angels into A'brā-hām's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried;

23 And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torment, and seeth A'brā-hām afar off, and Láz'a-rus in his bosom.

24 And he cried and said, Father A'brā-hām, have mercy on me, and send Láz'a-rus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and * cool my tongue; for I * am tormented in this flame.

25 But A'brā-hām said, Son, * remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Láz'a-rus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.

26 And beside all this, between us and you there is a * great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.

27 Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house:

28 For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment.

29 A'brā-hām saith unto him, * They have Mō'ses and the prophets, let them hear them.

30 And he said, Nay, father A'brā-hām but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent.

31 And he said unto him, If they hear not Mō'ses and the prophets, * neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

5 And the apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith.

6 ¶ And the Lord said, If ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto this sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you.

7 But which of you, having a servant plowing or feeding cattle, will say unto him by and by, when he is come from the field, Go and sit down to meat?

8 And will not rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, * and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken; and afterward thou shalt eat and drink?

10 So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are * unprofitable servants: we have done that which was our duty to do.

11 ¶ And it came to pass, * as he went to Jē-ru'sā-lēm, that he passed through the midst of Sā-mā-rī-ā and Gālī-lee.

12 And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, * which stood afar off:

13 And they lifted up their voices, and said, Je'sus, Master, have mercy on us.

14 And when he saw them, he said unto them, * Go shew yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed.

15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice * glorified God, 16 And fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was * a Sā-mārī-tan.

17 And Jē'sus answering said, Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine?

18 There are not found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger.

19 * And he said unto him, Arise, go thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole.

20 ¶ And when he was demanded of the Phārī-sees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not * with observation:

21 Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, * the kingdom of God is * within you.

LUKE, 18. Of Christ's second coming. The importunate widow.

22 And he said unto the disciples, ^a The days will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it.

23 ^a And they shall say to you, See here; or, see there: ^a go not after them, nor follow them.

24 For as the lightning, that lighteth out of the one part under heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven; so shall also ^a the Son of man be in his day.

25 ^a But first must he suffer many things, and be rejected of this generation.

26 ^a And as it was in the days of Nō'e, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man.

27 They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Nō'e entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all.

28 ^a Likewise also as it was in the days of Lōt; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded;

29 But the same day that Lōt went out of Sōd'om it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all.

30 Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man ^a is revealed.

31 In that day, he ^a which shall be upon the house top, and his stuff in the house, let him not come down to take it away. and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back.

32 ^a Remember Lōt's wife.

33 ^a Whosoever shall seek to save his life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life shall preserve it.

34 ^a I tell you, in that night there shall be two men in one bed; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left.

35 Two women shall be grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

36 ^a Two men shall be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

37 And they answered and said unto him, ^b Where, Lord? And he said unto them, Wheresoever the body is, thither will the eagles be gathered together.

judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man:

3 And there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary.

4 And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man;

5 ^a Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.

6 And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith.

7 And ^a shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?

8 I tell you ^a that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?

9 And he spake this parable unto certain ^a which trusted in themselves ^a that they were righteous, and despised others:

10 Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Phār'isee, and the other a publican.

11 The Phār'isee ^a stood and prayed thus with himself, ^a God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican.

12 I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess.

13 And the publican, ^a standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.

14 I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: ^a for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

15 ^a And they brought unto him also infants, that he would touch them: but when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

16 But Jē'sus called them unto him, and said, ^a Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for ^a of such is the kingdom of God.

17 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child shall in no wise enter therein.

18 ^a And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

19 And Jē'sus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, that is, God.

20 Thou knowest the commandments, ^a Do not commit adultery,

Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, * Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up.

22 Now when Jē'sus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: * sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me.

23 And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich.

24 And when Jē'sus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, * How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they that heard it said, Who then can be saved?

27 And he said, * The things which are impossible with men are possible with God.

28 * Then Pēt'r said, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee.

29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, * There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake, 30 * Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and * in the world to come life everlasting.

31 ¶ * Then he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jē-ru'sā-lēm, and all things * that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished.

32 For * he shall be delivered unto the Gēn'tiles, and shall be mocked, and spitefully entreated, and spitted on:

33 And they shall scourge him, and put him to death: and the third day he shall rise again.

34 * And they understood none of these things: and this saying was hid from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken.

35 ¶ * And it came to pass, that as he was come nigh unto Jēr-Icho, a certain blind man sat by the way side begging:

36 And hearing the multitude pass by, he asked what it meant.

37 And they told him, that Jē'sus of Nāz'a-rēth passeth by.

38 And he cried, saying, Jē'sus, thou son of Dā'vid, have mercy on me.

CHAPTER 19.

1 Of Zacchæus the publican. 11 The ten pieces of money 28 Christ rideth into Jerusalem 41 sweepeth over it 45 driveth the buyers and sellers out of the temple.

AND Jē'sus entered and passed through * Jēr-I-chō.

2 And, behold, there was a man named Zāc-chæ'us, which was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich.

3 And he sought to see Jē'sus who he was; and could not for the press, because he was little of stature.

4 And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycomore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way.

5 And when Jē'sus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zāc-chæ'us, make haste, and come down; for to day I must abide at thy house.

6 And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully.

7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, * That he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.

8 And Zāc-chæ'us stood, and said unto the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by * false accusation, * I restore him fourfold.

9 And Jē'sus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, forsomuch as * he also is a son of Ā'brā'hām.

10 For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

11 And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jē-ru'sā-lēm, and because * they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear.

12 * He said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return.

LUKE, 19.

13 And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten ¹ pounds, and said unto them, Occupy till I come.

14 ¹ But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us.

15 And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the ² money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds.

17 And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant: because thou hast been ³ faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds.

19 And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities.

20 And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin:

21 ⁴ For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow.

22 And he saith unto him, ⁵ Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. - Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow:

23 Wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with usury?

24 And he said unto them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds.

25 (And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.)

26 For I say unto you, ⁶ That unto every one which hath shall be given; and from him that hath not, even that he hath shall be taken away from him.

27 But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me.

28 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, ⁷ he went before, ascending up to Jê-ry'sâ-lêm.

29 ⁸ And it came to pass, when he was come nigh to Bêth'pha-gê and Bêth'ân-y, at the mount called the mount of Ol'ives, he sent two of his disciples, tied, whereon yet never man sat: loose him, and bring him hither.

31 And if any man ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say unto him, ⁹ Because the Lord hath need of him.

32 And they that were sent went their way, and found even as he had said unto them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, Why loose ye the colt?

34 And they said, The Lord hath need of him.

35 And they brought him to Jê'sus: ¹⁰ and they cast their garments upon the colt, and they set Jê'sus thereon.

36 ¹¹ And as he went, they spread their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was come nigh, even now at the descent of the mount of Ol'ives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen;

38 Saying, ¹² Blessed be the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: ¹³ peace in heaven, and glory in the highest.

39 And some of the Phâr'i-sees from among the multitude said unto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

40 And he answered and said unto them, I tell you that, if these should hold their peace, ¹⁴ the stones would immediately cry out.

41 ¶ And when he was come near, he beheld the city, and ¹⁵ wept over it, 42 Saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes.

43 For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall ¹⁶ cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, 44 And ¹⁷ shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and ¹⁸ they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because ¹⁹ thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

45 ²⁰ And he went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them that bought;

46 Saying unto them, ²¹ It is written, My house is the house of prayer: but ²² ye have made it a den of thieves.

47 And he taught daily in the temple. But ²³ the chief priests and the scribes and the chief of the people sought to destroy him, 48 And could not find what they might do: for all the people ²⁴ were very attentive to hear him.

CHAPTER 20.

¹ Christ sheweth those who questioned his authority.
² The parable of the vineyard. ²⁷ The Sadducees confuted.

AND ^a it came to pass, that on one of those days, as he taught the people in the temple, and preached the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes came upon him with the elders,

² And spake unto him, saying, Tell us, ^b by what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority?

³ And he answered and said unto them, I will also ask you one thing; and answer me:

⁴ The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men?

⁵ And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then believed ye him not?

⁶ But and if we say, Of men; all the people will stone us: ^c for they be persuaded that John was a prophet.

⁷ And they answered, ^d that they could not tell whence it was.

⁸ And Jesus said unto them, ^e Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

⁹ Then began he to speak to the people this parable; ^f A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time.

¹⁰ And at the season ^g he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.

¹¹ And again he sent another servant: and they beat him also, and entreated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.

¹² ^h And again he sent a third: and they wounded him also, and cast him out.

¹³ Then said the lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be they will reverence him when they see him.

¹⁴ But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is ⁱ the heir. come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

¹⁵ So they cast him out of the vineyard, and ^j killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them?

¹⁶ He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, God forbid.

¹⁸ Whosoever shall fall upon that stone shall be broken; but ^w on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

¹⁹ ¶ And the chief priests and the scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him; and they feared the people: for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them.

²¹ And they asked him, saying, ^y Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither acceptest thou the person of any, but teachest the way of God ^z truly:

²² Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Cæsar, or no?

²³ But he perceived their craftiness, and said unto them, Why tempt ye me?

²⁵ And he said unto them, Render therefore unto Cæsar the things which be Cæsar's, and unto God the things which be God's.

²⁶ And they could not take hold of his words before the people: and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

²⁷ ¶ ^{ab} Then came to him certain of the Sadducees, ^{ac} which deny that there is any resurrection: and they asked him, ²⁸ Saying, Master, ^{ad} Moses wrote unto us, If any man's brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

²⁹ There were therefore seven brethren. and the first took a wife, and died without children.

³⁰ And the second took her to wife, and he died childless.

³¹ And the third took her; and in like manner the seven also: and they left no children, and died.

³² Last of all the woman died also.

³³ Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them is she? for seven had her to wife.

³⁴ And Jesus answering said unto them, The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage:

and the resurrection from the dead, and the God of Jā'cob.

38 " For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for " all live unto him.

39 ¶ Then certain of the scribes answering said, Master, thou hast well said.

40 And after that they durst not ask him any question at all.

41 And he said unto them, " How the people he said unto his disciples,

24 And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jê-ry-sâ-lêm shall be trodden down of the Gën'tiles, *until the times of the Gën'tiles be fulfilled.

25 ¶ And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring;

26 Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: *for the powers of heaven shall be shaken.

27 And then shall they see the Son of man *coming in a cloud with power and great glory.

28 And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh.

29 * And he spake to them a parable; Behold the fig tree, and all the trees;

30 When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at hand.

31 So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand.

32 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled.

33 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

34 ¶ And *take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares.

NOW *the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the Passover.

2 And *the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him; for they feared the people.

3 ¶ *Then entered Sâ'tan into Jû'-das surnamed Is-câr'iot, being of the number of the twelve.

4 And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray him unto them.

5 And they were glad, and *covenantant to give him money.

6 And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them *in the absence of the multitude.

7 ¶ *Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed.

8 And he sent Pê'tër and Jôhn, saying, Go and prepare us the passover, that we may eat.

9 And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare?

10 And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he entereth in.

11 And ye shall say unto the good-man of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

12 And he shall shew you a large upper room furnished: there make ready.

13 And they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

14 And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him.

15 And he said unto them, *With desire I have desired to eat this pass-over with you before I suffer:

16 For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, *until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.

17 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves:

18 For *I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come.

19 ¶ And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: *this do in remembrance of me.

20 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, *This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you.

21 ¶ But, behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table.

22 And truly the Son of man goeth, as it was determined: but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed!

23 And they began to enquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.

24 ¶ And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest.

25 And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and they that exercise authority upon them are called benefactors.

26 But ye shall not be so: but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve.

27 For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? but I am among you as he that serveth.

28 Ye are they which have continued with me in my temptations.

29 And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me;

30 That ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, Si'mon, Si'mon, behold, Sā'tan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat:

32 But I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren.

33 And he said unto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison, and to death.

34 ¶ And he said, I tell thee, Pē'tēr, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me.

35 And he said unto them, When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing.

36 Then said he unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one.

37 For I say unto you, that this that is written must yet be accomplished in me, And he was reckoned among the transgressors: for the things concerning me have an end.

38 And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said unto them, It is enough.

40 And when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray that ye enter not into temptation.

41 And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and kneeled down, and prayed, 42 Saying, Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done.

43 And there appeared an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him.

44 And being in an agony he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground.

45 And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow, 46 And said unto them, Why sleep ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

47 ¶ And while he yet spake, behold a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Je'sus to kiss him.

48 But Je'sus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss?

49 When they which were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword?

50 ¶ And one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

51 And Je'sus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him.

52 Then Je'sus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, which were come to him, Be ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and staves?

53 When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

54 ¶ Then took they him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. And Pē'tēr followed afar off.

55 And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Pē'tēr sat down among them.

56 But a certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him.

57 And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.

58 And after a little while another saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. And Pē'tēr said, Man, I am not.

59 And about the space of one hour after another confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this fellow also was with him: for he is a Gāl-līe'an.

60 And Pē'tēr said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew.

61 And the Lord turned, and looked upon Pē'tēr. And Pē'tēr remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

62 And Pē'tēr went out, and wept bitterly.

63 ¶ And the men that held Jē'sus mocked him, and smote him.

64 And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying, Prophecy, who is it that smote thee?

65 And many other things blasphemously spake they against him.

66 ¶ And as soon as it was day, the elders of the people and the chief priests and the scribes came together, and led him into their council, saying,

67 Art thou the Christ? tell us. And he said unto them, If I tell you, ye will not believe:

68 And if I also ask you, ye will not answer me, nor let me go.

69 Hereafter shall the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of God.

70 Then said they all, Art thou then the Son of God? And he said unto them, Ye say that I am.

71 And they said, What need we any further witness? for we ourselves have heard of his own mouth.

CHAPTER 23.

1 Jesus is accused before Pilate, 7 and sent to Herod: 11 he is mocked and sent back to Pilate: 25 he is delivered to be crucified: 34 prayeth for his enemies.

AND the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate.

2 And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this fellow perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Cæ'sar, saying that he himself is Christ a King.

3 And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered him and said, Thou sayest it.

4 Then said Pilate to the chief priests and to the people, I find no fault in this man.

5 And they were the more fierce, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jew'ry, beginning from Gāl-līe to this place.

6 When Pilate heard of Gāl-līe, he asked whether the man were a Gāl-līe'an.

7 And as soon as he knew that he belonged unto Hēr'od's jurisdiction, he sent him to Hēr'od, who himself also was at Jē-rū'sā-lēm at that time.

8 ¶ And when Hēr'od saw Jē'sus, he was exceeding glad: for he was desirous to see him of a long season, because he had heard many things of him; and he hoped to have seen some miracle done by him.

9 Then he questioned with him in many words; but he answered him nothing.

10 And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused him.

11 And Hēr'od with his men of war set him at nought, and mocked him, and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him again to Pilate.

12 ¶ And the same day Pilate and Hēr'od were made friends together: for before they were at enmity between themselves.

13 ¶ And Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people,

14 Said unto them, Ye have brought this man unto me, as one that perverteth the people: and, behold, I, having examined him before you, have found no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him:

15 No, nor yet Hēr'od: for I sent you to him; and, lo, nothing worthy of death is done unto him.

16 I will therefore chastise him, and release him.

17 (For of necessity he must release one unto them at the feast.)

18 And they cried out all at once, saying, Away with this man, and release unto us Bā-rāb'bas:

19 (Who for a certain sedition made in the city, and for murder, was cast into prison.)

20 Pilate therefore, willing to release Jē'sus, spake again to them.

21 But they cried, saying, Crucify him, crucify him.

22 And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him. I will therefore chastise him, and let him go.

23 And they were instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified. And the voices of them and of the chief priests prevailed.

24 And Pi'lato ¹ gave sentence that it should be as they required.

25 * And he released unto them him that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered Jē'sus to their will.

26 * And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Si'mon, a Cy're-ni-an, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jē'sus.

27 ¶ And there followed him a great company of people, and of women, which also bewailed and lamented him.

28 But Jē'sus turning unto them said, Daughters of Jē-ru'sā-lēm, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children.

29 * For, behold, the days are coming, in the which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck.

30 * Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us.

31 * For if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry?

32 * And there were also two other, malefactors, led with him to be put to death.

33 And * when they were come to the place, which is called * Cāi'vā-rý, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left.

34 ¶ Then said Jē'sus, Father, * forgive them; for * they know not what they do. And * they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

35 And * the people stood beholding. And the rulers also with them derided him, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if he be Christ, the chosen of God.

36 And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him vinegar, 37 And saying, If thou be the king of the Jews, save thyself.

38 * And a superscription also was written over him in letters of Greek, and Lāt'in, and Hé'brew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

39 ¶ * And one of the malefactors which were hanged railed on him, saying, If thou be Christ, save thyself and us.

40 But the other answering rebuked him, saying, Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?

41 And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss.

42 And he said unto Jē'sus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom.

43 And Jē'sus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise.

44 * And it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the earth until the ninth hour.

45 And the sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was rent in the midst.

46 ¶ And when Jē'sus had cried with a loud voice, he said, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: and having said thus, he gave up the ghost.

47 * Now when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man.

48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their breasts, and returned.

49 * And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Gā'l-lee, stood afar off, beholding these things.

50 ¶ * And, behold, there was a man named Jō'seph, a counsellor; and he was a good man, and a just:

51 (The same * had not consented to the counsel and deed of them;) he was of Ar-i-mā-tha'a, a city of the Jews: * who also himself waited for the kingdom of God.

52 This man went unto Pi'lato, and begged the body of Jē'sus.

53 * And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a sepulchre that was hewn in stone, wherein never man before was laid.

54 And that day was the preparation, and the sabbath drew on.

55 And the women also, * which came with him from Gā'l-lee, followed after, and * beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was laid.

56 And they returned, and * prepared spices and ointments; and rested the sabbath day * according to the commandment.

Christ's resurrection and ascension.

NOW * upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, * bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them.

2 And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

3 And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jē'sus.

4 And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments:

5 And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye the living among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee,

7 Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.

8 And they remembered his words, 9 And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest.

10 It was Mā'ry Māg-da-lē'nē, and Jōān'na, and Mā'ry the mother of James, and other women that were with them, which told these things unto the apostles.

11 And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not.

12 Then arose Pē'tēr, and ran unto the sepulchre; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to pass.

13 ¶ And, behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Ēm'ma-us, which was from Jē-ry'sā-lēm about threescore furlongs.

14 And they talked together of all these things which had happened.

15 And it came to pass, that, while they communed together and reasoned, Jē'sus himself drew near, and went with them.

16 But their eyes were holden that they should not know him.

17 And he said unto them, What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another, as ye walk, and are sad?

18 And the one of them, whose name was Clē'o-pas, answering said unto him, Art thou only a stranger in Jē-ry'sā-lēm, and hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these days?

19 And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, Concerning Jē'sus of Nāz'a-rēth, which was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people:

our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him.

21 But we trusted that it had been he which should have redeemed Is'ra-el: and beside all this, to day is the third day since these things were done.

22 Yea, and certain women also of our company made us astonished, which were early at the sepulchre;

23 And when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was alive.

24 And certain of them which were with us went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw not.

25 Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken:

26 Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

27 And beginning at Mō'ses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.

28 And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they went: and he made as though he would have gone further.

29 But they constrained him, saying, Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them.

30 And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, he took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them.

31 And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight.

32 And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?

33 And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jē-ry'sā-lēm, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them, 34 Saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Si'mon.

35 And they told what things were done in the way, and how he was known of them in breaking of bread.

36 ¶ And as they thus spake, Jē'sus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

37 But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.

38 And he said unto them, Why are

41 And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, Have ye here any meat?

42 And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honeycomb.

43 * And he took it, and did eat before them.

44 And he said unto them, * These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Mō'ses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms, concerning me.

15 ¶ Jôhn bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh after me is preferred before me: * for he was before me.

16 And of his * fulness have all we received, and grace for grace.

17 For * the law was given by Mō'ses, but * grace and * truth came by Jê'sus Christ.

18 * No man hath seen God at any time; * the only begotten Son, which is in * the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

19 ¶ And this is the record of Jôhn, when the Jews sent priests and Lê-vites from Jê-ry'sâ-lêm to ask him, Who art thou?

20 And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ.

21 And they asked him, What then?

Art thou ^a E-l'as? And he saith, ^a I am not. Art thou ^a that prophet? And he answered, No.

22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself?

23 He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as ^a said the prophet E-sa'ias.

24 And they which were sent were of the Phār'i-sees.

25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor E-li'as, neither that prophet?

26 John answered them, saying, I baptize with water: ^a but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not;

27 He it is, who coming after me is preferred before me, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

28 These things were done in Bēth-āb'ā-rā beyond Jōr'dan, where John was baptizing.

29 ¶ The next day John seeth Jē'sus coming unto him, and saith, Behold ^a the Lamb of God, ^a which ^a taketh away the sin of the world.

30 This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

31 And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Is'ra-el, therefore am I come baptizing with water.

32 And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.

33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, ^a the same is he which baptizeth with the Hō'l'y Ghōst.

34 And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God.

35 ¶ Again the next day after John stood, and two of his disciples;

36 And looking upon Jē'sus as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of God!

37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jē'sus.

38 Then Jē'sus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? They said unto him, Rāb'bī, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master,) where ^a dwellest thou?

39 He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was ^a about the tenth hour.

40 One of the two which heard John speak, and followed him, was An-drew, Si'mon Pē'tēr's brother.

41 He first findeth his own brother ^a Si'mon, and saith unto him, We have found the Mēs-si'as, which is, being interpreted, ^a the Christ.

42 And he brought him to Jē'sus. And when Jē'sus beheld him, he said, Thou art Si'mon the son of Jō-na: thou shalt be called Cē'phas, which is by interpretation, ^a A stone.

43 ¶ The day following Jē'sus would go forth into Gāl'i-lee, and findeth Phil'ip, and saith unto him, Follow me.

47 Jē'sus saw Nā-thān'a-el coming to him, and saith of him, Behold an Is'ra-el-ite indeed, in whom is no guile!

48 Nā-thān'a-el saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jē'sus answered and said unto him, Before that Phil'ip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee.

49 Nā-thān'a-el answered and saith unto him, Rāb'bī, thou art the Son of God; thou art ^a the King of Is'ra-el.

50 Jē'sus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these.

51 And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, ^a Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon ^a the Son of man.

CHAPTER 2.

^a Christ turneth water into wine, 12 goeth into Capernaum, and to Jerusalem, 14 purgeth the temple, 19 foretelleth his death and resurrection.

AND the third day there was a marriage in Cā'nā of Gāl'i-lee; and the mother of Jē'sus was there:

2 And both Jē'sus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage.

3 And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jē'sus saith unto him, They have no wine.

4 Jē'sus saith unto her, ^a Woman, what ^a have I to do with thee? ^a mine hour is not yet come.

JOHN, 3. Christ purges the temple. Necessity to be born again.

5 His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it.

6 And there were set there six waterpots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece.

7 Jē'sus saith unto them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.

8 And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it.

9 When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was: (but the servants which drew the water knew;) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom,

10 And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now.

11 This beginning of miracles did Jē'sus in Cā'nā of Gālīlee, and manifested forth his glory; and his disciples believed on him.

12 ¶ After this he went down to Cā-pēr'nā-ūm, he, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples: and they continued there not many days.

13 ¶ And the Jews' passover was at hand, and Jē'sus went up to Jē-ru'sā-lēm, 14 And found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting.

15 And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables;

16 And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house an house of merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembered that it was written, 'The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.

18 ¶ Then answered the Jews and said unto him, What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?

19 Jē'sus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.

20 Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?

21 But he spake of the temple of his body.

22 When therefore he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jē'sus had said.

23 ¶ Now when he was in Jē-ru'sā-lēm at the passover, in the feast day, many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did.

24 But Jē'sus did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men.

25 And needed not that any should testify of man: for he knew what was in man.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Christ teacheth Nicodemus the necessity of regeneration. 23 The baptism and witness of John concerning Christ.

THERE was a man of the Phār'isees, named Nic-o-dē'mus, a ruler of the Jews:

2 The same came to Jē'sus by night, and said unto him, Rāb'bī, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him.

3 Jē'sus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

4 Nic-o-dē'mus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

5 Jē'sus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.

8 The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

9 Nic-o-dē'mus answered and said unto him, How can these things be?

10 Jē'sus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Is'rā-el, and knowest not these things?

11 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness.

12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things?

13 And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.

God's love for the new world. The woman of Samaria. JOHN, 4:

14 ¶ And as Mō'ses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up:

15 That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.

16 ¶ For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

17 For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

18 ¶ He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

19 And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

20 For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.

21 But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

22 ¶ After these things came Jē'sus and his disciples into the land of Jū-dæ'a; and there he tarried with them, and baptized.

23 ¶ And Jōhn also was baptizing in Æ'nōn near to Sā'lim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized.

24 For Jōhn was not yet cast into prison.

25 ¶ Then there arose a question between some of Jōhn's disciples and the Jews about purifying.

26 And they came unto Jōhn, and said unto him, Rāb'bi, he that was with thee beyond Jōr'dān, to whom thou barest witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him.

27 Jōhn answered and said, A man can receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven.

28 Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him.

29 He that hath the bride is the bridegroom: but the friend of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice: this my joy therefore is fulfilled.

30 He must increase, but I must decrease.

31 He that cometh from above is above all: he that is of the earth

CHAPTER 4.

1 Christ revealeth himself to a woman of Samaria: 31 his seal for God's glory. 32 Many Samaritans believe on him 43 He healeth the ruler's son.

WHEN therefore the Lord knew how the Phā'rī-sees had heard that Jē'sus made and baptized more disciples than Jōhn,

2 (Though Jē'sus himself baptized not, but his disciples,)

3 He left Jū-dæ'a, and departed again into Gālī-lee.

4 And he must needs go through Sā-mā'ri-ā.

5 Then cometh he to a city of Sā-mā'ri-a, which is called Sý'char, near to the parcel of ground that Jā'cōb gave to his son Jō'seph.

6 Now Jā'cōb's well was there. Jē'sus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well: and it was about the sixth hour.

7 There cometh a woman of Sā-mā'ri-ā to draw water: Jē'sus saith unto her, Give me to drink.

8 (For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.)

9 Then saith the woman of Sā-mā'ri-ā unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Sā-mā'ri-ā? for the Jews have no dealings with the Sā-mārī-tans.

10 Jē'sus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water.

11 The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?

12 Art thou greater than our father Jā'cōb, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle?

13 Jē'sus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again:

14 But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.

15 The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.

16 Jē'sus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jē'sus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband:

18 For thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: in that saidst thou truly.

19 The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet.

20 Our fathers worshipped in this mountain; and ye say, that in Jē-ry-sā-lēm is the place where men ought to worship.

21 Jē'sus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jē-ry-sā-lēm, worship the Father.

22 Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for salvation is of the Jews.

23 But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

24 God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.

25 The woman saith unto him, I know that Mēs-si'as cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things.

26 Jē'sus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he.

27 And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her water-pot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men, 29 Come, see a man, which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.

31 In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.

32 But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not of.

33 Therefore said the disciples one

40 So when the Sā-mār'tang were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days.

41 And many more believed because of his own word;

42 And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying: for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world.

43 Now after two days he departed thence, and went into Gāl't-lee.

44 For Jē'sus himself testified, that a prophet hath no honour in his own country.

45 Then when he was come into Gāl't-lee, the Gāl't-læ'ans received him, having seen all the things that he did at Jē-ry-sā-lēm at the feast: for they also went unto the feast.

46 So Jē'sus came again into Cā'nā of Gāl't-lee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at Cā-pēr'nā-īm.

47 When he heard that Jē'sus was come out of Jū-dæ'a into Gāl't-lee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death.

48 Then said Jē'sus unto him, Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe.

49 The nobleman saith unto him, Sir, come down ere my child die.

50 Jē'sus saith unto him, Go thy way; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jē'sus had spoken unto him, and he went his way.

An impotent man healed. Christ reproves the Jews. JOHN, 5.

51 And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth.

52 Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.

53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jē'sus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, and his whole house.

54 This is again the second miracle that Jē'sus did, when he was come out of Jū-dæ'a into Gāl'lee.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Jesus, on the sabbath day, cureth an impotent man at the pool of Bethesda. 14 The Jews persecute him for it. 17 Christ justifieth himself, and sheweth, by the testimony of John, and of his works, who he is.

AFTER this there was a feast of the Jews; and Jē'sus went up to Jē-ry'sā-lēm.

2 Now there is at Jē-ry'sā-lēm a by the sheep market a pool, which is called in the Hē'brew tongue Bē-thēs'da, having five porches.

3 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years.

6 When Jē'sus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

7 The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.

8 Jē'sus saith unto him, Rise, take up thy bed, and walk.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the sabbath.

10 ¶ The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath day: it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk?

13 And he that was healed wist not who it was: for Jē'sus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in that place.

14 Afterward Jē'sus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.

15 The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jē'sus, which had made him whole.

16 And therefore did the Jews persecute Jē'sus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath day.

17 ¶ But Jē'sus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.

18 Therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, making himself equal with God.

19 Then answered Jē'sus and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.

20 For the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.

21 For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them; even so the Son quickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son:

23 That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life.

25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live.

26 For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself;

27 And hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man.

28 Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice,

29 And shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.

30 I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.

31 If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true.

32 ¶ There is another that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true.

33 Ye sent unto John, and he bare witness unto the truth.

34 But I receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved.

35 He was a burning and a shining light: and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.

36 ¶ But I have greater witness than that of John: for the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me.

37 And the Father himself, which hath sent me, hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his shape.

38 And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.

39 ¶ Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

40 And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.

41 I receive not honour from men.

42 But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you.

43 I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive.

44 How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from God only?

45 Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust.

46 For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me: for he wrote of me.

47 But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?

AFTER these things Jē'sus went over the sea of Gal'lee, which is the sea of Thē'rias.

2 And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased.

3 And Jē'sus went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples.

4 And the passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh.

5 ¶ When Jē'sus then lifted up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Phil'ip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat?

6 And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do.

7 Phil'ip answered him, Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little.

8 One of his disciples, An'drew, Si'mon Pē'ter's brother, saith unto him, 9 There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes: but what are they among so many?

10 And Jē'sus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

11 And Jē'sus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.

12 When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.

13 Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten.

14 Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jē'sus did, said, This is of a truth that prophet that should come into the world.

15 ¶ When Jē'sus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone.

16 And when even was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea,

17 And entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward Ca'pér'.

na-um. And it was now dark, and Jē'sus was not come to them.

18 And the sea arose by reason of a great wind that blew.

19 So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see Jē'sus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship: and they were afraid.

20 But he saith unto them, It is I; be not afraid.

21 Then they willingly received him into the ship: and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went.

22 ¶ The day following, when the people which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other boat there, save that one whereinto his disciples were entered, and that Jē'sus went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples were gone away alone;

23 (Howbeit there came other boats from Ti-bē'rī-as nigh unto the place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks:)

24 When the people therefore saw that Jē'sus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Cā-pēr'na-um, seeking for Jē'sus.

25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rāb'bi, when camest thou hither?

26 Jē'sus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled.

27 'Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but 'for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: 'for him hath God the Father sealed.

28 Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?

29 Jē'sus answered and said unto them, 'This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

30 They said therefore unto him, 'What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work?

31 'Our fathers did eat manna in the desert; as it is written, 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.

32 Then Jē'sus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Mō'ses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.

34 Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread.

35 And Jē'sus said unto them, I am the bread of life: 'he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst.

36 But I said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not.

37 All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and 'him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

38 For I came down from heaven, 'not to do mine own will, 'but the will of him that sent me.

39 And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, 'that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, 'that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

41 The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.

42 And they said, Is not this Jē'sus, the son of Jō'seph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven?

43 Jē'sus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves.

44 No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.

45 'It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.

46 'Not that any man hath seen the Father, save 'he which is of God, he hath seen the Father.

47 Verily, verily, I say unto you, 'He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

48 I am that bread of life.

49 Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead.

50 This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die.

51 I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and 'the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

52 The Jews therefore 'strove

JOHN, 7.

among themselves, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?"

53 Then Jē'sus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.

54 Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.

56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him.

57 As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.

58 This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever.

59 These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Cā-pēr-nā-tim.

60 "Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is an hard saying; who can hear it?"

61 When Jē'sus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you?"

62 "What and if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before?"

63 "It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

64 But there are some of you that believe not. For Jē'sus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray him.

65 And he said, Therefore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father.

66 ¶ From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him.

67 Then said Jē'sus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away?"

68 Then Si'mon Pē-tēr answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life.

69 And we believe and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God.

70 Jē'sus answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil?"

Peter's confession of Christ.

71 He spake of Jē'sus is cār'tet the son of Si'mon; for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

CHAPTER 7.

1 Jesus, exhorted by his unbelieving kinsmen to show himself, so goeth secretly to the feast; 14 he teacheth in the temple. 15 The Pharisees are angry at their officers for not taking Christ.

AFTER these things Jē'sus walked in Gāl'lee: for he would not walk in Jew'r'y, because the Jews sought to kill him.

2 "Now the Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand.

3 His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Jū-dā'a, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest.

4 For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things, shew thyself to the world.

5 For neither did his brethren believe in him.

6 Then Jē'sus said unto them, "My time is not yet come: but your time is alway ready.

7 "The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil.

8 Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast; for my time is not yet full come.

9 When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Gāl'lee.

10 ¶ But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.

11 Then the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?"

12 And there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for some said, He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people.

13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for fear of the Jews.

14 ¶ Now about the midst of the feast Jē'sus went up into the temple, and taught.

15 "And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned?"

16 Jē'sus answered them, and said, "My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

17 "If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.

same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.

19 Did not Mō'ses give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law? Why go ye about to kill me?

20 The people answered and said, Thou hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee?

21 Jē'sus answered and said unto them, I have done one work, and ye all marvel.

22 Mō'ses therefore gave unto you circumcision; (not because it is of Mō'ses, but of the fathers;) and ye on the sabbath day circumsise a man.

23 If a man on the sabbath day receive circumcision, that the law of Mō'ses should not be broken; are ye angry at me, because I have made a man every whit whole on the sabbath day?

24 Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.

25 Then said some of them of Jē-ry'sā-lēm, Is not this he, whom they seek to kill?

26 But, lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him. Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ?

27 Howbeit we know this man whence he is: but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.

28 Then cried Jē'sus in the temple as he taught, saying, Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am: and I am not come of myself, but he that sent me is true, whom ye know not.

29 But I know him: for I am from him, and he hath sent me.

30 Then they sought to take him: but no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.

31 And many of the people believed on him, and said, When Christ cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this man hath done?

32 ¶ The Phārī-sees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him; and the Phārī-sees and the chief priests sent officers to take him.

33 Then said Jē'sus unto them, Yet a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that sent me.

34 Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come.

35 Then said the Jews among themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go unto the dispersed among the Gēn'tiles, and teach the Gēn'tiles?

36 What manner of saying is this that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come?

37 In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jē'sus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.

38 He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

39 (But this spake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive: for the Hō'y Ghōst was not yet given; because that Jē'sus was not yet glorified.)

40 ¶ Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is the Prophet.

41 Others said, This is the Christ. But some said, Shall Christ come out of Gāl'lee?

42 Hath not the scripture said, That Christ cometh of the seed of Dā'vid, and out of the town of Bēth-lē-hēm, where Dā'vid was?

43 So there was a division among the people because of him.

44 And some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him.

45 ¶ Then came the officers to the chief priests and Phārī-sees; and they said unto them, Why have ye not brought him?

46 The officers answered, Never man spake like this man.

47 Then answered them the Phārī-sees, Are ye also deceived?

48 Have any of the rulers or of the Phārī-sees believed on him?

49 But this people who knoweth not the law are cursed.

50 Nic-o-lē-mus saith unto them, (he that came to Jē'sus by night, being one of them,)

51 Doth our law judge any man, before it hear him, and know what he doeth?

52 They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Gāl'lee? Search, and look: for out of Gāl'lee ariseth no prophet.

53 And every man went unto his own house.

CHAPTER 8.

1 Christ releaseth a woman taken in adultery: 15 he proceeth himself the light of the world and justifieth his doctrine: 23 answereth the Jews.

Jē'sus went unto the mount of Olives.

2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them.

JOHN, 8.

8 And the scribes and Phārīsees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst,

4 They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 Now Mōses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned. but what sayest thou?

6 This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jē'sus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.

7 So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, ^b He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.

8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9 And they which heard it, ^a being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jē'sus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

10 When Jē'sus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jē'sus said unto her, ^d Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more.

12 ¶ Then spake Jē'sus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

13 The Phārīsees therefore said unto him, ^e Thou bearest record of thyself; thy record is not true.

14 Jē'sus answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

15 Ye judge after the flesh; ^a I judge no man.

16 And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for ^f I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.

17 It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.

18 I am one that bear witness of myself, and ^g the Father that sent me beareth witness of me.

19 Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father? Jē'sus answered, ^h Ye neither know me, nor my Father: ⁱ if ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also.

20 These words spake Jē'sus in Christ the light of the world.

^a the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and ^b no man laid hands on him; for ^c his hour was not yet come.

21 Then said Jē'sus again unto them, I go my way, and ^d ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins: whither I go, ye cannot come.

22 Then said the Jews, Will he kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come.

23 And he said unto them, ^e Ye are from beneath; I am from above: ^f ye are of this world; I am not of this world.

24 I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: ^g for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.

25 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? And Jē'sus saith unto them, Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning.

26 I have many things to say and to judge of you: but ^h he that sent me is true; and ⁱ I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.

27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then said Jē'sus unto them, When ye have ^j lifted up the Son of man, ^k then shall ye know that I am he, and ^l that I do nothing of myself; but ^m as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.

29 And ⁿ he that sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone; ^o for I do always those things that please him.

30 As he spake these words, many believed on him.

31 Then said Jē'sus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, ^p then are ye my disciples indeed;

32 And ye shall know the truth, and ^q the truth shall make you free.

33 ¶ They answered him, ^r We be A'brā-hām's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?

34 Jē'sus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, ^s Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin.

35 And ^t the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Son abideth ever.

36 If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

37 I know that ye are A'brā-hām's seed; but ^u ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.

38 I speak that which I have seen with my Father: and ye do that which ye have seen with your father.

him, 'A'brā-hām is our father. Jē'sus saith unto them, 'If ye were A'brā-hām's children, ye would do the works of A'brā-hām.

40 But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not A'brā-hām.

41 Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, We be not born of fornication; 'we have one Father, even God.

42 Je'sus said unto them, 'If God were your Father, ye would love me: 'for I proceeded forth and came from God; 'neither came I of myself, but he sent me.

43 'Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word.

44 'Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and 'abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.

45 And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not.

46 Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me?

47 'He that is of God heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God.

48 Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Sā-mār'ī-tan, and hast a devil?

49 Jē'sus answered, I have not a devil; but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me.

50 And 'I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth.

51 Verily, verily, I say unto you, 'If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death.

52 Then said the Jews unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devil. 'A'brā-hām is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death.

53 Art thou greater than our father A'brā-hām, which is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thyself?

54 Jē'sus answered, If I honour myself, my honour is nothing: 'it is my Father that honoureth me; of whom ye say, that he is your God:

55 Yet 'ye have not known him; but I know him: and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be a liar like

CHAPTER 9.

A blind man restored to sight.

AND as Jē'sus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth.

2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, 'who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?

3 Jē'sus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: 'but that the works of God should be made manifest in him.

4 'I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.

5 As long as I am in the world, 'I am the light of the world.

6 When he had thus spoken, 'he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he 'anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay.

7 And said unto him, Go, wash 'in the pool of Sī-lō'am, (which is by interpretation, Sent.) 'He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing.

8 ¶ The neighbours therefore, and they which before had seen him that he was blind, said, Is not this he that sat and begged?

9 Some said, This is he: others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he.

10 Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered and said, A man that is called Jē'sus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Sī-lō'am, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight.

12 Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not.

13 ¶ They brought to the Phār'ī-sees him that aforetime was blind.

14 And it was the sabbath day when Jē'sus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then again the Phār'ī-sees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see.

16 Therefore said some of the Phārīsees, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day. Others said, ^aHow can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And ^bthere was a division among them.

17 They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, ^cHe is a prophet.

18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see?

20 His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:

21 But by what means he now seeth, we know not: he is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself.

22 These words spake his parents, because ^dthey feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, he ^eshould be put out of the synagogue.

23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him.

24 Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, ^fGive God the praise: we know that this man is a sinner.

25 He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.

26 Then said they to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?

27 He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? will ye also be his disciples?

28 Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are Mō'ses' disciples.

29 We know that God spake unto Mō'ses: ^gas for this fellow, ^hwe know not from whence he is.

30 The man answered and said unto them, ⁱWhy herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

31 Now we know that ^jGod heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth.

32 Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind.

33 If this man were not of God, he could do nothing.

34 They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sin, and dost thou teach us? And they ^kcast him out.

35 Jē'sus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe on ^lthe Son of God?

36 He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him?

37 And Jē'sus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and ^mit is he that talketh with thee.

38 And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him.

39 ⁿAnd Jē'sus said, ^oFor judgment I am come into this world, ^pthat they which see not might see; and that they which see might be made blind.

40 And ^qsome of the Phārīsees which were with him heard these words, ^rand said unto him, Are we blind also?

41 Jē'sus said unto them, ^sIf ye were blind, ye should have no sin: but now ye say, We see; therefore your sin remaineth.

10 The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

11 I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.

12 But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep.

13 The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep.

14 I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine.

15 As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep.

16 And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice, and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

17 Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again.

18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received of my Father.

19 There was a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings.

20 And many of them said, He hath a devil, and is mad; why hear ye him?

21 Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a devil. Can a devil open the eyes of the blind?

22 And it was at Jê-ry'sâ-lêm the feast of the dedication, and it was winter.

23 And Jê'sus walked in the temple in Sôl'o-mon's porch.

24 Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly.

25 Jê'sus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: the works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me.

26 But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you.

29 My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand.

30 I and my Father are one.

31 Then the Jews took up stones again to stone him.

32 Jê'sus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me?

33 The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God.

34 Jê'sus answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods?

35 If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken;

CHAPTER 11.

1 Christ raiseth Lazarus to life. 45 Many Jews believe. 49 Outspoke prophesied. 64 Jesus hid himself.

NOW a certain man was sick, named Lâz'a-rus, of Bêth'a-n'y, the town of Mâ'r'y and her sister Mar'tha.

2 (It was that Mâ'r'y which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lâz'a-rus was sick.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick.

4 When Jê'sus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but *for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.

JOHN, 11.

5 Now Jē'sus loved Mar'tha, and her sister, and Lāz'a-rus.

6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, * he abode two days still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Jū-dæ'a again.

8 His disciples say unto him, Master, * the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again?

9 Jē'sus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? * If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10 But * if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things said he: and after that he saith unto them, Our friend Lāz'a-rus * sleepeth; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well.

13 Howbeit Jē'sus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.

14 Then said Jē'sus unto them plainly, Lāz'a-rus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him.

16 Then said Thōm'as, which is called Did'y-mus, unto his fellow-disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

17 Then when Jē'sus came, he found that he had lain in the grave four days already.

18 Now Bēth'ā-n'y was nigh unto Jē-rū'sā-lēm, * about fifteen furlongs off:

19 And many of the Jews came to Mār'tha and Mār'y, to comfort them concerning their brother.

20 Then Mar'tha, as soon as she heard that Jē'sus was coming, went and met him: but Mār'y sat still in the house.

21 Then said Mār'tha unto Jē'sus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

22 But I know, that even now, * whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee.

23 Jē'sus saith unto her, Thy brother shall * rise again.

24 Mār'tha saith unto him, * I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day.

25 Jē'sus said unto her, I am * the resurrection, and the * life: * he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:

28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mār'y her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him.

30 Now Jē'sus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Mar'tha met him.

31 The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mār'y, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there.

32 Then when Mār'y was come where Jē'sus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

33 When Jē'sus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and * was troubled, 34 And said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see.

35 * Jē'sus wept.

37 And some of them said, Could not this man, * which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?

38 Jē'sus therefore again groaning in himself cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.

39 Jē'sus said, Take ye away the stone. Mar'tha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days.

40 Jē'sus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God?

41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jē'sus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.

42 And I knew that thou hearest me always: but * because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me.

forth, bound hand and foot with graveclothes; and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jē'sus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

45 Then many of the Jews which came to Mā'rŷ, and had seen the things which Jē'sus did, believed on him.

46 But some of them went their ways to the Phārī-sees, and told them what things Jē'sus had done.

47 ¶ Then gathered the chief priests and the Phārī-sees a council, and said, What do we? for this man doeth many miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the Rō-mans shall come and take away both our place and nation.

49 And one of them, named Cā-fa-phās, being the high priest that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all,

50 Nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jē'sus should die for that nation;

52 And not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad.

53 Then from that day forth they took counsel together for to put him to death.

54 Jē'sus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews; but went thence unto a country near to the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 ¶ And the Jews' passover was nigh at hand: and many went out of the country up to Jē-ry'sā-lēm before the passover, to purify themselves.

56 Then sought they for Jē'sus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

57 Now both the chief priests and the Phārī-sees had given a commandment, that, if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

where Lāz'a-rus was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.

2 There they made him a supper; and Mar'thā served: but Lāz'a-rus was one of them that sat at the table with him.

3 Then took Mā'rŷ a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jē'sus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

4 Then saith one of his disciples, Jū'das Is-cār'i-ot, Si'mon's son, which should betray him,

5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor?

6 Th's he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare what was put therein.

7 Then said Jē'sus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying hath she kept this.

8 For the poor always ye have with you; but me ye have not always.

9 Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came not for Jē'sus' sake only, but that they might see Lāz'a-rus also, whom he had raised from the dead.

10 ¶ But the chief priests consulted that they might put Lāz'a-rus also to death;

11 Because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jē'sus.

12 ¶ On the next day much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jē'sus was coming to Jē-ry'sā-lēm, 13 Took branches of palm trees and went forth to meet him, and cried, Hō-sā-nā: Blessed is the King of Is-ra-el that cometh in the name of the Lord.

14 And Jē'sus, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written, 15 Fear not, daughter of Sī'ōn: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt.

16 These things understood not his disciples at the first: but when Jē'sus was glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him when he called Lāz'a-rus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record.

met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

19 The Phār'isees therefore said among themselves, Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him.

20 ¶ And there were certain Greeks among them, that came up to worship at the feast:

21 The same came therefore to Phil'p, which was of Bēth-sā'ī-da of Gal'ilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jē'sus.

22 Phil'p cometh and telleth An'drew: and again An'drew and Phil'p tell Jē'sus.

23 ¶ And Jē'sus answered them, saying, The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

25 He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal.

26 If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour.

27 Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: but for this cause came I unto this hour.

28 Father, glorify thy name. Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.

29 The people therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him.

30 Jē'sus answered and said, This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes.

31 Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out.

32 And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me.

33 This he said, signifying what death he should die.

34 The people answered him, We have heard out of the law that Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man?

35 Then Jē'sus said unto them, Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.

the light, that ye may be the children of light. These things spake Jē'sus, and departed, and did hide himself from them.

37 ¶ But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him:

38 That the saying of E-sā'as the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 Therefore they could not believe, because that E-sā'as said again, 40 He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.

41 These things said E-sā'as, when he saw his glory, and spake of him.

42 ¶ Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Phār'isees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue:

43 For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

44 ¶ Jē'sus cried and said, He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me.

45 And he that seeth me seeth him that sent me.

46 I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness.

47 And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.

48 He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.

49 For I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak.

50 And I know that his commandment is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

6 Then cometh he to Si'mon Pē'tēr: and ¹ Pē'tēr saith unto him, Lord, ² dost thou wash my feet?

12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you?

13 • Ye call me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am.

14 • If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ² ye also ought to wash one another's feet.

15 For ¹ I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.

16 • Verily, verily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him.

17 • If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.

18 ¶ I speak not of you all: • I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, • He that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me.

19 • Now I tell you before it come, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he.

20 • Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whosoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.

22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

23 Now • there was leaning on Jē'sus' bosom one of his disciples, whom Jē'sus loved.

24 Si'mon Pē'tēr therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake.

25 He then lying on Jē'sus' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Jē'sus answered, He it is, to whom I shall give a • sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Jū'das Is-car'ot, the son of Si'mon.

27 And • after the sop Sā'tan entered into him. Then said Jē'sus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly.

28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.

29 For some of them thought, because • Jū'das had the bag, that Jē'sus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor.

30 He then having received the sop went immediately out: and it was night.

31 ¶ Therefore, when he was gone out, Jē'sus said, Now is the Son of man glorified, and • God is glorified in him.

32 • If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and shall straightway glorify him.

33 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say to you.

34 • A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

35 By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have • love one to another.

36 ¶ Si'mon Pē'tēr said unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jē'sus answered him, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now; but • thou shalt follow me afterwards.

37 Pē'tēr said unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will • lay down my life for thy sake.

CHAPTER 14.

¹ Christ comforteth his disciples: ⁵ professeth himself the way, the truth, and the life, ⁹ and that he is one with the Father: ³¹ leaveth his peace with them.

LET not your heart be troubled: ¹ ye believe in God, believe also in me.

² In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. ³ I go to prepare a place for you.

³ And if I go and prepare a place for you, ⁴ I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that ⁵ where I am, there ye may be also.

⁴ And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

⁵ Thom'as saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?

⁶ Jē'sus saith unto him, I am ⁷ the way, ⁸ the truth, and ⁹ the life: ¹⁰ no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

⁷ If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

⁸ Phil'p saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us.

⁹ Jē'sus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Phil'p? ¹⁰ he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father?

¹⁰ Believest thou not that ¹¹ I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you ¹² I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

¹¹ Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake.

¹² Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father.

¹³ And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

¹⁴ If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it.

¹⁵ ¶ If ye love me, keep my commandments.

¹⁶ And I will pray the Father, and ¹⁷ he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;

¹⁷ Even the Spirit of truth; ¹⁸ whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he eth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3. Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you.

4. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

5 I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.

6. If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

7 If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

8 Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.

9 As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love.

10 If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.

11 These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full.

12 This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you.

13 Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

15 Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you.

16 Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.

17 These things I command you, that ye love one another.

18 If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you.

have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

20 Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also.

21 But all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me.

22 If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no cloke for their sin.

23 He that hateth me hateth my Father also.

24 If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father.

25 But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me without a cause.

26 But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me:

27 And ye also shall bear witness, because ye have seen with me from the beginning.

CHAPTER 16.

1 Christ warneth his disciples of their sufferings. 7 Office of the Comforter 29 The disciples profess their faith in Christ. 33 Peace in Christ, and in the world affliction.

THESE things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended.

2 They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service.

3 And these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me.

4 But these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you.

5 But now I go my way to him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou?

6 But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart.

7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you.

JOHN, 17.

The disciples comforted against tribulation.

8 And when he is come, he will 1 reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:

9 * Of sin, because they believe not on me,

10 * Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more;

11 / Of judgment, because * the prince of this world is judged.

12 I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now.

13 Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, * he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself, but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak and he will shew you things to come

14 He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you

15 * All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you.

16 A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father.

17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me:
and, Because I go to the Father?

18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? we cannot tell what he saith.

19 Now Je'sus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye enquire among yourselves of that I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again,
a little while, and ye shall see me?

20 Verily, verily, I say unto you,
That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.

21 A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.

22 And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and * your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you

23 And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. / Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.

24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall re-

25 These things have I spoken unto you in 2 proverbs: but the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in 3 proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father.

26 At that day ye shall ask in my

I will pray the Father for you:

27 * For the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and
* have believed that I came out from God.

28 * I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again,
I leave the world, and go to the Father.

29 His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no 4 proverb.

30 Now are we sure that * thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee. by this * we believe that thou camest forth from God.

31 Je'sus answered them, Do ye now believe?

32 Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to 5 his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

33 These things I have spoken unto you, that * in me ye might have peace. * In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer;
* I have overcome the world.

CHAPTER 17.

1 Christ prayeth to his Father to glorify him, 6 66
preserves his apostles, 20 and all other believers

THESE words spake Je'sus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee:

2 * As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many 6 as thou hast given him.

3 And * this is life eternal, that they might know thee * the only true
God, and Je'sus Christ whom thou hast sent.

4 I have glorified thee on the earth:
I have finished 1 the work which thou gavest me to do.

5 And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory * which I had with thee before the world was.

6 / I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me;
and they have kept thy word.

7 Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee.

8 For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.

9 I pray for them: o I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine.

10 ^ And all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified in them.

11 And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, ^ keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, ^ as we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, ^ I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and ^ none of them is lost, ^ but the son of perdition; ^ that the scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

14 I have given them thy word; ^ and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but ^ that thou shouldest keep them from the evil.

16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

17 Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth.

18 As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.

19 And ^ for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be ^ sanctified through the truth.

20 Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word;

21 That they all may be one; as ^ thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.

22 And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; ^ that they may be one, even as we are one:

CHAPTER 18.

1 Judas betrayeth Jesus. 13 Peter's denial. 19 Jesus examined before Canaphas. 28 His arraignment before Pilate.

WHEN Jē'sus had spoken these words, he ^ went forth with his disciples over the ^ brook Qē'diōn, where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples.

2 And Jū'das also, which betrayed him, knew the place. ^ for Jē'sus oftentimes resorted thither with his disciples.

3 ^ Jū'das then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharī-sees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons.

4 Jē'sus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye?

5 They answered him, Jē'sus of Nāz'a-rēth. Jē'sus saith unto them, I am he. And Jū'das also, which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground.

7 Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jē'sus of Nāz'a-rēth.

8 Jē'sus answered, I have told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these go then way.

9 That the saying might be fulfilled, which he spake, ^ Of them which thou gavest me have I lost none.

10 Then Sī'mon Pe'tēr having a sword drew it, and smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.

11 Then said Jē'sus unto Pe'tēr, Put up thy sword into the sheath: ^ the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

12 Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jē'sus, and bound him,

13 And ^ led him away to ^ An-nas first; for he was father in law to Cā'ja-phās, which was the high priest that same year.¹

14 ^ Now Cā'ja-phās was he, which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 ¶ And Sî'mon Pê'têr followed Jê'sus, and so did another disciple: that disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jê'sus into the palace of the high priest.

16 But Pê'têr stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Pê'têr.

17 Then saith the damsel that kept the door unto Pê'têr, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not.

18 And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals, for it was cold, and they warmed themselves: and Pê'têr stood with them, and warmed himself.

19 ¶ The high priest then asked Jê'sus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Jê'sus answered him, * I spake openly to the world, I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort, and in secret have I said nothing.

21 Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said.

22 And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by, struck Jê'sus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so?

23 Jê'sus answered him, * If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me?

24 Now Ân'as had sent him bound unto Că'ja-phăs the high priest.

25 And Sî'mon Pê'têr stood and warmed himself. * They said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not.

26 One of the servants of the high priest, being his kinsman whose ear Pê'têr cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Pê'têr then denied again, and immediately the cock crew.

28 ¶ Then led they Jê'sus from Că'ja-phăs unto the hall of judgment: and it was early; and they themselves went not into the judgment hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the passover.

29 Pî'lâte then went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man?

30 They answered and said unto him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee.

31 Then said Pî'lâte unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:

32 * That the saying of Jê'sus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

33 Then Pî'lâte entered into the judgment hall again, and called Jê'sus, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jews?

34 Jê'sus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me?

35 Pî'lâte answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done?

36 * Jê'sus answered, * My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

37 Pî'lâte therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jê'sus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice.

38 Pî'lâte saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, * I find in him no fault at all.

39 But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

40 * Then cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Bă-răb'bas. * Now Bă-răb'bas was a robber.

CHAPTER 19.

1 Christ is scourged, crowned with thorns beaten, and crucified. 28 He dieth. 38 He is buried.

THEN * Pî'lâte therefore took Jê'sus, and scourged him.

2 And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe,

3 And said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they smote him with their hands.

4 Pî'lâte therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, * that ye may know that I find no fault in him.

5 Then came Jê'sus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pî'lâte saith unto them, Behold the man!

6 * When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him. for I find no fault in him.

7 The Jews answered him, * We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because * he made himself the Son of God.

8 ¶ When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid;

9 And went again into the judgment hall, and saith unto Jē'sus, Whence art thou? ¶ But Jē'sus gave him no answer.

10 Then saith Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee?

11 Jē'sus answered, * Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin.

12 And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him. but the Jews cried out, saying, * If thou let this man go, thou art not Cæ'sar's friend: * whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Cæ'sar.

13 ¶ When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jē'sus forth, and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the He'brew, ¹ Gāb'bytha.

14 And * it was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your King!

15 But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, * We have no king but Cæ'sar.

16 ¶ Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And they took Jē'sus, and led him away.

17 And he bearing his cross ^m went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the He'brew Gōl'gōtha:

18 * Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Jē'sus in the midst.

19 ¶ And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, Jē'sus OF NAZ'A-RĒTH THE KING OF THE JEWS.

20 This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jē'sus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in He'brew, and Greek, and Lat'in.

21 Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews.

22 Pilate answered, What I have written I have written.

23 ¶ Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jē'sus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, ² woven from the top throughout.

24 They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, * They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots. These things therefore the soldiers did.

25 ¶ Now there stood by the cross of Jē'sus his mother, and his mother's sister, Ma'ry the wife of * Clē'ophas, and Ma'ry Mag-da-lē'nē.

26 When Jē'sus therefore saw his mother, and ² the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, * Woman, behold thy son!

27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her ² unto his own home.

28 ¶ After this, Jē'sus knowing that all things were now accomplished, * that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst.

29 Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth.

30 When Jē'sus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, * It is finished: and he bowed his head, and ² gave up the ghost.

31 The Jews therefore, * because it was the preparation, ^w that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was ² an high day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.

32 Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him.

33 But when they came to Jē'sus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs:

34 But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith ² came there out blood and water.

35 * And he that saw it bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe.

36 For these things were done, * that the scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken.

JOHN, 20.

Jesus appears to Mary, and to his disciples.

37 And again another scripture saith, * They shall look on him whom they pierced.

38 ¶ And after this Jō'seph of Ar-I-mā-thā'e, being a disciple of Jē'sus, but secretly * for fear of the Jews, besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jē'sus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore, and took the body of Jē'sus.

39 And there came also Nic-o-dē-mus, which at the first came to Jē'sus by night, and brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about an hundred pound weight.

40 Then took they the body of Jē'sus, and wound it in linen clothes with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury.

41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid.

42 There laid they Jē'sus therefore because of the Jews' preparation day; for the sepulchre was nigh at hand.

CHAPTER 20.

Jesus appeareth to Mary and to his disciples.

THE first day of the week cometh Mā'ry Māg-dā-lō'nē early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre.

2 Then she runneth, and cometh to Sī'mon Pē'tēr, and to the other disciple, whom Jē'sus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.

3 Pē'tēr therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.

4 So they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun Pē'tēr, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And he stooping down, and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying; yet went he not in.

6 Then cometh Sī'mon Pē'tēr following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie,

7 And the napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself.

8 Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed.

9 For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.

10 Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.

the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the sepulchre, 12 And seeth two angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jē'sus had lain.

13 And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.

14 And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and saw Jē'sus standing, and knew not that it was Jē'sus.

15 Jē'sus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.

16 Jē'sus saith unto her, Mā'ry. She turned herself, and saith unto him, Rāb-bō'nī: which is to say, Master 17 Jē'sus saith unto her, Touch me not, for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father and your Father; and to my God, and your God.

18 Mā'ry Māg-dā-lō'nē came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her.

19 ¶ Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jē'sus and stood in the midst and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

20 And when he had so said, he shewed unto them his hands and his side. Then were the disciples glad, when they saw the Lord.

21 Then said Jē'sus to them again, Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you.

22 And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Hō'ly Ghost:

23 Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.

24 ¶ But Thōm'as, one of the twelve, called Dī'ō'y-mus, was not with them when Jē'sus came.

25 The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe.

26 ¶ And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thōm'as with them: then came Jē'sus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, "Peace be unto you."

27 Then saith he to Thōm'as, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and "reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing"

28 And Thōm'as answered and said unto him, "My Lord and my God."

29 Jē'sus saith unto him, Thōm'as, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed. "blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed."

30 ¶ And many other signs truly did Jē'sus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book

31 "But these are written, that ye might believe that Jē'sus is the Christ, the Son of God; "and that believing ye might have life through his name"

CHAPTER 21.

1 Christ's appearance to his disciples 15 His charge to Peter 18 arresteth him at his death

AFTE R these things Jē'sus shewed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tib'e'ri-as, and on this wise shewed he himself

2 There were together Si'mon Pē'tēr, and Thōm'as called Did'y-mus, and "Nā-thān'g-el of Cā'na in Gāl'i-lee, and the sons of Zēb'e'dee, and two other of his disciples.

3 Si'mon Pē'tēr saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately, and that night they caught nothing

4 But when the morning was now come, Jē'sus stood on the shore: but the disciples "knew not that it was Jē'sus"

5 Then "Jē'sus saith unto them, "Children, have ye any meat? They answered him, No.

6 And he said unto them, "Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes

7 Therefore "that disciple whom Jē'sus loved saith unto Pē'tēr, It is the Lord. Now when Si'mon Pē'tēr heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat unto him, (for he was naked,) and "did cast himself into the sea.

8 And the other disciples came in a little ship; (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fishes.

9 As soon then as they were come to land, they "saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

10 Jē'sus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught.

11 Si'mon Pē'tēr went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Jē'sus saith unto them, "Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Jē'sus then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.

14 This is now "the third time that Jē'sus shewed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

15 ¶ So when they had dined, Jē'sus saith to Si'mon Pē'tēr, Si'mon, son of Jō'nas, "lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord, "thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, "Feed my lambs.

16 He saith to him again the second time, Si'mon, son of Jō'nas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. "He saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

17 He saith unto him "the third time, Si'mon, son of Jō'nas, lovest thou me? Pē'tēr was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, "thou knowest all things, thou knowest that I love thee. Jē'sus saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

18 "Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whether thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not.

19 This spake he, signifying "by what death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me.

20 Then Pē'tēr, turning about, seeth the disciple "whom Jē'sus loved following; which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?

21 Pē'tēr seeing him saith to Jē'sus, Lord, and what shall this man do?

22 Jē'sus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry "till I come, what is "that to thee? follow thou me.

25 And there are also many other things which Jē'sus did, the which, if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written. Amen.

THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES.

CHAPTER 1.

1 A relation of part of Christ's history after his passion 9 His ascension 26 Matthias ordained in place of Judas Iscariot

THE former treatise have I made, O Thē-ōph-ē-lūs, of all that Jē'sus began both to do and teach,

2 Untill the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Hō-l'y Ghōst had given commandments unto the apostles whom he had chosen:

3 To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God:

4 And, being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jē-rū-sā-lēm, but wait for the promise of the Father, which, saith he, ye have heard of me.

5 For Jōhn truly baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Hō-l'y Ghōst not many days hence.

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Is-ra-el?

7 And he said unto them, It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power.

8 But ye shall receive power, after that the Hō-l'y Ghōst is come upon you, and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jē-rū-sā-lēm and in all Jū-dæ-a, and in Sā-mā-l'a, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

9 And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight.

10 And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel;

11 Which also said, Ye men of Gal-t-lec, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jē'sus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.

12 Then returned they unto Jē-rū-sā-lēm from the mount called Ō-l'-vét, which is from Jē-rū-sā-lēm a sabbath day's journey.

13 And when they were come in, they went up into an upper room, where abode both Pē-tēr, and Jāmes, and Jōhn, and An-drew, Phi-l'p, and Thōm'as, Bar-thō-lō-mew, and Māt'thew, Jāmes the son of Al-phæ-us, and Si'mon Zē-lō-tēs, and Jū'das the brother of Jāmes.

14 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women, and Mā-r'y the mother of Jē'sus, and with his brethren.

15 ¶ And in those days Pē-tēr stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (the number of names together were about an hundred and twenty.)

16 Men and brethren, this scripture must needs have been fulfilled, which the Hō-l'y Ghōst by the mouth of Dā-vid spake before concerning Jū'das, which was guide to them that took Jē'sus.

17 For he was numbered with us, and had obtained part of this ministry.

18 Now this man purchased a field with the reward of iniquity, and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jē-rū-sā-lēm; insomuch as that field is called in their proper tongue, Akēl'da-ma, that is to say, The field of blood.

20 For it is written in the book of Psalms, Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein; and his ^abishoprick let another take.

21 Wherefore of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Je'sus went in and out among us, 22 Beginning from the baptism of Jōhn, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be ordained ^bto be a witness with us of his resurrection.

23 And they appointed two, Jō'seph called Bar'sā-bās, who was surnamed Jūs'tus, and Māt-thi'as.

24 And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, ^cwhich knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen, 25 That he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Ju'das by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place.

26 And they gave forth their ^dlots, and the lot fell upon Māt-thi'as, and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

13 ^vOthers mocking said, These men are full of new wine.

14 ¶ But Pē'tē, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Jū-dæ'a, and all ye that dwell at Jē-ru'sā-lēm, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words:

15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is ^wbut the third hour of the day.

16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Jō'el;

17 ^xAnd it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, ^yI will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and ^zyour daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:

18 And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; ^{aa}and they shall prophesy

19 ^{ab}And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath, blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke.

20 ^{ac}The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come:

21 And it shall come to pass, ^{ad}that whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.

22 Ye men of Is'ra-el, hear these words; Je'sus of Nāz'a-rēth, a man approved of God among you ^{ae}by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know:

23 Him, ^{af}being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain:

24 ^{ag}Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it.

25 For Dā'vid speaketh concerning him, ^{ah}I foresaw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved

26 Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad; moreover also my flesh shall rest in hope:

the ways of life; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.

29 Men and brethren, ³ let me freely speak unto you ⁴ of the patriarch Dā'vid, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day.

30 Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of ⁵ the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne, 31 He seeing this before spake of the resurrection of Christ, ⁶ that his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption.

32 This Je'sus hath God raised up, ⁷ whereof we all are witnesses.

33 Therefore ⁸ being by the right hand of God exalted, and ⁹ having received of the Father the promise of the Hō'ly Ghōst, he hath ¹⁰ shed forth this, which ye now see and hear

34 For Dā'vid is not ascended into the heavens: but he saith himself, ¹¹ The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 35 Until I make thy foes thy footstool.

36 Therefore let all the house of Is'ra-el know assuredly, that God ¹² hath made that same Je'sus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ.

37 ¶ Now when they heard this, ¹³ they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Pē'tēr and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do?

38 Then Pē'tēr said unto them, ¹⁴ Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Je'sus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Hō'ly Ghōst.

39 For the ¹⁵ promise is unto you, and ¹⁶ to your children, and ¹⁷ to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.

40 And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation.

41 ¶ Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls.

42 ¹⁸ And they continued stedfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.

43 And fear came upon every soul: and ¹⁹ many wonders and signs were done by the apostles.

44 And all that believed were to-

Peter and John cure a lame man.

NOW Pē'tēr and Jōhn went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour.

2 And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, ¹ to ask alms of them that entered into the temple;

3 Who seeing Pē'tēr and Jōhn about to go into the temple asked an alms.

4 And Pē'tēr, fastening his eyes upon him with Jōhn, said, Look on us.

5 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them.

6 Then Pē'tēr said, ² Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee. ³ In the name of Je'sus Christ of Nāz'a-rēth rise up and walk.

7 And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up: and immediately his feet and ancle bones received strength.

8 And he ⁴ leaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.

9 ⁵ And all the people saw him walking and praising God:

10 And they knew that it was he which sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

11 And as the lame man which was healed held Pē'tēr and Jōhn, all the people ran together unto them in the porch ⁶ that is called Sōl'o-mon's, greatly wondering.

12 ¶ And when Pē'tēr saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Is'ra-el, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, ⁷ as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk?

17 And now, brethren, I wot that ²through ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers.

18 But those things, which God before had shewed ²by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled.

19 ¶ Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord;

23 And it shall come to pass, that every ²soul, which will not hear that prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people.

tain of the temple, and the Sād'ducees, came upon them,

2 ²Being grieved that they taught the people, and preached through Jē'sus the resurrection from the dead.

3 And they laid hands on them, and put them in hold unto the next day: for it was now eventide.

4 Howbeit many of them which heard the word believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand.

5 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes,

6 And ²Annas the high priest, and Ca'ia-phās, and Jōhn, and Al'x'ān'dēr, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jē-ry'sā-lēm.

7 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, ²By what power, or by what name, have ye done this?

8 ²Then Pēt'ēr, filled with the Hō'l'y Ghōst, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Is'ra-el,

9 If we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole;

10 Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Is'ra-el, ²that by the name of Jē'sus Christ of Nā'z'a-rēth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole.

11 ²This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.

12 ²Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.

13 ¶ Now when they saw the boldness of Pēt'ēr and Jōhn, ²and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jē'sus.

14 And beholding the man which was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.

15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves, 16 Saying, ²What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them, ²manifest to all them that dwell in Jē-ry'sā-lēm; and we cannot deny it.

17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us straitly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name.

18 And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jē'sus.

19 But Pē'tēr and Jōhn answered and said unto them, *Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye.

20 *For we cannot but speak the things which *we have seen and heard.

21 So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, *because of the people: for all men glorified God for *that which was done.

22 For the man was above forty years old, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 ¶ And being let go, *they went to the *own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said unto them.

24 And when they heard that, they *lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, Lord, *thou art God, which hast made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is:

25 Who by the mouth of thy servant Dā'vid hast said, *Why did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things?

26 The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord, and against his Christ.

27 For of a truth against *thy holy child Jē'sus, *whom thou hast anointed, both Hēr'od, and Pōn'ti-us Pī'lāte, with the Qēn'tiles, and the people of Is'ra-el, were gathered together, 28 *For to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel determined before to be done.

29 And now, Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant unto thy servants, *that with all boldness they may speak thy word, 30 By stretching forth thine hand to heal; *and that signs and wonders may be done *by the name of thy holy child Jē'sus.

31 ¶ And when they had prayed, *the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Hō'lŷ Ghōst, and they spake the word of God with boldness.

32 And the multitude of them that believed *were of one heart and of one soul: *neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common.

33 And with *great power gave the apostles *witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jē'sus: and *great grace was upon them all.

34 *Neither was there any among them that lacked: *for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold,

35 And laid them down at the apostles' feet *and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need.

36 And Jō'sēs, who by the apostles was surnamed Bar'na-bās, (which is, being interpreted, The son of consolation,) a Lē'vite, and of the country of Cŷ'prus, 37 *Having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Ananias and Sapphira at Peter's rebuke fall down dead. 17 The apostles imprisoned, but delivered by an angel.

BUT a certain man named An-ni'as, with Sāp-phī'ra his wife, sold a possession,

2 *And kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

3 *But Pē'tēr said, An-ni'as, why hath *Sā'tan filled thine heart *to lie to the Hō'lŷ Ghōst, and to keep back part of the price of the land?

4 Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God.

5 And An-ni'as hearing these words *fell down, and gave up the ghost: and great fear came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the young men arose, *wound him up, and carried him out, and buried him.

7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.

8 And Pē'tēr, answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Pē'tēr said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together *to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out.

10 Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.

11 And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.

12 ¶ And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; and they were all with one accord in Sôl'o-mon's porch.

13 And of the rest durst no man join himself to them but the people magnified them.

14 And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.)

15 Inasmuch that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Pô'ter passing by might overshadow some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jê-ru'sa-lêm, bringing sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.

17 ¶ Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the Sâd'du-ceed,) and were filled with indignation.

18 And laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison.

19 But the angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said, 20 Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life.

21 And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of I's-ra-el, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told,

23 Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Now when the high priest and the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they doubted of them whereunto this would grow.

25 Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people.

26 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence. for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the council, and the high priest asked them, 28 Saying, Did not we straitly command you that ye should not teach in this name? and, behold, ye have filled Jê-ru'sa-lêm with your doctrine, and intend to bring this man's blood upon us.

29 ¶ Then Pô'ter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men.

30 The God of our fathers raised up Jê'sus, whom ye slew and *hang*ed on a tree.

31 Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, for to give repentance to I's-ra-el and forgiveness of sins.

32 And we are his witnesses of these things, and so is also the Hô'ly Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him.

33 ¶ When they heard that, they were cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them.

34 Then stood there up one in the council, a Phâr'isee, named a Gâ-ma'li-el, a doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space, 35 And said unto them, Ye men of I's-ra-el, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men.

36 For before these days rose up Theu'das, boasting himself to be somebody, to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered and brought to nought.

37 After this man rose up Ju'das of Gâl'lee in the days of the taxing, and drew away much people after him: he also perished, and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.

38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought.

39 But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it, lest haply ye be found even to fight against God.

40 And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles, and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jê'sus, and let them go.

41 ¶ And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name.

42 And daily in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jē'sus Christ.

CHAPTER 6.

1 The apostles' care for the poor, and preaching of the word 5 Seven deacons chosen

AND in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Grē'cians against the He'brews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministration.

2 Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables

3 Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Ho'ly Ghōst and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.

4 But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.

5 ¶ And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Ste'phen, a man full of faith and of the Ho'ly Ghost, and Phil'ip, and Proch'or-us, and Ni-cā'noir, and Ti'mon, and Par-me-nās, and Nic'olās a proselyte of An'tioch:

6 Whom they set before the apostles: and when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them

7 And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jē'rū'sā-lēm greatly, and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith

8 And Ste'phen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

9 ¶ Then there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the Lib'ertines, and Cy-rē-nians, and Al'ex-andri-ans, and of them of Ci'l'icia and of A'sia, disputing with Ste'phen.

10 And they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spake.

11 ¶ Then they suborned men, which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Mō'ses, and against God.

12 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the council,

13 And set up false witnesses, which said, This man censeth not to speak

CHAPTER 7.

1 Stephen, being called, answereth to his accusation of blasphemy 4 He is stoned to death

THEN said the high priest, Are these things so?

2 And he said, Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken; The God of glory appeared unto our father A'brā'hām, when he was in Mēs-q-pō-tā'mī-a, before he dwelt in Chār'ran,

3 And said unto him, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall shew thee.

4 Then came he out of the land of the Chāl'dā'ans, and dwelt in Chār'ran: and from thence, when his father was dead, he removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell.

5 And he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child.

6 And God spake on this wise, That his seed should sojourn in a strange land, and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them evil four hundred years.

7 And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and serve me in this place

8 ¶ And he gave him the covenant of circumcision: and so A'brā'hām begat I'saac, and circumcised him the eighth day; and I'saac begat Ja'cob, and Ja'cob begat the twelve patriarchs.

9 ¶ And the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Jō'seph into E'gypt: but God was with him,

10 And delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of Phā'raōh king of E'gypt, and he made him governor over E'gypt and all his house.

11 Now there came a dearth over all the land of E'gypt and Chā'nāan, and great affliction: and our fathers found no sustenance.

12 But when Ja'cob heard that there was corn in E'gypt, he sent out our fathers first.

13 And at the second time Jō'seph was made known to his brethren; and Jō'seph's kindred was made known unto Phā'raōh.

14 * Then sent Jō'seph, and called his father Ja'cob to him, and all his kindred, * threescore and fifteen souls.

15 So Jā'cob went down into E'gypt, and died, he, and our fathers, 16 And * we were carried over into Sý'chem, and laid in * the sepulchre that A'brā-hām bought for a sum of money of the sons of Em'mōr the father of Sý'chem.

17 But when * the time of the promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to A'brā-hām, the people grew and multiplied in E'gypt, 18 Till another king arose, which knew not Jō'seph.

19 The same dealt subtilly with our kindred, and evil entreated our fathers, so that they cast out then young children, to the end they might not live.

20 * In which time Mō'ses was born, and * was * exceeding fair, and nourished up in his father's house three months:

21 And when he was cast out, Phā'raōh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son.

22 And Mō'ses was learned in all the wisdom of the E-gyp'tjans, and was * mighty in words and in deeds.

23 * And when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Is'ra-el.

24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the E-gyp'tjan:

25 * For he supposed his brethren would have understood how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not.

26 And the next day he shewed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another?

27 But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, * Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us?

28 Wilt thou kill me, as thou diddest the E-gyp'tjan yesterday?

29 * Then fled Mō'ses at * his saying, and was a stranger in the land of Mā'di-an, where he * begat two sons.

30 And when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Si'na * an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush.

31 When Mō'ses saw it, he won-

32 Saying, * I am the God of thy fathers, the God of A'brā-hām, and the God of I'saac, and the God of Jā'cob. Then Mō'ses trembled, and durst not behold.

33 * Then said the Lord to him, Put off thy shoes from thy feet, for the place where thou standest is holy ground.

34 I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people which is in E'gypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into E'gypt.

35 This Mō'ses whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did God send to be a ruler and a deliverer * by the hand of the angel which appeared to him in the bush.

36 * He brought them out, after that he had shewed wonders and signs in the land of E'gypt, and in the Red sea, / and in the wilderness forty years.

37 ¶ This is that Mō'ses, which said unto the children of Is'ra-el, * A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, * like unto me, * him shall ye hear.

38 * This is he, that was in the church in the wilderness with * the angel which spake to him in the mount Si'na, and with our fathers: * who received the lively * oracles to give unto us.

39 To whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into E'gypt, 40 * Saying unto Aā'ron, Make us gods to go before us: for as for this Mō'ses, which brought us out of the land of E'gypt, we wot not what is become of him.

41 And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands.

42 Then * God turned, and gave them up to worship * the host of heaven: as it is written in the book of the prophets, * O ye house of Is'ra-el, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices by the space of forty years in the wilderness?

43 Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Mō'lōch, and the star of your god Rēm'phan, figures which ye made to worship them, and I will carry you away beyond Bā'by-lon.

44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he

AND ¹ Saul was consenting unto his death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jē-ry'sā-lēm; and ² they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Jū-dæ'a and Sā-mā'riā, except the apostles.

2 And devout men carried Stē'phen to his burial, and ³ made great lamentation over him.

3 As for Saul, ⁴ he made havock of the church, entering into every house, and haling men and women committed them to prison.

4 Therefore ⁵ they that were scattered abroad went every where preaching the word.

5 Then ⁶ Phl'ip went down to the city of Sā-mā'riā, and preached
Christ unto them.

6 And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Phl'ip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.

7 For ⁷ unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed.

8 And there was great joy in that city.

9 But there was a certain man, called Sī'mon, which beforetime in the same city ⁸ used sorcery, and bewitched the people of Sā-mā'riā, ⁹ giving out that himself was some great one.

10 To whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.

11 And to him they had regard, because that of long time he had bewitched them with sorceries.

12 But when they believed Phl'ip preaching the things ¹⁰ concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jē'sus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women

13 Then Sī'mon himself ¹¹ believed also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Phl'ip, and wondered, beholding the ¹² miracles and signs which were done.

14 Now when the apostles which were at Jē-ry'sā-lēm heard that Sā-mā'riā had received the word of God, they sent unto them Pē'tēr and Jōhn.

15 Who, when they were come down, prayed for them, ¹³ that they might receive the Hō'ly Ghōst.

16 (For ¹⁴ as yet he was fallen upon none of them: only ¹⁵ they were baptized in ¹⁶ the name of the Lord Jēsus)

17 Then ^a laid they their hands on them, and they received the Hō'ly Ghōst.

18 And when Si'mon saw that through laying on of the apostles' hands the Hō'ly Ghōst was given, he offered them money, 19 Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Hō'ly Ghōst.

20 But Pō'tēr said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because ^a thou hast thought that ^a the gift of God may be purchased with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter. for thy ^a heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, ^a if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.

23 For I perceive that thou art in ^a the gall of bitterness, and ^a in the bond of iniquity.

24 Then answered Si'mon, and said, ^a Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me.

25 And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jē-rū'sā-lēm, and preached the gospel in many villages of the Sā-mā'i-tāng.

26 ^a And the angel of the Lord spake unto Phil'p, saying, Arise, and go toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jē-rū'sā-lēm unto Gā'za, which is desert.

27 And he arose and went: and, behold, ^a a man of Ē-thi-ō-pī-a, an eunuch of great authority under Cān'dā-qē queen of the Ē-thi-ō-pī-ans, who had the charge of all her treasure, and ^a had come to Jē-rū'sā-lēm for to worship, 28 Was returning, and sitting in his chariot read Ē-sā'as the prophet.

29 Then the Spirit said unto Phil'p, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot.

30 And Phil'p ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet Ē-sā'as, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he said, How can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired Phil'p that he would come up and sit with him.

32 The place of the scripture which he read was this, ^a He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth:

33 In his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.

34 And the eunuch answered Phil'p, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man?

35 Then Phil'p opened his mouth, ^a and began at the same scripture, and preached unto him Jē'sus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water, ^a what doth hinder me to be baptized?

37 And Phil'p said, ^a If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, ^a I believe that Jē'sus Christ is the Son of God.

38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Phil'p and the eunuch, and he baptized him.

39 And when they were come up out of the water, ^a the Spirit of the Lord caught away Phil'p, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing.

40 But Phil'p was found ^a at Ā-rō-tus: and passing through he preached in all the cities, till he came to Çēs-ā-rē'a.

CHAPTER 9.

1 Saul, going toward Damascus is called by Christ. 10 Ananias is sent to him, and he is baptized. 20 and preacheth Christ. 32 Miracles wrought by Peter.

AND ^a Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest,

2 And desired of him letters to Dā-mās'cus to the synagogues, that if he found any ^a of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jē-rū'sā-lēm.

3 And ^a as he journeyed, he came near Dā-mās'cus and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven.

4 And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, ^a why persecutest thou me?

5 And he said, ^a Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jē'sus whom thou persecutest. ^a it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

6 And he trembling and astonished said, Lord, ^a what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.

7 And ^a the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man.

8 And Saul arose from the earth:

and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Dā-mās'cus.

9 And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink.

10 ¶ And there was a certain disciple at Dā-mās'cus, named An-a-ni'as; and to him said the Lord in a vision, An-a-ni'as. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.

11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and enquire in the house of Jū'das for one called Saul, of Tar'sus: for, behold, he prayeth, 12 And hath seen in a vision a man named An-a-ni'as coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.

13 Then An-a-ni'as answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jē-ry'sā-lēm.

14 And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that call on thy name.

15 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before the Gēn'tiles and kings, and the children of Iy'ra-el:

16 For as I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake.

17 And An-a-ni'as went his way, and entered into the house; and putting his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jē'sus, th*at* appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, th*at* thou mightest receive thy sight, and be filled with the Ho'ly Ghōst.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized.

19 And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Dā-mās'cus.

20 And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God.

21 But all that heard him were amazed, and said; Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this name in Jē-ry'sā-lēm, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Dā-mās'cus, proving that this is very Christ.

23 ¶ And after that many days

24 But their laying await was known of Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him.

25 Then the disciples took him by night, and let him down by the wall in a basket.

26 And when Saul was come to Jē-ry'sā-lēm, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple.

27 But Bar-na-bās took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Dā-mās'cus in the name of Jē'sus.

28 And he was with them coming in and going out at Jē-ry'sā-lēm.

29 And he spake boldly in the name of the Lord Jē'sus, and disputed against the Gre'cians: but they went about to slay him.

30 Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Cēsā-rē'a, and sent him forth to Tar'sus.

31 Then had the churches rest throughout all Jū dæ'a and Gāl'lee and Sā-mā'ria, and were edified; and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Ho'ly Ghōst, were multiplied.

32 ¶ And it came to pass, as Pē'tēr passed throughout all quarters, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at Ly'dā.

33 And there he found a certain man named A'ne-ās, which had kept his bed eight years, and was sick of the palsy.

34 And Pē'tēr said unto him, A'ne-ās, Je'sus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately.

35 And all that dwelt at Ly'dā and Sā'ron saw him, and turned to the Lord.

36 ¶ Now there was at Jōp'pa a certain disciple named Tāb'l-tha, which by interpretation is called Dōr'cas: this woman was full of good works and almsdeeds which she did.

37 And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died: whom when they had washed, they laid her in an upper chamber.

38 And forasmuch as Ly'dā was nigh to Jōp'pa, and the disciples had heard that Pē'tēr was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not delay to come to them.

39 Then Pē'tēr arose and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coats and garments which Dôr'cas made, while she was with them.

40 But Pê'têr ^a put them all forth, and ^c kneeled down, and prayed; and turning him to the body ^d said, Tâb'-l-tha, arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Pê'têr, she sat up.

41 And he gave her his hand, and lifted her up, and when he had called the saints and widows, presented her alive.

42 And it was known throughout all Jôp'pa; ^a and many believed in the Lord.

43 And it came to pass, that he tarried many days in Jôp'pa with one ^m Sî'mon a tanner.

CHAPTER 10.

1 Cornelius sendeth for Peter 24 Peter preacheth 44 The Holy Ghost falleth on the hearers 48 they are baptized

THERE was a certain man in Cês-a-rê'a calle ⁱ Côr-nê'l'jus, a centurion of the band called the I-tal'-jan band,

2 ^a A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway.

3 ^b He saw in a vision evidently about the ninth hour of the day an ^a angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Côr-nê'l'jus

4 And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, ^d Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God.

5 And now send men to Jôp'pa, and call for one Sî'mon, whose surname is Pê'têr:

6 He lodgeth with one ^e Sî'mon a tanner, whose house is by the sea side. ^f He shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do.

7 And when the angel which spake unto Côr-nê'l'jus was departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually;

8 And when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Jôp'pa.

9 ¶ On the morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Pê'têr went up upon the house top to pray about ^g the sixth hour:

10 And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance,

11 And ^a saw heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth:

12 Wherein were all manner of fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Pê'têr; kill, and eat.

14 But Pê'têr said, Not so, Lord; ^c for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean.

15 And the voice spake unto him again the second time, ^d What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

16 This was done thrice: and the vessel was received up again into heaven.

17 Now while Pê'têr doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean behold, the men which were sent from Côr-nê'l'jus had made enquiry for Sî'mon's house, and stood before the gate,

18 And called, and asked whether Sî'mon, which was surnamed Pê'têr, were lodged there 19 ¶ While Pê'têr thought on the vision, ^a the Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee.

20 ^b Arise therefore, and get thee down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them.

21 Then Pê'têr went down to the men which were sent unto him from Côr-nê'l'jus; and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what ^c is the cause whereto ye are come?

22 And they said, Côr-nê'l'jus the centurion, a just man, and one that feareth God, and ^d of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by an holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee.

23 Then called he them in, and lodged them. And on the morrow Pê'têr went away with them, and certain brethren from Jôp'pa accompanied him.

24 And the morrow after they entered into Cês-a-rê'a And Côr-nê'l'jus waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen and near friends

25 And as Pê'têr was coming in, Côr-nê'l'jus met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him.

26 But Pê'têr took him up, saying, ^a Stand up; I myself also am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he said unto them, Ye know how • that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come unto one of another nation; but • God hath shewed me that I should not call any man common or unclean.

THE ACTS, 11. Christ is preached to Cornelius and his company.

29 Therefore came I unto you without gainsaying, • as soon as I was sent for. I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me?

30 And Cor-nē-lus said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour, and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and, behold, • a man stood before me • in bright clothing, 31 And said, Cōr-nē-lus, • thy prayer is heard, • and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Jōp'pa, and call hither Si'mon, whose surname is Pe'tēr, he is lodged in the house of one Si'mon a tanner by the sea side who, when he cometh, shall speak unto thee.

33 Immediately therefore I sent to thee, and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee of God.

34 ¶ Then Pe'tēr opened his mouth, and said, • Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons 35 But • in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him.

• 36 The word which God sent unto the children of Is'ra-el, • preaching peace by Jē'sus Christ. (• he is Lord of all)

37 That word, I say, ye know, which was published throughout all Jū-dæ'a, and began from Gāl'i-lee, after the baptism which Jōhn preached,

38 How • God anointed Jē'sus of Nāz'ā-rēth with the Hō'ly Ghōst and with power, who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; • for God was with him.

39 And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jē-ru'sā-lēm, whom they slew and hanged on a tree:

40 Him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly;

41 • Not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, • who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead.

42 And • he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify • that it's he which was ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead.

43 • To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name who-soever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

44 ¶ While Pe'tēr yet spake these words, the Hō'ly Ghōst fell on all them which heard the word.

45 And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Pe'tēr, because that on the Gēn'tiles also was poured out the gift of the Hō'ly Ghōst.

46 For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Pe'tēr, 47 Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Hō'ly Ghōst as well as we?

48 And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

CHAPTER 11.

1 Peter accused for going to the Gentiles 19 The gospel preached in many places. 27 Great dearth foretold

AND the apostles and brethren that were in Jū-dæ'a heard that the • Gēn'tiles had also received the word of God.

2 And when Pe'tēr was come up to Jē-ru'sā-lēm, • they that were of the circumcision contended with him,

3 Saying, • Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them

4 But Pe'tēr rehearsed the matter from the beginning, and expounded it • by order unto them, saying,

5 • I was in the city of Jōp'pa praying; and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descend, as it had been a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even to me:

6 Upon the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

7 And I heard a voice saying unto me, Arise, Pe'tēr; slay and eat.

8 But I said, • Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth.

9 But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

10 And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven.

11 And, behold, immediately there were three men already come unto the house where I was, sent from Cēs'ā-rē'a unto me.

12 And • the spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. Moreover *these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house:

13 And he shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Jōp'pa, and call for Sī'mon, whose surname is Pē'tēr;

14 Who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved.

15 And as I began to speak, the Hō'lŷ Ghōst fell on them, as on us at the beginning.

16 Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, *Jōhn indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Hō'lŷ Ghōst.

17 Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Jē'sus Christ; what was I, that I could withstand God?

18 When they heard these things, they held then peace, and glorified God, saying, *Then hath God also to the Gēn'tiles granted repentance unto life.

19 ¶ Now they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stē'phen travelled as far as Phē-ni'cē, and Cŷ'prus, and Ān'ti-ōch, preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only 20 And some of them were men of Cŷ'prus and Cŷ-rē'nē, which, when they were come to Ān'ti-ōch, spake unto the Grē'cians, preaching the Lord Jē'sus.

21 And the hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number believed, and turned unto the Lord

22 ¶ Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jē-ru'sā-lēm and they sent forth Bar'nā-bās, that he should go as far as Ān'ti-ōch

23 Who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and full of the Hō'lŷ Ghōst and of faith: and much people was added unto the Lord.

25 Then departed Bar'nā-bās to Tar'sus, for to seek Saul.

26 And when he had found him, he brought him unto Ān'ti-ōch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the church, and taught much people. And the disciples were called Chris'tians first in Ān'ti-ōch.

27 ¶ And in these days came pro-

28 And there stood up one of them named Ag'ā-būs, and signified by the spirit that there should be great dearth throughout all the world: which came to pass in the days of Clau'di-us Cæ'sar.

29 Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Jū-dæ'a:

30 Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Bar'nā-bās and Saul.

CHAPTER 12.

1 King Herod persecuteth the Christians, killeth James, and imprisoneth Peter 20 Miserable death of Herod

NOW about that time Hēr'od the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the church.

2 And he killed James the brother of Jōhn with the sword.

3 And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Pē'tēr also (Then were the days of unleavened bread.)

4 And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him, intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.

5 Pē'tēr therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

6 And when Hēr'od would have brought him forth, the same night Pē'tēr was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison

7 And, behold, the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Pē'tēr on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.

8 And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

9 And he went out, and followed him, and wist not that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought he saw a vision.

10 When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city; which opened to them of his own accord. and they went out, and passed on through one street; and forthwith the angel departed from him.

titudes, they were filled with envy, and ^bspake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming.

46 Then Paul and Bar'na-bās waxed bold, and said, ^cIt was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but ^dseeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gēn'tiles.

47 For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, ^eI have set thee to be a light of the Gēn'tiles, that thou shouldst be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.

48 And when the Gēn'tiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: ^fand as many as were ordained to eternal life believed.

49 And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region.

50 But the Jews stirred up the devout and honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and ^graised persecution against Paul and Bar'na-bās, and expelled them out of their coasts.

51 ^hBut they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto I-cō'nūm.

52 And the disciples ⁱwere filled with joy, and with the Hō'l'y Ghost.

AND it came to pass in I-cō'nūm, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a ^agreat multitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed.

2 But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gēn'tiles, and made their minds evil affected against the brethren.

3 Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, ^bwhich gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the multitude of the city was divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gēn'tiles, and also of the Jews with their rulers, ^cto use them despitefully, and to stone them,

6 They were ware of it, and ^dfled unto Lys'tra and Dēr'hē, cities of Lys'a-ō'nī-a, and unto the region that lieth round about:

at Lys'tra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked:

9 The same heard Paul speak: who stedfastly beholding him, and ^fperceiving that he had faith to be healed,

10 Said with a loud voice, ^gStand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked.

11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lys'a-ō'nī-a, ^hThe gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.

12 And they called Bar'na-bās, Jū-pi-tēr, and Paul, Mēr-cū'i-us, because he was the chief speaker.

13 Then the priest of Jū-pi-tēr, which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, ⁱand would have done sacrifice with the people.

14 ^jWhich when the apostles, Bar'na-bās and Paul, heard of, ^kthey rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out,

15 And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? ^lWe also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you that ye should turn from ^mthese vanities ⁿunto the living God, ^owhich made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein:

16 ^pWho in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways.

17 ^qNevertheless he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and ^rgave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.

18 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them.

19 ¶ And there came thither certain Jews from An'ti-ōch and I-cō'nūm, who persuaded the people, ^sand, having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he ^thad been dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and came into the city, and the next day he departed with Bar'na-bās to Dēr'hē.

21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and ^uhad taught many, they returned again to Lys'tra, and to I-cō'nūm, and An'ti-ōch, 22 Confirming the souls of the disciples, ^vand exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that ^wwe must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.

23 And when they had ^xordained them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed.

24 And after they had passed throughout Pī-sid'ā, they came to Pām-phyl'ā.

25 And when they had preached the word in Pēr'ga, they went down into At-tā'li-a.

26 And thence sailed to An'ti-ōch, from whence they had been recommended to the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith unto the Gēn'tiles.

28 And there they abode long time with the disciples.

CHAPTER 15.

1 Dissension about circumcision. 30 Paul and Barnabas contend, and part

AND certain men which came down from Jū-dā'a taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Mō'ses, ye cannot be saved.

2 When theretore Paul and Bar'nabās had no small dissension and dispute with them, they determined that Paul and Bar'nabās, and certain other of them, should go up to Jē-ry'sā-lēm unto the apostles and elders about this question.

3 And being brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phē-nī-cē and Sā-mā'ri-a, declaring the conversion of the Gēn'tiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Jē-ry'sā-lēm, they were received of the church, and of the apostles and elders, and they declared all things that God had done with them.

5 But there rose up certain of the sect of the Phār'isees which believed, saying, That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Mō'ses.

6 ¶ And the apostles and elders came together for to consider of this matter.

7 And when there had been much disputing, Pet'ēr rose up, and said unto them, Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Gēn'tiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe.

8 And God, which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, giving them the Hō'ly Ghōst, even as he did unto us;

10 Now therefore why tempt ye God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

11 But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jē'sus Christ we shall be saved, even as they.

12 ¶ Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Bar'nabās and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had wrought among the Gēn'tiles by them.

13 ¶ And after they had held their peace, James answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken unto me

14 Sīm'ōn hath declared how God at the first did visit the Gēn'tiles, to take out of them a people for his name.

15 And to this agree the words of the prophets, as it is written,

16 After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of Da'vid, which is fallen down, and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up:

17 That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gēn'tiles, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things

18 Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world

19 Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the Gēn'tiles are turned to God:

20 But that we write unto them, that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from things strangled, and from blood

21 For Mō'ses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath day

22 Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to An'ti-ōch with Paul and Bar'nabās, namely, Jū'das surnamed Bar'sā-bās, and Sī'las, chief men among the brethren.

23 And they wrote letters by them after this manner; The apostles and elders and brethren send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gēn'tiles in An'ti-ōch and Sīr'ia and Ct'li'ca:

24 Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, 1e must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment.

25 It seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you with our beloved Bar'na-bās and Paul,

26 * Men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Je'sus Christ.

27 We have sent therefore Jū'das and Si'las, who shall also tell you the same things by ² mouth.

28 For it seemed good to * the Hō'ly Ghōst, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things;

29 * That ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and * from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep yourselves ye shall do well. Fare ye well.

30 So when they were dismissed, they came to An'ti-ōch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle:

31 It hath when they had read, they rejoiced for the ² consolation.

32 And Jū'das and Si'las, being ² prophets also themselves, ² exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them.

33 And after they had tarried there a space, they were let ² go in peace from the brethren unto the apostles.

34 Notwithstanding it pleased Si'las to abide there still.

35 * Paul also and Bar'na-bās continued in An'ti-ōch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

36 ¶ And some days after Paul said unto Bar'na-bās, Let us go again and visit our brethren * in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do.

37 And Bar'na-bās determined to take with them Jōhn, whose surname was Mark.

38 But Paul thought not good to take him with them, * who departed from them from Pam-phyl'ia, and went not with them to the work.

39 And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other: and so Bar'na-bās took Mark, and sailed unto Cyp'rus;

40 And Paul chose Si'las, and departed, being recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God.

41 And he went through Sýr'ia and Cil'ic'ja, confirming the churches.

2 Which ² was well reported of by the brethren that were at Lys'tra and i-cō'n-i-um.

3 Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and ² took and circumcised him because of the Jews which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Greek.

4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep, ² that were ordained of the apostles and elders which were at Jē-ru'sa-lēm.

5 And ² so were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily.

6 Now when they had gone throughout Phryg'ia and the region of Ga-la'tia, and were forbidden of the Hō'ly Ghōst to preach the word in A'sia, 7 After they were come to Mýs'ja, they assayed to go into Bi-thýn'ia: but the Spirit suffered them not.

8 And they passing by Mýs'ja came down to ² Tro'as.

9 And a ² vision appeared to Paul in the night; There stood a man of Mæ-g-do'ni-a, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Mæ-g-do'ni-a, and help us.

10 And after he had seen the vision, immediately he endeavoured to go ² into Mæ-g-do'ni-a, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us for to preach the gospel unto them.

11 Therefore loosing from Tro'as, we came with a straight course to Sām-q-thrā'c'ja, and the next day to Nē-āp'q-lis;

12 And from thence to ² Phi'lip'pi, which is ¹ the chief city of that part of Mæ-g-do'ni-a, and a colony: and we were in that city abiding certain days.

13 And on the ² sabbath we went out of the city by ² river side, where prayer was wont to be made; and we sat down, and spake unto the women which resorted thither.

14 ¶ And a certain woman named Lys't'a, a seller of purple, of the city of ² Thy-a-ti'ra, which worshipped God, heard us whose ² heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Paul.

15 And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained us.

16 ¶ And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel possessed with a spirit of divination met us, which brought her masters much gain by soothsaying:

17 The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation.

18 And this did she many days. But Paul, being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jē'sus Christ to come out of her. And he came out the same hour.

19 ¶ And when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drew them into the marketplace unto the rulers,

20 And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, do exceedingly trouble our city, 21 And teach customs, which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Rōmans.

22 And the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes, and commanded to beat them.

23 And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely.

24 Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks.

25 ¶ And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately all the doors were opened, and every one's bands were loosed.

27 And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled.

28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, 30 And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

31 And they said, Believe on the Lord Jē'sus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

32 And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

33 And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, straightway.

34 And when he had brought them into his house, he set meat before them, and rejoiced, believing in God with all his house.

35 And when it was day, the magistrates sent the serjeants, saying, Let those men go.

36 And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul, The magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and go in peace.

37 But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, being Rōmans, and have cast us into prison, and now do they thrust us out privily? nay verily, but let them come themselves and fetch us out.

38 And the serjeants told these words unto the magistrates. and they feared, when they heard that they were Rōmans.

39 And they came and besought them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the city.

40 And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of Lydia: and when they had seen the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

CHAPTER 17.

1 Paul preacheth at Thessalonica, 10 and at Berea: 16 disputeth with the Athenians. 32 Some mock, others believe.

NOW when they had passed through Am-philip'olis and Ap-ol-lō-ni-a, they came to Thēs-sa-lō-ni'ca, where was a synagogue of the Jews:

2 And Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three sabbath days reasoned with them out of the scriptures,

3 Opening and alleging, that Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this Jē'sus, whom I preach unto you, is Christ.

4 And some of them believed, and consorted with Paul and Silas; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

5 ¶ But the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the basar sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of ^a Jā'son, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 And when they found them not, they drew Jā'son and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also;

7 Whom Jā'son hath received: and these all ^a do contrary to the decrees of Cæ'sar, ^a saying that there is another king, one Jē'sus.

8 And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.

9 And when they had taken security of Jā'son, and of the other, they let them go.

10 ¶ And ^a the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Si'las by night unto Bē-rē'a who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews.

11 These were more noble than those in Thēs-sa-lō-ni'ca, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and ^a searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them believed; also of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men, not a few.

13 But when the Jews of Thēs-sa-lō-ni'ca had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Bē-rē'a, ^a they came thither also, and stirred up the people.

14 ^a And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul to go as it were to the sea: but Si'las and Ti-mō'the-ūs abode there still.

15 And they that conducted Paul brought him unto Ath'ēns: and ^a receiving a commandment unto Si'las and Ti-mō'the-ūs for to come to him with all speed, they departed.

16 ¶ Now while Paul waited for them at Ath'ēns, ^a his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city ^a wholly given to idolatry.

17 Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him.

18 Then certain philosophers of the Ēp-i-cū-rē'ans, and of the Stō'icks, encountered him. And some said, What will this ^a babblers say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods: because he preached unto them Jē'sus, and the resurrection.

22 ¶ Then Paul stood in the midst of ^a Mars' hill, and said, Ye men of Ath'ēns, I perceive that in all things ye are ^a too superstitious.

23 For as I passed by, and beheld your ^a devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, ^a TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.

24 ^a God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is ^a Lord of heaven and earth, ^a dwelleth not in temples made with hands;

25 Neither is worshipped with men's hands, ^a as though he needed any thing, seeing ^a he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things;

27 ^a That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, ^a though he be not far from every one of us:

28 For ^a in him we live, and move, and have our being; ^a as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring.

29 Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, ^a we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device.

30 And ^a the times of this ignorance God winked at, but ^a now commandeth all men every where to repent.

31 Because he hath appointed a day, in the which ^a he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ^a daigned, whereof he hath ^a given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

32 ¶ And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter.

3 Paul labouring with his hands, and preaching at Corinth, 9 is encouraged in a vision.

AFTER these things Paul departed from Āth-ēns, and came to Cōr'inth;

2 And found a certain Jew named
"Ā-quī-lā, born in Pōn'tus, lately come from Īt'a-l'y, with his wife Pris-cil'la; (because that Clau'd-i-us had commanded all Jews to depart from Rōme:) and came unto them.

3 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, ² and wrought: for by their occupation they were tentmakers.

4 And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks.

5 And ² when Si'las and Ti-mō'thetis, were come from Māc-e-dō'n-i-a, Paul was ² pressed in the spirit, and testified to the Jews that Je'sus was ¹ Christ.

6 And ² when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, ² he shook his raiment, and said unto them,
² Your blood be upon your own heads; ² I am clean: ² from henceforth I will go unto the Gēn'tiles.

7 ¶ And he departed thence, and entered into a certain man's house, named Jūs'tus, one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue.

8 ¶ And Cris'pus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house; and many of the Cōr'inthi-ans hearing believed, and were baptized.

9 Then ² spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace.

10 ² For I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee. for I have much people in this city.

11 And he ² continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 ¶ And when Gāl'i-l-ō was the deputy of Ā-chā'ja, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat,

13 Saying, This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law.

14 And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gāl'i-l-ō said unto the Jews, ² If it were a matter of Jews, reason would that I should took his leave of the brethien, and sailed thence into Sŷr'i-a, and with him Pris-cil'la and Ā-quī-lā; having shorn his head in "Cēn'chrē-a: for he had a vow.

19 And he came to Ēph'ē-sūs, and left them there: but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews.

20 When they desired him to tarry not;

21 But bade them farewell, saying,
I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in Jē-i'u'sā-lēm: but I will return again unto you, ² if God will. And he sailed from Ēph'ē-sūs.

22 And when he had landed at Cŷ-s-church, he went down to Ān'ti-ōch.

23 And after he had spent some time there, he departed, and went over all the country of "Gā-lā'tja and Phrŷg'i-a in order, ² strengthening all the disciples.

24 ¶ And a certain Jew named Ā-pōl'los, born at Āl-ēx-ān'dri-a, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came to Ēph'ē-sūs

25 This man was instructed in the way of the Lord; and being ² fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord,
² knowing only the baptism of Jōhn.

26 And he began to speak boldly in and Pris-cil'la had heard, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly.

27 And when he was disposed to pass into Ā-chā'ja, the brethien wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he was come,
² helped them much which had believed through grace:

28 For he mightily convinced the Jews, and that publickly, ² shewing by the scriptures that Je'sus ² was Christ.

per coasts came to Ēph'ē-sūs: and finding certain disciples,

2 He said unto them, Have ye received the Hō'ly Ghōst since ye believed? And they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether there be any Hō'ly Ghōst.

3 And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, Unto Jōhn's baptism.

4 Then said Paul, Jōhn verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jē'sus.

5 When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jē'sus.

6 And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Hō'ly Ghōst came o' them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelve.

8 And he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things concerning the kingdom of God.

9 But when divers were hardened, and believed not, but spake evil of that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, disputing daily in the school of one Tŷ-rān'us.

10 And this continued by the space of two years, so that all they which dwelt in A'sjā heard the word of the Lord Jē'sus, both Jews and Greeks.

11 And God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul:

12 So that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.

13 ¶ Then certain of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jē'sus, saying, We adjure you by Jē'sus whom Paul preacheth.

14 And there were seven sons of one Scō'va, a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so.

15 And the evil spirits answered and said, Jē'sus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

Ēph'ē-sūs; and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jē'sus was magnified.

18 And many that believed came, and confessed, and shewed their deeds.

19 Many of them also which used curious arts brought their books together, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.

20 So mightily grew the word of God and prevailed.

21 ¶ After these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Māc-g-dō'nā and A-chā'ja, to go to Jē-ru-sā-lēm, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rōme.

22 So he sent into Māc-g-dō'nā two of them that ministered unto him, Ti-mō-the-ūs and Erās'tis; but he himself stayed in A'sjā for a season.

23 And the same time there arose no small stir about that way.

24 For a certain man named Dē-mē-tri-us, a silversmith, which made silver shrines for Diā'nā, brought no small gain unto the craftsmen;

25 Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth.

26 Moreover ye see and hear, that not alone at Ēph'ē-sūs, but almost throughout all A'sjā, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, saying that they be no gods, which are made with hands.

27 So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nought; but also that the temple of the great goddess Diā'nā should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all A'sjā and the world worshippeth.

28 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diā'nā of the Ē-phē'sjans.

29 And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having caught Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Māc-g-dō'nā, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.

30 And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 And certain of the chief of A'sjā, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.

32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

31 And they drew Al-ēx-ān'dēr out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Al-ēx-ān'dēr beckoned with the hand, and would have made his defence unto the people.

32 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Di-ān'a of the Ē-phē'sians.

33 And when the townclerk had appeased the people, he said, Ye men of Ēph'ē-sūs, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ē-phē'sians is ¹a worshipper of the great goddess Di-ān'a, and of the image which fell down from Ju'pī-tēr?

34 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.

35 For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess.

36 Wherefore if Dō-mē'tri-us, and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, ²the law is open, and there are deputies: let them implead one another.

37 But if ye enquire any thing concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a ³lawful assembly.

38 For we are in danger to be called in question for this day's uproar, there being no cause whereby we may give an account of this course.

39 ⁴And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

of A'si-a, Tych'i-cūs and ¹¹*Trōph'i-mūs*.

5 These going before tarried for us at Trō'ās.

6 And we sailed away from Phil'p'i after ¹²the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them ¹³to Trō'ās in five days; where we abode seven days.

7 And upon ¹⁴the first day of the week, when the disciples came together ¹⁵to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight.

8 And there were many lights ¹⁶in the upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eū'ty-chus, being fallen into a deep sleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead.

10 And Paul went down, and ¹⁷fell on him, and embracing him said, ¹⁸Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him.

11 When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed.

12 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.

13 ¶ And we went before to ship, and sailed unto As'sōs, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go about.

14 And when he met with us at As'sōs, we took him in, and came to Mi-lē'te-nē.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chi'os; and the next day we arrived at Sā'-mos, and tarried at Trō-gyl'lum; and the next day we came to Mi-lē'-tus.

16 For Paul had determined to sail by Ēph'ē-sūs, because he would not spend the time in A'si-a: for ¹⁹he hasted, if it were possible for him, ²⁰to be at Jē-ru'sā-lēm ²¹the day of Pēn'te-cōst.

17 ¶ And from Mi-lē'-tus he sent to Ēph'ē-sūs, and ²²called the elders of the church.

18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, ²³from the first day that I came in to A'si-a, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons,

19 Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations, which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews :

20 And how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publickly, and from house to house,

21 Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jē'sus Christ.

22 And now, behold, I go bound in the spirit unto Jē-ry'sā-lēm, not knowing the things that shall befall me there :

23 Save that the Hō'ly Ghōst witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me.

24 But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jē'sus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.

25 And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men.

27 For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God.

28 Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Hō'ly Ghōst hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood.

29 For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.

30 Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.

31 Therefore watch, and remember, that by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.

32 And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified.

33 I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel.

34 Yea, ye yourselves know, that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me.

35 I have shewed you all things, how that so labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jē'sus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.

36 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled down, and prayed with them all.

37 And they all wept sore, and fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him, 38 Sorrowing most of all for the words which he spake, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him unto the ship.

CHAPTER 21.

1 Paul, journeying to Jerusalem, cometh to Philip's house, whose daughters prophesied 17 Paul, at Jerusalem, 27 he apprehended, 31 but rescued by the chief captain

AND it came to pass, that after we were gotten from them, and had launched, we came with a straight course unto Cō's, and the day following unto Rhōdes, and from thence unto Pāt'g-ra :

2 And finding a ship sailing over unto Phē-n'c'ja, we went aboard, and set forth.

3 Now when we had discovered Cŷ-prus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into Sŷr'a, and landed at Tŷe for there the ship was to unlade her burden.

4 And finding disciples, we tarried there seven days: who said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jē-ry'sā-lēm.

5 And when we had accomplished those days, we departed and went our way; and they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, till we were out of the city: and we kneeled down on the shore, and prayed.

6 And when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship; and they returned home again.

7 And when we had finished our course from Tŷe, we came to Ptōl-g-mā'is, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day we that were of Paul's company departed, and came unto Cŷs-a-rē'a: and we entered into the house of Phl'p the evangelist, which was one of the seven; and abode with him.

9 And the same man had four daughters, virgins, which did prophesy.

10 And as we tarried there many days, there came down from Jū-dæ'a a certain prophet, named Ag-ā-būs.

11 And when he was come unto us, he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the Hō'ly Ghōst, So shall the Jews at Jē-ry'sā-lēm bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gēn'tiles.

12 And when we heard these things, both we, and they of that place, besought him not to go up to Jē-ry'-sā-lēm.

13 Then Paul answered, 'What mean ye to weep and to break mine heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jē-ry'-sā-lēm for the name of the Lord Jē'sus.

14 And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, 'The will of the Lord be done.

15 And after those days we took up our carriages, and went up to Jē-ry'-sā-lēm.

16 There went with us also certain of the disciples of Cēs-ā-rē'a, and brought with them one Mnā'son of Cŷ-prus, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge.

17 And when we were come to Jē-ry'-sā-lēm, the brethren received us gladly.

18 And the day following Paul went in with us unto Jāmes; and all the elders were present.

19 And when he had saluted them, he declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gēn'tiles by his ministry.

20 And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe; and they are all zealous of the law:

21 And they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gēn'tiles to forsake Mō'ses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs.

22 What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come.

23 Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men which have a vow on them;

24 Them take, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may shave their heads: and all may know that those things, whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and keepest the law.

25 As touching the Gēn'tiles which believe, we have written and concluded that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them entered into the temple, to signify the accomplishment of the days of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them.

27 And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews which were of A'sja, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him,

28 Crying out, Men of Is'ra-el, help: This is the man, that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place: and further brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place.

29 (For they had seen before with him in the city Trōph'īmūs an Ē-phē'sjan, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)

30 And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple: and forthwith the doors were shut.

31 And as they went about to kill him, tidings came unto the chief captain of the band, that all Jē-ry'-sā-lēm was in an uproar.

32 Who immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down unto them: and when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they left beating of Paul.

33 Then the chief captain came near, and took him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains; and demanded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle.

35 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was, that he was borne of the soldiers for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him.

37 And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said unto the chief captain, May I speak unto thee? Who said, Canst thou speak Greek?

38 Art not thou that Ē-gŷp'tjan, which before these days madest an uproar, and leddest out into the wilderness four thousand men that were murderers?

39 But Paul said, I am a man which am a Jew of Tār'sus, a city in Çi-l'çja, a citizen of no mean city: and, I beseech thee, suffer me to speak unto the people.

40 And when he had given him licence, Paul stood on the stairs, and beckoned with the hand unto the people. And when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the Hē'brew tongue, saying,

CHAPTER 22.

1 Paul declareth how he was converted: 25 he scourgeth scourging, being a Roman citizen.

MEN, brethren, and fathers, hear ye my defence which I make now unto you.

2 (And when they heard that he spake in the Hē'brew tongue to them, they kept the more silence. and he saith.)

3 I am verily a man which am a Jew, born in Tār'sus, a city in Çi-l'çja, yet brought up in this city at the feet of Gā-mā'ilel, and taught according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, and was zealous toward God, as ye all are this day

4 And I persecuted this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.

5 As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and all the estate of the elders: from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and went to Dā-mās'cus, to bring them which were there bound unto Jē-ry'sā-lēm, for to be punished

6 And it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and was coming nigh unto Dā-mās'cus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me.

7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jē'sus of Nāz'a-rēth, whom thou persecutest.

9 And they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me.

10 And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Dā-mās'cus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do.

11 And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Dā-mās'cus.

man according to the law, having a good report of all the Jews which dwell there, 13 Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him.

14 And he said, The God of our fathers hath chosen thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and see that Just One, and shouldest hear the voice of his mouth.

15 For thou shalt be his witness unto all men of what thou hast seen and heard.

16 And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord.

17 And it came to pass, that, when I was come again to Jē-ry'sā-lēm, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance, 18 And saw him saying unto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jē-ry'sā-lēm: for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me.

19 And I said, Lord, they know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee:

20 And when the blood of thy martyr Stē'phen was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting unto his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him.

21 And he said unto me, Depart: for I will send thee far hence unto the Gēn'tiles.

22 And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live.

23 And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air, 24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know wherefore they cried so against him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Rō-man, and uncondemned?

26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Rō-man.

27 Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Rō-man? He said, Yea.

28 And the chief captain answered,

Paul pleads his cause. Conspiracy against Paul. THE ACTS, 23.

With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free born.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should have ¹examined him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Ro'man, and because he had bound him.

30 On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and ²commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

CHAPTER 23.

AND Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, Men and brethren, ^a I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.

2 And the high priest An-a-ni'as commanded them that stood by him ^bto smite him on the mouth.

3 Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall: for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and ^ccommandest me to be smitten contrary to the law?

4 And they that stood by said, Revilest thou God's high priest?

5 Then said Paul, ^dI wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, ^eThou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sad'du-ceeds, and the other Phâr'i-sees, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, ^fI am a Phâr'i-see, the son of a Phâr'i-see: ^gof the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Phâr'i-sees and the Sad'du-ceeds: and the multitude was divided.

8 ^hFor the Sad'du-ceeds say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Phâr'i-sees confess both.

9 And there arose a great cry: and the scribes that were of the Phâr'i-sees' part arose, and strove, saying, ⁱWe find no evil in this man: but if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, ^jlet us not fight against God.

10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

11 And ¹the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jê-ru'sa-lêm, so must thou bear witness also at Rome.

12 And when it was day, ²certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves ³under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul.

15 Now therefore ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you to morrow, as though ye would enquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him.

16 And ⁴when Paul's sister's son heard of them lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

17 Then ⁵Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me?

20 And he said, ⁶The Jews have agreed to desire thee that thou wouldest bring down Paul to morrow into the council, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there ⁷he is in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.

22 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast shewed these things to me.

23 And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Cæs-a-rê'a, and horsemen threescore and ten, and ²spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night;

24 And provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe unto Fē'līx the governor.

25 And he wrote a letter after this manner:

26 Clāu'dī-us Lys'jas unto the most excellent governor Fē'līx sendeth greeting.

27 * This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: then came I with an army, and rescued him, having understood that he was a Rō'man.

28 * And when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council:

29 Whom I perceived to be accused * of questi'ns of their law, * but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds.

30 And when it was told me how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and ²gave commandment to his accusers also to say before thee what they had against him. Farewell.

31 Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Ān-tīp'a-tīs.

32 On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle:

33 Who, when they came to * Qā's-q-rē'a, and delivered the epistle to the governor, presented Paul also before him.

34 And when the governor had read the letter, he asked of what province he was. And when he understood that he was of Cilī'cīa;

35 I * will hear thee, said he, when thine accusers are also come. And he commanded him to be kept in * Hēr'od's judgment hall.

AND after ¹five days ²Ān-q-uī'as the high priest descended with the elders, and with a certain orator named Tēr-tūl'us, who informed the governor against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tēr-tūl'us began to accuse him, saying, * Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence,

4 Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear us of thy clemency a few words.

5 * For we have found this man ¹a pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nāz'a-rēnēs:

6 * Who also hath gone about to profane the temple: whom we took, and would ²have judged according to our law.

7 * But the chief captain Lys'jas came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands,

8 * Commanding his accusers to come unto thee: by examining of whom thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Jews also assented, saying that these things were so.

10 Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years ²a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself:

11 Because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to Jē-rū'sā-lēm ¹for to worship.

12 * And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city:

13 Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confess unto thee, that after ²the way which they call heresy, so worship I the ¹God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in ²the law and in the prophets:

15 And ²have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, ¹that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.

16 And ²herein do I exercise myself, to have ¹always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men.

17 Now after many years ²I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings.

18 * Whereupon certain Jews from A'sjā found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult.

19 * Who ought to have been here before thee, and object, if they had ought against me.

21 Except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, *Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day.

22 And when Fē'līx heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and said, When Lys'as the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter

23 And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and *that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come unto him.

24 And after certain days, when Fē'līx came with his wife Drū-sī'lā, which was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ.

25 And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Fē'līx trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time, when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee.

26 He hoped also that *money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

27 But after two years Pōr'c'us Fēs'tus came into Fē'līx' room: and Fē'līx, *willing to shew the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound.

1 Paul, accused before Festus, & appealeth unto Cæsar

NOW when Fēs'tus was come into the province, after three days he ascended from Cæs-a-rē'a to Jē-ry'sā-lēm.

2 *Then the high priest and the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him,

3 And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jē-ry'sā-lēm, *laying wait in the way to kill him.

4 But Fēs'tus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cæs-a-rē'a, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.

5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, *if there be any wickedness in him.

6 And when he had tarried among them ¹more than ten days, he went down unto Cæs-a-rē'a; and the next day sitting on the judgment seat commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jē-ry'sā-lēm stood round about, *and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prove.

8 While he answered for himself, *Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Cæs'ar, have I offended any thing at all.

9 But Fēs'tus, *willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jē-ry'sā-lēm, and there be judged of these things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Cæs'ar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest

11 *For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. *I appeal unto Cæs'ar.

12 Then Fēs'tus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Cæs'ar? unto Cæs'ar shalt thou go.

13 And after certain days king A-grip'pa and Bēi-nī'cē came unto Cæs-a-rē'a to salute Fēs'tus

14 And when they had been there many days, Fēs'tus declared Paul's cause unto the king, saying, *There is a certain man left in bonds by Fē'līx:

15 About whom, when I was at Jē-ry'sā-lēm, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him.

16 To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Rō'mans to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused have the accusers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

17 Therefore, when they were come hither, without any delay on the morrow I sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed 19 *But had certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of one Jē'sus, which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

20 And because *I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jē-ry'sā-lēm, and there be judged of these matters.

21 But when Paul had appealed to be reserved unto the hearing of Augū's'tus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Cæ'sar.

22 Then A-grīp'pā said unto Fēs'tus, I would also hear the man myself. To morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

23 And on the morrow, when A-grīp'pā was come, and Bēr-nī'cē, with great pomp, and was entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and principal men of the city, at Fēs'tus' commandment Paul was brought forth.

24 And Fēs'tus said, King A-grīp'pā, and all men which are here present with us, ye see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jē-ry'sā-lēm, and also here, crying that he ought not to live any longer.

25 But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himself hath appealed to Augū's'tus, I have determined to send him.

26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, O king A-grīp'pā, that, after examination had, I might have somewhat to write.

the most straitest sect of our religion I lived a Phārī-see.

6 And now I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers:

7 Unto which promise our twelve tribes, instantly serving God day and night, hope to come. For which hope's sake, king A-grīp'pā, I am accused of the Jews.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead?

9 I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jē'sus of Nāz'ā-rēth.

10 Which thing I also did in Jē-ry'sā-lēm: and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.

11 And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities.

12 Whereupon as I went to Dāmās'cus with authority and commission from the chief priests, 13 At midday, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me.

14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the He'b'rew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jē'sus whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee;

17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee,

18 To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Sā'tan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me.

19 Whereupon, O king A-grīp'pā, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision:

20 But ¹shewed first unto them of Dā-mās'cus, and at Jē-rū'sā-lēm, and throughout all the coasts of Jū-dæ'a, and then to the Gēn'tiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do ²works meet for repentance.

21 For these causes ³the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those ⁴which the prophets and ⁵Mō'ses did say should come:

23 ⁶That Christ should suffer, and ⁷that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and ⁸should shew light unto the people, and to the Gēn'tiles.

24 And as he thus spake for himself, Fēs'tus said with a loud voice, Paul, ⁹thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad.

25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Fēs'tus; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 King Ā-grīp'pa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest.

28 Then Ā-grīp'pa said unto Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Chris'tian.

29 And Paul said, ¹⁰I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and the governor, and Bār-nī'cē, and they that sat with them.

31 And when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, ¹¹This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds.

32 Then said Ā-grīp'pa unto Fēs'tus, This man might have been set at liberty, ¹²if he had not appealed unto Cæ'sar.

to sail by the coasts of Ā'siā; one ¹Ār-is-tār'chus, a Māc-e-dō'n'ian of Thēs-sā-lō-ni'ca, being with us.

3 And the next day we touched at Sī'dōn. And Jū'l'ius ²courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.

4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under Cŷ'prus, because the winds were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed over the sea of Cī-lī'cia and Pām-phŷ'i'a, we came to Mŷ'ra, a city of Lŷ'cia.

6 And there the centurion found a ship of Āl-ēx-ān'drī-a sailing into It'a-l'y; and he put us therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against Cnī'dus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under ³Crēte, over against Sāl-mō'ng;

8 And, hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called The fair havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lā-sē'a.

9 Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, because ⁴the fast was now already past, Paul admonished them,

10 And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with ⁵hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.

11 Nevertheless the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Paul.

12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain ⁶to Phō-ni'cē, and there to winter; which is an haven of Crēte, and lieth toward the south west and north west.

13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crēte.

14 But not long after there ⁷arose against it a tempestuous wind, called ⁸Eū-rōc'lŷ-don.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.

16 And running under a certain island which is called Clau'dā, we had much work to come by the boat.

17 Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, strake sail, and so were driven.

THE ACTS, 28. Paul suffers shipwreck. All come safe to land.

18 And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship;

19 And the third day we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crète, and to have gained this harm and loss.

22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship.

23 For here stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve, 24 Saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Cæsar, and, lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee.

25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me.

26 Howbeit we must be cast upon a certain island.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about midnight the shipmen deemed that they drew near to some country;

28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.

29 Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.

30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the fore-ship, 31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.

32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.

33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have fasted and continued fasting, having taken nothing.

34 Wherefore I pray you to take some meat: for this is for your health: for there shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and gave thanks to God in presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat.

36 Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat.

37 And we were in all in the ship two hundred threescore and sixteen souls.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea.

39 And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship.

40 And when they had taken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoised up the mainsail to the wind, and made toward shore.

41 And falling into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.

42 And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.

43 But the centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose; and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land:

44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, that they escaped all safe to land.

CHAPTER 28.

1 Paul entertained by the barbarians. 8 He healed many diseases in the island.

AND when they were escaped, then they knew that the island was called Melita.

2 And the barbarous people shewed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.

3 And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

4 And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live.

5 And he shook off the beast into the fire, and ^afelt no harm.

6 Howbeit they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and ^asaid that he was a god.

7 In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Pūb'l-lus, who received us, and lodged us three days courteously.

8 And it came to pass, that the father of Pūb'l-lus lay sick of a fever and of a bloody flux: to whom Paul entered in, and ^fprayed, and ^alaid his hands on him, and healed him.

9 So when this was done, others also, which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed:

10 Who also honoured us with many ^ahonours; and when we departed, they laded us with such things as were necessary.

11 And after three months we departed in a ship of Al-ēx-ān'drī-a, which had wintered in the isle, whose sign was Cās'tōr and Pō'lux.

12 And landing at Sŷr'a-cūse, we tarried there three days.

13 And from thence we fetched a compass, and came to Rhē'g-i-un. and after one day the south wind blew, and we came the next day to Pū-tē'o-lī:

14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days: and so we went toward Rōme.

15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Āp'pl-i fō'rūm, and The three taverns whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

16 And when we came to Rōme, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but ^aPaul was suffered to dwell by himself with a soldier that kept him.

17 And it came to pass, that after three days Paul called the chief of the Jew's together: and when they were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, though I have committed nothing against the people, or customs of our fathers, yet was I ^adelivered prisoner from Jē-ry'sā-lēm into the hands of the Rō'mans.

19 But when the Jew's spake against it, ^aI was constrained to appeal unto Cæ'sar; not that I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you because that ^afor the hope of Is'ra-el I am bound with ^athis chain.

21 And they said unto him, We neither received letters out of Jū-dæ'a concerning thee, neither any of the brethren that came shewed or spake any harm of thee.

22 But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know that every where ^ait is spoken against.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging; ^ato whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jē'sus, ^aboth out of the law of Mō'ses, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening.

24 And ^asome believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not.

25 And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, Well spake the Ho'ly Ghōst by E-sā'as the prophet unto our fathers,

26 Saying, ^aGo unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive:

27 ^aFor the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed, lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

28 Be it known therefore unto you, that the salvation of God is sent ^aunto the Gēn'tiles, and that they will hear it.

29 And when he had said these words, the Jew's departed, and had great reasoning among themselves.

30 And Paul dwelt two whole years in his own hired house, and received all that came in unto him, 31 ^aPreaching the kingdom of God, and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jē'sus Christ, with all confidence, no man forbidding him.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE ROMANS.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Paul commendeth his calling, 16 sheweth that the gospel is for the justification of all men through faith. 21 The sins of the Gentiles

PAUL, a servant of Jē'sus Christ, ^acalled to be an apostle, ^bseparated unto the gospel of God, ^c(Which he had promised afore by his prophets in the holy scriptures,)

³Concerning his Son Jē'sus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of Dā'vid according to the flesh;

⁴And ¹declared to be the Son of God with power, according ^dto the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead:

⁵By whom ^ewe have received grace and apostleship, ^ffor obedience to the faith among all nations, ^gfor his name:

⁶Among whom are ye also that called of Jē'sus Christ:

⁷To all that be in Rōme, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jē'sus Christ.

⁸First, ^hI thank my God through Jē'sus Christ for you all, that ⁱyour faith is spoken of throughout the whole world

⁹For God is my witness, whom I serve ^jwith my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers;

¹⁰Making request, if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey ^kby the will of God to come unto you.

¹¹For I long to see you, that ^lI may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established;

¹²That is, that I may be comforted together ^mwith you by the mutual faith both of you and me.

¹³Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that ⁿoftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but ^owas let hitherto,) that I might have some fruit ^pamong you also, even as among other Gēn'tiles.

¹⁴I am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the Bar-bā'rī-ans; both to the wise, and to the unwise.

¹⁵So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rōme also.

¹⁶For ^aI am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for ^bit is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

¹⁷For ^ctherein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, ^dThe just shall live by faith.

¹⁸For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, ^ewho hold the truth in unrighteousness;

¹⁹Because ^fthat which may be known of God is manifest ^gin them; for ^hGod hath shewed it unto them.

²⁰For ⁱthe invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, ^jeven his eternal power and Godhead; ^kso that they are without excuse:

²¹Because that, when they knew God, they glorified ^lhim not as God, ^mneither were thankful; but ⁿbecame vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

²²Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools,

²³And changed the glory of the uncorruptible ^oGod into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things.

²⁴Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, ^pto dishonour their own bodies ^qbetween themselves:

²⁵Who changed ^rthe truth of God ^sinto a lie, and worshipped and served the creature ^tmore than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.

²⁶For this cause God gave them up unto ^uvile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature:

²⁷And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet.

²⁸And even as they did not like ^vto retain God in ^wtheir knowledge, God gave them over to ^xa reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient;

29 Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers,

30 Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,

31 Without understanding, covenantbreakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful

32 Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them.

CHAPTER 2.

They who condemn sin in others and do the like themselves, are inexcusable.

THEREFORE thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things.

2 But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth against them which commit such things.

3 And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God?

4 Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance?

5 But after thy hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God;

6 Who will render to every man according to his deeds.

7 To them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life:

8 But unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath,

9 Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile;

10 But glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile:

11 For there is no respect of persons with God.

12 For as many as have sinned without law shall also perish without law:

and as many as have sinned in the law shall be judged by the law;

13 (For not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.

14 For when the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law unto themselves:

15 Which shew the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts the mean while accusing or else excusing one another;)

16 In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ according to my gospel.

17 Behold, thou art called a Jew, and retest in the law, and makest thy boast of God,

18 And knowest his will, and approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law;

19 And art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness,

20 An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, which hast the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law.

21 Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preacheest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?

22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou commit sacrilege?

23 Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God?

24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as it is written

25 For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the law: but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision

26 Therefore if the uncircumcision keep the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, judge thee, who by the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law?

28 For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:

29 But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter, whose praise is not of men, but of God.

ROMANS, 3, 4. No flesh justified by the law. Justification by faith.

CHAPTER 3.

1 The Jews' prerogative 20 None justified by the law, but all by God's grace

WHAT advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision?

2 Much every way: chiefly, because that unto them were committed the oracles of God.

3 For what if some did not believe? shall their unbelief make the faith of God without effect?

4 God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.

5 But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? (I speak as a man)

6 God forbid: for then how shall God judge the world?

7 For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory; why yet am I also judged as a sinner?

8 And not rather, (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) Let us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just.

9 What then? are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have before proved both Jews and Gēn'tiles, that they are all under sin;

10 As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one:

11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.

12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable: there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

13 Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips:

14 Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness:

15 Their feet are swift to shed blood:

16 Destruction and misery are in their ways:

17 And the way of peace have they not known:

18 There is no fear of God before their eyes.

19 Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

20 Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.

21 But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets;

22 Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jē'sus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference:

23 For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;

27 Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith.

31 Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Abraham justified by faith 18 his faith recorded for those who believe

WHAT shall we say then that A'brā'hām our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?

2 For if A'brā'hām were justified by works, he hath whercof to glory; but not before God.

3 For what saith the scripture? A'brā'hām believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

4 Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

6 Even as Dā'vid also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works,

7 Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.

9 Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to A'brā-hām for righteousness.

10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

11 And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised, that righteousness might be imputed unto them also:

12 And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father A'brā-hām, which he had being yet uncircumcised

13 For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to A'brā-hām, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith

14 For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect:

15 Because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression

16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of A'brā-hām; who is the father of us all,

17 (As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were.

18 Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be.

19 And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sā'rah's womb:

20 He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God, 21 And being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform.

22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.

23 Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him;

24 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him that raised up Jē'sus our Lord from the dead,

25 Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Being justified by faith, we have peace with God.
12 Sin and death came by Adam, 17 righteousness and life by Jesus Christ

THEREFORE being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jē'sus Christ:

2 By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

3 And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also knowing that tribulation worketh patience,

4 And patience, experience; and experience, hope.

5 And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Hōly Ghōst which is given unto us.

6 For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly.

7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die

8 But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

9 Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.

10 For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life.

11 And not only so, but we also joy in God through our Lord Jē'sus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement.

12 Wherefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin, and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned:

13 (For until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law.

14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adām to Mō'ses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adām's transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come.

15 But not as the offence, so also is

ROMANS, 6, 7. Exhortation to holiness. Death the wages of sin.

the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jē'sus Christ, hath abounded ^o unto many.

16 And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.

17 For if ^a by one man's offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jē'sus Christ.)

18 Therefore as ^a by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so ^b by the righteousness of one the free gift came ^r upon all men unto justification of life.

19 For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.

20 Moreover ^r the law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much ^r more abound:

21 That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jē'sus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER 6.

1 We must not live in sin, 12 nor let sin reign in us
WHAT shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

2 God forbid. How shall we, that are ^a dead to sin, live any longer therein?

3 Know ye not, that ^b so many of us as ^a were baptized into Jē'sus Christ ^a were baptized into his death?

4 Therefore we are ^a buried with him by baptism into death: that ^a like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, ^r even so we also should walk in newness of life.

5 ^r For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection:

6 Knowing this, that ^a our old man is crucified with him, that ^a the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.

7 For he that is dead is ^a freed from sin.

8 Now ^r if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him:

9 Knowing that ^a Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him.

12 ^a Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

13 Neither yield ye your members as ^a instruments of unrighteousness unto sin. but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God.

14 For ^a sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

15 What then? shall we sin, ^a because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

16 Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?

17 But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine ^a which was delivered you.

18 Being then ^r made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness.

19 I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness.

20 For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free ^a from righteousness.

21 What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death.

22 But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life.

23 For ^r the wages of sin is death; but ^a the gift of God is eternal life through Jē'sus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER 7.

1 No law hath power over a man longer than he liveth 12 The law is holy.

KNOW ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

2 For ^a the woman which hath an husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband.

Law of sin in our members. Efficacy of divine grace. ROMANS, 8.

3 So then ^aif, while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.

4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become ^adead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be ^amarried to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the ¹motions of sins, which were by the law, did work in our members ^ato bring forth fruit unto death.

6 But now we are delivered from the law, ²that being dead wherein we were held, that we should serve ³in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, ^aI had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known ²lust, except the law had said, ^aThou shalt not covet.

8 But ^asin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For ^awithout the law sin was dead.

9 For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.

10 And the commandment, ²which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death.

11 For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.

12 Wherefore ¹the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.

13 Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good, that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.

14 For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, ^asold under sin.

15 For that which I do I ^aallow not for ^awhat I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.

16 If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it ^{is} good.

17 Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

19 For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do.

20 Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

21 I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me.

22 For I ^adelight in the law of God after ^athe inward man:

23 But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from ^athe body of this death?

25 I thank God through Jēsus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

CHAPTER 8.

¹ Who are free from condemnation ⁵ What have someth of the flesh, ⁶ what good of the Spirit, ¹⁷ and what of being God's child ¹⁸ whose glorious deliverance all things long for, ²⁰ was beforehand decreed from God

THERE is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jēsus, who ^awalk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit

2 For ^athe law of ^athe Spirit of life in Christ Jēsus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.

3 For ^awhat the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and ¹for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:

4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit ^athe things of the Spirit.

6 For ²to be carnally minded is death, but ²to be spiritually minded is life and peace.

7 Because ^athe carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that ^athe Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not ^athe Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.

ROMANS, 9. The efficacy of divine grace. The Christian's hope.

11 But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jē'sus from the dead dwell in you, ^ahe that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies ^bby his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.

13 For ^cif ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God

15 For ^dye have not received the spirit of bondage again ^eto fear; but ye have received the ^fSpirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Ab'ba, Father

16 ^gThe Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God.

17 And if children, then heirs; ^hheirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

18 For I reckon that ⁱthe sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

19 For ^jthe earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the ^kmanifestation of the sons of God.

20 For ^lthe creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope, 21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

22 For we know that ^mthe whole creation ⁿgroaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.

23 And not only they, but ourselves also, which have ^othe firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, ^pwaiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.

24 For we are saved by hope: but ^qhope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for ^rwe know not what we should pray for as we ought: but ^sthe Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

27 And ¹he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, ²because he maketh intercession for the saints ³according to the will of God.

28 And we know that ⁴all things work together for good to them that love God, to them ⁵who are the called according to his purpose.

29 For whom ⁶he did foreknow, ⁷he also did predestinate ⁸to be conformed to the image of his Son, ⁹that he might be the firstborn among many brethren.

30 Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also ¹⁰called: and whom he called, them he also justified: ¹¹and whom he justified, them he also glorified.

31 What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?

32 He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? ¹²*It is* God that justifieth.

34 Who is he that condemneth? ¹³*It is* Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, ¹⁴who also maketh intercession for us.

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? ¹⁵*shall* tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

36 As it is written, ¹⁶*For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.*

37 ¹⁷*Nay*, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor ¹⁸principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall ¹⁹be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jē'sus our Lord.

¹ Paul's sorrow for the Jews. ²⁵ Calling of the Gentiles, and rejection of the Jews, foretold.

I SAY the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Hō'ly Ghōst,

ROMANS, 11.

Salvation open to all believers. God has not for righteousness to every one that believeth.

5 For Mō'ses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, That the man which doeth those things shall live by them.

6 But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down from above:)

7 Or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead)

8 But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach;

9 That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jē'sus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

10 For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

11 For the scripture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

12 For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him.

13 For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For E'sā'ias saith, Lord, who hath believed our report?

17 So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world.

19 But I say, Did not Is'ra-el know? First Mō'ses saith, I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

20 But E-sā'ias is very bold, and saith, I was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me.

21 But to Is'ra-el he saith, All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

CHAPTER 11.

1 A remnant of Israel saved by grace. 17 The Gentiles may not boast against them.

I SAY then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Is'ra-elite, of the seed of A'brā-hām, of the tribe of Bēn-jā-min.

2 God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith of E-l'as? how he maketh intercession to God against Is'ra-el, saying,

3 Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life.

4 But what saith the answer of God unto him? I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Bā'al.

5 Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

6 And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.

7 What then? Is'ra-el hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded.

8 (According as it is written, God hath given them the spirit of slumber, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear,) unto this day.

9 And Dā'vid saith, Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumblingblock, and a recompence unto them:

10 Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back alway.

11 I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but rather through their fall salvation is come unto the Gēn'tiles, for to provoke them to jealousy.

12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gēn'tiles; how much more their fulness?

13 For I speak to you Gēn'tiles, inasmuch as I am the apostle of the Gēn'tiles, I magnify mine office:

14 If by any means I may provoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and might save some of them.

15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?

16 For if ^athe firstfruit be holy, the lump is also holy and if the root be holy, so are the branches.

17 And if ^asome of the branches be broken off, ^aand thou, being a wild olive tree, wert grafted in ^bamong them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree;

18 ^aBoast not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in.

20 Well, because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. ^aBe not highminded, but ^afear:

21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee.

22 Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God: on them which fell, severity, but toward thee, goodness, ^aif thou continue in his goodness: otherwise ^athou also shalt be cut off.

23 And they also, ^aif they abide not still in unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graft them in again.

24 For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree, how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?

25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that ^ablindness in part is happened to Is'ra-el, ^auntil the fulness of the Gen'tiles be come in:

26 And so ^aall Is'ra-el shall be saved. as it is written, ^aThere shall come out of Si'on the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Ja'cob:

27 ^aFor this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins.

28 As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes. but as touching the election, they are ^abeloved for the fathers' sakes.

29 For the gifts and calling of God are ^awithout repentance.

30 For as ye in times past have not ^abelieved God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief:

31 Even so have these also now

Sundry practical duties recommended.

I BESEECH you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye ^apresent your bodies ^aa living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service

2 And ^abe not conformed to this world: but ^abe ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may ^aprove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

3 For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think ^asoberly, according as God hath dealt ^ato every man the measure of faith.

4 For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office:

5 So ^awe, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.

6 ^aHaving then gifts differing ^aaccording to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith;

8 Or ^ahe that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that ^agiveth, let him do it ^awith simplicity; ^ahe that ruleth, with diligence, he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness.

9 ^aLet love be without dissimulation ^aAbhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

LET every soul • be subject unto the higher powers. For • there is no power but of God. the powers that be are • ordained of God.

2 Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.

3 • For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? • do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same:

4 For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.

5 Wherefore • ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake.

6 For for this cause pay ye tribute also. for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

7 • Render therefore to all their dues. tribute to whom tribute is due: custom to whom custom; • fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.

8 Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for • he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law.

3 Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and • let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath received him.

4 • Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up. for God is able to make him stand.

5 • One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be • fully persuaded in his own mind.

6 He that • regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for • he giveth God thanks, and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.

7 For • none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord, and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

9 For • to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be • Lord both of the dead and living.

10 But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at 11 For it is written, * As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.

12 So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.

14 I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jē'sus, * that there is nothing 'unclean of itself' but 'to him that esteemeth any thing to be 'unclean, to him it is unclean.

15 But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not charitably. Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died.

16 Let not then your good be evil spoken of:

17 For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Hō'ly Ghōst.

18 For he that in these things serveth Christ is acceptable to God, and approved of men.

19 Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another 20 For meat destroy not the work of God. * All things indeed are pure, but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence.

21 It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.

22 Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.

23 And he that doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

tience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.

5 Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like-minded one toward another according to Christ Jē'sus:

6 That ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jē'sus Christ.

7 Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God.

8 Now I say that Jē'sus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers.

9 And that the Gēn'tiles might glorify God for his mercy, as it is written, For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gēn'tiles, and sing unto thy name.

10 And again he saith, Rejoice, ye Gēn'tiles, with his people.

11 And again, Praise the Lord, all ye Gēn'tiles; and laud him, all ye people.

12 And again, E-sā'ias saith, There shall be a root of Jē'se, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gēn'tiles; in him shall the Gēn'tiles trust.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Hō'ly Ghōst.

14 And I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.

15 Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, because of the grace that is given to me of God,

16 That I should be the minister of Jē'sus Christ to the Gēn'tiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gēn'tiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Hō'ly Ghōst.

17 I have therefore whereof I may glory through Jē'sus Christ in those things which pertain to God.

18 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gēn'tiles obedient, by word and deed,

19 Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jē-ry'sā-lēm, and round about unto Il-lyr'cūm, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ

20 Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another man's foundation:

ROMANS, 16.

Success of Paul's labors. Divers salutations.

21 But as it is written, To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not heard shall understand.

22 For which cause also I have been much hindered from coming to you.

23 But now having no more place in these parts, and having a great desire these many years to come unto you;

24 Whensoever I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled with your company.

25 But now I go unto Jê-ry'sâ-lêm to minister unto the saints.

26 For it hath pleased them of Mă-c-dô-ni-a and A-chă'ja to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jê-ry'sâ-lêm.

27 It hath pleased them verily; and their debtors they are. For if the Gën'tiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things.

28 Wherefore I have performed this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will come by you into Spain.

29 And I am sure that, when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.

30 Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jê'sus Christ's sake, and for the love of the Spirit, that ye stive together with me in your prayers to God for me;

31 That I may be delivered from them that do not believe in Jü-dæ'a; and that my service which I have for Jê-ry'sâ-lêm may be accepted of the saints;

32 That I may come unto you with joy by the will of God, and may with you be refreshed.

33 Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Exhortation to unity, 11 dissensions reproved.

PAUL, called to be an apostle of Jē'sus Christ through the will of God, and * Sōs'the-nēs our brother,

2 Unto the church of God which is at Cōr'inth, to them that * are sanctified in Christ Jē'sus, * called to be saints, with all that in every place call upon the name of Jē'sus Christ * our Lord, * both theirs and ours

3 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jē'sus Christ.

4 I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jē'sus Christ;

5 That in every thing ye are enriched by him, in all utterance, and in all knowledge;

6 Even as * the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you:

7 So that ye come behind in no gift; waiting for the * coming of our Lord Jē'sus Christ:

8 * Who shall also confirm you unto the end, * that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jē'sus Christ

9 * God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto * the fellowship of his Son Jē'sus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jē'sus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no * divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment.

11 For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chlō's, that there are contentions among you.

12 Now this I say, * that every one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of * A-pōl'lōs; and I of * Cēphas; and I of Christ.

13 * Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul?

14 I thank God that I baptized none of you, but * Cris'pus * and Gā'jus;

15 Lest any should say that I had baptized in mine own name.

16 And I baptized also the household of * Stēph'a-nās: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

17 * For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of * words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the cross is to * them that perish * foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the * power of God.

19 For it is written, * I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

20 * Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath * not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

21 * For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

22 For the * Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom:

23 But we preach Christ crucified, * unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness.

24 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ * the power of God, and * the wisdom of God.

25 * Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

26 For ye see your calling, brethren, how that * not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called:

27 But * God hath chosen the fool-

1 CORINTHIANS, 2, 3.

ish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty;

28 And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and h things which are not, *t*o bring to nought things that are:

29 That no flesh should glory in his presence.

30 But of him are ye in Christ Jēsus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption:

31 That, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

CHAPTER 2.

1 How Paul preached the gospel: & which is God's wise counsel for men's salvation.

AND I, brethren, when I came to you, a came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God.

2 For I determined not to know any thing among you, b save Jēsus Christ, and him crucified.

3 And c I was with you d in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

4 And my speech and my preaching e was not with f enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power.

5 That your faith should not g stand in the wisdom of men, but h in the power of God.

6 Howbeit we speak wisdom among them i that are perfect: yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought.

7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, h which God ordained before the world unto our glory:

8 i Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

9 But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

10 But k God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but a the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

13 a Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Hōly Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

14 b But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: c neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

15 d But he that is spiritual e judgeth all things, yet he himself is f judged of no man.

16 g For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he h may instruct him? i But we have the mind of Christ.

CHAPTER 3.

How Paul dealt with weak believers.

AND I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal even as unto babes in Christ.

2 I have fed you with a milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able b to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 For ye are yet carnal: for where as c there is among you envying, and strife, and d divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk e as men?

4 For while one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of f A-pōl-lōs; are ye not carnal?

5 Who then is Paul, and who is g A-pōl-lōs, but ministers by whom ye believed, h even as the Lord gave to every man?

6 i I have planted, j A-pōl-lōs watered; but God k gave the increase.

7 So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.

8 Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one. l and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.

9 For m we are labourers together with God: ye are n God's husbandry, ye are o God's building.

10 According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid p the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But q let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.

11 For other foundation can no man lay than r that is laid, which is Jēsus Christ.

12 Now if any man build upon this

Christ the only foundation.

foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;

13 Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day 'shall declare it, because it 'shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.

14 If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.

15 If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.

16 Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man 'defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy, for the 'temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.

18 Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, 'He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

20 And again, 'The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

21 Therefore let no man glory in men. For 'all things are yours;

22 Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours;

23 And 'ye are Christ's; 'and Christ is God's.

CHAPTER 4.

How to account of Christ's ministers.

LET a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, 'and stewards of the mysteries of God.

2 Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.

3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's 'judgment: yea, I judge not mine own self.

4 For I know nothing by myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.

5 'Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and 'then shall every man have praise of God.

6 And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and to Apollos for your sakes; 'that ye might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another.

1 CORINTHIANS, 4, 5.

7 For who 'maketh thee to differ from another? and 'what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it?

8 Now ye are full, 'now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.

9 For I think that God hath set forth us 'the apostles last, 'as it were appointed to death: for 'we are made a 'spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.

10 We are 'fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; 'we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honourable, but we are despised.

11 Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are 'buffeted, and have no certain dwellingplace.

12 'And labour, working with our own hands: 'being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it:

13 Being defamed, we intreat: we are made as the filth of the world, and are the offscouring of all things unto this day.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn you.

15 For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for 'in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel.

16 Wherefore I beseech you, 'be ye followers of me.

17 For this cause have I sent unto you Timotheus, 'who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as I teach every where in every church.

18 Now some are puffed up, as though I would not come to you.

19 'But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power.

20 For 'the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.

21 What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness?

CHAPTER 5.

1 Of the incestuous person. 6 Of necessity the old leaven must be purged out.

IT is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much as 'named among the Gen'tiles, 'that one should have his 'father's wife.

2 And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you.

3 For I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed,

4 In the name of our Lord Jē'sus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jē'sus Christ,

5 To deliver such an one unto Sātan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jē'sus.

6 Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?

7 Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us:

8 Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote unto you in an epistle not to company with fornicators:

10 Yet not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters; for then must ye needs go out of the world.

11 But now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no not to eat.

12 For what have I to do to judge them also that are without? do not ye judge them that are within?

13 But them that are without God judgeth. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person.

them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.

5 I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?

6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.

7 Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. Why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?

8 Nay, ye do wrong, and defraud, and that your brethren.

9 Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived. neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,

10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

11 And such were some of you; but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jē'sus, and by the Spirit of our God.

12 All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.

13 Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body.

14 And God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by his own power.

15 Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot? God forbid.

16 What? know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body? for two, saith he, shall be one flesh.

17 But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit.

18 Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body.

19 What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own?

The duties of the married state.

1 CORINTHIANS, 7.

20 For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

CHAPTER 7.

1 The use of marriage 10 Christ hath forbidden to dissolve the bond thereof

NOW concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman.

2 Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

3 Let the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband.

4 The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife.

5 Defraud ye not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinency.

6 But I speak this by permission, and not of commandment.

7 For I would that all men were even as I myself. But every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

8 I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, It is good for them if they abide even as I.

9 But if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.

10 And unto the married I command, yet not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife depart from her husband:

11 But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife.

12 But to the rest speak I, not the Lord: If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.

13 And the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.

14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else were your children unclean: but now are they holy.

15 But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us to peace.

band? or how knowest thou. O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?

17 But as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk. And so ordain I in all churches.

18 Is any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? let him not be circumcised.

19 Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God.

20 Let every man abide in the same calling wherem he was called.

21 Art thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is the Lord's freeman: likewise also he that is called, being free, is Christ's servant.

23 Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men.

24 Brethren, let every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful.

26 I suppose therefore that this is good for the present distress, I say, that it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.

28 But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

29 But this I say, brethren, the time is short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none;

30 And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;

31 And they that use this world, as not abusing it: for the fashion of this world passeth away.

32 But I would have you without carefulness. He that is unmarried careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:

33 But he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.

34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman careth for the things of the 1 CORINTHIANS, 8, 9. Meats offered to idols. Paul's self-denial.

Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

35 And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction.

36 But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry.

37 Nevertheless he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well.

38 ^a So then he that giveth her in marriage doeth well; but he that giveth her not in marriage doeth better.

39 ^a The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord.

40 But she is happier if she so abide, after my judgment; and I think also that I have the Spirit of God.

CHAPTER 8.

Charity preferable to knowledge.

NOW ^a as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have ^b knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth.

2 And ^c if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But if any man love God, ^d the same is known of him.

4 As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that ^e an idol is nothing in the world, ^f and that there is none other God but one.

5 For though there be that are ^g called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many.)

6 But ^h to us there is but one God, the Father, ⁱ of whom are all things, and we ^j in him; and ^k one Lord Jēsus Christ, ^l by whom are all things, and we by him.

7 Howbeit there is not in every man that knowledge: for some with conscience of the idol unto this hour eat it as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled.

the better; neither, if we eat not, ^v are we the worse.

9 But take heed lest by any means this ^w liberty of yours become a stumblingblock to them that are weak.

10 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak be ^x emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols;

11 And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died?

12 But ^y when ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ.

13 Wherefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend.

CHAPTER 9.

¹ Paul asserteth his apostolical character. ² Life compared to a race.

AM I not an apostle? am I not ^a free? have ^b I not seen Jēsus Christ our Lord? are not ye my work in the Lord?

2 If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for ^c the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord.

3 Mine answer to them that do examine me is this,

4 ^d Have we not power to eat and to drink?

5 Have we not power to lead about a sister, a ^e wife, as well as other apostles, and ^f as ^g the brethren of the Lord, and ^h Cēphas?

6 Or I only and Bar'na-bās, ⁱ have not we power to forbear working?

7 Who ^j goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? who ^k planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who ^l feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

8 Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also?

9 For it is written in the law of Mō'ses, ^m Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen?

10 Or saith he ⁿ altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, ^o this is written: that ^p he that ploweth should plow in hope; and that he that thresheth in hope should be partaker of his hope.

11 ^q If we have sown unto you spiritual things, ^r is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things?

12 If others be partakers of ^s this power over you, ^t are not we rather? ^u Nevertheless we have not used this power; but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.

1 CORINTHIANS, 10.

13 Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar?

14 Even so hath the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel.

15 But I have used none of these things: neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for it were better for me to die, than that any man should make my glorying void.

16 For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!

17 For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, a dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me.

18 What is my reward then? Verily that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I abuse not my power in the gospel.

19 For though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more.

20 And unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews, to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law;

21 To them that are without law, as without law, (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law;

22 To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.

23 And this I do for the gospel's sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

24 Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain.

25 And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible.

26 I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air:

27 But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached

1 The Jews had sacraments typical of ours. Christians must not lust after evil things.

MOREOVER, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea;

2 And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea;

3 And did all eat the same spiritual meat;

4 And did all drink the same spiritual drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and that Rock was Christ.

5 But with many of them God was not well pleased: for they were overthrown in the wilderness.

6 Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted.

7 Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

8 Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand.

9 Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed of serpents.

10 Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer.

11 Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples, and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come.

12 Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.

13 There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

14 Wherefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry.

15 I speak as to wise men; judge ye what I say.

16 The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?

17 For we being many are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread.

18 Behold, is'ra-el after the flesh:

1 CORINTHIANS, 11. To flee idolatry. Rules for divine worship.

are not they which eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar?

19 What say I then? that the idol is any thing, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing?

20 But I say, that the things which the Gēn'tiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils.

21 Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils.

22 Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? are we stronger than he?

23 All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not.

24 Let no man seek his own, but every man another's wealth.

25 Whatsoever is sold in the shambles, that eat, asking no question for conscience sake:

26 For the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof.

27 If any of them that believe not bid you to a feast, and ye be disposed to go; whatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake.

28 But if any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols, eat not for his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake: for the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof:

29 Conscience, I say, not thine own, but of the other: for why is my liberty judged of another man's conscience?

30 For if I by grace be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that for which I give thanks?

31 Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.

32 Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gēn'tiles, nor to the church of God:

33 Even as I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

man; and the head of Christ is God.

4 Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head.

5 But every woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered dishonoureth her head: for that is even all one as if she were shaven.

6 For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.

7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.

8 For the man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man.

9 Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man.

10 For this cause ought the woman to have power on her head because of the angels.

11 Nevertheless neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord.

12 For as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also by the woman; but all things of God.

13 Judge in yourselves: is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered?

14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?

15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering.

16 But if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God.

17 Now in this that I declare unto you I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse.

18 For first of all, when ye come together in the church, I hear that there be divisions among you; and I partly believe it.

19 For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eat the Lord's supper.

21 For in eating every one taketh before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and another is drunken.

22 What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the church of God, and shame them that have not? What shall

I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 For * I have received of the Lord tha, which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jē'sus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread:

24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do * in remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is * the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, * ye do shew the Lord's death * till he come.

27 * Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 But * let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

29 For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh ¹⁰ damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.

30 For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.

31 For * if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

32 But when we are judged * we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another.

34 And if any man hunger, let him eat at home; that ye come not together unto ¹¹ condemnation. And the rest * will I set in order when * I come.

CHAPTER 12.

Spiritual gifts are divers.

NOW * concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant.

2 Ye know * that ye were Gēn'tiles, carried away unto these dumb idols, even as ye were led.

3 Wherefore I give you to understand, * that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jē'sus ¹ accursed: and * that no man can say that Jē'sus is the Lord, but by the Hō'ly Ghost.

4 Now * there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit.

5 And there are differences of ² administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God * which worketh all in all.

7 * But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal.

8 For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit;

9 * To another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit;

10 * To another the working of miracles; to another * prophecy; * to another discerning of spirits; to another * divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues:

11 But all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing to every man severally * as he will.

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: * so also is Christ.

13 For * by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, * whether we be Jews or * Gēn'tiles, whether we be bond or free; and * have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

14 For the body is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body, is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary:

23 And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we * bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.

24 For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more

1 CORINTHIANS, 13, 14. Praises of love. Prophecy is preferred abundant honour to that part which lacked:

25 That there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another.

26 And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it.

27 Now we are the body of Christ, and members in particular.

28 And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues.

29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles?

30 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?

31 But covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.

CHAPTER 13.

1 All gifts, however excellent, are nothing without charity: 4 the praises thereof

THOUGH I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

2 And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.

3 And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,

5 Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;

6 Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;

7 Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

8 Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

13 And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

CHAPTER 14.

1 Prophecy commended, 2 and preferred before speaking with tongues.

FOLLOW after charity, and desire spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may prophesy.

2 For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.

3 But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.

4 He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church.

5 I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying.

6 Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?

7 And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?

8 For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle?

9 So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air.

10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification.

11 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me.

12 Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church.

13 Wherefore let him that speaketh to gift of tongues. Use of each is taught. 1 CORINTHIANS, 15.

in an unknown tongue pray that 'he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: 'I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing * with the understanding also.

16 Else when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say Amen 'at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all:

19 Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

20 Brethren, * be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice * be ye children, but in understanding be 'men.

21 * In the law it is * written, With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.

23 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, * will they not say that ye are mad?

24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all.

25 And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest, and so falling down on his face he will worship God, and report * that God is in you of a truth.

26 How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, * hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. 'Let all things be done unto edifying.

27 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church;

CHAPTER 15.

By Christ's resurrection the apostle inferreth the necessity of our resurrection

MOREOVER, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and * wherein ye stand;

2 * By which also ye are saved, if ye ¹ keep in memory ² what I preached unto you, unless * ye have believed in vain.

3 For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins * according to the scriptures,

4 And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day * according to the scriptures:

5 * And that he was seen of Cēphas, then * of the twelve:

6 After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.

7 After that, he was seen of Jāmes; then * of all the apostles.

1 CORINTHIANS, 15. Of Christ's resurrection. The manner of 8 ⁴ And last of all he was seen of me also, as of ⁵ one born out of due time.

9 For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because ⁷ I persecuted the church of God.

10 But ⁸ by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but ⁹ I laboured more abundantly than they all: ¹⁰ yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

11 Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, ¹⁴ then is Christ not risen:

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.

15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.

16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised:

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ¹⁸ ye are yet in your sins.

18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished.

19 If ²⁰ in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

20 But now ²¹ is Christ risen from the dead, and become ²² the firstfruits of them that slept.

21 For ²³ since by man came death, by ²⁴ man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Ad'am all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

23 But ²⁵ every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming.

24 Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up ²⁶ the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.

25 For he must reign, ²⁷ till he hath put all enemies under his feet.

26 ²⁸ The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.

27 For he ²⁹ hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him.

subdued unto him, then ³¹ shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

29 Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?

30 And ³² why stand we in jeopardy every hour?

31 I protest by ³³ your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jē'sus our Lord, ³⁴ I die daily.

32 If ³⁵ after the manner of men ³⁶ I have fought with beasts at Ephē'stis, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? ³⁷ let us eat and drink; for to morrow we die.

33 Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners.

34 ³⁸ Awake to righteousness, and sin not; ³⁹ for some have not the knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, ⁴⁰ How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?

36 Thou fool, ⁴¹ that which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die:

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain.

38 But ⁴² God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.

42 ⁴³ So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption:

43 ⁴⁴ It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:

44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

45 And so it is written, The first man Ad'am ⁴⁶ was made a living soul; ⁴⁷ the last Ad'am was made ⁴⁸ a quickening spirit.

46 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.

47 The first man is of the earth, *ea*thy: the second man is the Lord from heaven.

48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

49 And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I shew you a mystery; we shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, 52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

55 O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?

56 The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law.

57 But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jē'sus Christ.

58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

8 But I will tarry at Eph'e-sūs until Pēn'te-cōst.

9 For a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries.

10 Now if Tī-mō'the-ūs come, see that he may be with you without fear: for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do.

11 Let no man therefore despise him: but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren.

12 As touching our brother J. Ā-pōl-lōs, I greatly desired him to come unto you with the brethren: but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he shall have convenient time.

13 Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong.

14 Let all your things be done with charity.

15 I beseech you, brethren, (ye know the house of Stēph'a-nās, that it is the firstfruits of Ā-chā'jā, and that they have addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints.)

16 That ye submit yourselves unto such, and to every one that helpeth with us, and laboureth.

17 I am glad of the coming of Stēph'a-nās and Fōr-tū-nā'tus and Ā-chā'i-eus: for that which was lacking on your part they have supplied.

18 For they have refreshed my spirit and yours: therefore acknowledge ye them that are such.

19 The churches of Ā'sja salute you. Ā-quī-la and Prī-s-cī-l-a salute you much in the Lord, with the church that is in their house.

20 All the brethren greet you. Greet ye one another with an holy kiss.

21 The salutation of me Pāul with mine own hand.

22 If any man love not the Lord Jē'sus Christ, let him be An-āth'-ē-mā Mar'ān-ā'tha.

23 The grace of our Lord Jē'sus Christ be with you.

24 My love be with you all in Christ Jē'sus. Amen.

The first epistle to the Cō-rinth'ians was written from Phī-lip'pi by Stēph'a-nās, and Fōr-tū-nā'tus, and Ā-chā'i-eus, and Tī-mō'the-ūs.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

The apostle encourageth against troubles: 13 sheweth the sincerity of his preaching.

PAUL, an apostle of Jē'sus Christ by the will of God, and Tim'o-thy our brother, unto the church of God which is at Cōr'inth, with all the saints which are in all Ā-chā'ja: 2 Grace be to you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jē'sus Christ.

3 Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jē'sus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort;

4 Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God.

5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ.

6 And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.

7 And our hope of you is steadfast, knowing, that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

8 For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Ā'sja, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life:

9 But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead:

10 Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us;

11 Ye also helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

12 For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward.

13 For we write none other things unto you, than what ye read or acknowledge; and I trust ye shall acknowledge even to the end;

14 As also ye have acknowledged us in part, that we are your rejoicing, even as ye also are ours in the day of the Lord Jē'sus.

15 And in this confidence I was minded to come unto you before, that ye might have a second benefit;

16 And to pass by you into Māc-g-dōn'a, and to come again out of Māc-g-dōn'a unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Jū-dæ'a.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I use lightness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be yea yea, and nay nay?

18 But as God is true, our word toward you was not yea-and nay.

19 For the Son of God, Jē'sus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me and Sil-vā'nus and Timō'the-its, was not yea and nay, but in him was yea.

20 For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us.

21 Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and hath anointed us, is God;

22 Who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

23 Moreover I call God for a record upon my soul, that to spare you I came not as yet unto Cōr'inth.

24 Not for that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for by faith ye stand.

CHAPTER 2.

The reasons of Paul's not coming unto them. 6 Of the excommunicated person.

BUT I determined this with myself, that I would not come again to you in heaviness.

2 For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me?

3 And I wrote this same unto you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

4 For out of much affliction and Excommunicated person to be forgiven. 2 CORINTHIANS, 3, 4.

gush of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; not ^a that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

5 But ^a if any have caused grief, he hath not ^a grieved me, but in part: that I may not overcharge you all.

6 Sufficient to such a man is this ¹ punishment, which was inflicted ¹ of many.

7 ^a So that contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.

8 Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love toward him.

9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it ² in the person of Christ;

11 Lest ^a Sā'tan should get an advantage of us. for we are not ignorant of his devices.

12 Furthermore, ^a when I came to Trōās to preach Christ's gospel, and ^a door was opened unto me of the Lord, 13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Tītus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Māc-e-dō'n-i-a.

14 Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.

15 For we are unto God ^a sweet savour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that perish:

16 To the one we ^a are the savour of death unto death; and to the other the savour of life unto life. And who is sufficient for these things?

17 For we are not as many, which ^a corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we ^a in Christ.

ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not ^a in tables of stone, but ^a in fleshy tables of the heart.

4 And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward:

5 ^a Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but ^a our sufficiency is of God;

6 Who also hath made us able ministers of ^a the new testament; not ^a of the letter, but of the spirit: for ^a the letter killeth, ^a but the spirit ¹ giveth life.

7 But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Is'ra-el could notwithstanding behold the face of Mō'ses for the glory of his countenance; which glory was to be done away:

8 How shall not ^a the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious?

9 For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration ^a of righteousness exceed in glory.

10 For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.

11 For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.

12 Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great ^a plainness of speech:

13 And not as Mō'ses, ^a which put a veil over his face, that the children of Is'ra-el could not stedfastly look to ^a the end of that which is abolished:

14 But ^a their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same veil untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which veil is done away in Christ.

15 But even unto this day, when Mō'ses is read, the veil is upon their heart.

16 Nevertheless ^a when it shall turn to the Lord, ^a the veil shall be taken away.

17 Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

18 But we all, with open face beholding ^a as in a glass the glory of the Lord, ^a are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as ^a by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAPTER 4.

¹ Paul's unwearied diligence and zeal in preaching ¹ his troubles for the same.

THEREFORE seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not;

2 But have renounced the hidden things of ¹ dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, ^a nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

3 But if our gospel be hid, ^a it is hid to them that are lost:

4 In whom ^a the god of this world ^a hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, ^a who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

5 For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jē'sus the Lord; and ^a ourselves your servants for Jē'sus' sake.

6 For God, ^a who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, ^a hath ^a shined in our hearts, to give ^a the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jē'sus Christ.

7 But we have this treasure in ^a earthen vessels, ^a that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

8 We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but ^a not in despair;

9 Persecuted, but not forsaken: cast down, but not destroyed;

10 ^a Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jē'sus, ^a that the life also of Jē'sus might be made manifest in our body.

11 For we which live are always delivered unto death for Jē'sus' sake, that the life also of Jē'sus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

12 So then death worketh in us, but life in you.

13 We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, ^a I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;

14 Knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jē'sus shall raise up us also by Jē'sus, and shall present us with you.

15 For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God.

16 For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.

17 For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

18 While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

CHAPTER 5.

Paul, in assured hope of immortal glory, laboureth to approve himself to Christ.

FOR we know that if ^a our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have ^a a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 For in this ^a we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven:

3 If so be that ^a being clothed we shall not be found naked.

4 For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but ^a clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

5 Now ^a he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also ^a hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:

7 (For ^a we walk by faith, not by sight:)

8 We are confident, I say, and ^a willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

9 Wherefore we ^a labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.

10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; ^a that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory ^a in appearance, and not in heart.

13 For ^a whether we be beside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause.

14 For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that ^a if one died for all, then were all dead:

15 And that he died for all, ^a that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.

16 ^a Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after Paul's faithful ministry.

the flesh, ° yet now henceforth know we him no more.

17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, ° he is a new creature: ° old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

18 And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jēsus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;

19 To wit, that ° God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath ° committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then we are ° ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

21 For ° he hath made him to be sin for us, who ° knew no sin; that we might be made ° the righteousness of God in him.

CHAPTER 6.

the ministry. alters

WE then, as ° workers together with him, beseech you also ° that ye receive not the grace of God in vain.

2 (For he saith, ° I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.)

3 ° Giving no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed:

4 But in all things ° approving ourselves ° as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 In stripes, in imprisonments, ° in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings;

6 By pureness, by knowledge, by longsuffering, by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by love unfeigned,

7 By the word of truth, by ° the power of God, by ° the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,

8 By honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, and yet true;

9 As unknown, and ° yet well known; ° as dying, and, behold, we live; ° as chastened, and not killed;

10 As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things

CHAPTER 7.

1 He exhorteth to purity of life.
source of his comfort in a

HAVING ° therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man.

3 I speak not this to condemn you: for I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die and live with you.

4 Great is my boldness of speech toward you, ° great is my glorying of you: ° I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.

5 For, ° when we were come into Mæ-g-lō-ni-a, our flesh had no rest, but we ° were troubled on every side; ° without were fightings, within were fears.

6 Nevertheless ° God, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Tītus;

7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; so that I rejoiced the more.

8 For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, ° though I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season.

9 Now I rejoice, not that ye were

2 CORINTHIANS, 8.

Liberality of the Macedonians.

made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry ¹ after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.

10 For ¹godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: ¹but the sorrow of the world worketh death.

11 For behold this selfsame thing, that ye ¹sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.

12 Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.

13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because his spirit ¹was refreshed by you all.

14 For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed, but as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, when I made before Titus, is found a truth.

15 And his ¹inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembereth ¹the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him.

16 I rejoice therefore that ¹I have confidence in you in all things.

CHAPTER 8.

¹ He stirreth them up to contribute to the saints: 16 he commendeth Titus and others.

MOREOVER, brethren, ¹we do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia;

2 How that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and ¹their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their ¹liberality.

3 For to their power, I bear record, yea, and beyond their power they were willing of themselves;

4 Praying us with much intreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us ¹the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.

5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first ¹gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God.

6 Insomuch that ¹we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same ¹grace also.

7 Therefore, as ¹ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see ¹that ye abound in this grace also.

8 ¹I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, ¹that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.

10 And herein ¹I give my advice: for ¹this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be ¹forward a year ago.

11 Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have.

12 For ¹if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 For I mean not that other men be eased, and ye burdened:

14 But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality:

15 As it is written, ¹He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack.

16 But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.

17 For indeed he accepted the exhortation; but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you.

18 And we have sent with him ¹the brother, whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches;

19 And not that only, but who was also ¹chosen of the churches to travel with us with this ¹grace, which is administered by us ¹to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind.

20 ¹Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us:

21 ¹Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which ¹I have in you.

23 Whether any do enquire of Titus.

Exhortation to liberality and almsgiving. 2 CORINTHIANS, 9, 10.

tus, he is my partner and fellow-helper concerning you: or our brethren be enquired of, they are * the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ.

24 Wherefore shew ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our boasting on your behalf.

CHAPTER 9.

¹ He sheweth why he sent the brethren, & and stirrath them up to give bountifully, as a likely means to increase their store.

FOR as touching * the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you:

2 For I know * the forwardness of your mind, * for which I boast of you to them of Măc-e-dō'nī-a, that * Ā-chā'jā was ready a year ago; and your zeal hath provoked very many.

3 * Yet have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf; that, as I said, ye may be ready:

4 Lest haply if they of Măc-e-dō'nī-a come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your ¹ bounty, ² whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness.

6 ¹ But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.

7 Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give, * not grudgingly, or of necessity: for * God loveth a cheerful giver.

8 * And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work:

9 (As it is written, ¹ He hath dispersed abroad; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness remaineth for ever.

10 Now he that * ministereth seed to the sower both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your ¹ righteousness;)

11 Being enriched in every thing to all * bountifulness, * which causeth through us thanksgiving to God.

12 For the administration of this service not only supplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God;

CHAPTER 10.

He wisheth for no cause to exert his spiritual power and authority.

NOW * I Paul myself beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who ¹ in presence am base among you, but being absent am hold toward you:

2 But I beseech you, * that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, wherewith I think to be bold against some, which * think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.

3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh:

4 (* For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty * through God * to the pulling down of strong holds;)

5 * Casting down * imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;

6 ¹ And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when * your obedience is fulfilled.

7 Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? * If any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are * we Christ's.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed:

9 That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.

10 For his letters, * say they, are weighty and powerful; but * his bodily presence is weak, and his * speech contemptible.

11 Let such an one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present.

12 ¹ For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, * are not wise.

2 CORINTHIANS, 11.

Paul excuses his self-boasting.

13 But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the 'rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.

14 For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you: *"*for we are come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ:

15 Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, *"*of other men's labours, but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be *"*enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly, 16 To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's *"*line of things made ready to our hand.

17 *"*But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

4 For if he that cometh preacheth another Jē'sus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or *"*another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear *"*with him.

5 For I suppose I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles.

6 But though I be rude in speech, yet not *"*in knowledge; but we have been thoroughly made manifest among you in all things.

weak? who is offended, and I burn not?

30 If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities.

31 The God and Father of our Lord Jé'sus Christ, ^a which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not.

32 ^a In Dā-mās-cēnes the governor under Ār'e-tas the king kept the city of the Dām'as-cēnes with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me:

33 And through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

CHAPTER 12.

¹ He chooseth to commend his apostleship, not by revelations, ² but by his infirmities, ³ blaming them for forcing this boasting

IT is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. ¹ I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

2 I knew a man ^a in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such an one ^a caught up to the third heaven.

3 And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body,
I cannot tell: God knoweth;)

4 How that he was caught up into ^a paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not ^a lawful for a man to utter.

5 Of such an one will I glory: ^a yet of myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities.

6 For ^a though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.

7 And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me ^a a thorn in the flesh, ^a the messenger of Sā'tan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

8 ^a For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me,

9 And he said unto me, ^a My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, ^a that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

10 Therefore ^a I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: ^a for when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I am become a fool in glorying;
ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you:
for ^a in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing.

12 ^a Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

13 ^a For what is it wherein ye were inferior to other churches, except it be that ^a I myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me this wrong.

14 ^a Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for ^a I seek not yours, but you: ^a for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 And ^a I will very gladly spend and be spent for ^a you; though ^a the more abundantly I love you, the less
I be loved.

16 But be it so, ^a I did not burden you: nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile.

17 ^a Did I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you?

18 ^a I desired Ti'tus, and with him I sent a brother. Did Ti'tus make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

19 ^a Again, think ye that we excuse ourselves unto you? ^a we speak before God in Christ: ^a but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edi-fying.

20 For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would,
and that ^a I shall be found unto you such as ye would not: lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings,
tumults:

21 And lest, when I come again, my God ^a will humble me among you, and that I shall bewail many which have sinned already, and have not repent of the uncleanness and ^a fornication and lasciviousness which they have committed.

CHAPTER 13.

ing to you. ^a In the mouth of time; and being absent now I write sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, I will not spare:

3 Since ye seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty in you.

4 For though he was crucified through weakness, yet he liveth by the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you.

5 Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that Jē'sus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?

6 But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

7 Now I pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that which is honest, though we be as reprobates.

8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE GALATIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Paul's salutation. 6 he wondereth that they had so soon left the truth

PAUL, an apostle, (not of men, neither by man, but by Jē'sus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead.)

2 And all the brethren which are with me, unto the churches of Gālātja:

3 Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jē'sus Christ,

4 Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father:

5 To whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

6 I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:

7 Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

8 But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.

9 As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

10 For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.

11 But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man.

12 For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jē'sus Christ.

13 For ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and wasted it:

14 And profited in the Jews' religion above many my equals in mine own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers

15 But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace,

16 To reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood:

17 Neither went I up to Jē-ry'sā-lēm to them which were apostles before me; but I went into A-rā-bi-ā, and returned again unto Dā-mās'cus.

18 Then after three years I went up to Jē-ry'sā-lēm to see Pē'tēr, and abode with him fifteen days.

19 But other of the apostles saw I none, save ^a Jāmes the Lord's brother.

20 Now the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I lie not.

21 ^a Afterwards I came into the regions of Sŷr'la and Ćl-l'ċja;

22 And was unknown by face unto the churches of Jū-dæ'a which were in Christ:

23 But they had heard only, That he which persecuted us in times past now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed.

24 And they glorified God in me.

CHAPTER 2.

¹ He sheweth when and for what purpose he went up to Jerusalem. ¹⁴ Of justification by faith, and not by works

THEN fourteen years after ^a I went up again to Jē-ry'sā-lēm with Bar'na-bās, and took Ti'tus with me also.

2 And I went up by revelation, ^b and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Ġēn'tiles, but ^c privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means ^d I should run, or had run, in vain.

3 But neither Ti'tus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised.

4 And that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our ^e liberty which we have in Christ Jē'sus, ^f that they might bring us into bondage:

5 To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you

6 But of these ^g who seemed to be somewhat, (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me. ^h God accepteth no man's person:) for they who seemed to be somewhat in ⁱ conference added nothing to me.

7 But contrariwise, ^j when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision ^k was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Pe'tēr;

8 (For he that wrought effectually in Pe'tēr to the apostleship of the circumcision, ^l the same was mighty in me toward the Ġēn'tiles)

9 And when Jāmes, Ćē'phas, and Jōhn, who seemed to be ^m pillars, perceived ⁿ the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Bar'na-bās the right hands of fellowship, that we ^o should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.

10 Only ^p they would that we should remember the poor; ^q the same which I also was forward to do.

11 ^r But when Pe'tēr was come to An'ti-ōch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certain came from Jāmes, ^a he did eat with the Ġēn'tiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Bar'na-bās also was carried away with their dissimulation.

14 But when I saw that they walked not ^b uprightly according to ^c the truth of the gospel, I said unto Pe'tēr before them all, ^d If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Ġēn'tiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Ġēn'tiles to live as do the Jews?

15 ^e We who are Jews by nature, and not ^f sinners of the Ġēn'tiles, 16 ^g Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but ^h by the faith of Jē'sus Christ, even we have believed in Jē'sus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for ⁱ by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

17 But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found ^j sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? God forbid.

18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor

19 For I ^k through the law ^l am dead to the law, that I might ^m live unto God.

20 I am ⁿ crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live, yet not I, but Christ liveth in me. and the life which I now live in the flesh ^o I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

21 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for ^p if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.

CHAPTER 3.

¹ He asked what moved them to depend on the law, having received the Spirit through faith. ⁶ Abraham being justified by faith, so they who are of faith inherit his blessing

O FOOLISH Gā-lā'tjans, ^a who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, ^b before whose eyes Jē'sus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

2 This only would I learn of you, Received ye ^c the Spirit by the works of the law, ^d or by the hearing of faith?

GALATIANS, 4. Of justification by faith. All believers justified.

3 Are ye so foolish? ^a having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by ^f the flesh?

4 ^a Have ye suffered ¹ so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain.

5 He therefore ^a that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

6 Even as A'brā-hām believed God, and it was ^a accounted to him for righteousness.

7 Know ye therefore that ^a they which are of faith, the same are the children of A'brā-hām.

8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto A'brā-hām, saying, ^a In thee shall all nations be blessed.

9 So then they which be of faith are bless'd with faithful A'brā-hām.

10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, ^a Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

11 But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, ^a The just shall live by faith.

12 And ^a the law is not of faith: but, ^a The man that doeth them shall live in them.

13 Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, ^a Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree:

14 ^a That the blessing of A'brā-hām might come on the Gēn'tiles through Jē'sus Christ; that we might receive ^a the promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; ^a Though it be but a man's ^a covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto.

16 Now to A'brā-hām and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is ^a Christ.

17 And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, ^a which was four hundred and thirty years after, can not disannul, ^a that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if ^a the inheritance be of the law, ^a it is no more of promise: but God gave it to A'brā-hām by promise.

19 Wherefore then serveth the law? ^a It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ^a ordained by angels in the hand ^a of a mediator.

20 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, ^a but God is one.

21 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.

22 But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jē'sus Christ might be given to them that believe.

23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.

29 And ^a if ye be Christ's, then are ye A'brā-hām's seed, and ^a heirs according to the promise.

CHAPTER 4.

¹ The Jews were for a while under the law, 4 but Christ came to redeem, and to give both to Jews and Gentiles the adoption of sons.

NOW I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all;

2 But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father.

3 Even so we, when we were children, ^a were in bondage under the ¹ elements of the world:

4 But ^a when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, ^a made of a woman, ^a made under the law,

5 ^a To redeem them that were under the law, ^a that we might receive the adoption of sons.

6 And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Ab'ba, Father.

7 Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; ^a and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.

8 Howbeit then, ^a when ye knew not God, ⁴ye did service unto them which by nature are no gods.

9 But now, ¹after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, ²how turn ye ³again to ⁴the weak and beggarly ⁵elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage?

10 ¹Ye observe days, and months, and times, and years.

11 I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

12 Brethren, I beseech you, be as ¹I am; for I am as ye are: ye have not injured me at all.

13 Ye know how ¹through infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you ²at the first.

14 And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me ¹as an angel of God, ²even as Christ Jē'sus.

15 ¹Where is then the blessedness ye spake of? for I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

17 They ¹zealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude ²you, that ye might affect them.

18 But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.

19 My ¹little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you, 20 I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for ¹I stand in doubt of you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law?

22 For it is written, that A'brā'hām had two sons, ¹the one by a bondmaid, ²the other by a freewoman.

23 But he who was of the bondwoman ¹was born after the flesh; ²but he of the freewoman was by promise.

24 Which things are an allegory: for these are the two ¹covenants; the one from the mount ²Sī'nāi, which gendereth to bondage, which is A'gar.

25 For this A'gar is mount Sī'nāi in A-rā'bīa, and ¹answereth to Jē-ru'sā-lēm which now is, and is in bondage with her children.

26 But ¹Jē-ru'sā-lēm which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.

27 For it is written, ¹Rejoice, thou

28 Now we, brethren, as ¹I'saac was, are ²the children of promise.

29 But as then ¹he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so it is now.

30 Nevertheless what saith ¹the scripture? Cast out the bondwoman and her son: for ²the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman.

31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman, but of the free.

CHAPTER 5.

1 He moveth them to maintain their Christian liberty, 8 and not to observe circumcision, 13 but rather love one another

STAND fast therefore in ¹the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again ²with the yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that ¹if ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.

3 For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, ¹that he is a debtor to do the whole law.

4 ¹Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ²ye are fallen from grace.

5 For we through the Spirit ¹wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.

6 For ¹in Jē'sus Christ neither circumcision avaleth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but ²faith which worketh by love.

7 Ye ¹did run well; ²who did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth?

8 This persuasion cometh not of him that calleth you.

9 A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.

10 ¹I have confidence in you through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but ²he that troubleth you ³shall bear his judgment, whosoever he be.

11 ¹And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, ²why do I yet suffer persecution? then is ³the offence of the cross ceased.

12 ¹I would they were even cut off ²which trouble you.

13 For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only ¹use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another.

14 For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; 'Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

GALATIANS, 6.

15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

16 This I say then, * Walk in the Spirit, and * ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.

17 For * the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: * so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

18 But * if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

19 Now * the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these: Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness,

20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies,

21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that * they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

22 But * the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, * gentleness, goodness, * faith, 23 Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.

24 And they that are Christ's * have crucified the flesh with the * affections and lusts.

25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

26 Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

CHAPTER 6.

1 He willeth them to reform the faulty with gentleness, and to bear one another's burdens: & to be liberal to their teachers

BRETHREN, ¹ if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye * which are spiritual, restore such an one ² in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, * lest thou also be tempted.

2 * Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil * the law of Christ.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE EPHESIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

1 He bleaseth God for spiritual blessings, 7 and for redemption by his grace.

PAUL, an apostle of Jē'sus Christ by the will of God, to the saints which are at Ēph'ē-sūs, * and to the faithful in Christ Jē'sus :

2 ^b Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jē'sus Christ.

3 * Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jē'sus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly ¹ places in Christ :

4 According as * he hath chosen us in him * before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love :

5 * Having predestinated us unto ^a the adoption of children by Jē'sus Christ to himself, * according to the good pleasure of his will,

6 To the praise of the glory of his grace, * wherein he hath made us accepted in ^{the} beloved.

7 * In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to ^a the riches of his grace ;

8 Wherein he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence ;

9 * Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure * which he hath purposed in himself :

10 That in the dispensation of ^a the fulness of times * he might gather together in one * all things in Christ, both which are in ^a heaven, and which are on earth ; even in him :

11 * In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to ^a the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will -

12 * That we should be to the praise of his glory, * who first ^a trusted in Christ.

13 In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation : in whom also after that ye believed, * ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, 14 * Which is the earnest of our inheritance * until the redemption of ^a the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.

CHAPTER 2.

1 What the Ephesians' state was - 4 God's mercy to their deliverance.

AND ^a you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins ;

2 * Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in ^a the children of disobedience :

3 ^a Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in ^a the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling ¹ the desires of the flesh and of the mind ; and we were by nature the children of wrath, even as others.

4 But God, * who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,

5 ^a Even when we were dead in sins, hath ^a quickened us together with Christ, (^a by grace ye are saved :)

6 And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jē'sus :

EPHESIANS, 3. The effects of grace. Salvation of the non-Jews.

7 That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jē'sus.

8 For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:

9 Not of works, lest any man should boast.

10 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jē'sus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

11 Wherefore remember, that ye being in time past Gēn'tiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands;

12 That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Is'ra-el, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world.

13 But now in Christ Jē'sus ye who sometimes were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ.

14 For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us, 15 Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace.

16 And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby:

17 And came and preached peace to you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh.

18 For through him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father.

19 Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the household of God;

20 And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jē'sus Christ himself being the chief corner stone;

21 In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord:

22 In whom ye also are built together for an habitation of God through the Spirit.

2 If ye have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God which is given me to you-ward:

3 How that by revelation he made known unto me the mystery; (as I wrote afore in few words,

4 Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ)

5 Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit;

6 That the Gēn'tiles should be fellowheirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel:

7 Whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by the effectual working of his power.

8 Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gēn'tiles the unsearchable riches of Christ;

9 And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jē'sus Christ:

10 To the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God,

11 According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jē'sus our Lord:

12 In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him.

13 Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory.

14 For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jē'sus Christ, 15 Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named,

16 That he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man;

17 That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love,

18 May be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height;

19 And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God.

20 Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us,

21 * Unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jē'sus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

CHAPTER 4.

1 He exhorted to unity: 24 to put on the new man: 25 to cast off lying, 29 corrupt communication, 31 and all bitterness.

I THEREFORE, the prisoner ¹ of the Lord, beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called,

2 * With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love;

3 Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit ⁴ in the bond of peace.

4 * There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling;

5 * One Lord, one faith, ⁵ one baptism,

6 * One God and Father of all, who is above all, and ⁶ through all, and in you all.

7 But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

8 Wherefore he saith, ⁸ When he ascended up on high, ⁹ he led ¹⁰ captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.

9 * (Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?

10 He that descended is the same also ¹¹ that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might ¹² fill all things.)

11 * And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers;

12 For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, ¹³ for the edifying of ¹⁴ the body of Christ:

13 Till we all come ¹⁵ in the unity of the faith, ¹⁶ and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the ¹⁷ stature of the fulness of Christ:

14 That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every ¹⁸ wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive;

15 But ¹⁹ speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:

16 * From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.

not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind;

18 Having the understanding darkened, ¹⁹ being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the ²⁰ blindness of their heart:

19 * Who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

20 But ye have not so learned Christ;

21 If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jē'sus:

22 That ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts;

23 And ²⁴ be renewed in the spirit of your mind;

24 And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and ²⁵ true holiness.

25 Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another.

26 Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath:

27 * Neither give place to the devil.

28 Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have ²⁹ to give to him that needeth.

29 Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good ³⁰ to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.

30 And ³¹ grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption.

31 Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice:

32 And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.

CHAPTER 5.

1 He exhorted to love: 3 to flee fornication, and all uncleanness: 15 to walk with prudence.

BE ye therefore followers of God, as dear children;

2 And ³ walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God ⁴ for a sweetsmelling savour.

3 But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints;

EPHESIANS, 6. Duties of wives, husbands, children, parents.

4 Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, ^a which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks.

5 For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, ^a hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

6 ^f Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of ¹ disobedience.

7 Be not ye therefore partakers with them.

8 ^a For ye were sometimes darkness, but now ^a are ye light in the Lord: walk as ^a children of light:

9 (For the fruit of the Spirit ^{is} in all goodness and righteousness and truth:)

10 ^f Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord.

11 And ^a have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather ¹ reprove them.

12 For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret.

13 But ^a all things that are ^a re-proved are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light.

14 Wherefore ^a he saith, ^a Awake thou that sleepest, and ^a arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light.

15 See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, 16 Redeeming the time, because the days are evil.

17 ^a Wherefore be ye not unwise, but ^a understanding ^a what the will of the Lord ^{is}.

18 And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit;

19 Speaking to yourselves ^a in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord;

20 ^a Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jēsus Christ;

21 ^a Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God.

22 ^a Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord.

23 For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body.

24 Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so ^{let} the wives ^{be} to their own husbands in every thing.

as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it;

26 That he might sanctify and cleanse it ^a with the washing of water ^a by the word,

27 That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.

28 So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself.

29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church:

30 For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.

31 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.

32 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church.

33 Nevertheless let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself, and the wife ^{see} that she reverence ^{her} husband.

CHAPTER 6.

1 The relative duties of children 4 of parents: 5 of servants 9 of masters.

CHILDREN, ^a obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.

2 ^a Honour thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise;

3 That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.

4 And, ^a ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but ^a bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

5 Servants, be obedient to them that are ^{your} masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ;

6 Not with eyeservice, as men-pleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart;

7 With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men:

8 ^a Knowing that ^a whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether ^{he} be bond or free.

9 And, ye ^f masters, do the same things unto them, ¹ forbearing threatening: knowing that ² your Master also is in heaven; ^a neither is there respect of persons with him.

10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

11 ^a Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

12 ^a For we wrestle not against ^a flesh and blood, but against ^a principalities, against powers, against ^a the rulers of the darkness of this world, against ^a spiritual wickedness in ^a high places.

13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and ^a having done all, to stand.

14 Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and ^a having on the breastplate of righteousness;

15 ^a And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace;

16 Above all, taking ^a the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.

may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all ^a judgment;

10 That ^a ye may ^a approve things that ^a are excellent; ^a that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ;

11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, ^a which are by Jē'sus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things ^a which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel;

13 So that my bonds ^a in Christ are manifest ^a in all ^a the palace, and ^a in all other places;

14 And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and ^a strife; and some also of good will:

16 The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds:

17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel.

PHILIPPIANS, 2.

18 What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.

19 For I know that this shall turn to my salvation through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jēsus Christ, 20 According to my earnest expectation and my hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death.

21 For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not.

23 For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better:

24 Nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for you.

25 And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith;

26 That your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jēsus Christ for me by my coming to you again.

27 Only let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel;

28 And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that of God.

29 For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake;

30 Having the same conflict which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

CHAPTER 2.

Love, unity, and humility recommended.

If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies,

2 Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.

3 Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.

4 Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

Exhortation to humility.

5 Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jēsus:

6 Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God:

7 But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men:

8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

9 Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name:

10 That at the name of Jēsus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;

11 And that every tongue should confess that Jēsus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.

13 For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

14 Do all things without murmurings and disputings:

15 That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world;

16 Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.

17 Yea, and if I be offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all.

18 For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoice with me.

19 But I trust in the Lord Jēsus to send Ti-mō-the-ūs shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.

20 For I have no man likeminded, who will naturally care for your state.

21 For all seek their own, not the things which are Je'sus Christ's.

22 But ye know the proof of him, that, as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.

24 But I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly.

25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you E-pāph-ro-dītus, my brother, and companion in labour, and fellowsoldier, ^abut your messenger, and ^ahe that ministered to my wants.

26 For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.

27 For indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

28 I sent him therefore the more carefully, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.

29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and ^ahold such in reputation:

30 Because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life, ^ato supply your lack of service toward me.

CHAPTER 3.

^a To beware of false teachers. ^b The apostle's anxiety for the heavenly prize.

FINALLY, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.

2 ^a Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, ^b beware of the concision.

3 For we are ^athe circumcision, ^dwhich worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jē'sus, and have no confidence in the flesh.

4 Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more:

^b Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Is'ra-el, of the tribe of Bēn'jā-min, an Ilē'brew of the Hē'brews; as touching the law, ^aa Phār'isee;

6 ^a Concerning zeal, ^a persecuting the church; touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless.

7 But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ.

8 Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss ^afor the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jē'sus my Lord. for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ,

9 And be found in him, not having ^amine own righteousness, which is of the law, but ^athat which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

10 That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and ^athe fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;

THEREFORE, my brethren dearly beloved and longed for, ^amy joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.

2 I beseech Eū-ō'di-as, and beseech Sūn'ty-chē, that they be of the same mind in the Lord.

3 And I intreat thee also, true yoke-fellow, help those women which ^blaboured with me in the gospel, with Clēm'ēt also, and with other my fellowlabourers, whose names are in ^athe book of life.

4 Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice.

5 Let your moderation be known unto all men. ^aThe Lord is at hand.

6 ^a Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

COLOSSIANS, 1.

Paul prays for their increase in grace.

7 And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jē'sus.

8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

9 Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you.

10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care of me hath flourished again, wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity.

11 Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content.

12 I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.

13 I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me.

14 Notwithstanding ye have well

15 Now ye Phil-ipp-ians know also, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Mac-e-dō-ni-ā, no church communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only.

16 For even in Thēs-sā-lō-ni-cā ye sent once and again unto my necessity.

17 Not because I desire a gift: but I desire fruit that may abound to your account.

18 But I have all, and abound: I am full, having received of Ep-ph-ro-di-tus the things which were sent from you, an odour of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, well pleasing to God.

PAUL, an apostle of Jē'sus Christ by the will of God, and Ti-mō-the-ās our brother,

2 To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ which are at Cō-lōs'sē: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jē'sus Christ.

3 We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jē'sus Christ, praying always for you, wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jēsus:

29 Whereunto I also labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily.

CHAPTER 2.

He exhorteth them to constancy in Christ.

FOR I would that ye knew what great ¹conflict I have for you, and for them at Iā-ōd-I-qō'a, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh;

2 ²That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all ²riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgement of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ;

3 ²In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

4 And this I say, lest any man should beguile you with enticing words.

5 For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ.

6 As ye have therefore received Christ Jēsus the Lord, so walk ye in him:

7 Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving.

8 ²Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after ²the tradition of men, after the ²rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.

9 For ²in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily.

10 ²And ye are complete in him, ²which is the head of all principal-ity and power:

11 In whom also ye are ²circum-cised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ:

12 ²Buried with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him through ²the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead.

13 And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses;

14 Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross;

15 And ²having spoiled principal-ties and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them ⁴ in it.

16 Let no man therefore ¹ judge you ⁵ in meat, or in drink, or ⁶ in respect ⁷ of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days

17 ⁸ Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ.

18 Let no man ⁹ beguile you of your reward ¹⁰ in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind,

19 And not holding the Head, from which all the body by joints and bands having nourishment ministered, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God.

20 Wherefore if ye be dead with Christ from the ¹¹ rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances,

21 (Touch not; taste not; handle not;

22 Which all are to perish with the using;) after the commandments and doctrines of men?

23 Which things have indeed a shew of wisdom in will worship, and humility, and ¹² neglecting of the body; not in any honour to the satisfying of the flesh.

CHAPTER 3.

1 He exhorteth them to charity, humility, and sundry relations duties.

IF ye then ¹ be risen with Christ, ² seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

2 Set your ³ affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

3 ⁴ For ye are dead, ⁵ and your life is hid with Christ in God.

4 ⁶ When Christ, who is ⁷ our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him ⁸ in glory.

5 Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry:

6 For which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience:

7 In the which ye also walked some time, when ye lived in them.

8 ⁹ But now ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth.

9 ¹⁰ Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds;

10 And have put on the new man, which ¹¹ is renewed in knowledge

CHAPTER 2.

1 In what manner the gospel was preached unto them. 11 His desire of coming to them.

1 THESSALONIANS, 2, 3. Manner of Paul's preaching. His care

FOR yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain:

2 But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at ^a Philippi, we were bold in our God ^b to speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention.

3 For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile.

4 But as ^c we were allowed of God ^d to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak, not as pleasing men, but God, ^e which trieth our hearts.

5 For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloke of covetousness; God is witness:

6 ^f Nor ^g men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we might have ^h been burdensome, as the apostles of Christ.

7 But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children:

8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing ⁱ to have ^j imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our ^k own souls, because ye were dear unto us.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for labouring night and day, ^l because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe:

11 As ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children, 12 ^m That ye would walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

13 For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it ⁿ not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.

14 For ye, brethren, became followers ^o of the churches of God which in Jū-dæ'a are in Christ Jē'sus: for ^p ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, ^q even as they have of the Jews:

15 Who both killed the Lord Jē'sus, and ^r their own prophets, and have ^s persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men:

16 ^p Forbidding us to speak to the ^q Gēn'tiles that they might be saved, ^r to fill up their sins alway: ^s for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly to see your face with great desire.

18 Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but ^t Sā'tan hindered us.

19 For what ^u is our hope, or joy, or crown of ^v rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jē'sus Christ ^w at his coming?

20 ^x For ye are our glory and joy.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Why Paul sent Timothy to them: & his good report a consolation to him.

WHEREFORE when we could no longer forbear, ^a we thought it good to be left at Ath'ēns alone;

2 And sent ^b Ti-mō'the-ūs, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellowlabourer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith:

3 ^c That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that ^d we are appointed thereunto.

4 ^e For verily, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, and ye know.

5 For this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, ^f lest by some means the tempter have tempted you, and ^g our labour be in vain.

6 ^h But now when Ti-mō'the-ūs came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, ⁱ as we also to see you:

7 Therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith:

8 For now we live, if ye ^j stand fast in the Lord.

9 For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God;

10 ^k Night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God himself and our Father, and our Lord Jē'sus Christ, ^l direct our way unto you.

12 And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you:

13 To the end he may stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jē'sus Christ with all his saints.

CHAPTER 4.

1 He exhorteth to godliness. 15 The saints' resurrection, and Christ's second coming.

FURTHERMORE then we ¹ beseech you, brethren, and ² exhort you by the Lord Jē'sus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk and ^a to please God, so ye would abound more and more.

2 For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jē'sus.

3 For this is ^b the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication:

4 ^c That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour;

5 Not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gēn'tiles ^d which know not God:

6 ^e That no man go beyond and ^f defraud his brother ^g in any matter: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified.

7 For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, ^h but unto holiness.

8 ⁱ He therefore that ^j despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, ^k who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly love ye need not that I write unto you: for ^l ye yourselves are taught of God ^m to love one another.

10 And indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Mācē-dō'nī-a. but we beseech you, brethren, that ye increase more and more;

11 And that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you;

12 That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and ⁿ that ye may have lack ^o of nothing.

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, ^p even as others which have no hope.

14 For ^q if we believe that Jē'sus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jē'sus will God bring with him.

15 For this we say unto you ^r by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive ^s and remain unto the com-

CHAPTER 5.

Of Christ's second coming.

BUT of ^a the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you.

2 For yourselves know perfectly that ^b the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then ^c sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

4 ^d But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.

5 Ye are all ^e the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness.

6 Therefore let us not sleep, as ^f do others; but let us watch and be sober.

7 For ^g they that sleep sleep in the night; and they that be drunken ^h are drunken in the night.

8 But let us, who are of the day, be sober, ⁱ putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for an helmet, the hope of salvation.

9 For ^j God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jē'sus Christ,

10 Who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him.

11 Wherefore ^k comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, even as also ye do.

12 And we beseech you, brethren, ^l to know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you;

13 And to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. ^m And be at peace among yourselves.

14 Now we ⁿ exhort you, brethren, warn them that are ^o unruly, comfort the feebleminded, support the weak, be patient toward all men.

15 ^p See that none render evil for evil unto any man; but ever ^q follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men.

7 For yourselves know how ye ought to follow us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you; 8 Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but ^a wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you:

9 / Not because we have not power, but to make ^s ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY.

CHAPTER 1.

3 Paul remindeth Timothy of his charge. 8 The scope of the law is also the design of the gospel.

PAUL, an apostle of Jē'sus Christ ^a by the commandment ^b of God our Saviour, and Lord Jē'sus Christ, ^c which is our hope,

2 Unto ^d Tim'o-thy, my own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jē'sus Christ our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still at Eph'e-sus, ^e when I went into Mæ-g-dō-ni-ā, that thou mightest charge some ^f that they teach no other doctrine,

4 Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith. so do.

5 Now ^g the end of the commandment is charity ^h out of a pure heart, and ⁱ of a good conscience, and ^j faith unfeigned:

6 From which some ^k having swerved have turned aside unto vain jangling;

7 Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

8 But we know that ^l the law is good, if a man use it lawfully;

9 ^m Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for ⁿ the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for man-slayers,

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for menstealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine;

11 According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.

12 And I thank Christ Jē'sus our Lord, who hath enabled me, ^o for that he counted me faithful, ^p putting me into the ministry;

13 ^q Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because ^r I did it ignorantly in unbelief.

14 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith ^s and love which is in Christ Jē'sus.

15 This ^t is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that ¹ Christ Jē'sus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief.

16 Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jē'sus Christ might shew forth all longsuffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.

17 Now unto ² the King eternal, immortal, ³ invisible, the only wise God, ⁴ be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

18 This charge I commit unto thee, son Tim'o-thy, ⁵ according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare;

19 Holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck:

20 Of whom is ⁶ Hŷ-mē-næ'us and ⁷ Al-ēx-ān'dēr; whom I have ⁸ delivered unto Sā'tan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.

CHAPTER 2.

1 He exhorteth to pray and give thanks for all men. 9 How women ought to be attired.

I ¹ EXHORT therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men;

2 ² For kings, and ³ for all that are in ⁴ authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.

3 For this ⁵ is ⁶ good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour;

4 ⁷ Who will have all men to be saved, ⁸ and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

5 For ⁹ there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jē'sus;

6 Who gave himself a ransom for all, ¹⁰ to be testified ¹¹ in due time.

7 Whereunto I am ordained a preacher, and an apostle, (I speak the truth in Christ, ¹² and lie not;) a teacher of the Gēn'tiles in faith and verity.

8 I will therefore that men pray ¹³ every where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

9 In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with ^a broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array;

10 Put (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.

11 Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.

12 But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.

13 For Ad'am was first formed, then Eve.

14 And Ad'am was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression.

15 Notwithstanding she shall be ^a saved in childbearing, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety.

CHAPTER 3.

^a How bishops, ^b deacons 11 and their wives, should be qualified. 16 Important truths of Christian revelation.

THIS is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a ^a bishop, he desireth a good work.

2 A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, ^a of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach;

3 ^a Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous;

4 ^b One that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity;

5 (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?)

6 Not ^a a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil.

7 Moreover he must have a good report of them which are without; lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.

8 Likewise must the deacons be grave, not doubletongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre;

9 Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.

10 And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.

11 Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.

12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well.

13 For they that have ^a used the office of a deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jē'sus.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly:

15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ^b ground of the truth.

16 And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: ^a God was ^a manifest in the flesh, ^a justified in the Spirit, ^a seen of angels, preached unto the Gēn'tiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.

CHAPTER 4.

Sundry precepts for Timothy's direction.

NOW the Spirit ^a speaketh expressly, that ^b in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed ^c to seducing spirits, ^d and doctrines of devils;

2 Speaking lies in hypocrisy; ^a having their conscience seared with a hot iron;

3 ^a For bidding to marry, ^a and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created ^a to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth.

4 For ^a every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving:

5 For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jē'sus Christ, ^a nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.

7 But refuse profane and old wives' fables, and exercise thyself rather unto godliness.

8 For bodily exercise profiteth ^a little: but godliness is profitable unto all things, ^a having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

9 This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance.

10 For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, ^a who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe.

11 These things command and teach.

12 ^a Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.

13 Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

14 ^a Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee ^a by prophecy, ^a with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery.

15 Meditate upon these things;

1 TIMOTHY, 5, 6.

give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear ² to all.

16 Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both ³ save thyself, and them that hear thee.

CHAPTER 5.

¹ Rules to be observed in admonishing. ²² Not to ordain any rashly.

REBUKE ^a not an elder, but in- treat him as a father; and the younger men as brethren;

2 The elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity.

3 Honour widows that are widows indeed.

4 But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to shew ¹ piety at home, and ² to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God.

5 Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

6 But she that liveth ² in pleasure is dead while she liveth.

7 And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless.

8 But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own ¹ house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.

9 Let not a widow be ⁴ taken into the number under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man,

10 Well reported of for good works, if she have brought up children, if she have ¹ lodged strangers, if she have ² washed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work.

11 But the younger widows refuse for when they have begun to wax wanton against Christ, they will marry, 12 ¹ Having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith.

13 ¹ And withal they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house, and not only idle, but tattlers also and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not.

14 ¹ I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, ² give none occasion to the adversary ³ to speak reproachfully.

15 For some are already turned aside after Sa'tan.

16 ¹ If any man or woman that be- loveth have widows, let them re- lieve them, and let not the church be charged, that it may relieve them that are widows indeed.

19 Against an elder receive not an accusation, but ⁴ before two or three witnesses.

20 ¹ Them that sin rebuke before all, ² that others also may fear.

21 I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jē'sus Christ, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things ¹ without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality.

23 Drink no longer water, but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities.

24 Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after.

25 Likewise also ¹ the good works of some are manifest beforehand; and they that are otherwise cannot be hid.

CHAPTER 6.

LET as many ^a servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, ² that the name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed.

2 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, ³ because they are brethren; but rather do them service, because they are ¹ faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. These things teach and exhort.

3 If any man teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jē'sus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness;

4 He is ² proud, ³ knowing nothing, but ⁴ doting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmises,

5 ¹ Perverse disputings of ² men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, ³ supposing that gain is godliness: ⁴ from such withdraw thyself.

6 But ¹ godliness with contentment is great gain.

7 For ¹ we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.

8 And ¹ having food and raiment let us be therewith content.

TIMOTHY.

CHAPTER 1.

^a Paul's love to Timothy: to he exhorteth him not to be ashamed of the gospel.

PAUL, an apostle of Je'sus Christ by the will of God, according to ^a the promise of life which is in Christ Je'sus,

2 To Tim'o-thy, my dearly beloved son. Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Je'sus our Lord.

3 I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day;

4 Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy;

5 When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lō'is, and ^a thy mother Eū'nice; and I am persuaded that in thee also.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance ^a that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands.

16 The Lord ^q give mercy unto the house of Ōn-g-siph'q-rus; ^r for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain:

17 But, when he was in Rōme, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord grant unto him ^s that he may find mercy of the Lord ^t in that day: and in how many things he ^u ministered unto me at Eph'e-sūs, thou knowest very well.

CHAPTER 2.

Timothy exhorted to constancy and perseverance.

THOU therefore, my son, ^a be strong in the grace that is in Christ Je'sus.

2 And the things that thou hast heard of me ^b among many w'tnesses, ^c the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.

3 Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Je'sus Christ.

4 ^d No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.

5 And if a man also strive for masteries, ^e yet is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully.

6 ^f The husbandman that labour-eth must be first partaker of the fruits.

7 Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

8 Remember that Jē'sus Christ ^g of the seed of Dā'vid ^h was raised from the dead ⁱ according to my gospel:

9 Wherein I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, ^j even unto bonds; but the word of God is not bound.

10 Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sakes, ^k that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jē'sus with eternal glory.

11 ^l It is a faithful saying: For ^m if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him.

12 ⁿ If we suffer, we shall also reign with him; ^o if we deny him, he also will deny us:

13 ^p If we believe not, ^q yet he abideth faithful: ^r he cannot deny himself.

16 But ^d shun profane and vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness.

17 And their word will eat as doth a ^e canker: of whom is ^f Hŷ-mē-nēs and Phī-lē'tus;

18 Who concerning the truth have erred, ^g saying that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.

19 Nevertheless ^h the foundation of God standeth ⁱ sure, having this seal, The Lord ^j knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.

20 But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour.

21 If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, ^k and prepared unto every good work.

22 Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.

23 But foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes.

24 And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, ^l patient, 26 And ^m that they may ⁿ recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are ^o taken captive by him at his will.

CHAPTER 3.

He foretelleth the unbeliefness in the last days.

THIS know also, that ^a in the last days perilous times shall come.

2 For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, ^b disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,

3 Without natural affection, truce-breakers, ^c false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good,

Enemies of truth described. A charge to Timothy. 2 TIMOTHY, 4.

4 Traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God;

5 Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.

6 For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts,

7 Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

8 Now as Jān'nēs and Jān'brēs withstood Mō'ses, so do these also resist the truth: men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith.

9 But they shall proceed no further, for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, as theirs also was.

10 But thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, charity, patience, 11 Persecutions, afflictions, which came unto me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra; what persecutions I endured: but out of them all the Lord delivered me.

12 Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution.

13 But evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.

14 But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them;

15 And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

16 All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:

17 That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

16 At my first answer no man stood with me, but all men forsook me: I pray God that it may not be laid to their charge.

17 Notwithstanding the Lord stood with me, and strengthened me; that by me the preaching might be fully known, and that all the Gentiles might hear: and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion.

18 And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TITUS.

CHAPTER 1.

5 Why Titus was left in Crète. 6 How ministers should be qualified.

PAUL, a servant of God, and an apostle of Je'sus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and the acknowledging of the truth which is after godliness;

2 In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began;

3 But hath in due times manifested his word through preaching, which is committed unto me according to the commandment of God our Saviour;

4 To Titus, mine own son after the common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and the Lord Je'sus Christ our Saviour

5 For this cause left I thee in Crète, that thou shouldest set in order the things that are wanting, and ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee:

6 If any be blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children not accused of riot or unruly.

7 For a bishop must be blameless, as the steward of God; not selfwilled, not soon angry, not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre;

8 But a lover of hospitality, a lover of good men, sober, just, holy, temperate;

9 Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers.

10 For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision:

11 Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake.

12 One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Crétians are always liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

13 This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;

14 Not giving heed to Jewish fa-

15 Unto the pure all things are pure: but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled.

16 They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Directions given to Titus. 11 What the gospel teacheth.

BUT speak thou the things which become a sound doctrine:

2 That the aged men be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in patience.

3 The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh holiness, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things;

4 That they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children.

5 To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.

6 Young men likewise exhort to be sober minded.

7 In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity,

8 Sound speech, that cannot be condemned; so that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.

9 Exhort servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well in all things; not answering again;

10 Not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

11 For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men,

12 Teaching us that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world;

13 Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jē'sus Christ;

14 Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.

15 These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Titus is yet further directed by Paul, both concerning the things he should teach, and not teach.

PUT them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work,

2 To speak evil of no man, to be no lawbreakers, but gentle, shewing all meekness unto all men.

3 For we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another

4 But after that the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared,

5 Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost;

6 Which he shed on us abundantly

The essential dignity of the Son by whom God hath revealed himself in these last days

GOD, who at sundry times and * in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets,

2 Hath * in these last days * spoken unto us by his Son, * whom he hath appointed heir of all things, * by whom also he made the worlds;

3 * Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and * upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, * sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high;

4 Being made so much better than the angels, as * he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they.

5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time, * Thou art my son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, * I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?

6 * And again, when he bringeth in * the firstbegotten into the world, he saith, * And let all the angels of God worship him.

7 And * of the angels he saith, * Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.

8 But unto the Son he saith, * Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever:

Dominion of the world given unto Christ.

THEREFORE we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should * let them slip.

2 For if the word spoken by angels was stedfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward;

HEBREWS, 3.

3 How shall we escape, if we neglect so great ^asalvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him;

4 God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and ²glits of the Hō'ly Ghōst, according to his own will?

5 For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection the world to come, whereof we speak.

6 But one in a certain place testified, saying, ⁶What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him?

7 Thou madest him ³a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands.

8 Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we see not yet all things put under him.

9 But we see Jē'sus, who was made a little lower than the angels ⁴for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man.

10 ^cFor it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain of their salvation ^dperfect through sufferings.

11 For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one: for which cause ^ehe is not ashamed to call them brethren,

12 Saying, ^fI will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee

13 And again, ^gI will put my trust in him. And again, ^hBehold I and the children which God hath given me.

14 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he ⁱalso himself likewise took part of the same, ^jthat through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;

15 And deliver them who ^kthrough fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

16 For verily ^lhe took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Ā'brā-hām.

17 Wherefore in all things he behaved him ^mto be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.

CHAPTER 3.

Christ is showed to be more worthy than Moses.

WHEREFORE, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider ^athe Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jē'sus;

2 Who was faithful to him that ¹appointed him, as also ^cMō'ses was faithful in all his house.

3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Mō'ses, inasmuch as ^dhe who hath builded the house hath more honour than the house.

4 For every house is builded by some man, but ^ehe that built all things is God.

5 And Mō'ses verily was faithful in all his house, as a servant, ^ffor a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after;

6 But Christ as a son over his own house; ^gwhose house are we, ^hif we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end.

7 Wherefore (as ⁱthe Hō'ly Ghōst saith, ^jTo day if ye will hear his voice,

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness:

9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years.

10 Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do alway err in their heart; and they have not known my ways.

11 So I sware in my wrath, ^kThey shall not enter into my rest.)

12 Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.

13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.

14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end;

15 While it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

16 ^kFor some, when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of E'gypt by Mō'ses.

17 But with whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, ^lwhose carcasses fell in the wilderness?

18 And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not?

19 So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

CHAPTER 4.

The Christians' rest to be obtained by faith.

LET us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

2 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

3 For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, "As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, "And God did rest the seventh day from all his works.

5 And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, "and they to whom it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief:

7 Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To day, after so long a time; as it is said, "To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

8 For if "Jēsus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.

9 There remaineth therefore a "rest to the people of God.

10 For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

11 Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of "unbelief.

12 For the word of God is "quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is "a discernuer of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

13 Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

14 Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jēsus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession

15 For "we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but "was Christ a priest after the order of Melchisedec. HEBREWS, 7.

penitance from dead works, and of faith toward God,

2 ^a Of the doctrine of baptisms, ^b and of laying on of hands, ^c and of resurrection of the dead, ^d and of eternal judgment.

3 And this will we do, ^e if God permit.

4 For it is impossible for those ^f who were once enlightened, and have tasted of ^g the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Hō'ly Ghost,

5 And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come,

6 If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; ^h seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame

7 For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them ⁱ by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God

8 But that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned.

9 But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak

10 For ^j God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

11 And we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence ^k to the full assurance of hope unto the end.

12 That ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience ^l inherit the promises.

13 For when God made promise to A'brā'hām, because he could swear by no greater, ^m he sware by himself,

14 Saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee.

15 And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

16 For men verily swear by the greater: and ⁿ an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife.

17 Wherein God, willing more abundantly to shew unto ^o the heirs of promise ^p the immutability of his counsel, ^q confirmed it by an oath:

18 That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope ^r set before us:

19 Which ^s hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, ^t and which entereth into that within the veil;

20 ^u Whither the forerunner is for us entered, even Je'sus, made an high priest for ever after the order of Mēl-chi's'e-dēc.

CHAPTER 7.

Christ a priest after the order of Melchisedec.

FOR this ^a Mēl-chi's'e-dēc, king of Sā'lem, priest of the most high God, who met A'brā'hām returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him;

2 To whom also A'brā'hām gave a tenth part of all, first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Sā'lem, which is, King of peace;

3 Without father, without mother, ^b without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the Son of God; abideth a priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, ^c unto whom even the patriarch A'brā'hām gave the tenth of the spoils.

5 And verily ^d they that are of the sons of Lē'vi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of A'brā'hām.

6 But he whose ^e descent is not counted from them received tithes of A'brā'hām, and blessed ^f him that had the promises.

7 And without all contradiction the less is blessed of the better.

8 And here men that die receive tithes, but there he receiveth them, ^g of whom it is witnessed that he liveth

9 And as I may so say, Lē'vi also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in A'brā'hām.

10 For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Mēl-chi's'e-dēc met him.

11 ^h If therefore perfection were by the Lē'vī'tī-cal priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Mēl-chi's'e-dēc, and not be called after the order of Aār'ōn?

12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.

13 For he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.

HEBREWS, 8, 9.

14 For it is evident that ^o our Lord sprang out of Jū'da; of which tribe Mō'ses spake nothing concerning priesthood.

15 And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Mēl-chī's'e-dēc there ariseth another priest.

16 Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life.

17 For he testifieth, ^aThou art a priest for ever after the order of Mēl-chī's'e-dēc.

18 For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before for ^tthe weakness and unprofitableness thereof.

19 For ^tthe law made nothing perfect, ³but the bringing in of ^aa better hope did. by the which ^twe draw nigh unto God.

20 And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made priest

21 (For those priests were made ^awithout an oath; but this with an oath by him that said unto him, ^mThe Lordswear and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Mēl-chī's'e-dēc)

22 By so much was Jē'sus made a surety of a better testament.

23 And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death.

24 But this man, because he ^acontinueth ever, hath ^aan unchangeable priesthood.

25 Wherefore he is able also to save them to ^othe uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth ^oto make intercession for them.

26 For such an high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, ^aand made higher than the heavens;

27 Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, ^afirst for his own sins, ^aand then for the people's: for ^athis he did once, when he offered up himself.

28 For the law maketh ^tmen high priests which have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, ^awho is ^tconsecrated for evermore.

CHAPTER 8.

The excellency of Christ's ministry.

NOW of the things which we have spoken this is the sum: We have such an high priest, ^awho is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens;

2 A minister ¹of the sanctuary,

Christ's priesthood eternal.

and of ³the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.

3 For every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore ^o*it is* of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.

4 For if he were on earth, he should not be a priest, seeing that ²there are priests that offer gifts according to the law.

5 Who serve unto the example and ^ashadow of heavenly things, as Mō'ses was admonished of God when he was about to make the tabernacle: ^afor, See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now ^thath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better ³covenant, which was established upon better promises.

7 For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.

8 For finding fault with them, he saith, ^aBehold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Is'ra-el and with the house of Jū'dah:

9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of E'gypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For this ^athe covenant that I will make with the house of Is'ra-el after those days, saith the Lord; I will ⁴put my laws into their mind, and write them ⁵in their hearts: and ^aI will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people:

11 And ^athey shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.

12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

13 In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath ^amade the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old is ready to vanish away.

CHAPTER 9.

¹ By the imperfection of the legal sacrifices, ¹¹ he sheweth the efficacy of Christ's blood

THEN verily the first covenant had also ¹ordinances of divine service, and a ^aworldly sanctuary.

2 ^aFor there was a tabernacle made; the first, wherein was the candlestick, and ^athe table, and the Perfection of the blood and sacrifice of Christ. HEBREWS, 10.

shewbread; which is called ³the sanctuary.

3 ⁴And after the second veil, the tabernacle which is called the Holiest of all;

4 Which had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was ⁵the golden pot that had manna, and ⁶Aar'qn's rod that budded, and ⁷the tables of the covenant;

5 And ⁸over it the cherubims of glory shadowing the mercyseat; of which we cannot now speak particularly.

6 Now when these things were thus ordained, ⁹the priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God.

7 But into the second went the high priest alone ¹⁰once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people:

8 ¹¹The Hōly Ghōst this signifying, that ¹²the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing:

9 Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, ¹³that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience;

10 Which stood only in ¹⁴meats and drinks, and ¹⁵divers washings, ¹⁶and carnal ¹⁷ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.

11 But Christ being come an high priest ¹⁸of good things to come, ¹⁹by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building;

12 Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but ²⁰by his own blood he entered in ²¹once into the holy place, ²²having obtained eternal redemption for us.

13 For if ²³the blood of bulls and of goats, and ²⁴the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh:

14 How much more ²⁵shall the blood of Christ, ²⁶who through the eternal Spirit ²⁷offered himself without ²⁸spot to God, ²⁹purge your conscience from ³⁰dead works ³¹to serve the living God?

15 ³²And for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, ³³that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, ³⁴they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

must also of necessity ¹be the death of the testator.

17 For ²a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.

18 ³Whereupon neither the first testament was ⁴dedicated without blood.

19 For when Mōses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, ⁵with water, and ⁶scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people, 20 Saying, ⁷This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you.

21 Moreover ⁸he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.

22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and ⁹without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was therefore necessary that ¹⁰the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

24 For ¹¹Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now ¹²to appear in the presence of God for us

25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others;

26 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once ¹³in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

27 ¹⁴And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment:

28 So ¹⁵Christ was once ¹⁶offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he ¹⁷appear the second time without sin unto salvation.

CHAPTER 10.

1 The law sacrifice ineffectual to take away sins 10
By the offering of Christ's body once for all we obtain perfect remission.

FOR the law having ¹a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect.

2 For then ²would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins.

HEBREWS, 10.

3 ^b But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year.

4 For ^c it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

5 Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, ^d Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body ^e hast thou prepared me:

6 In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure.

7 Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God.

8 Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hast pleasure therein, which are offered by the law;

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 ^f By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jē'sus Christ once for all

11 And every priest standeth ^g daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins:

12 ^h But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God;

13 From henceforth expecting ⁱ till his enemies be made his footstool.

14 For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

15 ^j Whereof the Hō'ly Ghōst also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before,

16 ^k This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;

17 ^l And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now where remission of these ^m is, there is no more offering for sin.

19 Having therefore, brethren, ⁿ boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jē'sus,

20 By ^o a new and living way, which he hath ^p consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh;

21 And having an high priest over the house of God;

22 Let us draw near with a true heart ^q in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and ^r our bodies washed with pure water.

23 Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for ^a he is faithful that promised;)

24 And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works:

25 ^b Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and ^c so much the more, as ye see ^d the day approaching.

26 For ^e if we sin wilfully ^f after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins, 27 But a certain fearful looking for of judgment and ^g fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.

28 He that despised Mo'ses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses:

29 Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and ^h hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, ⁱ and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace?

30 For we know him that hath said, ^j Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, ^k The Lord shall judge his people.

31 ^l It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

32 But ^m call to remembrance the former days, in which, after ye were illuminated, ye endured ⁿ a great fight of afflictions;

33 Partly, whilst ye were made a ^o gaze-stock both by reproaches and afflictions; and partly, whilst ^p ye became companions of them that were so used.

34 For ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and ^q took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing ^r in yourselves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance.

35 Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompense of reward.

36 ^s For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God ^t ye might receive the promise.

37 For ^u yet a little while, and ^v he that shall come will come, and will not tarry.

38 Now the just shall live by faith: but if ^w any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him.

39 But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition; but of them that believe to the saving of the soul.

CHAPTER 11.

The nature and rewards of faith.

NOW faith is the ¹substance of things hoped for, the evidence ²of things not seen.

² For by it the elders obtained a good report.

³ Through faith we understand that ⁴the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

⁴ By faith ⁵Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead ⁶yet speaketh.

⁵ By faith ⁷Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.

⁶ But ⁸without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

⁸ By faith ¹²Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

⁹ By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, ¹³dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise:

¹⁰ For he looked for a city which hath foundations, ¹⁴whose builder and maker is God.

¹¹ Through faith also ¹⁵Sarah herself received strength to conceive seed, and ¹⁶was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him faithful who had promised.

¹² Therefore sprang there even of one, and ¹⁷him as good as dead, so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.

¹³ These all died ¹⁸in faith, not having received the promises, but ¹⁹having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and ²⁰confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

¹⁴ For they that say such things ²¹declare plainly that they seek a country.

34 ^m Quenched the violence of fire, ⁿ escaped the edge of the sword, ^o out of weakness were made strong, waxed vallant in fight, ^p turned to flight the armies of the allens.

35 ^r Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were ^r tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection:

36 And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover ^s of bonds and imprisonment:

37 ^t They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: ^u they wandered about in sheepskins and goat-skins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;

38 (Of whom the world was not worthy:) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and ^v in dens and caves of the earth.

7 If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8 But if ye be without chastisement, ^a whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

9 Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?

10 For they verily for a few days chastened us ^b after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, ^c that we might be partakers of his holiness.

11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth ^d the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.

12 Wherefore ^e lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees;

13 And make ^f straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; ^g but let it rather be healed.

14 Follow peace with all men, and holiness, ^h without which no man shall see the Lord:

15 Looking diligently lest any man ⁱ fall of the grace of God; ^j lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled;

16 Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as E'sau, ^k who for one morsel of meat sold his birth-right.

17 For ye know how that afterward, ^l when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no ^m place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

18 For ye are not come unto ⁿ the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest,

19 And the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which ^o voice they that heard ^p intreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more:

20 (For they could not endure that which was commanded, And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart:

23 To the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are ³written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men ⁴made perfect, 24 And to Jē'sus the mediator of the new ⁵covenant, and to ⁶the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things ⁷than that of A'bēl.

25 See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him ⁸that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven:

26 ⁹Whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, ¹⁰Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.

27 And this word, Yet once more, signifieth ¹¹the removing of those things that ¹²are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.

28 Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, ¹³let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear:

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JAMES.

CHAPTER 1.

The apostle exhorteth to patience in affliction

JAMES, ^a a servant of God and of the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, ^b to the twelve tribes which are ſcattered abroad, greeting.

2 My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations;

3 Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience

4 But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

5 ^c If any of you lack wiſdom, ^d let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and ^e it ſhall be given him.

6 ^f But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the ſea driven with the wind and tossed.

7 For let not that man think that he ſhall receive any thing of the Lord.

8 A double minded man is unſtable in all his ways.

9 Let the brother of low degree ^g rejoice in that he is exalted:

10 But the rich in that he is made low: becauſe as the flower of the graſs he ſhall paſs away.

11 For the ſun is no ſooner riſen with a burning heat, but it withereth the graſs, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the faſhion of it perſiſteth: ſo alſo ſhall the rich man fade away in his ways.

12 ^h Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he ſhall receive ⁱ the crown of life, which the Lord hath promiſed to them that love him

13 Let no man ſay when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with ^j evil, neither tempteth he any man:

14 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own luſt, and enticed.

15 Then when luſt hath conceived, it bringeth forth ſin: and ſin, when it is finiſhed, bringeth forth death.

16 Do not err, my beloved brethren.

17 Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableneſs, neither ſhadow of turning.

18 ^k Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we

19 Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be ſwift to hear, ſlow to ſpeak, ſlow to wrath:

20 For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousneſs of God.

21 Wherefore lay apart all filthineſs and ſuperfluity of naughtineſs, and receive with meekneſs the engrafted word, ² which is able to ſave your ſouls.

22 But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own ſelves.

23 For ³ if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glaſs.

24 For he beholdeth himſelf, and goeth his way, and ſtraightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

25 But ⁴ whoſo looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, ⁵ this man ſhall be bleſſed in his ⁶ deed.

CHAPTER 2.

1 If ye muſt not regard the rich, and deſpiſe the poor, 10 The guilt of any one breach of the law is of faith without works

MY brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt, ^a the Lord of glory, with ^b reſpect of perſons.

2 For if there come unto your ¹ aſſembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in alſo a poor man in vile raiment;

3 And ye have reſpect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and ſay unto him, Sit thou here ² in a good place; and ſay to the poor, Stand thou there, or ſit here under my footſtool:

this world rich in faith, and heirs of ^a the kingdom ^d which he hath promised to them that love him?

6 But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment seats?

7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy name by the which ye are called?

8 If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, ^e Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well.

9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convicted of the law as transgressors.

10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, ^f he is guilty of all.

11 For ^g he that said, ^h Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

12 So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty.

13 For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy; and mercy ⁱ rejoiceth against judgment.

14 What ^j doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him?

15 If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

16 And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body, what ^k doth it profit?

17 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being ^l alone.

18 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith ^m without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

19 Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: ⁿ the devils also believe, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that ^o faith without works is dead?

21 Was not ^p A'brā'hām our father justified by works, ^q when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?

22 ^r Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

23 And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, ^s A'brā'hām believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called ^t the Friend of God.

24 Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.

26 For as the body without the ^w spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

CHAPTER 3.

1 We must not rashly or arrogantly reprove others.
2 The importance of governing the tongue. 13 How true wisdom will manifest itself, in opposition to strife and envy.

MY brethren, ^x be not many masters, ^y knowing that we shall receive the greater ^z condemnation.

2 For ^a in many things we offend all. ^b If any man offend not in word, ^c the same is a perfect man, and able also to bridle the whole body.

3 Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body.

4 Behold also the ships, which though ^d they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth.

5 Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how great ^e a matter a little fire kindleth!

6 And the tongue ^f is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that ^g it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the ^h course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For every ⁱ kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of ^j mankind:

8 But the tongue can no man tame, ^k it is an unquenchable evil, full of deadly poison.

9 Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, ^l which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.

11 Doth a fountain send forth at the same ^m place sweet water and bitter?

12 Can the fig tree, my brethren, bear olive berries? either a vine, figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh.

13 ⁿ Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shew out of a good conversation his works with meekness of wisdom.

14 But if ye have ¹bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth.

15 ²This wisdom descendeth not from above, but ³is earthly, ⁴sensual, devilish.

16 For ⁵where envying and strife ⁶is, there ⁷is ⁸confusion and every evil work.

17 But ⁹the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, ¹⁰without partiality, ¹¹and without hypocrisy.

18 ¹²And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace.

CHAPTER 4.

¹ Our evil lusts cause contention ² how we may overcome them, and gain God's favour.

FROM whence come wars and ¹fightings among you? ²come they not hence, even of your ³lusts that war in your members?

2 Ye lust, and have not. ye ⁴kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ⁵ye ask not.

3 ⁶Ye ask, and receive not, ⁷because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume ⁸it upon your ⁹lusts.

4 Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that ¹⁰the friendship of the world is enmity with God? ¹¹whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.

5 Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, ¹²The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth ¹³to envy?

6 But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, ¹⁴God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. ¹⁵Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

8 ¹⁶Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse ¹⁷your hands, ye sinners; and purify ¹⁸your hearts, ye double minded.

9 Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and ¹⁹your joy to heaviness.

10 Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.

11 Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of ²⁰his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge.

12 There is one lawgiver, ²¹who is able to save and to destroy: who art thou that judgest another?

CHAPTER 5.

¹ Wicked rich men warned of God's judgments. ² Of patience. ³ We ought to pray in adversity.

GO to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.

2 Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten.

3 Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. ⁴Ye have heaped treasure together for the last days.

4 Behold, ⁵the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and ⁶the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of sab'oth.

5 Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.

6 Ye have condemned ⁷and killed the just; ⁸and he doth not resist you.

7 ⁹Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive ¹⁰the early and latter rain.

8 Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: ¹¹for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.

9 ¹²Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the judge ¹³standeth before the door.

10 ¹⁴Take, my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience.

11 Behold, we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of ¹⁵the patience of Job, and have seen ¹⁶the end of the Lord; that ¹⁷the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.

12 But above all things, my brethren, ¹⁸swear not, neither by heaven,

14 Is any sick among you? let him call for the 'elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord:

15 And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him.

18 And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

19 Brethren, if any of you do err from the truth, and one convert him;

20 Let him know, that he which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER.

CHAPTER 1.

1 The apostle's address: he blesseth God for their hope of a blessed immortality: 10 he sheweth that their salvation in Christ had been foretold by the prophets of old: 13 he exhorteth them to godliness.

PETER, an apostle of Jē'sus Christ, to the strangers scattered throughout Pōn'tus, Gā-la'tia, Cāp-pa-dō'ci-ā, A'sja, and Bithyn'ia,

2 Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jē'sus Christ. Grace unto you, and peace, be multiplied.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jē'sus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jē'sus Christ from the dead,

4 To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you,

5 Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

6 Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations:

7 That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jē'sus Christ:

8 Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory:

9 Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.

10 Of which salvation the prophets have enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you:

11 Searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow.

12 Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven; which things the angels desire to look into.

13 Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jē'sus Christ;

14 As obedient children, not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance:

15 But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation;

16 Because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy.

17 And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, pass the time of your ^asojourn here in fear:

18 Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation ^vreceived by tradition from your fathers;

19 But ^wwith the precious blood of Christ, ^xas of a lamb without blemish and without spot:

20 ^yWho verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest ^zin these last times for you,

21 Who by him do believe in God, that raised him up from the dead, and ^agave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God.

22 Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently:

23 ^bBeing born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, ^cby the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.

24 ^dFor all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away:

25 ^eBut the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you.

CHAPTER 2.

1 He inviteth them against uncharitableness: 4. he sheweth their privilege through Christ the chief corner stone. 11 Several duties enjoined

WHEREFORE laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings,

2 ^aAs newborn babes, desire the sincere ^bmilk of the word, that ye may grow thereby.

3 If so be ye have ^ctasted that the Lord is gracious.

4 To whom coming, as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious,

5 ^dYe also, as lively stones, ^eare built up a spiritual house, ^fan holy priesthood, to offer up ^gspiritual sacrifices, ^hacceptable to God by Jesus Christ.

6 Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, ⁱBehold, I lay in Si'on a chief corner stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded.

7 Unto you therefore which believe he is ^jprecious: but unto them which be disobedient, ^kthe stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,

Christ the chief corner stone.

8 ^lAnd a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: ^mwhereunto also they were appointed.

9 But ye are ⁿa chosen generation, ^oa royal priesthood, ^pan holy nation, ^qa peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the ^rpraises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light:

10 ^sWhich in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

11 Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul;

12 Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, ^twhereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God ^uin the day of visitation.

13 Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme;

14 Or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him for the punishment of evildoers, and for the praise of them that do well.

15 For so is the will of God, that with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:

16 As free, and not ^vusing your liberty for a cloke of maliciousness, but as the servants of God.

17 ^wHonour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king

18 Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward.

19 For this is ^xthankworthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully

20 For what glory is ^yit, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for ^zit, ye take it patiently, this is ^aacceptable with God.

21 For even hereunto were ye called because Christ also suffered ^bfor us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps:

22 ^cWho did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth:

23 ^dWho, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but ^ecommitted himself to him that judgeth righteously:

25 For ^a ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned ^a unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

CHAPTER 3.

¹ He teacheth the duty of wives and husbands, & exhorting all men to unity and love, 14 and to suffer boldly for righteousness' sake 18 he sheweth also the benefits of Christ toward the old world

LIKewise, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands, that, if any obey not the word, ^a they also may without the word ^b be won by the conversation of the wives;

2 While they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear.

3 Whose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel;

4 But let it be ^a the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

5 For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands:

6 Even as Sā'rā obeyed Ā'brā'hām, ^a calling him lord: whose ¹ daughters ye are, as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.

7 Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; ^a that your prayers be not hindered.

8 Finally, be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, ^a love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous:

9 Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, ^a that ye should inherit a blessing.

10 For ^a he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile:

11 Let him eschew evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and ensue it.

12 For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, ^a and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is ^a against them that do evil.

13 And who is he that will harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good?

14 ^a But and if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye. and ^a be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled;

15 But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts. and ^a be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and ^a fear:

16 Having a good conscience; that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evildoers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ.

17 For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye ^a suffer for well doing, than for evil doing.

18 For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death ^a in the flesh, but ^a quickened by the Spirit:

19 By ^a which also he went and preached unto the spirits ^a in prison;

20 Which sometime were disobedient, when once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of No'ah, while ^a the ark was a preparing, ^a wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved by water.

21 ^a The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) by the resurrection of Jē'sus Christ:

22 Who is gone into heaven, and ^a is on the right hand of God; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

CHAPTER 4.

¹ He exhorteth them to cease from sin by the example of Christ ⁷ By the approaching end of all things he exhorteth them to so'riety, charity etc ¹² Summary motives of comfort under persecution

FORASMUCH then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for ^a he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin;

2 That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God.

3 For the time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gēn'tiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries:

1 PETER, 5.

Exhortation to godliness. The duty of elders.

4 Wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them to the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you :

5 Who shall give account to him that is ready ^b to judge the quick and the dead.

6 For for this cause ^c was the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

7 But ^d the end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer.

8 And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for ^e charity ^f shall cover the multitude of sins.

9 Use hospitality one to another ^g without grudging.

10 As ^h every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God.

11 ⁱ If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that ^j God in all things may be glorified through Jē'sus Christ, ^k to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

12 Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened unto you.

13 But rejoice, inasmuch as ^l ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings, that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.

14 ^m If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye. for the ⁿ spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you: on their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.

15 But ^o let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evildoer, or as a busybody in other men's matters.

16 Yet if any man suffer as a Christ's tjan, let him not be ashamed; ^p but let him glorify God on this behalf.

17 For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and ^q if it first begin at us, ^r what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?

18 ^s And if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear?

CHAPTER 5.

1 The elders exhorted to feed the flock of Christ: 5 the younger to obey the elder 8 and all to be sober, watch ul, and steadfast in the faith 9 to resist the cruel adversary the devil.

THE elders which are among you I exhort, who am also ^a an elder, and ^b a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also ^c a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed:

2 ^d Feed the flock of God ^e which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly, not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind;

3 Neither as ^f being lords over ^g God's heritage, but being ensamples to the flock.

4 And when ^h the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away.

5 Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, ⁱ all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and ^j giveth grace to the humble.

6 Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time:

7 ^k Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.

8 Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour:

9 Whom resist steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world.

10 But the God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jē'sus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you.

11 To him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

12 ^l By Sil-vā'nus, a faithful brother unto you, as I suppose, I have written ^m briefly, exhorting, and testifying that this is the true grace of God wherein ye stand.

13 The church that is at Bāb'y-lon, elected together with you, saluteth you; and so doth ⁿ Mār'cus my son.

14 Greet ye one another with a kiss of charity. Peace be with you all that are in Christ Jē'sus. Amen.

THE SECOND EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Saluting the Christians, he admonisheth them of the gifts and promises of the gospel 5 he exhorteth them to add to their faith such virtues as would make it fruitful 12 he remembereth them hereof, knowing his dissolution to be near

SIMON Pē'tēr, a servant and an apostle of Jē'sus Christ, to them that have obtained ^alike precious faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jē'sus Christ:

2 Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jē'sus our Lord,

3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us ²to glory and virtue;

4 ^aWhereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises that by these ye might be ^apartakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

5 And beside this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue ⁷knowledge;

6 And to knowledge temperance, and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness,

7 And to godliness brotherly kindness; and ^ato brotherly kindness charity.

8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be ³barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jē'sus Christ.

9 But he that lacketh these things ^ais blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was ^apurged from his old sins.

10 Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence ^ato make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall:

11 ^aFor so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jē'sus Christ.

12 Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be established in the present truth.

13 Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance;

17 For he received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, ^aThis is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

19 We have also ^amore ^asure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and ^athe day star arise in your hearts:

20 Knowing this first, that ^ano prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation.

21 For ^athe prophecy came not ^ain old time by the will of man. ^abut holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Hō'ly Ghost.

CHAPTER 2.

1 He foretelleth them of the appearance of false teachers the impiety of them and their followers, and the judgments that would overtake them 7 The godly shall be delivered, as Lot was out of Sodom 10 The manners of those profane and blasphemous seducers described.

BUT ^athere were false prophets also among the people, even as ^athere shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord ^athat bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.

2 And many shall follow their ^apernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of.

3 And through covetousness shall they with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.

4 For if God spared not ^athe angels that sinned, but ^acast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment;

2 PETER, 3.

False teachers and seducers described.

5 And spared not the old world, but saved No'ah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly.

6 And turning the cities of Söd'om and Gō-mōr'ra into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly;

7 And delivered just Lōt, vexed with the filthy conversation of the wicked

8 (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds;)

9 The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished:

10 But chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government. Presumptuous are they, selfwilled, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities.

11 Whereas angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation against them before the Lord.

12 But these, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption;

13 And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure to riot in the day time. Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings while they feast with you; 14 Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: an heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children:

15 Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Bā'laam the son of Bō-sōr, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;

16 But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass speaking with man's voice forbad the madness of the prophet.

17 These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.

18 For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them who live in error.

19 While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

20 For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jēsus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.

21 For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them.

CHAPTER 3.

Of Christ's coming to judgment.

THIS second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you; in both which I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance:

2 That ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour:

3 Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts,

4 And saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation

5 For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water:

6 Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished:

7 But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

8 But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

9 The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.

10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up.

11 Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness, 12 Looking for and ²hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall ²be dissolved, and the elements shall ²melt with fervent heat?

13 Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for ²new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness.

14 Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF JOHN

4 And these things write we unto you, that your joy may be full.

5 This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that ²God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

6 If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:

7 But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jē'sus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.

8 ²If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.

CHAPTER 2.

Christ our advocate and propitiation.

MY little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, ²we have an advocate with the Father, Jē'sus Christ the righteous:

2 And ²he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but ²also for the sins of the whole world.

3 And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.

4 He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

5 But ²whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him.

6 ²He that saith he abideth in him sought himself also so to walk, even as he walked.

7 Brethren, ²I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment ²which ye had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.

8 Again, ²a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him and in you: because the darkness is past, and ^a the true light now shineth.

1 JOHN, 3. Exhortation to love the brethren. The love of God.

9 He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now.

10 He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and ^t there is none ^o occasion of stumbling in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and ^w walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.

12 I write unto you, little children, because ^v your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.

13 I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him ^o that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father.

14 I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him ^o that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because ^v ye are strong, and ^t the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

15 Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. ^v In any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, ^o and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God ^o abideth for ever.

18 Little children, ^v it is the last time: and as ye have heard that ^v antichrist shall come, ^w even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time.

19 They went out from us, but they were not of us; for ^v if they had been of us, they would ^v no doubt have continued with us: but ^v they went out, that ^v they might be made manifest that they were not all of us.

20 But ^v ye have an unction ^o from the Holy One, and ^v ye know all things.

21 I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also.

24 Let that therefore abide in you, ^d which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, ^o ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.

25 ^v And this is the promise that he hath promised us, ^v even eternal life.

26 These things have I written unto you concerning them that seduce you.

27 But the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and ^o ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing ^o teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in ^v him.

28 And now, little children, abide in him; that, when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

29 ^v If ye know that he is righteous, ^v ye know that every one that doeth righteousness is born of him.

CHAPTER 3.

He declareth the singular love of God.

BEHOOLD, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that ^v we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, ^o because it knew him not.

2 Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and ^o it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, ^v we shall be like him; for ^o we shall see him as he is.

3 And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

4 Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law.

5 And ye know that he was manifested ^v to take away our sins, and ^o in him is no sin.

6 Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him.

7 Little children, let no man deceive you: ^v he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous.

8 ^v He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, ^v that he might destroy the works of the devil.

9 ^v Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for ^v his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.

10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.

11 For this is the ¹message that ye heard from the beginning, ²that we should love one another.

12 Not as ³Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

13 Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you.

14 We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death.

15 ⁴Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know that ⁵no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.

16 ⁶Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

17 But ⁷whoso hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?

18 My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue; but in deed and in truth.

19 And hereby we know ⁸that we are of the truth, and shall ⁹assure our hearts before him.

20 For if our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 ¹⁰Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, ¹¹then have we confidence toward God.

22 And ¹²whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, ¹³and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.

23 And this is his commandment, That we should believe on the name of his Son Jēsus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment.

24 And he that keepeth his commandments ¹⁴dwelleth in him, and he in him. And ¹⁵hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

CHAPTER 4.

He warneth them to try the spirits.

BELOVED, ¹believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God, because ²many false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: ¹Every spirit that confesseth that Jēsus Christ is come in the flesh is of God:

3 And ²every spirit that confesseth not that Jēsus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world.

4 Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than ³he that is in the world.

5 ⁴They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, ⁵and the world heareth them.

6 We are of God: ⁶he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we ⁷the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

7 Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God, and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loveth not knoweth not God; for ⁸God is love.

9 In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.

10 Herein is love, ⁹not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

12 ¹⁰No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us.

13 ¹¹Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.

14 And ¹²we have seen and do testify that ¹³the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.

15 ¹⁴Whosoever shall confess that Jēsus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

16 And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Herein is ¹⁵our love made perfect, that ¹⁶we may have boldness in the day of judgment: ¹⁷because as he is, so are we in this world.

18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.

19 We love him, because he first loved us.

20 If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?

21 And this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also.

CHAPTER 5.

He that loveth God loveth his children.

WHOSOEVER believeth that Jē'sus is the Christ is born of God: and every one that loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him.

2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments.

3 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous.

4 For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

5 Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jē'sus is the Son of God?

6 Thus is he that came by water and blood, even Jē'sus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood: And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth.

7 For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Hō'ly Ghōst: and these three are one.

8 And there are three that bear witness in earth, the spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

9 If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God which he hath testified of his Son.

10 He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son.

11 And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.

12 He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life.

13 These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.

14 And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us:

15 And if we know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. There is a sin unto death: I do not say that he shall pray for it.

17 All unrighteousness is sin: and there is a sin not unto death.

18 We know that whosoever is born of God sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not.

19 And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness.

20 And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jē'sus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.

21 Little children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

4 I rejoiced greatly that I found of thy children walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father.

5 And now I beseech thee, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, but that which we had from the beginning, ^fthat we love one another.

6 And ^ethis is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, That, ^aas ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it.

7 For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jēsus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an anti-christ.

2 Beloved, I ^gwish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.

3 For I rejoiced greatly, when the brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as ^athou walkest in the truth.

4 I have no greater joy than to hear that ^emy children walk in truth.

5 Beloved, thou doest faithfully whatsoever thou ^gdoest to the brethren, and to strangers;

6 Which have borne witness of thy charity before the church: whom if thou bring forward on their journey ^aafter a godly sort, thou shalt do well:

7 Because that for his name's sake they went forth, ^etaking nothing of the Gēn'tiles.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JUDE.

Jude exhorteth Christians to constancy.

JUDE, the servant of Jē'sus Christ, and a brother of Jāmes, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jē'sus Christ, and called:

2 Mercy unto you, and peace, and love, be multiplied.

3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

4 For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jē'sus Christ

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of E'gypt, afterward destroyed them that believed not.

6 And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day.

7 Even as Sōd'om and Gō-mōr'rā, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

8 Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities.

9 Yet Mī'chael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Mō'ses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee.

10 But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves.

11 Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way of Cāin, and ran greedily after the error of Bā'laam for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Cō'rē.

12 These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots;

13 Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.

THE REVELATION

OF ST. JOHN THE DIVINE.

CHAPTER 1.

1 The preface. 1 The coming of Christ.

THE Revelation of Jē'sus Christ, which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant Jōhn:

2 Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jē'sus Christ, and of all things that he saw.

3 Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.

4 JŌHN to the seven churches which are in A'sja: Grace be unto you, and peace, from him which is, and which was, and which is to come; and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne;

5 And from Jē'sus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood,

6 And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

7 Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wall because of him. Even so, Amen.

8 I am Al'pha and Ō'me-ga, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.

9 I Jōhn, who also am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jē'sus Christ, was in the isle that is called Pāt'mos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jē'sus Christ.

10 I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet,

11 Saying, I am Al'pha and Ō'me-ga, the first and the last: and, What thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in A'sja; unto Eph'ē-sūs, and unto Smŷr'na, and unto Pēr'ga-mōs, and unto Thy-ā-ti'rā, and unto Sardis, and unto Phil-ā-dēl'phā, and unto Lā-ōl-l-çē'a.

12 And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks;

13 And in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle.

14 His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire; 15 And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters.

16 And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth went a sharp twoedged sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

17 And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; I am the first and the last:

18 I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death.

19 Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter;

20 The mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches: and the seven candlesticks which thou sawest are the seven churches.

CHAPTER 2.

Christ's message to the churches.

UNTO the angel of the church of Eph'ē-sūs write; These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks;

2 I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and thou hast tried them which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars:

3 And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted.

REVELATION, 3.

What John was to write to the churches.

4 Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love.

5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nic-q-lā'i-tanes, which I also hate.

7 ^a He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give ^a to eat of ^a the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.

8 And unto the angel of the church in Smŷr'na write; These things saith ^a the first and the last, which was dead, and is alive;

9 I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art ^a rich) and I know the blasphemy of ^a them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Sā'tan.

10 ^a Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: ^a be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee ^a a crown of life.

11 ^a Ho that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He that overcometh shall not be hurt of ^a the second death.

12 And to the angel of the church in Pēr'ga-mōs write; These things saith ^a he which hath ^a the sharp sword with two edges;

13 I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Sā'tan's seat is and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein An'ti-pās was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, ^a where Sā'tan dwelleth.

14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of ^a Bā'laam, who taught Bā'lāc to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Is-rā-el, ^a to eat things sacrificed unto idols, ^a and to commit fornication.

15 So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nic-q-lā'i-tanes, which thing I hate.

16 Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and ^a will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

19 I know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the last to be more than the first.

CHAPTER 3.

What John was commanded to write to the angels of the churches of 1 Sardis, 1 Philadelphia, 14 and Laodicea.

AND unto the angel of the church in Sārdis write; These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast ^a a name that thou livest, ^a and art dead.

2 Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

3 Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. ^b If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

4 Thou hast ^a a few names even in Sār'dis which have not ^a defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me ^a in white: for they are worthy.

5 He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the ^a book of life, but ^a I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

6 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

7 And to the angel of the church in Phīl-a-dēl'phī-a write: These things saith ^a he that is holy, ^a he that is true, he that hath ^a the key of Dā'vīd, ^a he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and ^a he that shutteth, and no man openeth;

8 I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee ^a an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.

9 Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Sā'tan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, ^a I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, ^a I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.

11 Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.

12 Him that overcometh will I make ^a a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and ^a I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is ^a new Jē-ry'sā-lēm, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name.

13 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

14 And unto the angel of the church ^a of the Lā-ōd-lē-ān's write: These things saith the ^a Amen, the faithful and true ^a witness, the ^a beginning of the creation of God;

15 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot.

CHAPTER 4.

The throne of God.

AFTER this I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter.

2 And immediately I ^a was in the spirit: and, behold, ^a a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne.

3 And he that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone: ^a and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald.

4 And round about the throne were four and twenty seats: and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of gold.

5 And out of the throne proceeded lightnings and thunderings and voices: ^a and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God.

6 And before the throne there was ^a a sea of glass like unto crystal: ^a and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four beasts full of eyes before and behind.

man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.

8 And the four beasts had each of them ^asix wings about him; and they were full of eyes within: and ¹they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come.

9 And when those beasts give glory and honour and thanks to him that sat on the throne, who liveth for ever and ever,

10 The four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying,

11 Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.

CHAPTER 5.

Of the book sealed with seven seals.

AND I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne ^aa book written within and on the backside, ^bsealed with seven seals.

2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?

3 And ^cno man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.

4 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon.

5 And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, ^dthe Lion of the tribe of Jū'da, ^ethe Root of Dā'vid, hath ^fprevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof.

6 And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne, and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood ^ga Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and ^hseven eyes, which are ⁱthe seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth.

7 And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne.

8 And when he had taken the book, the four beasts and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them ^jharps, and golden vials full of ^kodours, ^lwhich are the prayers of saints.

of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation;

11 And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ^qten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands;

12 Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

13 And ^revery creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, ^sBlessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, ^tand unto the Lamb for ever and ever.

14 And the four beasts said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever.

CHAPTER 6.

The opening of six of the seals in order

AND I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four beasts saying, Come and see.

2 And I saw, and behold ^aa white horse: ^band he that sat on him had a bow; ^cand a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

3 And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 ^dAnd there went out another horse that was red: and ^epower was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

5 And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo ^fa black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, ¹A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and ²see thou hurt not the oil and the wine.

7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given ³unto them over the fourth part of the earth, ^o to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and ^a with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under ^t the altar ^t the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for ^a the testimony which they held:

10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, ^t How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, ^m that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, ^a and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the ^o sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood.

13 And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her ^a untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind.

14 ^a And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and ^a every mountain and island were moved out of their places.

15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, ^a hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains;

16 And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb.

17 ^a For the great day of his wrath is come; ^a and who shall be able to stand?

CHAPTER 7.

The servants of God who were sealed.

AND after these things I saw four ^o angels standing on the four corners of the earth, ^b holding the four winds of the earth, ^o that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

2 And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea,

3 Saying, ^a Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have ^a sealed the servants of our God ^t in their foreheads.

5 Of the tribe of Ju^da were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reu^ben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Ga^d were sealed twelve thousand.

6 Of the tribe of A^ss^er were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Nep^th^alim were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Maⁿas^ses were sealed twelve thousand.

7 Of the tribe of Sim^eon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Le^vi were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Is^sachar were sealed twelve thousand.

8 Of the tribe of Zab^aulon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Jo^seph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Ben^jamin were sealed twelve thousand.

9 After this I beheld, and, lo, ^a great multitude, which no man could number, ^t of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, ^a clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands;

10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, ^t Salvation to our God ^m which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.

11 ^a And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, 12 ^o Saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.

13 And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they?

14 And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, ^a These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have ^a washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

CHAPTER 8.

1 The seventh seal opened. 8 Great plagues.

A seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour.

2 * And I saw the seven angels which stood before God; * and to them were given seven trumpets.

3 And another * angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much * incense, that he should offer it with * the prayers of all saints upon * the golden altar which was before the throne.

4 And * the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the angel's hand.

5 And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it * into the earth: and there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings, and an earthquake.

6 And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

7 The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast * upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea * became blood;

9 And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.

10 And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters;

11 And the name of the star is called Wormwood: * and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 * And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.

13 And I beheld, * and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, * Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabitants of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound!

CHAPTER 9.

The sounding of the 5th angel.

AND the fifth angel sounded, * and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of * the bottomless pit.

2 And he opened the bottomless pit; * and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke * locusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power.

4 And it was commanded them * that they should not hurt * the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree, but only those men which have not * the seal of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, * but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.

6 And in those days * shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 And * the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; * and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, * and their faces were as the faces of men.

8 And they had hair as the hair of women, and * their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

9 And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle.

10 And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five months.

11 * And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Ā-bād'don, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Ā-pōll'yōn.

12 * (One woe is past; and, behold, there come two woes more hereafter.

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God,

Angel with book. Two witnesses prophesy. REVELATION, 10, 11.

14 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound ²in the great river Eū-phra'tēs.

15 And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared ³for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men.

16 And ⁴the number of the army ⁵of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: ⁶and I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone: ⁷and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone.

18 By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.

19 For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: ⁸for their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.

20 And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues ⁹yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship ¹⁰devils, ¹¹and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk:

21 Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

An angel appeareth with a book.

AND I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: ¹and a rainbow was upon his head, and ²his face was as it were the sun, and ³his feet as pillars of fire:

2 And he had in his hand a little book open: ⁴and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth,

3 And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, ⁵seven thunders uttered their voices.

4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, ⁶Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.

5 And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up his hand to heaven,

6 And sware by him that ⁷liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven,

8 And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth.

9 And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, ³Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey.

10 And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

11 And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.

CHAPTER 11.

The two witnesses prophesy.

AND there was given me ¹a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, ²Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

2 But ³the court which is without the temple ⁴leave out, and measure it not; ⁵for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they ⁶tread under foot ⁷forty and two months.

5 And if any man will hurt them, ¹³fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: ¹⁴and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed.

6 These ¹⁵have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and ¹⁶have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will.

9 And they of the people and kindreds and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three days and an half, and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves.

10 And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth.

11 And after three days and an half the Spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them which saw them.

12 And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. And they ascended up to heaven in a cloud; and their enemies beheld them.

13 And the same hour was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain of men seven thousand; and the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven.

14 The second woe is past; and, behold, the third woe cometh quickly.

15 And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever.

16 And the four and twenty elders, which sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God,

CHAPTER 12.

Of the woman clothed with the sun.

AND there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars:

2 And she being with child cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered.

3 And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads.

4 And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth; and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born.

5 And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron. and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne.

6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and threescore days.

7 And there was war in heaven: Mi'chaël and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels,

8 And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven.

9 And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Dêv'il, and Sâ'tan, which deceiveth the whole world. he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.

11 And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony, and they loved not their lives unto the death.

12 Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.

13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child.

14 ^w And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly ^a into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished ^r for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.

15 And the serpent ^a cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.

16 And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth.

17 And the dragon was wroth with the woman, ^a and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have ^b the testimony of Jēsus Christ.

CHAPTER 13.

The beast with seven heads and ten horns

AND I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw ^a a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the ¹ name of blasphemy.

2 ^b And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion; and ^a the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority.

3 And I saw one of his heads as it were ² wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and ^a all the world wondered after the beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, ^a Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?

5 And there was given unto him ^r a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him ^b to continue ^a forty and two months.

6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, ^a and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.

7 And it was given unto him ^t to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations.

8 And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, ^r whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain ^a from the foundation of the world.

^f 2 Cor. 11. 2.

10 ^t He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: ^a he that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword. ^a Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.

11 And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth, and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.

12 And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And ^a he doeth great wonders, ^r so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men,

14 And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth, by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast, saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and ^a did live.

15 And he had power to give ^a life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, ^a and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.

16 And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, ^a to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:

17 And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or ^a the name of the beast, ^a or the number of his name.

18 ^a Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six.

CHAPTER 14.

The fall of Babylon

AND I looked, and, lo, a ^a Lamb stood on the mount Si'ōn, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, ^b having his Father's name written in their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps:

3 And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.

4 These are they which were not defiled with women; ^a for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These ¹were redeemed from among men, ²being the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb.

5 And ³in their mouth was found no guile: for ⁴they are without fault before the throne of God.

6 And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, ⁵having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people,

7 Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: ⁶and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.

8 And there followed another angel, saying, ⁷'Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

9 And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive ⁸his mark in his forehead, or in his hand,

10 The same ⁹shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:

11 And ¹⁰the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.

12 ¹¹Here is the patience of the saints: ¹²here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.

13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, ¹³Blessed are the dead ¹⁴which die in the Lord ¹⁵from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, ¹⁶that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.

14 And I looked, and behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud ¹⁷one sat like unto the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.

15 And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, ¹⁸Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest ¹⁹of the earth is ²⁰ripe.

16 And he that sat on the cloud

17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

18 And another angel came out from the altar, ²¹which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, ²²Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe.

19 And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into ²³the great winepress of the wrath of God.

20 And ²⁴the winepress was trodden ²⁵without the city, and blood came out of the winepress, even unto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand ²⁶and six hundred furlongs.

CHAPTER 15.

The seven angels with the seven plagues.

AND I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, ¹seven angels having the seven last plagues; ²for in them is filled up the wrath of God.

2 And I saw as it were ³a sea of glass ⁴mingled with fire: and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, ⁵and over his image, and over his mark, ⁶and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God.

3 And they sing ⁷the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, ⁸Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; ⁹just and true are thy ways, thou King of ¹⁰saints.

4 ¹¹Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for ¹²thou only art holy: for ¹³all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest.

5 And after that I looked, and, behold, ¹⁴the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened:

6 And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, ¹⁵clothed in pure and white linen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles.

7 ¹⁶And one of the four beasts gave unto the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, who liveth for ever and ever.

8 And ¹⁷the temple was filled with smoke ¹⁸from the glory of God, and from his power; and no man was able to enter into the temple. till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

CHAPTER 16.

The seven angels pour out their vials.

AND I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth.

2 And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which worshipped his image.

3 And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and it became as the blood of a dead man. and every living soul died in the sea.

4 And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters; and they became blood.

5 And I heard the angel of the waters say, Thou art righteous, O Lord, which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged thus.

6 For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy.

7 And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgments.

8 And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun, and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire.

9 And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and they repented not to give him glory.

10 And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain,

11 And blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds

12 And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.

13 And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

14 For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty.

15 Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.

16 And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon.

17 And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done.

18 And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great.

19 And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.

20 And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.

21 And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent: and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

CHAPTER 17.

The woman arrayed in purple and scarlet.

AND there came one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; I will shew unto thee the judgment of the great whore that sitteth upon many waters

2 With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.

4 And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication:

5 And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

REVELATION, 18. Ten horns turn on woman. Fall of Babylon.

6 And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jêsus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

8 The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.

10 And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.

12 And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet, but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

13 These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.

14 These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.

15 And he saith unto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whores sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.

17 For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled.

18 And the woman which thou sawest is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

the earth was lightened with his glory.

2 And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Bâb'y-lon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3 For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

5 For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

6 Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double.

7 How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

9 And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning.

10 Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas that great city Bâb'y-lon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come.

11 And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more:

12 The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble,

14 And the fruits that thy soul lusted after are departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all.

15 The merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,

16 And saying, Alas, alas that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!

17 For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And ^every shipmaster, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off, 18 ^e And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like unto this great city!

19 And ^e they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate.

20 ^e Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for ^e God hath avenged you on her.

21 And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, ^e Thus with violence shall that great city Bāb'y-lon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all.

22 ^e And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee;

23 And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; ^e and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: ^e for thy merchants were the great men of the earth, ^e for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived.

OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, "Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God;

18 That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

19 "And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army.

20 And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. "These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.

21 And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their flesh.

CHAPTER 20.

Satan bound for a thousand years.

AND I saw an angel come down from heaven, "having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand.

2 And he laid hold on "the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Sā'tan, and bound him a thousand years,

3 And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and "set a seal upon him, "that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season.

4 And I saw "thrones, and they sat upon them, and "judgment was given unto them: and I saw "the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jē'sus, and for the word of God, and "which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and "reigned with Christ a thousand years.

5 But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. Thus is the first resurrection.

6 Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such "the second death hath no power, but they shall be "priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years are expired, Sā'tan shall be loosed out of his prison,

8 And shall go out "to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, = Gōg and Mā'gōg, "to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.

9 "And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven and devoured them.

10 And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

11 And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face "the earth and the heaven fled away, "and there was found no place for them.

12 And "I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; "and the books were opened: and another "book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, "according to their works.

13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it, and death and "hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.

14 And "death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

15 And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

CHAPTER 21.

Description of the heavenly Jerusalem.

AND "I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more "sea.

2 And I Jōhn saw "the holy city, now Jē-ry'sā-lēm, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared "as a bride adorned for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, "the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

4 "And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and "there shall be no more death, "neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

5 And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.

6 And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely.

7 He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.

8 But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.

9 And there came unto me one of the seven angels which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, the Lamb's wife.

10 And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God,

11 Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal;

12 And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel:

13 On the east three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates, and on the west three gates.

14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 And he that talked with me had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald;

20 The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprasus; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst.

21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; every several gate was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.

22 And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.

23 And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

24 And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it.

25 And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for there shall be no night there.

26 And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it.

27 And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life.

CHAPTER 22.

The glorious state of God's servants.

AND he shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.

2 In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

3 And there shall be no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him:

4 And they shall see his face; and his name shall be in their foreheads.

5 And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever.

6 And he said unto me, These sayings are faithful and true: and the Lord God of the holy prophets sent his angel to shew unto his servants the things which must shortly be done.

7 Behold, I come quickly: blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book.

8 And I Jōhn saw these things and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel which shewed me these things.

9 Then saith he unto me, See thou do it not. for I am thy fellow-servant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God.

10 And he saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand.

11 He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

12 And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give every man according as his work shall be.

17 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

18 For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book.

19 And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.

GOD'S WORD ON VITAL SUBJECTS

MINISTERS OF THE GOSPEL

ORDINATION:

"The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me; because the LORD hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek: he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound; to proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn."—Isa. 61: 1, 2.

"And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Esaias. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written, The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord"—Luke 4: 17-19.

"And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions: and also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my Spirit."—Joel 2: 28, 29; Acts 2: 16-18.

"Ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, and my servant whom I have chosen; that ye may know and believe me, and understand that I am he: before me there was no God formed, neither shall there be after me. I have declared, and have saved, and I have shewed, when there was no strange god among you: therefore ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, that I am God."—Isa. 43: 10, 12.

"Fear ye not, neither be afraid. have not I told thee from that time, and have declared it? ye are even my witnesses. Is there a God beside me? yea, there is no God; I know not any."—Isa. 44: 8.

ORDINATION (not by sectarian theological schools):

"And it came to pass, that on one of those days, as he taught the people in the temple, and preached the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes came upon him with the elders, and spake unto him, saying, Tell us, by what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority?"—Luke 20: 1, 2; also Matt. 21: 23; Mark 11: 27-29.

"Now about the midst of the feast, Jesus went up into the temple, and taught. And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned? Jesus answered them, and said, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me."—John 7: 14-16.

"Peter and John . . . were unlearned and ignorant men."—Acts 4: 13.

COMMISSION TO PREACH:

"And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations: and then shall the end come"—Matt. 24: 14.

"And the gospel must first be published among all nations."—Mark 13: 10.

"Jesus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead; but go thou and preach the kingdom of God"—Luke 9: 60.

"Even so hath the Lord ordained, that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel. For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!"—1 Cor. 9: 14, 16.

"And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come: and whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely."—Rev. 22: 17.

VITAL SUBJECTS

"Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God."—2 Cor. 5:20.

MANNER OF PREACHING:

"And he said, Go and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not."—Isa. 6:9.

"And he said unto me, Son of man, go, get thee unto the house of Israel, and speak with my words unto them. Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me."—Ezek. 3:4, 17; 33:7.

"And the LORD said unto him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men that sigh, and that cry, for all the abominations that be done in the midst thereof."—Ezek. 9:4.

"And, as ye go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand. And into whatsoever city or town ye shall enter, inquire who in it is worthy; and there abide till ye go thence. And when ye come into an house, salute it. And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it; but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you. And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city, shake off the dust of your feet."—Matt. 10:7, 11-14.

"And he said unto them, Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for therefore came I forth."—Mark 1:38.

"And it came to pass, when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence, to teach and to preach in their cities."—Matt. 11:1.

"And it came to pass afterward, that he went throughout every city and village, preaching and shewing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God: and the twelve were with him."—Luke 8:1.

"And they, continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart, praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved."—Acts 2:46, 47.

"And daily in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jesus Christ."—Acts 5:42.

"And how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publicly, and from house to house, testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ."—Acts 20:20, 21.

"Therefore they that were scattered abroad went every where preaching the word."—Acts 8:4.

OBEDIENCE TO COMMISSION:

"But the LORD said unto me, Say not, I am a child: for thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee, and whatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak. Be not afraid of their faces: for I am with thee to deliver thee, saith the LORD. Thou therefore gird up thy loins, and arise, and speak unto them all that I command thee: be not dismayed at their faces, lest I confound thee before them."—Jer. 1:7, 8, 17.

"But Peter and John answered and said unto them, Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye. For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard. . . . Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant unto thy servants, that with all boldness they may speak thy word."—Acts 4:19, 20, 29.

"Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men. And we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy [Spirit], whom God hath given to them that obey him."—Acts 5:29, 32.

"It shall go down to the bars of SHEOL, when once there is rest in the dust."—Am. Rev. Ver.

INTEGRITY TOWARD THE KINGDOM

"MEDDLE NOT with them; for I will not give you of their land, no, not so much as a footbreadth, because I have given mount Seir unto Esau for a possession. And when thou comest nigh over against the children of Ammon, distress them not, nor meddle with them: for I will not give thee of the land of the children of Ammon any possession; because I have given it unto the children of Lot for a possession."—Deut. 2:5, 19.

"After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Necho king of Egypt came up to fight against Charchemish by Euphrates: and Josiah went out against him. But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, What have I to do with thee, thou king of Judah? I come not against thee this day, but against the house wherewith I have war; for God commanded me to make haste: forbear thee from meddling with God, who is with me, that he destroy thee not."—2 Chron. 35:20, 21.

"But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you. Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom."—Luke 12:31, 32.

"Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence."—John 18:36.

"If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you."—John 15:19.

"I have given them thy word; and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world."—John 17:14, 16.

"For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places. Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake."—Matt. 24:7, 9.

"Why do the nations rage, and the peoples meditate a vain thing? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against Jehovah, and against his anointed, saying, Let us break their bonds asunder, and cast away their cords from us."—Ps. 2:1-3, Am. Rev. Ver.

VITAL SUBJECTS

"The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God."—Ps. 9:17.

"Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed: for in the image of God made he man. And the bow shall be in the cloud; and I will look upon it, that I may remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is upon the earth."—Gen. 9:6, 16.

"The earth also is defiled under the inhabitants thereof, because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting covenant."—Isa. 24:5.

"And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness."—1 John 5:19.

"Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me."—John 14:30.

"Saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which art, and wast, an' art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned. And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come."—Rev. 11:17, 18.

"And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God."—Rom. 12:2.

"For our citizenship is in heaven; whence also we wait for a Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ."—Phil. 3:20, Am. Rev. Ver.

"Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier."—2 Tim. 2:3, 4.

"For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh: (for the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;) casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ."—2 Cor. 10:3-5.

"And I looked, and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Be not ye afraid of them: remember the Lord which is great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses."—Neh. 4:14.

"But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren? And he stretched forth his hand toward his disciples, and said, Behold my mother, and my brethren! For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother."—Matt. 12:48-50.

"If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye are dead and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory."—Col. 3:1-4.

"Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul; having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, whereas they speak against you as evil doers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation."—1 Pet. 2:11, 12.

"For the worship that is pure and holy before God the Father, is this: to visit the fatherless and the widows in their affliction, and that one keep himself unspotted from the world."—Jas. 1:27, translation from the Syriac by Murdock.

"Come near, ye nations, to hear; and hearken, ye people; let the earth hear, and all that is therein: the world, and all things that come forth of it. For the indignation of the Lord is upon all nations, and his fury upon all their armies: he hath utterly destroyed them, he hath delivered them to the slaughter."—Isa. 34: 1, 2.

"But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light."—1 Pet. 2: 9.

"Blessed is the nation whose God is Jehovah, the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance."—Ps. 33: 12, Am. Rev. Ver.

BLESSINGS OF THE KINGDOM RULE

"After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father, which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven."—Matt. 6: 9, 10.

"For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given, and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice, from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this."—Isa. 9: 6, 7.

"Glory to God in the highest; and on earth peace to men of good will."—Luke 2: 14, Douay.

"Behold, a king shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in judgment. Then judgment shall dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness remain in the fruitful field. And the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness, quietness and assurance for ever. And my people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting places."—Isa. 32: 1, 16-18.

"Give the king thy judgments, O God, and thy righteousness unto the king's son. He shall judge the poor of the people, he shall save the children of the needy, and shall break in pieces the oppressor. In his days shall the righteous flourish; and abundance of peace so long as the moon endureth. He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, and from the river unto the ends of the earth."—Ps. 72: 1, 4, 7, 8.

"Then shall the earth yield her increase; and God, even our own God shall bless us. God shall bless us; and all the ends of the earth shall fear him."—Ps. 67: 6, 7.

"Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations. Thou openest thine hand, and satisfiest the desire of every living thing."—Ps. 145: 13, 16.

"And in this mountain shall the LORD of hosts make unto all people a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees, of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the lees well refined. And he will destroy in this mountain the face of the covering cast over all people, and the vail that is spread over all nations. He will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord God will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for the LORD hath spoken it."—Isa. 25: 6-8.

"The wolf also shall dwell with the Lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf, and the young lion, and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them. And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down together: and the lion shall eat straw like the ox. And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice' den. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea."—Isa. 11: 6-9.

"Seek ye the LORD, all ye meek of the earth, which have wrought his judgment; seek righteousness, seek meekness: it may be ye shall be hid in the day of the LORD'S anger."—Zeph. 2: 3.

VITAL SUBJECTS

"Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death."—John 8:51.

"Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die."—John 11:25, 26.

"There shall be no more thence an infant of days, nor an old man that hath not filled his days: for the child shall die an hundred years old; but the sinner, being an hundred years old, shall be accursed. . . . And they shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: for as the days of a tree are the days of my people, and mine elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands. They shall not labour in vain, nor bring forth for trouble: for they are the seed of the blessed of the LORD, and their offspring with them."—Isa. 65:20-23.

"And he gave him authority to execute judgment, because he is a son of man. Marvel not at this: for the hour cometh, in which all that are in the tombs shall hear his voice, and shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of judgment."—John 5:27-29, Am. Rev. Ver.

"For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet. The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death."—1 Cor. 15:25, 26.

"Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness."—2 Pet. 3:13.

"And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away."—Rev. 21:1, 4.

"For the upright shall dwell in the land, and the perfect shall remain in it. But the wicked shall be cut off from the earth, and the transgressors shall be rooted out of it."—Prov. 2:21, 22.

"The righteous shall never be removed: but the wicked shall not inhabit the earth."—Prov. 10:30.

"When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice."—Prov. 29:2.

STANDARD OF CHRISTIANS

"And the LORD spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying, Every man of the children of Israel shall pitch by his own standard, with the ensign of their father's house: far off about the tabernacle of the congregation shall they pitch." "Then the tabernacle of the congregation shall set forward with the camp of the Levites in the midst of the camp; as they encamp, so shall they set forward, every man in his place by their standards."—Num. 2:1, 2, 17.

"Thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them: for I the LORD thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me."—Deut. 5:9.

"We will rejoice in thy salvation, and in the name of our God we will set up our banners: the LORD fulfill all thy petitions."—Ps. 20:5.

"Thou hast given a banner to them that fear thee, that it may be displayed because of the truth. Selah."—Ps. 60:4.

"He brought me to the banquetting house, and his banner over me was love."—Song of Solomon 2:4.

"Thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I will lift up mine hand to the Gentiles, and set up my standard to the people: and they shall bring thy sons in their arms, and thy daughters shall be carried upon their shoulders. And kings shall be thy nursing fathers."—Isa. 49:22, 23.

"Go through, go through the gates; prepare ye the way of the people; cast up, cast up the highway; gather out the stones; lift up a standard for the people."—Isa. 62:10.
